

FOOTBALL STARS AT CAMP GREENLEAF FORM TEAM OPEN SEASON AT SEWANEE. SEVERAL GAMES HERE.

Big College Stars in Line-Up. Will Play Other Camps. Pugnistic Program.

Some of America's best known football stars are in Uncle Sam's great khaki-clad line-up at Camp Greenleaf and Forrest, and in spite of their arduous duties, are finding time to indulge in the sport which brings a tingle to the blood and a deeper appreciation of life.

Already several football teams, in whose line-ups are players known to sport followers throughout America, are being rounded into tight shape at Fort Oglethorpe.

Camp Greenleaf has three teams working, and will send two teams over to Sewanee for the clash with the University of the south on Saturday afternoon.

The head coach is Lieut. A. W. Smith, who played center on the University of Michigan team, was assistant to "Harry" Trip Yost and later was coach at the University of California for two years.

Coach Smith is being ably assisted by Southernland, a Pittsburg star. Southernland is a dentist and is in line for a commission.

Lieut. Lambert, of the military corps, is the official referee of the camp. Lieut. Montgomery, of headquarters of the division of hospitals and sanitary trains, is manager of all athletics at Camp Greenleaf and is a live wire.

Among the football stars at Greenleaf are Seidel and Southernland, tackles, and Budd, guard, all three of the University of Pittsburgh; Miggins, of the University of North Carolina; Topham, of Bucknell, and Daly, headliners when it comes to playing full-back; Lanahan, of the University of Michigan; Schmidt, of Northwestern; Catlin, of the Ohio State championship team, and Ashton, halves; Walter Hieschler, an Indian, who played center with the Carlisle Indians in 1904; Sandifer, another center, who played with the University of Oklahoma last year; Poulaw, half, who played with the Haskell Indians last year, and Nemon, a guard, who played guard for Oklahoma, for Carlisle and also for the Haskell Indians.

Southernland and Seidel received honorable mention for the all-American team.

The average weight of the Greenleaf line front to end is 185 pounds.

There will be two football games at Fort Oglethorpe, Sunday afternoon, 2:30. The Eleventh cavalry plays the replacement group in the Oglethorpe circle, and the teams of the evacuation hospital and the hospital group clash on Poe's field.

A feature of the meeting of military surgeons of America at Camp Greenleaf next week will be a big boxing program at motor group headquarters Tuesday evening at 7:15 o'clock. The program is in honor of the military surgeons.

The program will be opened with a battle royal between five colored whirlwinds. Then will follow a bout between Daly, of the motor group, and Johnson, of the replacement group, for the flyweight championship. Both fighters will weigh in at 100 pounds.

Smith, of the motor group, and O'Farrell will mix it up for the heavyweight championship of the camp. Richey, of the Eleventh cavalry, and Coleman, of the replacement group, both weighing in at 137 pounds, promise to make things interesting when they meet in the ring. Then will follow a bout between Papke, of the replacement group, and Korts, of the engineers.

Papke's brother was one of the world's greatest fighters. Johnny Papke is the lightweight champion. In the wind-up, Kelly, welter champ, and Joe Chip, middleweight champ, will mix it. Barney Leonard is the featherweight champ of the camp. Joe Chip is a brother of George Chip, welterweight champ of the world. Kelly is a St. Louis whirlwind.

A special camp exchange fund supports the athletes at Fort Oglethorpe and all officers are thereby admitted to boxing bouts free of charge.

The boxing program, next Tuesday night promises to be one of the biggest sport events yet held at the post, and the program, if presented in one of the county's big cities, would draw an immense crowd and bring in receipts amounting to many thousands of dollars.

The flyweight bout will go four rounds of three minutes each.

The other bouts will be six rounds long, with each round lasting three minutes. The Camp Greenleaf football team has been dated on Oct. 19 and 26 and Nov. 6 and 23. The management is anxious to secure games with outside teams, especially with Georgia Tech. The team is willing to go up against any football aggregation.

In the event arrangements can be made, Chattanooga will have an opportunity of seeing the Greenleaf team in action at Andrews field against strong visiting teams.

The team has games scheduled for Nov. 3 at Montgomery against Camp Sheridan; Nov. 3, against Camp Sevier here, and Nov. 23 against Camp Gordon here. Efforts will be made to arrange a big game for Thanksgiving, as that is an open date.

