MYER IS PROUD OF TENNESSEE

Proud of Great Patriotic and Spiritual Awakening in State Within Last Few Weeks.

W. E. Myer, United States fuel administrator for Tennessee, has been engaged for some time in getting reports from patriotic meetings held in various county seats, and so great has been his appreciation of the good work being done, he has issued to the people of the state an address, of which the following is the text: "To the People of Tennessee: I have been busy in getting reports from the patriotic meetings held in the various county seats of the state on Monday. These reports show that the last two weeks have seen a patriotic awakening has taken place in Tennessee. "In a large majority of the counties the people have become anxious to learn more about the causes of the war, and why it was vitally necessary for this nation to take part in the great struggle. "The Awakened Soul of Tennessee. "Along with this patriotic awakening has been a great spiritual awakening. The soul of Tennessee has been aroused. Speakers sent to various points in the state report audiences eager to learn the facts and anxious to help in every possible way. "The mind of the state is showing a praiseworthy zeal. "In some of the counties where it was thought the apathy was greatest, so much interest was shown that it was necessary for the speakers to deliver addresses to two separate audiences in the same town. "An instance of this was at La Fayette, in Macon county. Addresses were given by Hon. Lee Brock and Rev. Cary Morgan. The crowd was so large all of them could not gain admittance to the courtroom. After speeches had been made to an audience that filled the courtroom to capacity, the room was emptied and a fresh audience admitted, and the speeches delivered again. "At Ashland City, Cheatham county, I had the privilege of addressing one of the most attentive audiences before whom I have been my good fortune to appear. The crowd was so large that the large courtroom could not hold them all. It was a crowd of earnest men and women met together to consider the grave situation of their country. Each person had been armed with a copy of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic." "As they listened to the plain, honest story of the many causes leading up to the present crisis, they recounted the story of the unutterable barbarities of the Hun, tears ran down the cheeks of many. There was everywhere shown a determination to quash the Hun, and to fight this war to a successful ending. "At the conclusion of the talk the fathers and mothers who had given sons to fight for their country were asked to rise. There in the presence of their fellow-citizens, they were publicly thanked in behalf of the president of the United States and the people of Tennessee for their noble sacrifices made by their sons for humanity and freedom. "I am proud of my Tennessee. "The spirit of Valley Forge and New Orleans once more stirs our people. "W. E. MYER. "U. S. Fuel Administrator for Tennessee. "Nashville, April 2, 1918."

Trustees of Erlanger Find it Necessary to Raise Rates. May Build Annex.

The high cost of sickness was thoroughly aired and ways and means to reduce the same were adopted at a meeting held Wednesday night at Erlanger hospital by the trustees and the medical staff. As a result of the meeting the rates at the hospital were increased. Rooms which heretofore rented for $18 will now be $20, $21 rooms will be $25, $25 rooms will be $30, and the operating room, which has before been rented for surgical operations for $5, will now be $10. The trustees of the institution are G. M. Preston, Z. C. Patten, Jr., Marrow, Chamberlain and H. H. Eager. A full membership was present. Another phase of the institution which was discussed was the plan for the building of an annex or another new building, or the enlarging of the present quarters in order to accommodate the large number of patients at the institution and the number that are daily turned away. The authorities at the hospital stated that there is not a single day that from one to five patients are refused admission because they cannot be accommodated. One of the trustees stated Thursday that there are now at the hospital as government charges over twenty women who have been sent there as the result of being diseased. He said there should be a separate place prepared for women of this character and they should not be near an institution where there are numbers of sick people who are exposed to their loud talking and laughing. There was no action taken at the meeting regarding the changes recently made at the hospital, and this phase will be acted on later by the board of trustees. Eugene Eager stated that the institution was in fine shape and he and the other trustees were well pleased with the manner in which it was being conducted.

LUSCIOUS BERRY SOON TO BE USHERED IN Prospects for Both Early and Large Crop, With Good Prices.

