20 PER CENT. OF NAVY RELEASED

Secretary Daniels Authorizes Reduction War Time Personnel and Craft. Students Finish Course of Training and Then to Stand Discharged—Special Men for Reserves.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Discharge of 20 per cent of the navy's personnel about 100,000 men, has been authorized. Secretary Daniels said today the men would be released as quickly as possible with a view to the convenience of the service.

Private yachts, motorboats and other craft taken over by the navy for the war effort are being turned back to their owners. Mr. Daniels said by February 700 craft will have been stricken from the navy list.

The release of enlisted men is authorized not because the navy is overmanned, but to permit the return to civil pursuits of youths who joined for the duration of the war.

Members of naval units in schools and colleges will complete their training and then stand discharged. In the cases of special student bodies, such as the paymasters' school at Princeton and the ensigns' school at Annapolis, the students will be commissioned in the reserve.

REPORTED MASSACRE OF JEWS DECLARED UNTRUE CREDITED TO GERMANS OR BOLSHEVIKI.

Vienna, Dec. 5.—The stories of a great massacre of Jews in Vienna attributed to a German or a bolshevik intrigue, Friday night there was a good deal of pillaging for the troops who had arrived to rescue the city from a Bolshevik attack and most of them had dropped where they stood and slept. There was no one to keep order and in a number of places the Jews were especially in the Jewish quarter. This is being admitted, but it must be said the stories of the whole city being in flames is an unprecedented occurrence.

On Sunday all the principal streets were filled with people strolling about looking at the damage caused by taking the air, children were slinging or unning about with their nurses with the families of many European soldiers and hurried there to find some of the populace who had entered a Jewish restaurant being driven out by police.

DRESSED UP AND PRETTY Charged With Shopping in Annie Maloney.

Annie Maloney, dressed, rather pretty young woman of 20, was placed under arrest in Miller Brothers yesterday afternoon by House Detectives. She was charged with shoplifting. The young woman was stylishly dressed, wearing a big coat which cost at least $15, a handsome dress and expensive shoes. When approached by the officers she gave her name as Willie Knox, whose home is in Ridgeville, Chattanooga, but from her bank book, which the officers found in her purse, her identity was established as Annie Maloney, whose home is in Ridgeville. The woman had in her possession a freckle and a gown valued at about $12. When her home was searched the detectives found a gold ring, a pocket-book and a silver cigarette case. The woman is the wife of a merchant seaman and it is probable she is a drug addict and this probably accounts for her conduct, for according to the officers she was kept in close touch with the woman's family, where she was taken after her husband was arrested. She is being held in the Matron Mrs. Marshall in police court Thursday morning.

Washington, Dec. 5.—(Special.)—Senator McKellar and a committee of Chattanooga had a satisfactory interview this morning with Brig-Gen. Marshall, chief of construction department, regarding the Rossville boulevard. Gen. Marshall took the matter up by telephone with members of the general staff and secured a promise that it would be reopened and considered again. McKellar also expressed himself as favorable to the construction of the road. The general staff day before yesterday decided it was not a military necessity, and hence the issuance of the order along with others affecting contracts at many camps.

ALL'S WELL ON WILSON'S SHIP

President Spending Most of Time in His Quarters.

CONFERENCE SATURDAY President Expected to Outline America's Position at Peace Conference.

(By John Edwin Nevin.) With President Wilson aboard the George Washington somewhere at sea, Dec. 5.—(By Wireless to New York.)—President Wilson is spending most of his time in his quarters on the George Washington, because he is suffering from a slight cold.

The presidential trip has been uneventful up to date. The George Washington is being paced by the battleship Pennsylvania, flanked by a destroyer flotilla. Since leaving port the steamer has been making several knots an hour.

President Wilson took a brief constitutional upon the deck, afterwards reading an accumulation of mail. He dictated at length to a stenographer, the weather is fine, but cold and windy, causing some roughness to the sea.

The president will begin conferring Saturday with the other two peace delegates on board the ship. Secretary of State Lansing and Henry White. President Wilson is likely to outline America's position at the peace conference at an early date following his arrival in France.

Washington, Dec. 5.—(I. N. S.)—All is well aboard the George Washington. A message to this effect was received early today by radio from the vessel, which is carrying the presidential party to the peace conference.

The message did not give the location of the vessel at the time, which is in accordance with the precautions taken by all other ships since the start of the war.

Messages from the George Washington began to reach the navy department almost as soon as the vessel got under way, it was learned today.

On Sunday all the principal streets were filled with people strolling about looking at the damage caused by taking the air, children were slinging or unning about with their nurses with the families of many European soldiers and hurried there to find some of the populace who had entered a Jewish restaurant being driven out by police.

Spends Day Quietly. On Board the George Washington, Dec. 5.—(By Wireless to Associated Press.)—President Wilson spent most of the first day of the trip on this steamship working in his office, the part of his suite. After the evening, being served by a waiter, who claimed to have attended Emperor William and the empress in the same suite on the trial trip of the George Washington.

