

WHY PRECIOUS STONES? To be properly designated as a precious stone a mineral must possess a certain number of definite properties which are rarely found associated in the same specimen.

CATARRH VANISHES

Here is One Treatment That All Sufferers Can Rely Upon

If you want to drive catarrh and all its disgusting symptoms from your system in the shortest possible time, go to your druggist and ask for a Hyomei outfit to-day.

Breathe the air of Hyomei and let it rid you of catarrh and chronic head colds; it gives such quick relief that all who use it for the first time are astonished.

Hyomei is a pure pleasant antiseptic, which is breathed through the nose and throat deep into the head and lungs; it soothes the sore inflamed membranes, reduces swelling and quickly heals all inflammation.

Don't suffer another day with catarrh; the disease is dangerous and often ends in consumption. Start the Hyomei treatment to-day. No stomach dosing, no sprays, or douches, no dangerous drugs or narcotics. Absolutely harmless. Just breathe it—that's all. At H. C. Kennedy and leading druggists everywhere.

that is, quite unclouded. Furthermore, it must possess great brilliance or a "beautiful play of light." These qualities directly depend on the optical characteristics of the mineral in question, and particularly on its refractive power and on what is called, in optical physics, "dispersion."

As the term indicates, this property consists in the ability to disperse the various rays of light, so that they exhibit all the colors of the spectrum on issuing from the gem.

This latter property is possessed by the diamond in the highest degree. Finally, precious stones must naturally be hard, i. e., very resistant to friction; in this case they will preserve indefinitely their fire, their luster and their polish.—Scientific American.

JOHN FAILED AS PROPHET COLLEGE PROFESSOR INSISTS

Dr. Shirley J. Case, Professor at University of Chicago, Declares Revelation Is Dream That Did Not Come True

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Dr. Shirley J. Case, professor of early church history and New Testament interpretation in the University of Chicago, has dropped a bombshell among orthodox churchmen and theologians of the country.

In "The Revelation of John," his new volume published by the University of Chicago Press, Dr. Case declares that John was a failure as a prophet and that Revelation is a dream that did not come true and has no application to the present or future.

John prophesied merely the downfall of the Roman empire, according to Dr. Case. John had been moved to righteous wrath by the

Signs Of Disease

The First Signs of Disease are a Poor Complexion, Weakness, Emaciation and Lack of Vitality.

The first sign of returning health is increase of flesh, strength and vigor. Body weakness, emaciation and lack of vitality simply means that certain substances like iron, which go to make up the blood and nerves, have become exhausted; and to renew flesh, muscle and strength, the iron must be restored.

persecution of the early Christians under Nero, Caligula, Domitian and his apocalyptic vision of the overthrow of the imperial state was a sort of imaginative revenge. He believed that prophecies would be fulfilled in the century following his own time. But it was not fulfilled until several centuries later and then in a way entirely different from what John had predicted.

This new view is contrary to the accepted belief of orthodox church people who still hold to the doctrine of the literal divine inspiration of the Bible. They believe John's prophecies foretold the end of the world and are yet to be fulfilled. "I think to-day," said Dr. Case, "that part of the unrest over the globe, the inability of millions of people to settle back into their old orderly pursuits and their seeking after spiritualism and new sources of consolation are due to the recurrence of the old haunting despair of the human soul to which the term premillennialism has been applied."

Pre-millennialism is based on the admission that nothing is of any use after all. I believe if this old bogey could be forever laid, if not only ignorant people but millions of earnest and devout men and women could put this evil dream out of their minds, it would have a world-wide quieting effect. Fear of the end of the world in the last 2,000 years has been based on John's prophecies entirely and has been a palsy on the human spirit.

John may be called the bolshevik of his time. He was a puritan-pessimist. Despairing of any relief from the persecutions of the emperors for his fellow Christians, he hurled his prophecy of destruction at the Roman state. If the old iconoclast had dared, he probably would have written his symbolical diatribe plainly enough for all men to understand and in that case, later churchmen would never have misinterpreted it as a prophecy of the end of the world to be fulfilled some time in the vague future.

