Thieves Break into Home of A. G. Linn; Get Nothing

Thieves broke into the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Linn Tuesday evening, 845 West street, ransacked the house from top to bottom, but overtook a small thrift stamp fund and did not disturb a large safe that contained documents and papers of importance. The intruders did not take anything, so far as has been ascertained. Nothing has been missed from any room in the way of clothing, silverware, glassware or jewelry. When Mr. and Mrs. Linn returned home they found the lights out and stairs bedroom burning. On investigation it was discovered that bed clothing had been turned over, dresser drawers gone through and a wardrobe ransacked. It was also found that an bedside and closed in the dining room had been searched. A large desk used by Mr. Linn, who is secretary of the Typographical union, met the same fate. The upstairs had fared in the same fashion. The screen over a rear window had been torn from its frame and the top sash lowered sixteen or eighteen inches. Through this entrance the thieves got to the safe. They departed the same way. It is pointed out that it would have been well nigh impossible to go through so small an opening and this is what Mr. Linn guesses. He states that had the intruders got to the safe they would not have been paid for their trouble, as very little money accumulates with the "types" on account of the high cost of living, car savings funds and international expenses.

Chattanooga Negro Saw Comrades Hanged at Dodge

Will S. Johnson, colored, just returned from Camp Dodge with a discharge, told his personal impressions of the hangings of the three negroes who suffered a public execution at that camp about a week ago. Johnson is one of several colored men who have returned from Camp Dodge discharged. When they report back to Chairman Sizer's board the first thing that each of them tells is about the negroes that got hanged. "They hung them all at once on the parade ground," said Johnson. "No civilians were allowed to see the executions, but the soldiers all had to see them. The provost guard was the executioner. The regiments lined up and I couldn't hear a sound. Then the men were asked if they had something to say. I was too far a way to hear it. "Everybody was nervous. When the three men dropped about twenty-five men, white and colored, dropped out of ranks. "When asked what he meant by 'dropped out of ranks,' Johnson shook his head; "I mean they fainted." Johnson came to Mr. Sizer's board to see if he could continue at his old trade of cook on a Pullman diner under the "work or fight" rule. Clerk H. Hancock told him he could, and he walked out of the office happy after his brief three weeks of military experience.

THE OLD RELIABLE PAIN EXPELLER BLACK CAPSULES REMEDY FOR MEN

WHERE ONE HUNDRED PERISH IN RIVER DISASTER

The excursion steamer Columbia, which turned turtle in the Illinois river, opposite Pekin, Ill., early in the morning of July 6, crushing to death and drowning over 100. The boat, after jamming against the Peoria side of the river in a fog, tearing a huge hole in the bow, gradually toppled over as the excursionists rushed for the side. Any chance for escape was shut off to many when the boat crumpled and imprisoned them in the wreckage. Between 500 and 600, mostly women and children, were on board. The ship was recently remodeled to give a larger dance floor space and in doing so it eliminated the passageway around the deck and left but two exits. Rescue work was very difficult, due to the crumpled condition of the boat, which made it necessary to use derricks to raise the decks, under which many women and children were crushed to death.

NEWS OF WORLD MARKETS

STEEL AND OTHERS TEND SOMEWHAT HIGHER

New York, July 10.—Reading's reversal of a large fraction was the only conspicuous exception to the firm but sluggish opening of today's stock market. Other leaders ended moderately higher, including steels, shippings and some of the active equipments. Speculative issues were represented by Sunatra Tobacco at an advance of 2 points and Baldwin Locomotive and American Can, which rose 1 point each. For the most part trading was in small lots. Liberty bonds were steady. The weekly report of the weather bureau proved more favorable than expected and was followed by realizing. July ended off from 25.23 to 27.90, or a point under last night's close, while intermediate months had a decline of 1.47 to 2.47, with October selling at 24.70 late in the morning. Beyond holding firm, United States Steel made no response to its excellent tonnage report and other equipments were unmoved, despite encouraging financial statements. Reals, notably low-grade issues, were moderately active at fractional gains. Industrial sales hardened later, but industrial shipping and specialties broke abruptly. The closing was heavy. Liberty 3 1/2% sold at 95.40 No. 39.64; first 4% at 94.10; second 4% at 94 to 93.95, and 4 1/2% at 95.96 to 96.01.

CORN HAS UPTURN TO TUESDAY'S FINISH

Chicago, July 10.—Bearish aspects of the government crop report brought about only temporary weakness in the corn market today. Opening prices, which ranged from 46c to 47c advance, with August $1.54 1/2 to 1.55 1/2 and September $1.55 1/2 to 1.56 1/2, were followed by a general upturn to well above yesterday's finish. Oats swayed with corn. After opening 1/2c down to 3/4c up, with August 70 1/2 to 71c, the market scored a moderate gain all around. Lack of support caused provisions to sag. Selling was of a scattered sort. Prices closed unsettled, 1/2c to 1/4c net higher, with August $1.55 1/2 to 1.56 1/2 and September at $1.56 1/2.

COTTON OPENS WITH ADVANCE 4 TO 15 POINTS

New York, July 10.—The continued dry weather in the southwest and apprehension of unfavorable crop accounts led to further covering in the cotton market during today's early trading. There was also buying of early new-crop deliveries by spot house brokers and further covering of July by Liverpool interests. The market opened steady at an advance of 4 to 15 points, and before the end of the first hour sold 24 to 34 points net higher, with July touching 28.15c and October 25.0c. Some of the unfavorable crop advices from the southwest were accompanied by buying orders, and stop orders were uncovered on the early advance. The reaction extended to 24.63c for October and 24.17c for December during the early afternoon, or about 4 to 10 points net lower. The detailed weather report showed only slight showers at four stations in Texas, however, while temperatures of 100 degrees or over were reported at twenty-five points, and the market was a shade steadier toward 2 o'clock on covering.

TOLL OF DEATH IN RAILROAD WRECK

(Continued From First Page.) baggage car. When the cars were cut in two, jacked up and the rescue crew finally got inside amid heaps of dead and mangled human forms, there was that soldier, pinned in the wreckage. Some one started to cut him out immediately. "Friend," said the boy in khaki, "there are other poor devils dying right here beside me and they need help worse than I do. Get them out first and let me alone. I am all right." He lay there for three full hours and when the last injured man had been removed the workmen cut away the timbers that were pinning him down. The body of an unidentified baby was found in the wreckage which was simply a mass of crushed and bleeding flesh. A body supposed to be the mother was nearby. A large family Bible, not encased in a traveling bag, was found among the wreckage. It had not received so much as a scratch upon its heavy leather back. Another book, entitled "Hearings From the Scriptures," was also found nearby. It, too, was undamaged. Whether the reader of the Word of God met his or her death while holding these two books is unknown. Every organ is being put forth today to alleviate the suffering of the injured and the distress of afflicted relatives. The civilian relief of the Red Cross is anxiously active.

TRUTH THAT TESTS THE TIMES

The International Sunday School Lesson for July 14 is "Reading God's Word." Acts viii:26-39; Ps. xix:7-11.

(By William T. Ellis.) Over in Britain a visitor is impressed by the remarks of a man that is laid upon the leadership of President Wilson. It is not in the United States, but among our allies, that one finds the clearest recognition of the place that this modest civilian and ex-school teacher has made for himself as the interpreter of civilization's highest conceptions and convictions. He has rendered articulate for all the allied nations the profoundest sentiments that associate the voice of every time you open your eyes and ears to the world around you. Wherein then, is the difference between the man who is the clear-cut recognition of the place that this modest civilian and ex-school teacher has made for himself as the interpreter of civilization's highest conceptions and convictions.