AGAIN IN CUSTODY

Telegram Orders Wives of German Prisoners Held for Investigation.

Mrs. Sophia Krumming and Mrs. Elizabeth Franks, the wives of interned Germans who were released yesterday morning by order of the intelligence department at Fort Oglethorpe, are again in custody following the receipt of a telegram from Washington, D. C., which held wives of German aliens.

The women were not returned to the jail as they are at their home in North Chattanooga and are being closely guarded. Some after the telegram asking that the women be held was received, officers went to their home in North Chattanooga and said they would have to be returned to jail. One of the women immediately fainted and the other threatened to kill herself rather than go back to jail. However, they were quieted down and were allowed to remain at their home with a guard placed near the house.

The women, it will be remembered, were recently arrested as the result of a finding at their home of Lieut. Johnson and Lieut. Oakes of the prison barracks guard. The officers are now being held at the post facing a court martial. The strictest secrecy regarding the whole affair is being maintained. The women, when seen yesterday, stated that they were innocent of any charges against them and did not know the lieutenants were being held until they walked into the house. Before any explanation could be had the county officers arrived and the whole party were taken to jail and the officers turned over to the federal authorities.

CONGRESSMAN HULL ILL

Illnesses Representative Battles With Grip.

Washington, Oct. 9.—(Special to The News).—Congressman Cordell Hull, of the Fourth congressional district of Tennessee, who has been seriously ill with Spanish influenza, is reported today to be much better, but he is still confined to his room and will not be permitted to resume his duties for several days.

Chas. E. Bruce, Congressman Moon's enographer, has pneumonia as a result of an attack of influenza, and has been in a precarious condition.

SPECIAL JURY SESSION

Atty.-Gen. George W. Chamlee stated yesterday that he would call the grand jury together for several days beginning Monday, Oct. 14, at which time several defendants would be indicted for murder and a large number for misdemeanors. It is also understood that the grand jury will have before them for probe one or two cases that are of great interest and will bring to light some sensational cases. Chamlee stated that he would ask Judge Reynolds to have the jail cases heard next week so that when the regular court started Oct. 21 the murder cases could be tried and disposed of without

INFLUENZA AT CAMP NOW ON DECREASE

EIGHTEEN DEATHS DURING PAST 24 HOURS. Only 233 New Cases Reported. Transfers From Camp Greenleaf Announced.

Further improvement is noted Thursday in the grip epidemic at Fort Oglethorpe. While the number of deaths in the last twenty-four hours is reported as eighteen, the cases have remained constant. Only 233 patients have been admitted to the general hospital in the last twenty-four hours—a decrease of thirty-three compared with Wednesday. A total of 145 men have been discharged from the hospital and returned to duty. One of the most cheerful features is the small number of pneumonia cases—eight—which have developed in the last twenty-four hours. The number of pneumonia cases developing in twenty-four hours when the epidemic was at its height was twenty-six. At present there are 2,627 cases of all kinds in general hospital, one-half of which are bronchial cases.

Of the eighteen khaki-clad men who died, one was an officer—First Lieutenant Nial F. Twig, of the medical corps. He was 25 years of age, and on duty at general hospital 14. His home was at Cumberland, Md. He was a victim of pneumonia.

Nearly all the attendants of general hospital 14 have volunteered to take the influenza serum, but its merits are not yet known, as the serum has not had time to show its effects.

Some important transfers are announced. Maj. J. M. Greer, of the medical corps, who has been in charge of the general hospital during the illness of Lieut.-Col. Cowles, officer in charge, has been transferred to Camp Humphreys, Va., where he will be in charge of a base hospital. Maj. Joseph W. Bauman, of Camp Greenleaf, has been transferred to Madison barracks. Maj. John S. Rodman, assistant chief of the surgical staff, has been transferred to evacuation hospital 33 at Richmond, Md.

Of the eighteen khaki-clad men who died, one was an officer—First Lieutenant Nial F. Twig, of the medical corps. He was 25 years of age, and on duty at general hospital 14. His home was at Cumberland, Md. He was a victim of pneumonia.

Nearly all the attendants of general hospital 14 have volunteered to take the influenza serum, but its merits are not yet known, as the serum has not had time to show its effects.

