CONDEMNED TRAITOR LOST ATTITUDE INDIFFERENCE

Bolo Pasha's Manner Sustained Since Trial Undergoes Change at Hour of Expiation.

Paris, April 17.—Standing before a firing squad in the forest of Vincennes early today, Pasha Bolo, condemned traitor, lost entirely the attitude of indifference he had maintained subsequent to and during his trial. When the order to fire was given, the rifle spoke and Bolo crumpled up with several bullets in his head.

Escorted by several guards, Bolo left the Sainte prison forty-five minutes before his execution. After leaving the automobile at Vincennes he listened to the exhortation of a prison chaplain. Then his eyes were bandaged and he went without a struggle to his place before the firing squad. "So much the better; I am delighted," Bolo exclaimed when awakened this morning by Commandant Julien, of the third court-martial, who told him that the hour of execution had arrived. These were the only words spoken by Bolo except for instructions to the chaplain to take from his body a silk lace handkerchief, which he placed on his chest and gave it to his brother, Monsignor Bolo. The condemned man went to his execution in a new suit of clothes brought to the prison by his brother, and wearing white gloves.

Before setting forth from the prison Bolo asked to be permitted to partake of communion. After the execution the form of an interment at Vincennes was gone through and then the body was turned over to Bolo's family.

Refused to Sign Register.
 When Bolo was taken to the office to go through the formalities of his removal from prison for the execution he refused to sign the register. The officer insisted, upon which Bolo cried out in an authoritative tone: "It is I who command here; no one has anything more to impose upon me, I think."

The chaplain, after the execution, found lying over Bolo's heart two embroidered handkerchiefs, which had been pierced by the bullets. One was given to Bolo's brother and the other to his widow.

MAGNETIC STORM IN SOUTHERN AREA

Wire Communications Interrupted—Aurora Borealis May Be Cause.

Washington, April 17.—A magnetic storm prevailed in the south today and interrupted wire communication to a considerable extent. Earth currents of electricity interposed themselves on the wires and interfered with the manufactured currents used in their operation. The exact cause of the disturbance was not determined. Officials at the naval observatory made a photograph of the sun, but found no unusual manifestations of a solar disturbance. No sun spots, which usually accompany magnetic storms, were visible.

Whether an aurora borealis was manifesting itself could not be determined, but it is thought probable, would be visible after dark tonight. Recently when an aurora borealis was observed, similar conditions existed on the telegraph wires over a considerable portion of the country and a large sun spot was observed at that time on the edge of the sun.

PORTUGAL STIRRED BY BRAVERY OF HER TROOPS

Lisbon, Tuesday, April 16.—Events on the western front and the words of praise sent by the British government to Portugal on the bravery of the Portuguese troops in the first days of the fighting south of Armentieres have greatly stirred the patriotic feeling in Portugal. All officers of the Lisbon garrison have offered to go to France immediately to replace and revenge their comrades.

CASES OF MEXICANS REMANDED BY COURT

Austin, Tex., April 17.—The court of criminal appeals today reversed and remanded the cases of Jose Antonio Arce et al., Mexicans, convicted of murder and sentenced to death in Webb county as the outgrowth of a clash between Mexican and American troops in 1916 near Laredo.

EXPRESS COMPANIES DISCUSS CONSOLIDATION

Washington, April 17.—Heads of express companies discussed today with the railroad administration a proposal for consolidating the express companies into one corporation which would be authorized by Director-General McAdoo to conduct all the express business in the country. The corporation would have capital stock of about $40,000,000, divided among the companies in proportion to the physical valuation of their properties. The plan probably will be referred to the director-general for approval late this week.

"JACK GREENE" FOUND DEAD, PROVES TO BE NOBLEMAN

Notables, Ariz., April 17.—"Jack Greene," who was found dead here last night with a discharged derringer beside him, according to papers found among his effects, was the Rt. Hon. Lieut. Jackson B. Argyle, son of the Countess of Darley, of Cobham, Kent county, England, to whom he left a letter.

Cut This Out and Keep It.
 Every mother of young children should cut this out and keep it, that she may know what to get when her children have whooping cough. "We first used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home about three years ago when our daughter May, had whooping cough, and it proved to be such an excellent medicine for this disease that we highly recommend it. It never failed to relieve those whooping spells, loosen up the phlegm and give immediate relief," writes Mrs. Ethel Price, Mattson, Ill.—(Adv.)

LOAN SUBSCRIPTIONS TOTAL $931,156,050

Minneapolis Raises $25,000,000 in One Day—Camp Lee Troops in Parade.

