THE INEANT DRUMMER .-- We were deligated yesterday with a call from the Infant Drummer, and found him, as we had seen him described, "the Little, simple, affectionate, mother-loving, boy baby that you would look for in a mere infant." He is now not quite four years and three months old, having been born on the 25th February, 1849 --His appearance confirms the statement of his parents, whose respectability is unquestioned. Mr. and Mrs. Excursit have judged correctly in thinking it perfectly proper to gratify the curiosity of the million, and to make that curiosity a matter of pecuniary value to their boy, by exhibiting his wonderful power to public view. The child has now been taken to several sections of the Union, and has probably drawn out more expressions of admiration and delight from all classes of visitors than have been accorded in the same time to any other spectacle whatsoever. None are more charmed with him than these who are best entitled to rank with the most cultivated and refined in the community. He had with him when he called on us two of the numerous presents he had received -- a beautiful gold watch seal, the present of HENRY CLAY, and a large and valuable gold medal, the present of the Mayor and Aldermen of Macon, Georgia.

We have great pleasure in expressing our own pleasure on hearing the wonderful performances of this extraordinary child on the drum, and assuring our readers they will experience as much delight as surprise from an attendance on his concerts. emergency. They are to be continued, we believe, for a few nights this week, at Odd Fellows' Hall.

OTA writer in the Journal of the London Horticultural Society, gives an account of an Orange tree in the Island of St. Michael's that produced twenty large boxes of oranges, each box containing apwards of one thousand oranges, from one tree! It must certainly have presented a fine appearance when loaded with such a crop. The writer states that the largest tree which he measured was thirty feet high, and seven feet in circumfer-cace at the base. Two hundred thousand boxes are annually exported from the Island.

OT The case of the Tammany Hall Rioters," who assaulted Augustus Schell and others on the 2d of last December, has been brought before the Supreme Court of New York. The Court of General Sessions having convicted them, they appealed. After hearing the argument of Ms. Cochran the Court affirmed the judgment of the Court of Sessions, without hearing the other side.

To Tue Gras.-Here is a paragraph of plain talk to gitls which is worth a library of young Lady's books or Young Ladies' Friends, or whatever may be the title of the Wishy-washy compends that are sold for the benefit of that interesting portion of the community :

"Men who are worth having, want women for wives. A bundle of gew-graw, bound with a string of thats and quavers, sprinkled with eologue and set in a carmine saucer—this is no help for a man who expects to raise a family of boys on veritable bread and meat. The piano and lace frame are good in their places, and so are ribbons, frills, and tinsels, but you cannot make dinner of the for uner nora bed-blanket of the latter. And awful as the idea may seem to you, both dinner and bed blanket are necessary to domestic happiness. Life has its realities, as well as fancies, but you make it all a matter of decoration, remembering the tassels and curtains but forgetting the bedstead. Suppose a man of good sense, and, of course good prosprets, to be looking for a wife, what chance have trap, or estel him, but how much better to make it an object for him to catch you. Render yourself worth catching, and you will need no shrewd mether or brothers to help you find a market.

SINGULAR PRESENTIMEST .- It is stated in the New York papers that Dr. Josian Bartlett, of New Hampshire, one of the victims of the recent accident, was visited a few weeks ego at his residence by a friend, who invited him to spend a few days in New York, at the then approaching Medical Convention. Dr. B. replied that it would afford him much pleasure to spend some time in the city, but that he had great apprehension of danger in traveling to and fro, augmented by the fact that a woss. when he last visited New York, he had engaged his passage in the steamer Lexington, for the fatal trip on which she was burned, when almost every passenger perished, but did not reach the wharf in season to get on board. He subsequent'y overcame his reluctance to travel, attended the Convention in that city, and met with the fale he

The public are cautioned against another counterfeit, which has lately made its appearance called W. L. Thankful for the liberal share of patrocage heretofore, a cartinuance of the sume is respectfully solicited.

J. D. MARCH & SON. THE DISGRACE OF THE FAMILY!

BOOK with the above title has been published and may He obtained at Berry's, Tosas's, or York's Book Store, and it said to be a most inferralining work.

But there is one quieston that detracts from its merits, and that is, that the author does not mention, the disgrace which inevitably be fails the family along member of it should suffer from THE MUMPS, wall for now so provalent, SORE THEOATS, CUTS or BUKNS, and find themselves without a boar of the inextinable. Grefenberg Green Mountain Ointment. Which acts with a charm upon all Sores, Swellings, Pains who Back, Chest, Side, or Information of the Bowels, and in the Back, Chest, Side, or Inflamation of the Lowels, and is a more prompt and efficient coather of Pain than any other new before the public.

The fatal omission alluded to above, in this late work written by young Irganon, can only be accounted for by the fact, that he has been only lately married, and therefore cannot be supposed to have cut his wisdom teeth in this respect. When he visits this country I intend to present him with a box of this ointment, which ought to be always on hand in every familty where there are children, as it affords instance, relief from pain, and when applied to fresh Burns or Scalds, there need be little apprehension of a scar being left.

Price only 25 cents per box, and is for sale by every Druggis in town and country.