The reports that the presidential party had been fitted up in a luxurious manner are untrue. In the dining hall music was furnished by the ship's band and a quartet of sailors.

Indeed, all Americans are being welcomed here in a spirit of frank sincerity. There never was a day when England was ready to go across to any possible distance toward the realization of America's aspirations and policies.

GERMANS SHED WINGS In Retreat, Advancing Allies Picking Them Up.

London, Dec. 5.—There will be no formal surrender of German airplanes, as was at one time expected, because it has been found impracticable to assemble the 2,000 airplanes at one place and it is doubtful whether Germany has a sufficient number of reliable pilots for that purpose. Hence the first surrender in history of an air fleet is being effected by piecemeal. The Germans are shedding their wings in our business, and England is only too glad to welcome America's officials here.

REFUSE OWN SOLDIERS Russia Turns Back Many Men to Germany.

London, Dec. 5.—The Russian government has refused to admit 1,500,000 Russian soldiers who have been prisoners in Germany, and has turned them back at the frontier, according to a Berlin dispatch. The incident is serious for Germany because of the necessity of feeding them.

PORT WHERE WILSON LANDS

Brest, France, is the harbor where President Wilson's party going to the peace conference will disembark and be welcomed by the French foreign minister and a group of notables of the sister republic. Brest has become one of the world's busiest ports as a result of war and evidence of American building enterprise is everywhere in warehouses and docks and other structures.

ENGLAND READY TO HEAR WILSON

Never Before So Willing to Aid Realization of America's Policies.

BRITISH APPRECIATIVE Of Overseas Ally, Whose Political Troubles They Deem "None of Their Business."

London, Dec. 5.—It is stated here that tentative decisions of high importance have been reached by the allied conference here which is now concluded. The exchange of views has been frank. In the course of one session Marshal Poch explained the military position with the assistance of a map and talking for an hour and a half discussed all the possibilities.

The decisions reached relate to the following subjects: The allied preliminary conference in Paris; the extension of the armistice; the extradition of the Kaiser; indemnity and compensation from Germany; the formation of new states, particularly with reference to Polish south Germany; Serbian, Greek, Rumanian and Czech-Slovak aspirations for shipping, and also the general peace conference.

The preliminary peace conference with President Wilson present, will be held next week.

All decisions, it may be said, are tentative, pending consultation with the American delegates. Many columns are being printed here regarding different viewpoints expressed in America on Wilson's visit and also on the principles of peace. It is needless to say they are read with the greatest interest.

The reports that the presidential party had been fitted up in a luxurious manner are untrue. In the dining hall music was furnished by the ship's band and a quartet of sailors.

ARREST SEVEN GERMANS Smuggled Themselves to Paris—Plead the Armistice.

Paris, Dec. 5.—Seven Germans, one of them a woman, who formerly lived in Paris, have found means of returning here, but have been discovered and arrested. They had taken advantage of the homeward movement of prisoners and intered civilians from Germany to smuggle themselves into France and make their way to this city. Their plan was that they thought the existence of the armistice permitted their return.

EXTENSION OF LOANS TO ALLIED GOVERNMENTS NEED HELP UNTIL NORMAL CONDITIONS.

Secretary McAdoo Announces He Will Ask for Necessary Authority.

Washington, Dec. 5.—(I. N. S.)—The United States must continue the extension of loans to the allied governments, even after the declaration of peace, it was definitely learned today. Legislation granting such authority will soon be asked of congress by the secretary of the treasury.

Further loans to the allies are requisite for the reconstruction of the world. The governments associated with the United States in war must have food for the people and raw materials to rebuild their countries.

"Until certain of the allied countries can resume their normal activities, the United States could be prepared to sell them on credit, even after the declaration of peace, food, raw materials and manufactured products of which they are in need," Secretary McAdoo said.

Secretary McAdoo said he would recommend the enactment of legislation extending the authority to establish credits and establishing credits in favor of foreign governments at war with the enemies of America. The balance of this appropriation, therefore, is now $1,803,423.

Officials declined to comment on whether Mr. McAdoo's decision to ask congress for authority for a continuation of loans meant that America would be called on to grant loans to the allies in excess of the remaining credit balance, or whether the authority was necessary, because the United States is not officially at war with the present enemies of America. Such comment was withheld, as it cannot be accurately determined to what extent the allied governments will require further credits.

It is known, however, from Secretary McAdoo's annual report that the treasury expects that all of the present credit balance of the original $10,000,000,000 appropriation plus the $1,803,423 additional appropriation will be used during the present fiscal year.

No estimate of further loans in excess of the $10,000,000,000 appropriation was recorded in the report, however.

Secretary McAdoo has said that it is important that foreign loans be discontinued as soon as may be possible in order to collect the interest on our industries and the essential needs of the foreign governments; and in the meantime the loans should be held down to a minimum.

The most pressing demand, according to the organization, is for delivery of Palestine to be reorganized. The Zionist organization of America, which is now holding the purse strings of the world, so as to prevent the possibility of internal strife in the foreign countries, it was said.