Some important transfers are announced. Maj. J. M. Greer, of the medical corps, who has been in charge of the general hospital during the illness of Lieut.-Col. Cowles, officer in charge, has been transferred to Camp Humphreys, Va., where he will be in charge of a base hospital. Maj. Joseph W. Bauman, of Camp Greenleaf, has been transferred to Madison barracks. Maj. John S. Rodman, assistant chief of the surgical staff, has been transferred to evacuation hospital 33 at Richmond, Md.

Of the eighteen khaki-clad men who died, one was an officer—First Lieutenant Nial F. Twig, of the medical corps. He was 25 years of age, and on duty at general hospital 14. His home was at Cumberland, Md. He was a victim of pneumonia.

Nearly all the attendants of general hospital 14 have volunteered to take the influenza serum, but its merits are not yet known, as the serum has not had time to show its effects.

Some important transfers are announced. Maj. J. M. Greer, of the medical corps, who has been in charge of the general hospital during the illness of Lieut.-Col. Cowles, officer in charge, has been transferred to Camp Humphreys, Va., where he will be in charge of a base hospital. Maj. Joseph W. Bauman, of Camp Greenleaf, has been transferred to Madison barracks. Maj. John S. Rodman, assistant chief of the surgical staff, has been transferred to evacuation hospital 33 at Richmond, Md.

Of the eighteen khaki-clad men who died, one was an officer—First Lieutenant Nial F. Twig, of the medical corps. He was 25 years of age, and on duty at general hospital 14. His home was at Cumberland, Md. He was a victim of pneumonia.

Nearly all the attendants of general hospital 14 have volunteered to take the influenza serum, but its merits are not yet known, as the serum has not had time to show its effects.

Some important transfers are announced. Maj. J. M. Greer, of the medical corps, who has been in charge of the general hospital during the illness of Lieut.-Col. Cowles, officer in charge, has been transferred to Camp Humphreys, Va., where he will be in charge of a base hospital. Maj. Joseph W. Bauman, of Camp Greenleaf, has been transferred to Madison barracks. Maj. John S. Rodman, assistant chief of the surgical staff, has been transferred to evacuation hospital 33 at Richmond, Md.

Of the eighteen khaki-clad men who died, one was an officer—First Lieutenant Nial F. Twig, of the medical corps. He was 25 years of age, and on duty at general hospital 14. His home was at Cumberland, Md. He was a victim of pneumonia.

Nearly all the attendants of general hospital 14 have volunteered to take the influenza serum, but its merits are not yet known, as the serum has not had time to show its effects.

Some important transfers are announced. Maj. J. M. Greer, of the medical corps, who has been in charge of the general hospital during the illness of Lieut.-Col. Cowles, officer in charge, has been transferred to Camp Humphreys, Va., where he will be in charge of a base hospital. Maj. Joseph W. Bauman, of Camp Greenleaf, has been transferred to Madison barracks. Maj. John S. Rodman, assistant chief of the surgical staff, has been transferred to evacuation hospital 33 at Richmond, Md.

Of the eighteen khaki-clad men who died, one was an officer—First Lieutenant Nial F. Twig, of the medical corps. He was 25 years of age, and on duty at general hospital 14. His home was at Cumberland, Md. He was a victim of pneumonia.

Nearly all the attendants of general hospital 14 have volunteered to take the influenza serum, but its merits are not yet known, as the serum has not had time to show its effects.

Some important transfers are announced. Maj. J. M. Greer, of the medical corps, who has been in charge of the general hospital during the illness of Lieut.-Col. Cowles, officer in charge, has been transferred to Camp Humphreys, Va., where he will be in charge of a base hospital. Maj. Joseph W. Bauman, of Camp Greenleaf, has been transferred to Madison barracks. Maj. John S. Rodman, assistant chief of the surgical staff, has been transferred to evacuation hospital 33 at Richmond, Md.

Of the eighteen khaki-clad men who died, one was an officer—First Lieutenant Nial F. Twig, of the medical corps. He was 25 years of age, and on duty at general hospital 14. His home was at Cumberland, Md. He was a victim of pneumonia.

Nearly all the attendants of general hospital 14 have volunteered to take the influenza serum, but its merits are not yet known, as the serum has not had time to show its effects.