Washington, April 17.—Subscriptions to the liberty loan as shown in reports to the treasury today now total $931,156,050. The first day's business for the Minneapolis district, where campaigning began Monday, brought in approximately $25,000,000.

By Those Not Rich.
 Reports to liberty loan headquarters today told of a great flood of small subscriptions from people of moderate means.

Atlanta, which started its campaign Monday noon, had rolled up subscriptions of $2,500,000 before work started today. The Mississippi woman's committee has harvested $2,402,000, and encouraging reports are received also from the Georgia woman's committee. From the platform of one of the war exhibit trains touring the south, $150,000 bonds were sold yesterday.

Negroes in southern Georgia were reported today to be buying bonds generously.

Petersburg, Va., April 17.—Headed by soldiers from Camp Lee, the military feature of Petersburg's liberty loan parade today surpassed any similar event here in recent years. The troops in the parade included the 159th brigade, a battery each of the 313th and 314th regiments of field artillery with the bands of these commands; the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, FRONT BETWEEN SOMME AND OISE BATTLE SCENE

Paris Tells of Activity of Artillery on Both Sides—French Succeed in Several Raids.

Paris, April 17.—Heavy artillery fighting occurred last night on the principal battle front between the Somme and the Oise, the war office reports. The statement follows: "On the front between the Somme and the Oise there was great activity of the artillery on both sides and patrol encounters occurred. The French carried out several raids, especially southwest of Butte du Mesnil, in the region of Tahure and north of Filirey. We took a number of prisoners. On the right bank of the Meuse, a German attack east of Samogneux was repulsed. Otherwise the night passed in quiet."

ANTI-HOME RULERS WORK FOR AMENDMENT OF BILL

United Kingdom Much Interested in Measure Announced by Labor Member.

London, April 17.—While nationalist Ireland is making plans for resistance to the enforcement of conscription in their country, the rest of the United Kingdom is more interested in the home rule bill which George Nicoll Barnes, labor member of the war cabinet without portfolio, announced in the house of commons yesterday the government would introduce and pass or fall in the attempt. A committee consisting of such former antihome rulers as Walter Hume Long, J. Austen Chamberlain and A. W. Samuels, solicitor-general for Ireland, with Mr. Barnes, which has been engaged in drafting the bill, held a second meeting yesterday and reported it had made rapid progress. The home rule bill, it is understood, will take the form of a measure amending the government of Ireland act which passed just before the outbreak of the war, but the operation of which was suspended for the period of the war.

English Attack Failed At Locon, Says Berlin

Berlin (Via London), April 17.—"Our attacks on the Lys battle front met with complete success," says the official communication from general headquarters. "The great military operations of Wytshaele battle of 1917 were taken by a surprise attack. After a short spell of fire we stormed Wulverghem in a surprise attack and the enemy's positions on both sides fell. An attack by British companies completely broke down. From this plain, while scaling the heights between Neve Chapelle and Baillieu, our troops attacked and wrested them from the enemy in a vigorous hand-to-hand encounter. English attacks against London failed. We took some prisoners during the repulse of a joint attack carried out by the English and French north of the Luce river. Eastern theater: Troops landed at Lovitz, east of Neisener after overcoming difficult ice conditions, pushed forward by way of Lappitrek toward the north. They repeatedly broke the enemy's resistance and reached the railway line to the east of Lakhti, running from Tammerfors to Viborg."

Gen. J. B. Erwin, who will pitch the first ball in the opening game between Chattanooga and Atlanta, will be succeeded in the box by either Marshall or Merritt, according to Lookout Manager Mike Finn. Manager Finn stated that it remained to be seen which one of these pitchers promised the best form. He said there would be no change in the line-up for the first game which has been published. Finn further stated that he had received word from Cleveland, Ohio, saying he would report as soon as he could get here, and he is expected not later than Saturday.

Pitcher Bruck and Infielder Sneed were given their release Tuesday. Both young men gave some promise of remaining in fast company, but it was a physical impossibility for either of them to get into shape in such a short time. Bruck came from the Columbus team of the American association and Sneed is a college boy. The team left today for Atlanta, where they open Thursday.

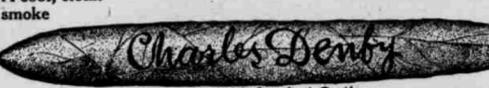

Manager Finn stated that he thought Manager Charley Frank, of Atlanta, would pitch Brennan in the opening game here. The line-up for the Lookouts will be as follows:
 Leach, center field.
 Graft, third base.
 Flaegstad, right field.
 Graham, first base.
 Paddock, left field.
 Phelan, second base.
 Cuetto, shortstop.
 Higgins, catcher.
 Merritt or Marshall, pitcher.
