NEWS OF WORLD MARKETS

WEEK-END DEALINGS IN STOCKS SUPERFICIAL

New York, Aug. 3.—The week-end session of the stock market was altogether superficial on extremely light dealings. The professional character of the trading was seen in the movements of such speculative issues as General Motors and Nova Scotia Steel, which gained 6 1/2 and 7 1/2 points, respectively. Leaders recorded nominal advances at the outset, but these were mostly forfeited later. Unofficial advices from Washington indicated early announcement of higher taxes on war profits. A few equipments, tobaccos and oils made extreme gains of 1 to 2 points, but rails were utterly neglected. The closing was firm. Sales approximated 1,000,000 shares. Liberty 3 1/2% sold at 99.94/99.98; 4% at 93.48/93.42, and 4 1/2% at 95.26/95.40.

CORN MARKET GETS MATERIAL SET-BACK

Chicago, Aug. 3.—General selling, chiefly to even trades for the week-end, set the corn market today a material setback. Opening prices, which varied from 1/4 off to 3/4 advance, with August $1.57 1/2 and September $1.52 1/2, were followed by declines all around to much below yesterday's finish. Liberal offerings of the new crop had a depressing effect on sales. Sales unchanged to 1/2 lower, with August 65 1/2 and 66 1/2, the market continued to recede. Next to no business was done in provisions. Prices were steady.

3,000 NEW YORK DRAFT MEN COMING TO PARK

J. W. B. Leader Expects Fully Half of Number Will Be Jewish.

The Jewish welfare board is making preparations to receive a large number of draftmen from New York, who are scheduled to arrive at the detention camp at Oglethorpe next week. It is said that some 3,000 representatives of the Empire state are to be sent here, and that the Field Representative Charles Mantinband, of the J. W. B., estimates that nearly half of these men will be Jewish. A large tent, 20 x 40 feet, will be erected by the welfare board at the detention camp for the accommodation of the newcomers, and will be in charge of a field representative. A large number of books written in Yiddish have been secured by the J. W. B. through the American Library association. Among them are the works of many noted American and English writers, which have been translated into Yiddish for the benefit of those soldiers to whom that language is easiest understood. The volumes include such books as Mark Twain's complete works, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and the works of Sholem Aleichem, famous as the Yiddish Mark Twain, books by Maxim Gorky, the Russian socialist writer, who was recently placed under arrest by the bolshevik authorities for his writings, and also included in the consignment. It is expected that these books will prove to be much in demand by the Jewish soldiers at the park.

COTTON OPENING WAS MOST ACTIVE FOR WEEKS

New York, Aug. 3.—The opening of the cotton market today was the most active in many weeks, and the advance of 3 1/2 points which occurred at the start in all positions except August, which dropped 20 points under small selling orders, carried new crop positions up into new high ground for the present bull movement. October sold early at 26.45c and December 26.55c on heavy covering due to bullish weather conditions all over the belt, favorable war news and prospects for increased exports as a result of the decision to permit Lancashire cotton mills to run more hours weekly and to use increased machinery. Later, October shot up to 26.75c and December to 26.90c, representing 63,973 points net advance on these two positions, while January, at 26.38c, was 79 points net higher. Active Liverpool buying emphasized the Lancashire news and there was also buying for southern and other outside account. The biggest advance of the season came just before the close, following reports of heavy rains in the eastern belt which shot October up to 27.70c and December to 27.15c, equivalent to an advance on these positions of about 85 to 100 points. The close was strong at a net advance of 63,933 points on all positions.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

New Orleans, Aug. 3.—The continued favorable war news caused heavy buying in the cotton market today, on which prices rose 1/2 to 1 1/2 in the first hour of trading. Buyers found offerings scanty. Bullish sentiment was increased by the absence of rain in the western belt and more rain in the Atlantic, from which section there have been complaints of excessive moisture. The market became a runaway affair, constantly spurring to new high levels and reaching its highest prices toward the close, when the trading months were held and more rain in the Atlantic, from yesterday. While buying for long account was heavy, the demand from shorts was also heavy and there was a close and 1 1/2 a bale over last week's close and 1 1/2 a bale covered at the advance.