Approximately 425 cars of strawberries will be handled over the Chattanooga division of the C. N. O. & T. P. railroad this season, according to W. C. Stephens, division freight agent, after making a careful survey of the strawberry outlook. While the prospect for a large crop is great, the acreage is somewhat diminished as compared to last year. In the report submitted by Mr. Stephens, he gives the following: as a pre-estimate of the cars to be used shipping from C. N. O. & T. P. stations:

Table with 2 columns: Station, 1917, 1918. Rows include Royce, Bakewell, Sale Creek, Grayville, Dayton, Evansville, Sheffield, Spring City, Lancing.

The strawberry plants are in fine condition and promise well at this time, Mr. Stephens said, and if the berry crop does not get damaged he expects to realize the 425 cars over this division. Mr. Stephens, in his report, also mentioned the crate shortage, saying that a marked shortage was noticeable, and that berry growers were somewhat alarmed because of the difficulty in obtaining them. The shipping season will probably begin in a few days, he declared, earlier than usual if the present fine weather continues. Asked when the first carload shipment would be made, Mr. Stephens said about April 25.

While Mr. Stephens had not received any information as to the prices of berries this year as against last year, he said he believed the berries would sell higher than last year, bringing a uniform price from opening to closing of the season.

THESE PHYSICIANS WARN PUBLIC AGAINST TAKING SUBSTITUTES FOR NUXATED IRON

Say That Ordinary Metallic Iron Preparations Cannot Possibly Give the Same Strength, Power and Endurance

As Organic Iron. Besides they may upset the digestion, disturb the secretions and thereby do more harm than good, and that Health Officials and Physicians everywhere should caution the public against accepting inferior substitutions in medicines.

Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly Physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital; Dr. A. J. Newman, former Police Surgeon of Chicago; Dr. Ferdinand King, New York Physician and Medical Author, and others give valuable advice and information on the use of organic iron as a tonic, strength and blood builder.

Careful investigation by designated physicians among druggists and patients has revealed the fact that there are thousands of people taking iron who do not distinguish between organic iron and metallic iron and that such persons often fail to obtain the vital energy, strength and endurance which they seek simply because they have taken the wrong form of iron. They seem to think iron is iron on a good deal the same theory that a potato would be a potato whether it were cooked or raw, entirely ignoring the fact that the cooking process makes certain important changes in the potato but renders it far more easy of assimilation by the blood and tissues. No one would hardly expect to derive the same strength from eating raw potatoes as they would from eating cooked potatoes, yet, according to the opinions of some physicians who have made a study of the subject, taking raw, unprepared, metallic iron is somewhat like eating raw potatoes.

Therefore, physicians mentioned below advise those who feel the need of a strength and blood builder to go to their family doctors and obtain a prescription calling for organic iron—Nuxated Iron—and present this to their druggist so that there may be no question about obtaining the proper article. But if they do not wish to go to the trouble of getting a prescription for Nuxated Iron, they should look on the label and see that the words NUXATED IRON are printed thereon. Not Nux and Iron nor any other form of iron, but NUXATED IRON.

The remarkable results produced by Nuxated Iron and its widespread sale (it being estimated that over three million people annually are today using it) has led to the offering of numerous substitutes and these physicians say that health officials and doctors everywhere should caution the public against accepting substitutes in medicines, and they especially warn against accepting substitutes for Nuxated Iron, which, instead of being organic iron may be nothing more than a metallic iron compound which may in some cases produce more harm than good. The widespread publication of the above information in Nuxated Iron advertisements has been suggested by Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly Physician in Bellevue Hospital, (Outdoor Dept.), N. Y., and the Westchester County Hospital; Dr. Ferdinand King, New York Physician and Medical Author, and others so that the public may be informed on this subject and protected from the use of metallic iron.

under the delusion that it is Nuxated Iron, or at least something as good as Nuxated Iron. In regard to the value of Nuxated Iron, Dr. Sullivan says: "I have strongly emphasized the great necessity of physicians making a blood examination of their patients. The skin of the man or woman is pale, the flesh flabby, the muscles lack tone, the brain is sluggish and their cheeks in a morose condition. They often become weak, nervous, irritable, despondent and melancholy. When the iron goes from the blood of women, the roses go from their cheeks. Dr. Schuyler C. Jacques, Visiting Surgeon of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, of New York City, said: 'I have never before given out any medical information or advice for publication, as I ordinarily do not believe in the use of Nuxated Iron. I feel I would be remiss in my duty not to mention it. I have taken it myself and given it to my patients with most surprising results. And those who are almost continually ill, find it a most refreshing and wonderfully effective remedy.'"

