

MRS. T. H. MCCLURE PRESIDENT JUNIOR LEAGUE

League Will Enlarge Work and Give More Personal Time to Charities.

With the initial sessions of the 1918 clubs, the annual election of officers has been held.

The Junior League met Thursday morning at the Y. W. C. A. and elected their officers for the ensuing year, as follows:

Mrs. T. H. McClure, president. Miss Louise Llewellyn, vice-president. Mrs. J. Conn Guild, secretary.

Miss Patty Martin, treasurer. Mrs. C. C. Nottingham, Mrs. Deadrick Moon, Mrs. Joseph Brown, Mrs. J. F. Finlay and Mrs. B. F. Thomas were elected new members of the executive board.

In a resume of the past year's work, the fact was brought out that the league had made $2,000, that the beneficiary charities were the Vine Street orphanage, Florence Crittenton home, Girl's home and Bonny Oaks, besides assisting in the Christmas campaign for Red Cross members and furnishing 800 comfort bags for the local Red Cross association.

Plans for the work of 1918 will be outlined at a meeting of the executive board to be held Saturday afternoon with Mrs. T. H. McClure.

Another service proposed by Mrs. Joseph Brown, who has been an active worker in the Florence Crittenton home, was rescue work here among the younger girls.

It was decided that more personal service would be given the charities, along with the money which the league contributes.

Various branches of the work will be enlarged and help will be given wherever needed, in accordance with the money they expect to raise.

STREET FROCK IS SMART AND SIMPLE

With the initial sessions of the 1918 clubs, the annual election of officers has been held.

(By Betty Brown.)

New York.—The special charm of this street frock is its conformity to the straight, slender lines of the season and its dependence upon good cut and fine material for its effectiveness. Navy blue satin is utilized for the foundation, which is little more than a straight slip, and plaid silk in deep rich blues and greens, with a touch of light yellow, forms the surplice, which falls in straight pleats, front and back, to within six inches of the hem. A sash of the plain blue tied at the back is the only break in the gown's severity.

PASTOR'S AID SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS

The Pastor's Aid society of the Third Presbyterian church met with Mrs. Herbert Bushnell Monday afternoon. Mrs. E. Fenton Moore gave a splendid interpretative Bible reading and others joined in the devotional exercises.

Interesting reports from the different committees showed that much work had been accomplished both for the church and the soldiers.

The annual election of officers was held, resulting as follows: Mrs. Herbert Bushnell, president; Mrs. Robert E. Porter, first vice-president; Mrs. W. H. Harrison, second vice-president; Mrs. A. C. Forest, third vice-president; Mrs. W. F. Hetzler, treasurer; Mrs. F. C. Fickard, secretary; Mrs. W. G. Hartley, press representative.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

FIRST WOMAN PRESIDENT OF SCHOOL BOARD IN STATE

Honor Goes to Knoxville, Who Elected Mrs. Charles A. Perkins This Week.

To Knoxville goes the honor of having elected the first woman president of a board of education in the state of Tennessee, and possibly in the United States.

Mrs. Charles A. Perkins, a progressive woman educator, who in December, 1915, became the first woman member of the Knoxville board of education, was unanimously elected president of that body at a meeting held Tuesday night at the Knoxville City High school.

Mrs. Perkins is well known in Chattanooga, having attended many educational conventions and conferences here. She will be remembered as being here during the State Federation of Women's Clubs last year. She has been a resident of Knoxville for twenty-six years, and has been a pioneer in progressive educational work since her girlhood days in Connecticut.

Upon graduating from a preparatory academy in her home town at Danielson, she, with three other young ladies, took advantage of an opening to women of Wesleyan university, Middletown, Conn., the oldest Methodist institution of learning in the country, where she successfully completed the course and was one of the first four women to receive the degree of B. A. in New England.

Mrs. Perkins served as dean of the women's department of the University of Tennessee from 1912 to 1916 and recognition of her active educational work and the progressive ideas as advanced by her and adopted in the schools, Knoxville in December, 1915, elected her a member of the board of education.

Chattanooga is not far behind, since it now has two able women as members of its board of education.

