COTTON PRICES ADVANCE TEN DOLLARS PER BALE

New York, May 10.—There was a renewal of yesterday's buying movement at the opening of the cotton market today. First prices were 3 to 13 points higher, and the more active months sold 15 to 26 points above last night's closing after the call, with July touching 26.90 and October 25.80. This made an advance of $10 a bale from the low level of last Saturday, which met considerable realizing, and there were reactions of several points before the end of the first hour. Except for low temperatures in the northern half of the western belt, the weather map was considered generally favorable, and local map readers said there were indications that the present cool weather in the southwest would soon be followed by higher temperatures.

Covering became a little more active after publication of the western belt forecast for frost in parts of Arkansas and Oklahoma. There was also some trade buying believed to be partly for southern mill account, and the market firmed up to 26.55 for July and 25.90 for October, or about 22 to 21 points net higher. May was 26.55, and sold off to within 5 points of July.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.
New Orleans, May 10.—A continuation of the buying movement of yesterday was felt by cotton here today, and prices were lifted 10 to 25 points in the first half-hour of business in the face of continued dry and warm weather over practically the entire cotton belt.

CORN MARKET TODAY IS ON DOWN GRADE

Chicago, May 10.—Predictions of warmer weather turned the corn market today downward. Opening quotations, which varied from the same as yesterday's finish to 1/2c higher, with May at $1.27 1/2 and July $1.47 1/2, were followed by a decided setback.

Provisions were ruled by the action of grain. Higher prices on hogs had only a transient effect.

CARVE HINDENBURG'S NAME ON CASTLE GATE
Emperor, Congratulating Hun Commander, Tells Plan for Old Plauen Stronghold.
(Associated Press.)
Amsterdam, May 10.—Emperor William, in congratulating Field Marshal von Hindenburg upon the Rumanian peace treaty, according to the newspapers of Thursday, notified the military leader that the big entrance gate to the old castle of the Knights of the Teutonic Order at Marienburg, Prussia, would have his name and arms inscribed there. The emperor also expressed the desire to name other parts of the castle after German generals. His telegram to the field marshal reads:

"In memory of the fact that the eastern frontier was protected from conquest by the battle of Tannenberg, I have ordered that the renovation of the Plauen stronghold, the old German knights' castle at Marienburg, which was planned in 1910 in memory of the battle of Tannenberg, shall now be carried out and that the big entrance gate shall bear your name and your arms. It is my desire that other turrets of the stronghold bear the names of generals who especially distinguished themselves in the defense of the eastern frontier."

OPPOSE M'ADOO'S PLAN HIGHER WAR REVENUES
Washington, May 10.—Secretary McAdoo's plans for immediate legislation by congress to increase war revenues, announced last night, met today with immediate and formidable opposition.
After a conference today between Representative Kitchen, majority leader of the house, and chairman of the ways and means committee, with Chairman Simmons and other members of the senate finance committee, it was stated that revenue revision before next December is "very doubtful."

DETECTIVE GOES AFTER MAN IN ATLANTA
Detective Robert Pence left Friday evening for Atlanta, where he went to bring back Harry L. Moore, wanted in this city on the charge of forging checks. Moore will be prosecuted by several business firms by whom he is charged with receiving goods on worthless checks. When notice was first given the detective department, Detectives Pence and Paradise were put to work on the case. The officers were informed of a place where they would probably learn something about the man they wanted. They went to the house, and while waiting for their party by chance saw a letter lying on the bureau, from Moore, which stated that he was in Atlanta. The officers then notified the Atlanta authorities and Moore was picked up.

UNITED STATES STEEL AGAIN CENTRAL FEATURE

New York, May 10.—United States Steel was again the central feature at the opening of today's stock market, gaining 2 1/2 points to 109 1/2 in the first half-hour. Other equipments and prominent rails were higher by 1 to 2 points, including Pacifics, New York Central and Norfolk & Western. Reading also advanced a substantial fraction to its highest level of the present movement. Sumatra Tobacco featured the specialties at a gain of 3 1/2 points. Shipplings, sugars and related specialties also denoted further absorption. Liberty bonds were irregular, the new 4 1/2 percent issue, which was traded in for the first time on the exchange, opening at 99.10 from which it declined another small fraction.

Large offerings of bonds of the third liberty loan at the end of the first hour sent the selling prices down 1.20 points below par. A block of $100,000 sold at 99 and a few moments later another of $50,000 went at 98.80. Heavy realising sales caused reactions of 1 to 2 points among leaders in the last hour. The closing was strong. Liberty 3 1/2s sold at 98.56 to 98.94; first 4s at 98.50 to 98.94; second 4s at 98.72 to 98.90, and 4 1/2s at 98.40 to 99.10.

It has caused a decided fall in temperature over the central plains states and central Mississippi valley.