Some important transfers are announced. Maj. J. M. Greer, of the medical corps, who has been in charge of the general hospital during the illness of Lieut.-Col. Cowles, officer in charge, has been transferred to Camp Humphreys, Va., where he will be in charge of a base hospital. Maj. Joseph W. Bauman, of Camp Greenleaf, has been transferred to Madison barracks. Maj. John S. Rodman, assistant chief of the surgical staff, has been transferred to evacuation hospital 33 at Richmond, Md.

Of the eighteen khaki-clad men who died, one was an officer—First Lieutenant Nial F. Twig, of the medical corps. He was 25 years of age, and on duty at general hospital 14. His home was at Cumberland, Md. He was a victim of pneumonia.

Nearly all the attendants of general hospital 14 have volunteered to take the influenza serum, but its merits are not yet known, as the serum has not had time to show its effects.

Some important transfers are announced. Maj. J. M. Greer, of the medical corps, who has been in charge of the general hospital during the illness of Lieut.-Col. Cowles, officer in charge, has been transferred to Camp Humphreys, Va., where he will be in charge of a base hospital. Maj. Joseph W. Bauman, of Camp Greenleaf, has been transferred to Madison barracks. Maj. John S. Rodman, assistant chief of the surgical staff, has been transferred to evacuation hospital 33 at Richmond, Md.

Of the eighteen khaki-clad men who died, one was an officer—First Lieutenant Nial F. Twig, of the medical corps. He was 25 years of age, and on duty at general hospital 14. His home was at Cumberland, Md. He was a victim of pneumonia.

Nearly all the attendants of general hospital 14 have volunteered to take the influenza serum, but its merits are not yet known, as the serum has not had time to show its effects.

Some important transfers are announced. Maj. J. M. Greer, of the medical corps, who has been in charge of the general hospital during the illness of Lieut.-Col. Cowles, officer in charge, has been transferred to Camp Humphreys, Va., where he will be in charge of a base hospital. Maj. Joseph W. Bauman, of Camp Greenleaf, has been transferred to Madison barracks. Maj. John S. Rodman, assistant chief of the surgical staff, has been transferred to evacuation hospital 33 at Richmond, Md.

Of the eighteen khaki-clad men who died, one was an officer—First Lieutenant Nial F. Twig, of the medical corps. He was 25 years of age, and on duty at general hospital 14. His home was at Cumberland, Md. He was a victim of pneumonia.

Nearly all the attendants of general hospital 14 have volunteered to take the influenza serum, but its merits are not yet known, as the serum has not had time to show its effects.

Some important transfers are announced. Maj. J. M. Greer, of the medical corps, who has been in charge of the general hospital during the illness of Lieut.-Col. Cowles, officer in charge, has been transferred to Camp Humphreys, Va., where he will be in charge of a base hospital. Maj. Joseph W. Bauman, of Camp Greenleaf, has been transferred to Madison barracks. Maj. John S. Rodman, assistant chief of the surgical staff, has been transferred to evacuation hospital 33 at Richmond, Md.

Of the eighteen khaki-clad men who died, one was an officer—First Lieutenant Nial F. Twig, of the medical corps. He was 25 years of age, and on duty at general hospital 14. His home was at Cumberland, Md. He was a victim of pneumonia.

Nearly all the attendants of general hospital 14 have volunteered to take the influenza serum, but its merits are not yet known, as the serum has not had time to show its effects.

Some important transfers are announced. Maj. J. M. Greer, of the medical corps, who has been in charge of the general hospital during the illness of Lieut.-Col. Cowles, officer in charge, has been transferred to Camp Humphreys, Va., where he will be in charge of a base hospital. Maj. Joseph W. Bauman, of Camp Greenleaf, has been transferred to Madison barracks. Maj. John S. Rodman, assistant chief of the surgical staff, has been transferred to evacuation hospital 33 at Richmond, Md.

Of the eighteen khaki-clad men who died, one was an officer—First Lieutenant Nial F. Twig, of the medical corps. He was 25 years of age, and on duty at general hospital 14. His home was at Cumberland, Md. He was a victim of pneumonia.

Nearly all the attendants of general hospital 14 have volunteered to take the influenza serum, but its merits are not yet known, as the serum has not had time to show its effects.

