

STATE U. D. C. WILL MEET AT CLEVELAND NEXT

No Teas, Frills or Banquets. Just War Time Convention.

After having heard reports from the delegates present this morning at the East Tennessee division conference of the Daughters of the Confederacy, a question arose as to where the next state convention will be held.

Mrs. Leon Henderson, of the Francis Walker chapter, U. D. C., stated that in her opinion this was no time for such meetings because of everybody's time was taken up with war work.

Mrs. J. E. Johnson, of Cleveland, was present and offered an invitation from her chapter for the state convention to meet with them next spring.

Mrs. I. D. Strong, of the Francis Walker chapter, reported that her chapter had spent $700 in organizing a Red Cross chapter in St. Elmo.

Short talks on the fourth liberty loan were made by Mrs. Sam Phillips, Mrs. M. H. Ochs, Mrs. N. Whitaker and Dr. Teebles, of Camp Forrest.

Mrs. Ed Watkins, president of the Gen. A. P. Stewart chapter, gave a most creditable report of the war work done by her chapter.

The meeting closed at 12:30 and the delegates were the guests of the local chapters at a luncheon in the MacCall-Palmer hardware store.
