

RICHARD HARDY TELLS WOMEN TO ECONOMIZE

Wideawake Organization Reports Varied Activities—Mrs. F. L. Underwood Presides.

"Don't pay high prices for shoes; don't buy expensive hats; cut out candy and soft drinks," said Mr. Richard Hardy Tuesday afternoon in a lecture on "Thrift" before the Chattanooga Woman's club in regular meeting assembled in the courthouse auditorium.

Moreover, Mr. Hardy said, he does not care whose business he opposes, if that business stands in opposition to the successful prosecution of the war with Germany and the comfort and well-being of the soldier boys engaged therein.

Speaking to the Woman's club concerning extravagance and the curtailing of a lot of things perfectly proper in normal times, he said that one of the first steps in the thrift campaign for women will be to oppose the sale of expensive footwear by purchasing low-topped shoes and long skirts.

In reference to the conservation of sugar, Mr. Hardy stated that this country is using just three times as much sugar as the allied nations and, moreover, spends more than $300,000,000 for candy alone each year.

As this country may need five million boys at the front instead of one million, the necessity for beginning the conservation of all things necessary to their well-being here and now should be obvious. Every one, accordingly, can save butter and sugar and buy thrift stamps even if unable to purchase liberty bonds. Everybody in reasonably comfortable circumstances should be able to save $100 a year.

"One should have patriotism of action now. Act and act hard. Do something to help those boys at the front," he said, "who are protecting your lives, to say nothing of your property."

The Business Session. Following Mr. Hardy's address, Mrs. F. L. Underwood, president, conducted an interesting business session devoted to report of work accomplished and consideration of new activities.

Regimental work done by the various departments of Red Cross, soldiers' relief, etc., occupied most of the time, the reports showing a high degree of activity.

The Christmas treat for the soldiers of the club's adopted regiment was told of in a most entertaining manner by Mrs. Underwood and Mrs. Mary Giles Howard.

Mrs. Y. L. Abernathy, of the conservation department, announced an address to be given next Friday by Miss A. Marie Macpherson. She read a letter from Mrs. J. B. Lauderbach, thanking the club for a gift of money for rural work.

Mrs. W. F. Longley, of the literary department, reported an interesting meeting of her department to be held Jan. 17, when the study of social evolution will be considered.

Mrs. D. A. Graves, of the music department, announced an entertainment for soldiers to be given Feb. 17 by her committee.

Mrs. C. W. Lottin reported the Red Cross work.

Mrs. E. Fenton Moore announced an important meeting of the Story Tellers Thursday.

Reports were made by Mesdames Harry Stoops, H. F. Bearden, M. B. Hoyal, David Curtis and Earl Cooke.

Mrs. Sherman Sanders, of the legislative committee, presented a resolution to be sent to congress praying for the passage of a law making sedition and all forms of disloyalty to the United States government punishable offenses.

Through motion of Mrs. T. C. Bettoner $30 was donated to buy wool for knitting sweaters for the soldiers, Mrs. Davis' committee having reported the completion of thirty-one sweaters by her department.

Report was made that 115 soldiers were entertained by club members on Hospitality day.

JEANNETTE RANKIN'S SUFFRAGE MESSAGE TO WOMEN OF AMERICA

Representative in congress from the state of Montana. (Copyrighted, 1918, by the Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

Washington, D. C.—The immediate work for all woman citizens of the United States is to go to the men, the voters of their respective districts, not forgetting the political leaders, and strongly urge them to telegraph their congressmen to vote yes on the federal suffrage amendment on Jan. 10.

If American women are to be helped to enfranchisement by federal action, the Susan B. Anthony amendment must receive two-thirds majority of the votes of congress; and although there is a good favorable majority now, one absent vote may lose a battle in the fight for democracy in this country that has been going on for the last seventy years.

The women feel that an overwhelming majority is now due them, and while the appeals of voteless women have proved futile for more than half a century, we may look for a respectful response to appeals wired by the voters of the country.

ers or to those who would spread discouragement. Silence them. Be moderate in your spending. Encourage national industries. Do not look upon the departure to the front of those dear to you as an abandonment.

Do not complain of the difficulties, annoyances and privations caused by the war.

Multiply your activities. Exhibit day by day and hour by hour the same courage a man shows upon the field of battle.

No matter how long the struggle may last, await victory with strength and patience.

If you are stricken in your dearest affections, bear your sorrow nobly.
