

SPEAKS MINDS OF ALLIED DEMOCRACIES

GENERAL ENDORSEMENT OF PRESIDENT'S REPLY.

Chronicle Expects It to Prove Decisive Political Blow to Systems Which Make War.

London, Oct. 16.—Declaring that every allied country will endorse President Wilson's note to Germany, the Chronicle says: "There is no closing of the door on negotiation and yet there is no opening for a sidetracking correspondence nor a retirement in the silence. There is in the note no pretext for ambiguity or misconstruction. President Wilson points out that the acceptance of his terms means the end of Hohenzollernism and its undeniably speaks the mind of all the allied democracies. We have to insist upon its removal by means of eradication in which there can be no going back." The Telegraph describes President Wilson's note as "one of the hardest hitting communications ever given out under the form of diplomacy. We are much mistaken if it does not prove the decisive political blow at the system which made the war and which must be utterly rooted out and destroyed before the war is over." The newspaper continues: "This is the day of Nemesis at last and the words of the president prove that the American people, no more than ourselves, will shrink from the task of retri-dion. President Wilson's reply goes with shining force and directness to the heart of the business, Kaiserism has made the earth a shambles and Kaiserism must go as an assurance that the earth shall never be a shambles again. That is the core of the reply. It is the most momentous declaration of world policy ever uttered and behind it the embattled strength of civilization and the sanction of democracy in every land. No more kings in shining armor must be tolerated on this planet."

Clear and Unequivocal.

In approving President Wilson's reply to the German note the Daily Express says today: "It is a clear and unequivocal reply. While the Kaiser remains the Kaiser, there can be no peace. The Germans must choose for themselves. They can have Wilhelm or peace." The newspaper also demands that the junkers be removed from power. "The allies will not be fooled," it adds in this point. "There is no chance of success for a maneuver which would temporarily remove the Kaiser while the Junkers remained masters of the army and the navy."

STOP THAT INDIGESTION

In the long list of human ills there none that causes more suffering, or more productive of serious results than a disordered stomach. It unites your business or pleasure, it opens the way for the most fatal disease to attack your system. Stomach trouble manifests its presence by flatulence, or "wind" in the stomach and bowels. The tongue is coated, the bowels are irregular, and there is depression, anxiety, despondency, dizziness, headache, cramps, water-brash, constipation, diarrhea, or other complications. VIN EPATICA for this aggravating disease. VIN EPATICA has been found to be very prompt and effective. It should be taken in doses graduated to the requirements of the case, sufficient to establish a daily movement of the bowels. Mr. W. T. Mackie, prominent planter, Route No. 1, Whites Creek, Tenn., writes: "I was so troubled with indigestion that when I got up every morning I would feel as if I had had rest at all during the night. But I got VIN EPATICA, and was so promptly pleased with the relief it gave that I recommended it to other members of my family and all of my patients, who have been using it with excellent results." You can get this wonderful Nature remedy at the drugstore Vin Hepatica, or Jo Anderson's drug store, Chattanooga, Tenn.—(Adv.)

BERLIN TO UPSET BOLSHEVIK REGIME, TURNING TO CADETS

Arno Dosch-Fleurot Declares Change is Expected to Be Made Within a Few Days—Leaders Are Now in Germany—Idea is to Beat Allies in Wiping Out the Red Terror.

(By Arno Dosch-Fleurot.) Stockholm, (Copyright, N. Y. World.)—I learn from a reliable source in touch with the German legation here that the Germans are contemplating the overthrow of the Bolsheviki in Russia within the next few days and replacing them by the cadet government. Prominent cadet leaders, among whom are Mikuloff, from Petrograd, Moscow, Kieff and Rostoff, are said to be in Berlin now, where they are conferring with the new German government, which is said to be hostile to the bolsheviki. The idea of the Germans, as my informant explains, is that Berlin, knowing today that it will be obliged to give up the Hrest-Litovsk peace, and having its eyes fixed on the Bolsheviki, wants at the same time to guarantee to itself the future sympathies of the Russian non-bolsheviki population by stopping the red terror and freeing Russia from the bolsheviki yoke before the allies have the time or means to do the same thing. This idea is not new and is said to have been a part of the mission of Helfferich, who, on accepting the post to Moscow, made it a condition that Germany finish with the bolsheviki. But events in Germany and Russia were especially violent, and the ally policy adopted by the bolsheviki caused the Germans to change their minds. The question today is: Have the Germans sufficient forces to realize this plan? But my informant assures me that owing to the growing discontent among the bolsheviki troops and the mutiny of the Letts not many German troops are needed and will be drawn from Finland for the occupation of Petrograd, from the occupying German-Russian front, and the occupation of Moscow and form the Ukraine, where general preparations for the removal of troops already have been observed, for the rest of bolsheviki Russia.