River Forecast.
The river will rise slowly at and above Chattanooga tonight and Saturday. The change on the lower river will be slight.

OBITUARY
YOUNG LIEUTENANT FALLS VICTIM TO PNEUMONIA

Frank H. Atlee, Well-Known Chattanooga, Dies at Fort Sill, Okla.

Pneumonia has claimed Lieut. Frank H. Atlee, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Light Atlee, and one of Chattanooga's best known young men. He passed away Thursday at Fort Sill, Okla., where, for three weeks he had been attending the school of cadets. Relatives heard from the young officer a week ago at which time he said he was suffering from tonsillitis. No alarm was felt, as it was thought the illness was of a minor nature. Consequently, his sudden death came as a profound shock to the family.

Lieut. Atlee's parents were in Atlanta when they received a telegram notifying them of the critical illness of their son. They left at once for Fort Sill, but that connection was missed at Birmingham, necessitating a wait in that city until noon Thursday, when a second message was received. The grim reaper had closed Frank H. Atlee's page of life before he could reach his bedside. The father hastened on to Fort Sill to accompany the body home, and the mother departed for Chattanooga, arriving here Thursday night.

It is expected that the body of Lieut. Atlee will arrive in this city Sunday night or Monday morning, and funeral arrangements will be announced then. Mr. Atlee and a military escort from Fort Sill will accompany the body home.

The wife and 3-weeks-old son of the deceased are expected to reach Chattanooga today. They have been at Alexandria, La., since last autumn. Lieut. Atlee's command, the 142d machine gun battalion, being stationed at Alexandria. The wife was formerly Miss Leonora Mull of this city.

Frank H. Atlee received his education at Culver Military academy, Culver, Ind., at the University of Michigan and the University of Chattanooga. He was only 22 years of age. When America entered the great world war he was working on a newspaper in Meridian, Miss., and a short time later he joined the state commission. He was stationed with the 142d machine gun battalion at Alexandria, La., and when ordered to Fort Sill had been at Alexandria about a year.

Lieut. Atlee's maternal grandfather was Maj. George W. Patten, a Civil war veteran. Dr. John L. Atlee, a prominent physician, was his paternal grandfather.

The young man, just entering upon the threshold of life, was doing his bit for the cause of world democracy and manifesting his patriotic nature by faithful and efficient service. Regarded as a model soldier, he was serving the country and flag that he loved when called to appear before the Great Commander.

He had a host of friends in Chattanooga, who will be shocked to learn of his demise. He was a member of the First Methodist church. He was active in developing the organization of Boy Scouts in the early days of the movement.

Surviving the deceased are his wife and infant son; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Light Atlee, of 825 Vine street, and two sisters, Misses Margery and Charlotte Atlee. He was a nephew of G. H. and Z. C. Patten, Jr., of this city.

Mrs. J. O. Skelton, 42, died at her home at 1113 Long street Thursday at 10:45 p.m. She is survived by her husband, one daughter, and four sons. Resides the immediate family there is the father of the deceased, J. M. Steer, of Jasper; four sisters, Mrs. John Foster, of Jackson; Mrs. Woody, of Bridgeport, Ala.; Mrs. Jackson, of Rome, Ga.; and Mrs. Eckola, of this city. The funeral will be held from the residence at 11 o'clock Saturday morning. The following pallbearers have been selected: Charles Wallace, Max Leonard, Joseph Lucks, C. S. Hall, Charles Staly and Mr. Nolan.

Mrs. Alice Myers Stegall, aged 39, wife of H. W. Stegall, died Friday morning in a local hospital, after an illness of seven months. Her little son, Harry, has been suffering with rheumatism for some time. The mother nursed him. He improved sufficiently to walk on crutches, but during her watchful care over him Mrs. Stegall suffered a nervous breakdown.

Surviving here are her husband and five children, Mary Alice, Cora, Wynne, Frederick and Harry.

Funeral services, conducted by Dr. J. W. Bachman, will be held from Chapman's chapel Saturday afternoon at 2. The interment will take place in Forest Hills cemetery.

Mrs. Elizabeth Blackman, 73, wife of C. W. Blackman, who died Thursday night at 9:30 at her home, 147 Tremont avenue, North Chattanooga, were held from the residence Friday afternoon at 2:30, with Dr. O. E. Gardner officiating. The interment took place in White Oak cemetery. The pallbearers were Ernest Ott, Robert Parker, Lon Keef, Blaine Underwood, Louis Arp and John Hood.

Surviving the deceased are her husband, her mother, Mrs. G. W. Scofield; four sisters, Mrs. Ernest Ott, Mrs. Blaine Underwood, Mrs. Lon Keef and Mrs. Ralph Parker.

Card of Thanks.
We wish to thank our friends and neighbors who were so kind to us during the death of our darling father and husband; also do we heartily thank them for the beautiful floral offerings, their sympathetic words of love and the sweet music. May God bless them all.