Some important transfers are announced. Maj. J. M. Greer, of the medical corps, who has been in charge of the general hospital during the illness of Lieut.-Col. Cowles, officer in charge, has been transferred to Camp Humphreys, Va., where he will be in charge of a base hospital. Maj. Joseph W. Bauman, of Camp Greenleaf, has been transferred to Madison barracks. Maj. John S. Rodman, assistant chief of the surgical staff, has been transferred to evacuation hospital 33 at Richmond, Md.

ABSOLUTE SURRENDER DEMANDED BY SENATORS

ONLY TERMS UPON WHICH TO GRANT AMNESTY.

Washington, Oct. 10.—(L. N. S.)—Demanding unconditional surrender as the only terms upon which an armistice should be granted, Senator Poindexter, republican of Washington, expressed the hope in the senate this afternoon that England and France will refuse to negotiate with Germany on any other conditions, even if invited to do so by President Wilson.

"If it is to be conceived," he said, "that upon any possible answer of the German chancellor to the questions asked by the president, our chief executive will request our allies to agree to any armistice with Germany short of her absolute surrender, it is to be hoped that under the divine guidance of an Almighty Providence, the mighty powers of France and England, also have sustained this conflict for civilization through more than four years—in the midst of their ruins and their dead—will refuse to surrender the victory which is in sight."

"The answer which should be made forthwith to the ambiguous and worthless promises of the German chancellor should be a demand for unconditional surrender."

Stronger Than Today. "Germany will be stronger from a military viewpoint than she is today or has been during the war, Poindexter declared, "if the incredible thing should happen and the allies should agree to an armistice at the request of the president."

executive will request our allies to agree to any armistice with Germany short of her absolute surrender, it is to be hoped that under the divine guidance of an Almighty Providence, the mighty powers of France and England, also have sustained this conflict for civilization through more than four years—in the midst of their ruins and their dead—will refuse to surrender the victory which is in sight."

"The answer which should be made forthwith to the ambiguous and worthless promises of the German chancellor should be a demand for unconditional surrender."

Stronger Than Today. "Germany will be stronger from a military viewpoint than she is today or has been during the war, Poindexter declared, "if the incredible thing should happen and the allies should agree to an armistice at the request of the president."

executive will request our allies to agree to any armistice with Germany short of her absolute surrender, it is to be hoped that under the divine guidance of an Almighty Providence, the mighty powers of France and England, also have sustained this conflict for civilization through more than four years—in the midst of their ruins and their dead—will refuse to surrender the victory which is in sight."

"The answer which should be made forthwith to the ambiguous and worthless promises of the German chancellor should be a demand for unconditional surrender."

Stronger Than Today. "Germany will be stronger from a military viewpoint than she is today or has been during the war, Poindexter declared, "if the incredible thing should happen and the allies should agree to an armistice at the request of the president."

executive will request our allies to agree to any armistice with Germany short of her absolute surrender, it is to be hoped that under the divine guidance of an Almighty Providence, the mighty powers of France and England, also have sustained this conflict for civilization through more than four years—in the midst of their ruins and their dead—will refuse to surrender the victory which is in sight."

"The answer which should be made forthwith to the ambiguous and worthless promises of the German chancellor should be a demand for unconditional surrender."

Stronger Than Today. "Germany will be stronger from a military viewpoint than she is today or has been during the war, Poindexter declared, "if the incredible thing should happen and the allies should agree to an armistice at the request of the president."

executive will request our allies to agree to any armistice with Germany short of her absolute surrender, it is to be hoped that under the divine guidance of an Almighty Providence, the mighty powers of France and England, also have sustained this conflict for civilization through more than four years—in the midst of their ruins and their dead—will refuse to surrender the victory which is in sight."

"The answer which should be made forthwith to the ambiguous and worthless promises of the German chancellor should be a demand for unconditional surrender."

Stronger Than Today. "Germany will be stronger from a military viewpoint than she is today or has been during the war, Poindexter declared, "if the incredible thing should happen and the allies should agree to an armistice at the request of the president."

executive will request our allies to agree to any armistice with Germany short of her absolute surrender, it is to be hoped that under the divine guidance of an Almighty Providence, the mighty powers of France and England, also have sustained this conflict for civilization through more than four years—in the midst of their ruins and their dead—will refuse to surrender the victory which is in sight."

"The answer which should be made forthwith to the ambiguous and worthless promises of the German chancellor should be a demand for unconditional surrender."

