NO FURLONGS FOR SAMMIES TO PLAY BALL Boston, Feb. 2.—The Boston National league baseball club tonight announced that it would not sanction the playing on the team of any members now in the army or navy who might succeed in obtaining furloughs. "The owners of the Braves," the announcement says, "believe that baseball has its place today, as ever, and that the public needs and desires that relaxation found in clean sport, but they do not believe that the strength of our fighting boys should be permitted to be weakened one iota because of baseball."

Two of the team's best players are in service. "Frank" Gowdy is in France with the army and "Rabbit" Maranville is in the navy.
