Fort Payne Vigilance Committee Determined to Enforce Rules as to Gasoline.

Fort Payne, Ala., Sept. 17.—(Special.) Sunday, several people who completely ignored the appeal of the government to observe "gasless" Sunday and rode in their cars to church and to the post-office had their cars painted yellow and the word "slacker" painted on the back so that all who ran might see. The previous Sunday only a few ventured out for pleasure only, but this Sunday there were a number who made bold to come forth and show their utter disregard for the saving of gas by refusing to use their cars and walking where they had to go.

UNITED STATES FLEET ACHING FOR SEA SCRAP

American and British Tars Wait Eagerly for German Fleet to Come Out of Kiel.

London, England.—(N. Y. A.)—The fighting men in the allied grand fleet are aching for a scrap. The Americans and Britishers in this greatest array of fighting ships ever assembled live from day to day on the hope that the German fleet will emerge. "We dare you to come out!" is the spirit of the grand fleet. I set this information from a high naval officer on Admiral Sims' staff, who has just returned from the fleet. Lloyd George summed up the fleet's challenge in a recent speech to a body of miners: "The German," said the premier, "has a good opinion of himself; and he had an idea that although he had fewer ships than we had, he was the better man and would show it when the time came. Well, I wish he would begin! Our sailors have been waiting and waiting and waiting." In this speech the prime minister voiced the spirit of the sailors so accurately he might have been speaking for them," said the American naval officer.

KNOXVILLE BOY LOSES RIGHT EYE IN BATTLE

F. C. Buford, University of Tennessee Boy, Reported as Being Wounded Six Times.

Knoxville, Sept. 17.—(Special.)—With his right eye gone and wounded in both hands, F. C. Buford, well-known University of Tennessee student, whose home is in Memphis, is lying in a hospital in France, according to a letter received by Albert L. Chavannes, Jr. of this city. Young Buford has been wounded six times altogether. He has been over the top three times. He refused an officer's commission because the training for it would prevent him from getting to France as soon as he wanted. The request that he be made an officer was at first refused, but in a short while he went back to the commanding officer and told him that he would do no good as an officer and begged that they "get rid of him by putting him immediately into an overseas battalion." They did.

WE CAN HAVE ONLY PEACE WITH JUSTICE

Cardinal Gibbons Agrees That There Can Be No Vicarious Atonement.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 16.—"We can have only a peace with justice," declared Cardinal Gibbons, head of the Catholic church in America, this afternoon when he gave his opinion regarding the peace proposal made by Austria-Hungary to the allies. "I approve of what Rabbi Lazaron said last night," added the Cardinal. When seen today Cardinal Gibbons had read the resolution offered by Rabbi Lazaron and the congregation of Madison Avenue temple, this city, and addressed to President Wilson, wherein it was said that "there can be no vicarious atonement for the suffering which the central powers have visited upon humanity which a cessation of hostilities at this time would impose upon the allied countries."

MUNITION WORKERS PROMISE TO RESUME WORK

In Reply to President Bridgeport Workmen Reaffirm Loyalty to Government.

Bridgeport, Conn., Sept. 16.—Reaffirming their loyalty to the government, the striking munitions workers here today sent a lengthy reply to President Wilson's order that they return to work, promising to do so at once and do the part in keeping up the flow of munitions. They also promised they would take up their grievances in an orderly manner with the Taft-Wah labor board, and asked his influence to get them an early hearing. "To the great cause of keeping up the flow of munitions to which you have dedicated yourself since the present administration, the machinists here are, we hope, equally dedicated," the message reads: "We loyally accept your command that we return to the working condition which we left, and we shall proceed, as you advise us, to re-appeal our case to the established governmental tribunals, leaving the event in your hands as chief magistrate of our mighty nation. "It is thus going back to work may we express the hope that we have not been sufficiently misrepresented in Washington to cause you for a moment to doubt our loyalty to the cause of this righteous war or to our country." The message then goes on to say that while they have no further right to discuss the past issue, they ask the liberty of stating for the future guidance of the president some of the incidents of the struggle and of the hearings held before the award was made.

WOMEN AND BOYS BEING BROUGHT TOWARD FRONT

To Release Men for Duty on the Lines Opposite Canadian Forces.

With the Canadian Forces in France, Sunday, Sept. 15.—(N. Y. A.)—By Canadian Press.—Intermittent local activity continues along the Canadian lines on the canal Du Nord. The German side permits of closer concentration and posts have been taken and retaken, always to Canadian profit in the end. Two days ago the Germans took two of our small posts and established other after our men had exhausted their ammunition and withdrawn. On Friday, we retook them all and extended our own occupation, killing and capturing several of the enemy. In no case have we left anything to the enemy but the uncertain posts.

RENEWED ENEMY ATTACKS FAIL, REPORTS BERLIN

Berlin, via London, Sept. 17.—"Renewed enemy attacks between the Ailette and Aisne generally failed," says the official report from headquarters last night. "There is nothing new on the other fronts." The statement reads: "On the Lys plateau south of La-bassee canal, we carried out successful enterprises. There was a vigorous artillery engagement early in the morning between Havrincourt and Ephy, which was followed by enemy partial attacks near and south of Havrincourt. The enemy was repulsed. Fighting activity remained within moderate limits the whole day." "North and east of Verdun, at Hol-non wood and near Esigny-le Grand there were infantry engagements. There have been vigorous partial engagements between the Ailette and Aisne. After futile thrusts early in the morning the enemy in the evening again broke forward to attack. In the main he was repulsed, but he has somewhat extended the point which he broke through on the previous day and has gained a footing in the southern part of Vailly.

"It did such wonderful things for me that I have been telling my friends about it ever since. "I was so rundown from rheumatism, suffering all the time those awful rheumatic pains, which finally got so bad that my heart became affected. My kidneys, also, pained me most of the time. "I lost my appetite, couldn't sleep to do any good—in fact, I was just about 'all in' when Mrs. Babb, who had been similarly affected, told me about what VI-TO-NA had done for her. "I didn't hesitate at all; just got a bottle as quickly as possible and began to take it. "In a short time I could easily understand why my friends were so enthusiastic about VI-TO-NA, and that is just why I am talking now. "Why, I am almost a young woman again. Can eat anything I want, and sleep like a baby. No more kidney and stomach troubles; no more rheumatism. I can do all my housework now and feel fine all the time. "Roll Your Own" Home Again

Good News from Washington Part of "BULL" DURHAM Tobacco Released to Civilians at Home to "Roll Their Own"

In response to an urgent request from the Government, last April, we cheerfully turned over the entire output of "BULL" DURHAM Tobacco for the exclusive use of our Soldiers and Sailors.

It was realized that, while this arrangement would meet with the most generous approval of a multitude of civilian users, it would at the same time mean an irreparable loss to them, accustomed as they were to "rolling their own" with good old "Bull."

Despite the heavier and heavier demand of ever-increasing forces at the front, the production of "BULL" DURHAM Tobacco has been more than ample. The future needs of our fighting men have been anticipated. This happy condition has been attained by a tremendous increase in manufacturing facilities, effected at a proportionate cost.

Owing to this enormously increased output, a limited surplus of "BULL" DURHAM is available today for those civilians who so keenly felt the loss of their "makings," but who so whole-heartedly gave up their "Bull" in compliance with the Government's wishes.

So that now, with truer and greater pleasure than ever, you will, we are confident, with your own hands, roll a cigarette again for yourself—a cigarette machines can't imitate—the mildest, the most fragrant, the most economical cigarette in the world.