Stronger Than Today. "Germany will be stronger from a military viewpoint than she is today or has been during the war, Poindexter declared, "if the incredible thing should happen and the allies should agree to an armistice at the request of the president."

executive will request our allies to agree to any armistice with Germany short of her absolute surrender, it is to be hoped that under the divine guidance of an Almighty Providence, the mighty powers of France and England, also have sustained this conflict for civilization through more than four years—in the midst of their ruins and their dead—will refuse to surrender the victory which is in sight."

"The answer which should be made forthwith to the ambiguous and worthless promises of the German chancellor should be a demand for unconditional surrender."

Stronger Than Today. "Germany will be stronger from a military viewpoint than she is today or has been during the war, Poindexter declared, "if the incredible thing should happen and the allies should agree to an armistice at the request of the president."

executive will request our allies to agree to any armistice with Germany short of her absolute surrender, it is to be hoped that under the divine guidance of an Almighty Providence, the mighty powers of France and England, also have sustained this conflict for civilization through more than four years—in the midst of their ruins and their dead—will refuse to surrender the victory which is in sight."

"The answer which should be made forthwith to the ambiguous and worthless promises of the German chancellor should be a demand for unconditional surrender."

Stronger Than Today. "Germany will be stronger from a military viewpoint than she is today or has been during the war, Poindexter declared, "if the incredible thing should happen and the allies should agree to an armistice at the request of the president."

executive will request our allies to agree to any armistice with Germany short of her absolute surrender, it is to be hoped that under the divine guidance of an Almighty Providence, the mighty powers of France and England, also have sustained this conflict for civilization through more than four years—in the midst of their ruins and their dead—will refuse to surrender the victory which is in sight."

"The answer which should be made forthwith to the ambiguous and worthless promises of the German chancellor should be a demand for unconditional surrender."

Stronger Than Today. "Germany will be stronger from a military viewpoint than she is today or has been during the war, Poindexter declared, "if the incredible thing should happen and the allies should agree to an armistice at the request of the president."

executive will request our allies to agree to any armistice with Germany short of her absolute surrender, it is to be hoped that under the divine guidance of an Almighty Providence, the mighty powers of France and England, also have sustained this conflict for civilization through more than four years—in the midst of their ruins and their dead—will refuse to surrender the victory which is in sight."

"The answer which should be made forthwith to the ambiguous and worthless promises of the German chancellor should be a demand for unconditional surrender."

Stronger Than Today. "Germany will be stronger from a military viewpoint than she is today or has been during the war, Poindexter declared, "if the incredible thing should happen and the allies should agree to an armistice at the request of the president."

executive will request our allies to agree to any armistice with Germany short of her absolute surrender, it is to be hoped that under the divine guidance of an Almighty Providence, the mighty powers of France and England, also have sustained this conflict for civilization through more than four years—in the midst of their ruins and their dead—will refuse to surrender the victory which is in sight."

"The answer which should be made forthwith to the ambiguous and worthless promises of the German chancellor should be a demand for unconditional surrender."

Stronger Than Today. "Germany will be stronger from a military viewpoint than she is today or has been during the war, Poindexter declared, "if the incredible thing should happen and the allies should agree to an armistice at the request of the president."

executive will request our allies to agree to any armistice with Germany short of her absolute surrender, it is to be hoped that under the divine guidance of an Almighty Providence, the mighty powers of France and England, also have sustained this conflict for civilization through more than four years—in the midst of their ruins and their dead—will refuse to surrender the victory which is in sight."

"The answer which should be made forthwith to the ambiguous and worthless promises of the German chancellor should be a demand for unconditional surrender."

ABSOLUTE SURRENDER DEMANDED BY SENATORS

ONLY TERMS UPON WHICH TO GRANT AMNESTY.

Washington, Oct. 10.—(L. N. S.)—Demanding unconditional surrender as the only terms upon which an armistice should be granted, Senator Poindexter, republican of Washington, expressed the hope in the senate this afternoon that England and France will refuse to negotiate with Germany on any other conditions, even if invited to do so by President Wilson.

"If it is to be conceived," he said, "that upon any possible answer of the German chancellor to the questions asked by the president, our chief executive will request our allies to agree to any armistice with Germany short of her absolute surrender, it is to be hoped that under the divine guidance of an Almighty Providence, the mighty powers of France and England, also have sustained this conflict for civilization through more than four years—in the midst of their ruins and their dead—will refuse to surrender the victory which is in sight."

