The Fall Meeting over the Nashville Course commenced vesterday, with a stake for three year olds, $100 entrance - mile heats-four entries; and a Proprietor's Purse of $100-mile heats-two entries. The first was gallope I for by ROUNDTREE & DESCRIPTION S fine Emue colt, John P. Power-the other three having paid forfeit. The latter was won by Mr. Boad's Sovereign colt, Ed. Gloscock, in two straight heats. The betting in this race was pretty nearly equal, perhaps Ed. had the call slightly; and though he won the first heat, it was so well contended for by Lizzy McLaughlin that her friends stood up to her with all the firmness they had exhibited at the start. However, in the second heat the long strides of the gallant Ed. proved too much for her. This heat was won with apparent lead the way to the head of the home stretch. As the time would indicate, the race was not a good one. It is due to the horses to say that the track was remarkably heavy-rendered so from The day was remarkably fine, yet the attend-ease, notwithstanding the filly was permitted to ance was not good-why, we shall not undertake to say : Mr. Alderson is an old and well known Proprietor, he perhaps might guess. For our part, we shall continue to attend and report the proceedings twithstanding we do it at a cost that courtesy at least requires we should not be subjected to,

Before adding a summary, we must make known, what we have heretofore omitted, that the promising colt, John P. Power, was bred by Dr. John Shelsy, of Nashville, who is at this time principal owner of him, his dam, Liloc, and many other fine blooded horses, amongst which may be named Ocphan Boy and Let Me Go. The latter, it will be remembered, won the mile and repeat day upon the Walnut Course last week; and the former was beaten by the invincible Invincible, in the first heat by his swerving several times across the track, and in the second, possibly, by his failing to run kindly. To say the least of it, he acquitted himself very honorably in the contest. NASHUMEE COURSE -- Jockey Club Races -- First Day, Tuesday, Sept. 26 .- Sweepstake for untried three year olds,-$100 Entrance, $50 forfeit,-Mile
