

BRITISH PRESS SPLIT ON INDIA HOME RULE

Liberal Papers Welcome Plan, but Two Unionist Papers Are Hostile.

London.—The government's course, statesmanlike scheme for self-government in India goes a long way towards satisfying the demand of the different Indian races for a share in the administration of their own affairs.

The liberal newspapers welcome the plan and call upon the imperial government to make good its intentions. The conservative and unionist press is dubious. Only two unionist London papers, which comment editorially—the Daily Telegraph and the Morning Post—are hostile; the rest, excepting the Times, which cautiously supports the scheme, are omnisciously silent.

The unionist objection to home rule for India is precisely the same as its objection to home rule for Ireland, and springs from the same spirit of race ascendancy. India will take the plan as a promise of reform, which they will expect the imperial government to resolutely fulfill.

FINLAND FOOD SITUATION PAINTED IN DARK COLORS

Mannerheim, commander of the Finnish government forces, today visited Mr. Morris, the American minister to Sweden, and asked him what chance there was of Finland getting a supply of food from the entente powers. The American minister told him there was very little chance of Finland getting supplies so long as Germany held the country under her control.

TENNESSEE'S WHEAT CROP REDUCED BY SCABBY SEED

Knoxville, July 11.—Tennessee's wheat crop has been reduced millions of bushels and the kernels have been rendered unfit for seed by scab which has affected practically every wheat-growing section this year. This fact was not known until recently, for scab does not show its damage until late in the growth of the crop. This disease keeps the head from filling out. The division of agricultural extension, University of Tennessee, advises farmers that if they have any seed from the crop of 1917 to save it for next fall's planting, as it was not affected by scab.

(Special to The News.) Knoxville, July 11.—The son of Dr. H. A. Morgan, state fuel administrator, Jack Morgan, is suffering in a New York hospital from a queer combination of shocks. Dr. Morgan has hurried to his son's bedside.

Young Morgan had gone to France with the Tennessee troops. Soon after his arrival, he was ordered back to the states to fill an appointment at West Point which he had applied for some time ago. But he was eager to get into the fight and did not want to wait to finish at West Point, fearing that everything would be over by the time he graduated, so he made what he thought were the proper arrangements with Washington officials.

But Washington authorities again shocked him back to West Point. The shock of being ordered back home and back "to school" for three or four years, just when he had realized his