"The answer which should be made forthwith to the ambiguous and worthless promises of the German chancellor should be a demand for unconditional surrender."

Stronger Than Today. "Germany will be stronger from a military viewpoint than she is today or has been during the war, Poindexter declared, "if the incredible thing should happen and the allies should agree to an armistice at the request of the president."

executive will request our allies to agree to any armistice with Germany short of her absolute surrender, it is to be hoped that under the divine guidance of an Almighty Providence, the mighty powers of France and England, also have sustained this conflict for civilization through more than four years—in the midst of their ruins and their dead—will refuse to surrender the victory which is in sight."

"The answer which should be made forthwith to the ambiguous and worthless promises of the German chancellor should be a demand for unconditional surrender."

Stronger Than Today. "Germany will be stronger from a military viewpoint than she is today or has been during the war, Poindexter declared, "if the incredible thing should happen and the allies should agree to an armistice at the request of the president."

executive will request our allies to agree to any armistice with Germany short of her absolute surrender, it is to be hoped that under the divine guidance of an Almighty Providence, the mighty powers of France and England, also have sustained this conflict for civilization through more than four years—in the midst of their ruins and their dead—will refuse to surrender the victory which is in sight."

"The answer which should be made forthwith to the ambiguous and worthless promises of the German chancellor should be a demand for unconditional surrender."

Stronger Than Today. "Germany will be stronger from a military viewpoint than she is today or has been during the war, Poindexter declared, "if the incredible thing should happen and the allies should agree to an armistice at the request of the president."

executive will request our allies to agree to any armistice with Germany short of her absolute surrender, it is to be hoped that under the divine guidance of an Almighty Providence, the mighty powers of France and England, also have sustained this conflict for civilization through more than four years—in the midst of their ruins and their dead—will refuse to surrender the victory which is in sight."

"The answer which should be made forthwith to the ambiguous and worthless promises of the German chancellor should be a demand for unconditional surrender."

Stronger Than Today. "Germany will be stronger from a military viewpoint than she is today or has been during the war, Poindexter declared, "if the incredible thing should happen and the allies should agree to an armistice at the request of the president."

executive will request our allies to agree to any armistice with Germany short of her absolute surrender, it is to be hoped that under the divine guidance of an Almighty Providence, the mighty powers of France and England, also have sustained this conflict for civilization through more than four years—in the midst of their ruins and their dead—will refuse to surrender the victory which is in sight."

"The answer which should be made forthwith to the ambiguous and worthless promises of the German chancellor should be a demand for unconditional surrender."

Stronger Than Today. "Germany will be stronger from a military viewpoint than she is today or has been during the war, Poindexter declared, "if the incredible thing should happen and the allies should agree to an armistice at the request of the president."

executive will request our allies to agree to any armistice with Germany short of her absolute surrender, it is to be hoped that under the divine guidance of an Almighty Providence, the mighty powers of France and England, also have sustained this conflict for civilization through more than four years—in the midst of their ruins and their dead—will refuse to surrender the victory which is in sight."

"The answer which should be made forthwith to the ambiguous and worthless promises of the German chancellor should be a demand for unconditional surrender."

Stronger Than Today. "Germany will be stronger from a military viewpoint than she is today or has been during the war, Poindexter declared, "if the incredible thing should happen and the allies should agree to an armistice at the request of the president."

executive will request our allies to agree to any armistice with Germany short of her absolute surrender, it is to be hoped that under the divine guidance of an Almighty Providence, the mighty powers of France and England, also have sustained this conflict for civilization through more than four years—in the midst of their ruins and their dead—will refuse to surrender the victory which is in sight."

"The answer which should be made forthwith to the ambiguous and worthless promises of the German chancellor should be a demand for unconditional surrender."

Stronger Than Today. "Germany will be stronger from a military viewpoint than she is today or has been during the war, Poindexter declared, "if the incredible thing should happen and the allies should agree to an armistice at the request of the president."

executive will request our allies to agree to any armistice with Germany short of her absolute surrender, it is to be hoped that under the divine guidance of an Almighty Providence, the mighty powers of France and England, also have sustained this conflict for civilization through more than four years—in the midst of their ruins and their dead—will refuse to surrender the victory which is in sight."