WAR PLAYS IN GERMANY

"In Dollerling" Portrays Conversion of an American to Kultur. "My return to America I have seen some war plays in which the villain role usually falls to the Kaiser or some of his subjects. It may be interesting and instructive to take a peep at the other side," writes Dr. Thomas Curtin in the Bookman. Mr. Curtin, who was in Germany during the crucial years 1914-15-16, gives an amusing account of the martial notions of German playwrights. Italians and Frenchmen figure as poor creatures, while Austrians and Germans are conspicuous alike for courage and magnanimity. Particularly enlightening is the drama, "In Dollerling," which represents the change of heart experienced by an American money grubber who becomes converted to Kultur and decides to take out naturalization papers under the Kaiser. The German soldier, Mr. Curtin says, deprecates the belittling of the allies in the theater, because it diminishes their own glory in overcoming the enemy.

FIRES SPREADING

Winds Fan Smouldering Ruins Into Blazes—at Fatima, Duluth, Minn., Oct. 16.—Fires have again broken out and are spreading in sections of northern Minnesota, where strong winds continued to fan the smouldering flames. On a twenty-five-mile stretch between Lawler and McGrath the flames are reported to be making headway. Adjt.-Gen. Rhinow, leading a company of home guards, is on the way to the scene of the new danger to help the firemen. The total of known dead has mounted to 727, and the Fon Du Lac Indian reservation reported that at least 100 additional bodies yet to be recovered in that section. At Moose Lake one hundred bodies were buried in a single grave. Scores of refugees from the burned-over sections have returned to their homes, returned with the intention of rebuilding their homes. The town of Clouet already has got under way in the process of rebuilding, and other towns are preparing to do the same. The state adjutant-general's office here received a telephone message early today from Col. H. A. Bellows, of the home guards at Lawler, Minn., asking for additional help to combat the fires in that vicinity. More home guards were sent there as soon as possible, it was announced.

The gifts will be sent to the American Red Cross commission at Berne, Switzerland, for distribution.

DESPERATE RESISTANCE.

The Germans are putting up the most desperate resistance between the Argonne forest and the Woivre plain, for Gen. Von Der Maritz, the German commander in that zone, is quoted as saying that "Germany's fate depends upon the German lines holding in that vital sector." Should the Americans break through north of Verdun they could compel a retreat of the whole German army, for they would be in a position to cut the main lines of communication behind the German front. Also the Germans would be forced from the Briey-Longwy iron fields, which they have been utilizing since they invaded France. In addition a retreat northwest of Verdun would enable the Americans to work into German territory north of Metz.

Martial law has been proclaimed throughout the country and the German and Hungarian troops are occupying Prague, Pilsen, Plack and Tabor. The dispatches report that the movement has spread to Moravia and that there has been fighting at Brunn, the capital; Olmutz and Skoda, the latter the seat of the big Austrian gun plant, where work is said to have been suspended. Packages in all Piggly Wiggly stores are weighed by an automatic weighing machine without a human hand touching the contents and with absolute accuracy in weight as to pounds and ounces. More than one thousand different articles of merchandise are on display in a Piggly Wiggly store and you can choose from them that which you of your own mind and inclination desire to choose. Piggly Wiggly is in reality a large pantry filled to overflowing to which any housewife in this city can come or to which she can send her husband, or her child, or her servant and select that which merits selection.
