

CASUALTY LIST FROM FRANCE CONTAINS NAMES OF 88 AMERICANS; 18 KILLED IN ACTION, 60 WOUNDED; 2 LIEUTENANTS DIE OF ACCIDENTS

Washington, May 3.—The casualty list today contained eighty-eight names, divided as follows: Killed in action 18, Died of wounds 60, Died of accident 2, Died of disease 5, Wounded severely 2, Wounded slightly 58, Missing in action 2.

Lieut. Thomas F. Mooney, of San Antonio, Tex., and Dinamore Ely, of Chicago, died as a result of accidents, and Lieut. Louis M. Edens, Cabool, Mo., is reported missing in action.

Publication of casualties were resumed today in the old form, with names on the lists given out by the war department carrying the home addresses of the men. The decision of the department to return to the manner of issuance in use before Secretary Baker ordered the addresses eliminated ends a controversy which has waged between the department and the committee on public information in which President Wilson was called to take a hand.

The president decided that the addresses should be made public and the return to the old form is taken to mean that any military advantage the enemy might gain from the lists would not be of sufficient value to justify the anxiety occasioned the relatives of soldiers by suppression of this aid to identification.

CREW BECOME RAVING MANIACS

Horrors of German Submarine Cause Men to Lose Their Minds.

(International News Service.) London, May 3.—Two German submarines have put into the base at Ostend with their crews raving maniacs, said an Amsterdam dispatch in the Morning Post today.

The men, who had been displaced from their duties by the loss of food and were held handcuffed through the streets of the town.

HUNS SUFFER HEAVY LOSSES ON TOUL FRONT

(International News Service.) With the American Army in France, May 2 (9 p.m.)—The Germans in their big attack against the Americans at Seicheprey on the Toul front lost four-fifths of their number, it was learned from a German Red Cross attaché who had been captured by an American patrol.

The German had assisted in caring for the casualties and was in a position to give correct information.

The conditions on the Toul front have been extremely inactive, less than 200 shells being fired by the boches in the past two days.

The battle of Seicheprey took place on Saturday, April 20, when 1,200 German shock troops attacked the Americans. The Germans fought their way into Seicheprey, but were driven back to their original positions.

WOULD GO TO FRANCE

(Associated Press.) Washington, May 3.—Every one of the 5,000 officers on duty in the war department's ordnance bureau has applied for foreign service. High officers in the bureau today pointed to this fact as completely answering charges that the ordnance corps had been used to furnish large numbers of staff officers with "bomb-proof" jobs.

Lyman Michael, an ordnance officer, said a high officer of the ordnance corps, "where our men actually have been reprimanded for attempting to use outside influence to secure active and dangerous service in France."

John G. Williams, who was relieved as ordnance officer of the American expeditionary forces to become acting chief of ordnance, took charge of that office today.

SCULPTOR CHARGES CRIMINAL PROFITEERING

Senate Military Committee Still Debating Question of Making Investigation.

(International News Service.) Washington, May 3.—The senate military affairs committee was still debating today whether it would make an investigation of charges made by Gutzon Borglum, the sculptor, that there has been criminal profiteering in America's $1,000,000,000 aircraft program.

Its decision hinged today upon the willingness of several persons named by Mr. Borglum to appear as witnesses and give the committee a full statement of their knowledge of matters involved in the charges. It may be several days before the committee reaches a conclusion.

Members of the senate are exceedingly anxious to have the facts about Mr. Borglum's charges. They declared today that the American people are entitled to an accounting for the hundreds of millions of dollars spent by the aircraft board with results which the military affairs committee has declared entirely inadequate.

Mr. Borglum's evil eye, submitted to the committee in secret session, is of the most sensational character and members were unwilling to launch such an inquiry unless they felt reasonably certain of obtaining testimony to back up the sculptor's accusations. The scandal about aircraft production has been so persistent, however, that it was generally believed the committee would find it advisable to go to the bottom of Mr. Borglum's assertions.

SHE WAS DIVORCED BUT DIDN'T KNOW IT

The records in the office of the clerk and master revealed to Ora Guider Suttle Friday morning for the first time that she was a divorcee and had been for some time, her husband having obtained a divorce from her while she was out of the city. Tears came into the young woman's eyes when she learned that she had been deceived for so long, but when she further learned that the divorce had been obtained on a charge of infidelity, together with the charge that she had a child 5 years old when she married Suttle, which the plaintiff claims he was aware of, she after they had been married in Birmingham and came to Chattanooga to live, she broke down and wept bitterly.

The husband further charged the wife's mother with writing a letter to her daughter which contained knowledge that the wife had a child. The young woman, when speaking of the case Friday, broke down and cried bitterly. "Why, I was never married but once in my life and I never have had a child, and the only one I know my former husband could be speaking of is my sister, who came to visit me. I have been away for some time and my former husband has been corresponding with me, but he never mentioned that he had obtained a divorce from me. I was sure that she was out of the city. I had a difference with her husband and had left for a short while, but said she had no idea that he had taken so serious a step.

The records in the clerk and master's office shows that a divorce bill was filed by James Perry Suttle against his wife, Ora Guider Suttle, in 1912. The plaintiff claims that he and his wife were married in Birmingham and ten days later came here to reside. He

Don't Experiment With Catarrh; It Often Leads to Dread Consumption

You Will Never Be Cured by Local Treatment With Sprays and Douches.

Catarrh is a condition of the blood and can not be cured by local applications of sprays and douches; this has been proven by the thousands who have vainly resorted to this method of treatment.

Catarrh should not be neglected or experimented with. The wrong treatment is valuable time lost, during which the disease is getting a firmer hold upon its victim, and making it more difficult for even the proper treatment to accomplish results.

Though Catarrh makes its first appearance in the nostrils, throat and air passages, the disease becomes more and more aggravated as it reaches down into the lungs, and every one recognizes the alarming condition that results when the lungs are affected. Thus Catarrh may be the forerunner of that most dreaded and hopeless of all diseases, consumption.

No local treatment affords permanent relief. I have taught that S. S. S. is the one remedy which attacks the disease at its source, the blood, and produces satisfactory results in even the worst cases. Catarrh sufferers are urged to give S. S. S. a thorough trial. It is sold by all druggists. You are invited to write to the medical department for expert advice as to how to treat your own case.