Dr. Ferdinand King says: "Doctors should prescribe more organic iron—Nuxated Iron—than they do for their nervous, run-down, flabby, listless-looking patients. Patients with anæmia, the skin of the man or woman is pale, the flesh flabby, the muscles lack tone, the brain is sluggish and their cheeks in a morose condition. They often become weak, nervous, irritable, despondent and melancholy. When the iron goes from the blood of women, the roses go from their cheeks. Dr. Schuyler C. And those who are almost continually ill, find it a most refreshing and wonderfully effective remedy.'"

Dr. A. J. Newman late Police Surgeon of the City of Chicago, and the Surgeon Jefferson Park Hospital, Chicago, says: "I believe in the use of Nuxated Iron. I feel that it is such a valuable remedy that it ought to be used in every hospital and prescribed by every physician in this country. I have taken it myself and experienced its health-giving, strength-building effect. I am well past my three score years and want to say that I believe my own great physical activity is due largely today to my personal use of Nuxated Iron."

While Former Health Commissioner Kerr is not himself a physician, still his experience in handling public health problems must give his opinion more than ordinary weight. Dr. A. J. Newman, Former Police Surgeon of Chicago, and former House Surgeon, Jefferson Park Hospital, Chicago, says: "It has been my particular duty during the past six years to assist in keeping Chicago's five thousand blue coats in good health and perfect fighting trim, so that they would be physically equipped to stand all manner of sickness and ravages of nature's elements. Recently I was prompted to give it a trial. This remedy has proven through my own tests of it to excel any preparation I have ever used for creating red blood, building up the nerves, strengthening the muscles and correcting digestive disorders."

Dr. Ferdinand King, New York Physician and Medical Authority, says: "From my own experience with Nuxated Iron, I feel that it is such a valuable remedy that it ought to be used in every hospital and prescribed by every physician in this country. I have taken it myself and experienced its health-giving, strength-building effect. I am well past my three score years and want to say that I believe my own great physical activity is due largely today to my personal use of Nuxated Iron."

I feel I would be remiss in my duty not to mention it. I have taken it myself and given it to my patients with most surprising results. And those who are almost continually ill, find it a most refreshing and wonderfully effective remedy.'"

Dr. Ferdinand King, New York Physician and Medical Authority, says: "From my own experience with Nuxated Iron, I feel that it is such a valuable remedy that it ought to be used in every hospital and prescribed by every physician in this country. I have taken it myself and experienced its health-giving, strength-building effect. I am well past my three score years and want to say that I believe my own great physical activity is due largely today to my personal use of Nuxated Iron."

Dr. Ferdinand King says: "Doctors should prescribe more organic iron—Nuxated Iron—than they do for their nervous, run-down, flabby, listless-looking patients. Patients with anæmia, the skin of the man or woman is pale, the flesh flabby, the muscles lack tone, the brain is sluggish and their cheeks in a morose condition. They often become weak, nervous, irritable, despondent and melancholy. When the iron goes from the blood of women, the roses go from their cheeks. Dr. Schuyler C. Jacques, Visiting Surgeon of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, of New York City, said: 'I have never before given out any medical information or advice for publication, as I ordinarily do not believe in the use of Nuxated Iron. I feel I would be remiss in my duty not to mention it. I have taken it myself and given it to my patients with most surprising results. And those who are almost continually ill, find it a most refreshing and wonderfully effective remedy.'"