STORY TELLERS MEET WITH MRS. BONNEY

Department Decides to Collect School Books for Fort Oglethorpe.

The Story Tellers' department held a very instructive and entertaining meeting Thursday afternoon with Mrs. H. B. Bonney of Market street. Among the stories told was "A Man Without a Country," by Mrs. H. H. Embrey; "The Giffin of Tennessee," Mrs. E. Fenton Moore, and a little French story, "The Last Lesson in French," by Mrs. Boyd Hargrave.

Mrs. F. I. Underwood, president of the Woman's club, was present and gave a report of the hospital work done by the club at Fort Oglethorpe.

The members decided to collect schoolbooks for the soldiers at the army post. Twelve members were present. The next meeting will be held Feb. 7, with Mrs. H. H. Embrey.

The annual church meeting of the Pilgrim Congregational church, announced to be held tonight, has been postponed until Friday night of next week, on account of the weather.

SUFFRAGE VICTORY CAUSES LOCAL VOTARIES TO REJOICE

What Some Prominent Members of Local Association Think of Federal Amendment.

Chattanooga women are jubilant over yesterday's suffrage victory. "It is emphatically the only way in which suffrage will ever win out in this state," said Mrs. George F. Milton, vice-president of the Tennessee Woman's Suffrage association, to a News representative this morning. "I am confident also that Tennessee will be the first southern state to ratify the amendment, for you see, we lost by only three votes in the senate when the question came up for action by the state legislature last year.

"A coincidence appears in the fact that the house of commons in Great Britain has also passed a suffrage bill which is now before the house of lords and will pass that house in a few days. It is now a race between England and the United States to see which country will become the first full democracy."

Miss Ernestine Noa, president of the Chattanooga Equal Suffrage association, said she expected the victory which was made almost sure by the endorsement of President Wilson.

Mrs. John Lamar Meek says she wonders if delegates who happen to be on the wrong side of the question are not sorry now. "We must do all we can," she said, "to try to educate all our representatives in state and nation. It would not be a bad idea," she said, "to have a delegate from our prospective candidate, Senator Shields, that his possible opponent, Gen. Cates, is an avowed suffragist. I noticed in summing up the attitude of our legislature that the most cultured members were with us on the suffrage question, to a man."

Mrs. Frances Fort Brown expressed much satisfaction at the passage of the amendment which she said is only in line with the progress of the rest of the world. "Like all good work, suffrage, she said, must go along educational lines, as never before.

Mrs. Samuel Boswell Smith, of Signal mountain, expressed pleasure at the passage of the amendment. "The women are expecting Judge Moon to take a position in favor of Tennessee ratifying the amendment, now that congress has put it up to the states.

J. B. F. Lowry, vice-president of the Men's Equal Suffrage association, expressed his pleasure at the passage of the amendment and is confident of favorable action by the senate. "The only real embarrassment," he said, "is over the attitude of some of our southern congressmen. While I am glad that many of them were progressive enough to register the affirmative vote, there were entirely too many who voted against the bill."

Speaking of the possible ratification by the state legislature next summer, Mr. Lowry believes much work needs to be done among the legislative delegations, and does not think it will be entirely smooth sailing to secure the vote in the senate without considerable effort, even though the body came so nearly passing a suffrage bill a year or so ago. However, the period between now and then will, Mr. Lowry believes, afford opportunity for both suffrage organizations to put a strong legislative campaign among prospective representatives.

REMOVES ALL DANDRUFF La Creole Does This, Beautifies Your Hair, Grows New Hair, Darkens Gray Hair. Dandruff, or little scales of dust from the scalp and hair, causes grayness, falling of the hair and baldness. Most so-called hair tonics are too simple or not strong enough to cleanse the scalp and hair of dandruff, and that's why you have been disappointed. But La Creole is different. Apply it freely to hair and scalp and the scales or dandruff will fall from your hair and scalp in a perfect shower, and after drying your hair your head will feel fine and dandy and your scalp will be clean. Besides, if your hair is prematurely gray or has a tendency to grayness, La Creole will darken it naturally and cause thin hair to grow thick and fast.