Penn State Alumni Plan Scholarship Memorial Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 28.—Rules governing award of the two scholarships, established to perpetuate the memory of "Red" Behout and Levi Lamb, former Penn State gridiron stars who were killed in battle in France, were announced here by the Pennsylvania State College Alumni Association, at a meeting here raised a fund of $10,000 with which to endow the scholarships.

According to announcement the scholarships will be awarded to athletes with scholastic credits who are unable to pay their way through college. A committee of five former Penn State students will name successful candidates for the scholarships. Behout was killed in the battle of the Argonne while Lamb came to a death fighting in France as a Marine.

BAR PENN STAR Benn Derr, Penn's veteran left half-back, was barred from the Cornell game for professionalism. The action was taken after the Penn authorities learned that Derr, the South Dakota, had been out in Ohio last Sunday playing with one of the professional teams at Akron. Cornell did not know of the charge, and Penn's action was voluntary. Pard Peace was also declared ineligible for yesterday's game, his trouble being studied. It was supposed to be Derr's last game at Penn.

TENDLER SCORES KNOCKOUT Philadelphia, Nov. 28.—Law Tandler, of Philadelphia, knocked out Johnny Noye, of St. Paul, in the second round here to-day. Tandler caught Noye with a left hook to the right eye. Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, and Soldier Barfield, of Brooklyn, battled to a draw. There was little action, neither fighter showing at his best. Willie Jackson, of New York, won a closely contested battle from Pal Moran, of New Orleans.

BIG PRICES FOR HORSES By Associated Press. The 1919 Old Glory auction at Madison Square Garden closed to-day with the season's sale record of $8,000 paid for a three-year-old stallion Ortolan Axworthy, bought him from Wilbur J. Myers, of Springfield, Ohio. A total of $8 trotters was sold during the day for $15,550, the average being the best for any Old Glory closing day in the last fifteen years.

State Papers Put Prices Up to Meet High Cost of Living

Pittsfield, Pa., Nov. 28.—The Pittsfield Herald, a morning paper, in announcing an increase in subscription price to 15 cents a week, effective December 1, says in a statement that the "Herald must as a matter of self-preservation, inaugurate an immediate advance in subscription and advertising rates."

During the last four years, the announcement continues, the "oil producer has received an increase in the price of crude oil from $1.00 to $1.50 a barrel and the farmer has seen butter go from 35 cents to 45 cents a pound, potatoes from 40 cents to $3 a bushel, eggs from 20 cents to 25 cents a dozen and hay from $10 to $20 a ton."

McCoy Hall, of Johns Hopkins University, Destroyed by Fire

Baltimore, Nov. 28.—McCoy Hall, belonging to the Johns Hopkins University, and one of the group of buildings formerly occupied by the university before its removal to the new building at Homewood in the northern part of the city was burned late last night.

During the war, the hall, which is a large brick building, and cost upwards of $20,000, was occupied by welfare work organizations, Boy Scouts and other organizations, and of late has been given over to charity work. Levering Hall and the old chemical laboratory and other buildings were in danger for a time, but soon after midnight the fire was under control.

MEADVILLE PAPER RAISES PRICES Meadville, Pa., Nov. 28.—The Tribune-Republican, Meadville's only daily newspaper, has announced an increase in price from 2 cents to 3 cents a copy. The reason given by the publisher is the "high cost of newsprint paper and other materials."

Influenza Dangers Easily Avoided by Liberal Use of Dash Balm

The danger of a recurrence of the influenza epidemic of last year is by no means small.

Be on your guard. Influenza is only possible by entrance through nose and mouth of vicious influenza germs.

Keep a jar of Dash Balm handy. It not only wards off influenza, but also relieves severe catarrhal conditions of the nose and throat.

Insist on having Dash Balm and nothing else. Jars only, price 25 cents at Geo. A. Gargas, Allan J. Dash Co., Mfg. Chemists, Olean, N. Y.

OUR WILD WEST "Well," said the Far West mayor to the English tourist, "I dunno how you manage these affairs in your country, but over here when some of our boys got tied up in that bankrupt telephone company I was telling yer about they became mighty crusty."

"Oh!" "Yes, they didn't like the way the receiver was handlin' the business now."

"Indeed!" commented the earnest listener. "Then may I ask what they did?" "Sartinly; I was goin' to tell yer. They just hung up the receiver."—London Tit-Bits.