NEW YORK COTTON FUTURES CLOSING.

New York, Aug. 3.—Cotton futures closed strong: October, 26.40/26.68c; December, 25.56/26.35c; January, 26.20/26.35c; March, 26.28c.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON FUTURES OPENING.

New Orleans, Aug. 3.—Cotton futures opened steady: October, 26.40/26.68c; December, 25.56/26.35c; January, 26.20/26.35c; March, 26.28c.

NEW ORLEANS SPOT COTTON.

New Orleans, Aug. 3.—Spot cotton quiet and unchanged. Sales on the spot, 63 bales; to arrive, none. Low middling, 23.00c; middling, 27.75c; good (middling), 29.75c.

NEW YORK SPOT COTTON.

New York, Aug. 3.—Cotton spot steady. Middling, 31.00c.

MAJOR WILL SPEAK WEATHER PERMITTING

Weather permitting, Rev. Harold Major, pastor of the First Baptist church, will speak Sunday evening at the union services on the courthouse lawn. For the past several Sundays he has interfered with the meetings but a splendid congregation has been attending at the First Baptist church where the meetings are held in case of rain. Congregational singing continues to be the big feature of the services. Talbot McRae, choral leader at Fort Oglethorpe, is in charge of the large chorus of voices and plans to have a number of special songs for Sunday if the weather permits. Members of the four downtown churches engaged in the union services are urged to help advertise the meetings and notify all that the services will not be discontinued until the first Sunday in September.

ELEVENTH CAVALRY REVIEW SATURDAY

Four Troops Pass in Parade Before Lieut.-Col. C. H. Boice.

Four troops of the Eleventh cavalry gave proof this morning that their training has been to good avail when they passed in review on the Oglethorpe parade ground before Lieut.-Col. C. H. Boice, who is in temporary command of the regiment. Officers of the Eleventh expressed themselves as well pleased with the excellence of the drill tactics shown by the troopers. This was the first regular review of the regiment since before they left for duty on the Mexican frontier. It was said at headquarters this morning that in the future whenever a parade or review is to be held, the public will be notified in advance so that an opportunity may be had of seeing it. It is generally conceded that the sight of a crack cavalry regiment on parade is one not soon forgotten and it is expected that a number of Chattanoogaans will avail themselves of the chance to see the Eleventh "do themselves proud." Although nothing official has been given out, the rumor will not down that the Eleventh is soon to receive its marching orders. Many of the men who have been out on special duty have been recalled to quarters, and there is a general air of expectancy throughout the entire regiment. One of the officers casually mentioned in the course of conversation this morning that they were fully equipped now in the event of any special orders being received, and were ready for any instructions that might be issued. As one of the troopers remarked recently, "ain't sayin' what it's goin' to be, but somethin' goin' to happen to this bunch purty soon."

SUCCESSFUL ENTERTAINMENT GIVEN BY SOLDIER ARTISTS

Varied Program of Vaudeville Acts Given in "Y" Auditorium At Post. A very successful entertainment was given by the Y. M. C. A. at the large Y. auditorium last night before a crowded house. Local and soldier talent was on the bill, and the quality of the exhibition was easily up to professional standards; in fact, most of the performers have in pre-war days been before the footlights, and the large audience was enthusiastic in its approval. Included in the program were Wilson and Foster, in an expert sharpshooting knife-throwing, and rope-throwing act; Pietro Fassivo gave an exhibition of acrobatic playing which was the equal of his more famous namesake's feat; and Frank Green in a sensational acrobatic act. Others on the bill were Murry and Summerfield in popular songs; Wilson in a contortionist act, and Mr. Vernee in an interpretation of classical and oriental dancing. One of the best features of the performance was the singing of Chaplain Moon, who was formerly a tenor in the famous Chattanooga quartet, which has sung all over the country, and has made many records for the Columbia and Pathé people.
