

PATRIOTIC WORK DONE BY Y. W. C. A. GROUPS

The Vesper Service for Next Sunday Will Be Last of the Season.

The last vesper service of the season will be held Sunday afternoon, May 12, at the Young Woman's Christian association.

The Hearth fire group of the Girls' Preparatory school has knitted eighty-one afghan squares, and the student club fifty-seven.

The Carry-On club, composed of girls from the Standard Process company, Signal Knitting mill and Chattanooga Medicine company, have furnished material for and made abundance pillows, baby jackets, booties and dresses for the Red Cross.

The Park Place school Hearth fire group, of which Miss Avia Warrenfels is counselor, won the Patriotic League prize of $4.15 for the group of young girls, under 14. They have taken this money to make the first payment in adopting a French war orphan.

PLANS TO FORM JEWISH NATION Itamar Ben-Avi, of Judea, who has been a Chattanooga visitor for several days, and who lectured at the Y. M. H. A. Sunday night, before a large audience of both Jews and Gentiles, is a man of remarkable personality, being still in his youth.

That his standing as a leader in Jewry is the highest is attested by the words of Rabbi Bursztyn, who hailed him as the possible first president of the new republic of Palestine, now in the making.

It was Eliezer who re-established Biblical Hebrew in Palestine and with it a realization of Zionist ideals, so that when Great Britain put an end to a permanent one they hope—to the German menace, Jewish independence and a Jewish nationality becomes assured.

The miracle of history is that the Turks have yielded to Jewish dominion, as preferable to the pan-German program of self-aggrandizement.

Chattanooga Zionists are brimming with enthusiasm over the outlook. To a representative of The News, Rabbi Bursztyn, Mrs. Harry Winer and other Zionists told something of the history of Ben-Avi, who, with his father, are temporary exiles from Palestine, because of warning the Turks of German perfidy.

So Itamar Ben-Avi, in his lecture Sunday night, said he had come to this country with a message not only to the Jews, but to all America, and is being invited to tell it also to Christian schools and colleges and before Christian congregations. It is that plans are now under way with the help

WEDDING FOLLOWS HOSPITAL ROMANCE

Miss Doris Kitzon, daughter of Lord and Lady Alredale, was nursing in a Red Cross hospital in London when she met Capt. John McNaughton, M. C. of the Canadian Highlanders.

There are 150,000 Jews in Jerusalem alone sufficient to form the state.

There are thirty religions, but the Jews, with no police system or need of one or permanent military organization, are so organized that Jews, Christians and Moslem may live in harmony under Jewish dominion.

The Hebrew language of the Bible is already the tongue. It was not, thinkable, a few years ago, he said, for a Jew to come to this country and speak his message in the language of the prophets and of Jesus Christ.

He gave a graphic description of the beauties of Jerusalem, the mount of Olives, Mt. Hermon, Mt. Lebanon, and the hearts of both Jews and Christians—and told of the great moral and intellectual awakening of the people, as well as their material progress in agriculture and commerce.

It was reported at the regular monthly meeting of the Woman's auxiliary of the First Baptist church Monday afternoon, that they had not only met their apportionment of the missionary fund, but had gone "over the top."

Reports of personal and patriotic service were given by the different circles. The president announced that a box of clothing and a substantial check had been sent to Miss Grace McBrady, a medical missionary in China.

FORMER CHATTANOOGAN WRITES FROM THE FRONT Rev. Lawrence Fawcett, a graduate of the University of the South at Nashville, is president of Chattanooga, writes from the French front to relatives here.

Having entered the flying squadron, Rev. Fawcett has been having some interesting experiences. A recent letter contains the following: "I am now in a flying squadron and naturally keenly busy learning the new game. The course is slow but thorough. I hope to have my wings about July 1. Last Saturday I was taken up for my joy fly, and for fifteen minutes we were rolling, diving, slipping, bumping and whizzing all over the place.

Very oddly, on arriving at my aerodrome I found one of the chaps who enlisted with me in the service for three months. He is an instructor now, and he is taking great interest in telling me all about flying. His name is Diddot.

"We have had bad weather of late, and I have managed to do some cycling on my old bike used in Wales. In the last three days I have outdone myself, seeing that I rode about 100 miles, mostly on the road, which is wonderfully beautiful; the old world town of Bury St. Edmunds, and, to-day, Norwich and the cathedral there.

"The situation in France has been critical this week. The bad weather may relieve things a bit and if the Germans are stuck in the mud, they may regret several awkward salients which they have pushed forward so recklessly.
