Independents.
Our friends in Natchitoches parish may in a moment of fret or anger give expression to language which would lead one to suppose them in favor of independent candidates; such however, is not the case. Their well known patriotism and popularity makes us know that none will battle harder than they for the success of the Democratic ticket.
The Democracy of Natchitoches is fighting now for a Constitutional Convention. We have nominated for the Legislature two of the best men in the parish, and every effort must and will be strained to secure their election. All other offices and officers are insignificant, and the patriot who wants Louisiana redeemed will not think of them for a moment.
Let us all work to get a good Legislature that will call a Constitutional Convention at once, and then we can redeem Louisiana once and forever, when the minor offices can receive such attention as they merit.
Vote Like Democrats.
Natchitoches parish arose like one man two weeks ago and struck down the enemy, we did our work that day like Democrats, let it never be said of us that we couldn't vote like those grand old patriots. Would it not be a shame to say that we could fight the enemy like a Roman phalanx but we quarreled like children over an office.
Have you Registered? IF NOT, Go and do so at once.
Beulah Camp Meeting.
The tenth annual camp meeting at Beulah, in this (Natchitoches) parish, commenced on Friday the 20th ult., at which it was our pleasure to attend. Early Friday morning the various roads leading to the camp ground were alive with wagons, carriages and horses, and hundreds of worshippers hastening on to the grounds where in former years they had so enjoyed themselves in the service of God—a huge tent had been erected on the center of the grounds, around which were built numerous houses called tents. About forty families were tented on the grounds and these families were prepared to accommodate all persons who visited the meeting, free of any charge.
On Sunday about six hundred persons were present, and notwithstanding the large crowd they were all well fed and cared for and the most perfect order prevailed.
The following ministers were present: Rev. Randle, John Pipes, Geo. M. Livrington, J. M. Frarlin, J. B. Cosgrove, A. F. Gallaway and Thos. J. Hough and Rev. Mr. Branch of the Baptist Church. About fifteen sermons were preached, all pointed, clear, forcible and delivered with great power and authority. Two sermons preached by Rev. John Pipes of Mansfield deserves special note because of their eloquence, and the subjects, they were both funeral discourses, one on the death of Thomas O. Jordan, son of our esteemed citizen A. G. Jordan of Allen in this parish; before preaching the sermon Rev. Mr. Pipes read the following paper which will give your readers an insight into the discourse:
"The object of this hour's service is to preach the funeral of Brother Thomas Osborne Jordan, son of A. G. & D. H. Jordan. He was born May 18, 1840, and died July 27, 1877, aged 37 years. From childhood and during his whole life, he was a subject of constant and severe affliction. First from partial paralysis and secondly from losing his eyesight. In 1874 he resolved to become religious, and under the ministry of the Rev. Jas. E. Brady was converted to God and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church South. At once he gave himself to prayer and meditation, and soon became a bright and happy Christian. Though his afflictions were great, and his sufferings intense; yet he would often repeat hymns of praise and exhort his friends, and all who attended him, to be religious and to meet him in Heaven. Some of his last words were, 'an hour in the dark valley, but I will see you all where I shall be happy! happy! happy! happy!'"
His final request of his father was that he should build a tent on Beulah camp ground, and occupy the same. Then after a lifetime of augmented suffering, he sweetly fell asleep in Jesus. He rests from his labors and his works do follow him."
Mr. Pipes selected as his text Revelations 14—13—"And I heard a voice from Heaven saying unto me, write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; yes, saith the spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them." The sermon was systematically arranged, and delivered with feeling of telling effect.
On Monday at eleven Mr. Pipes preached the funeral of Rev. Mr. Porter, and read the following papers just before taking his text:
"The Rev. Baxter S. Porter was born in Dallas county, Alabama, October 8th, 1825, and died October 13th, 1878, aged 51 years. He was converted at Bethel Church camp meeting in Mississippi, in 1845, was called to the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, in 1857. He was a man of great firmness and decision of character. He was fully devoted to the interest of the Church and to the cause of Christ. In the latter years of his life he was a subject of great and severe affliction, both of body and mind, his mind gave way, and for some time he suffered a fearful degree of insanity. He finally recovered and was restored to sanity in direct answer to the prayers of God's people, as his last illness, he gave conclusive evidence of the triumph of grace over death, the last and final foe. On one occasion during great suffering he said, 'this Death? If so, how sweet, meet; at another time he said, 'Glory! Glory!' A day or two in company with Brother... he departed and... and he has gone to the glory of God's children."
Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named." The Minister's words mainly on family religion and its results.
There were about six hundred persons in attendance on Sunday, in fact there was an immense crowd from first to last. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered to 118 communicants on Sunday night. There were many conversions and accessions to the Church, it being closed Wednesday night, it was a success as to members, in education and in spirituality, and was so long to be remembered. We took frequent occasion to mention the claims of the Indicator and found many subscribers and many who propose to take the paper as soon as they realize money for their cotton.

Register.
We appeal to every white man in this parish to REGISTER, and that at once. If they do so and go forward and vote, we assure them that the victorious banner of Democracy will wave over our parish one month from to-day. Let no man hold back; let the best citizens of every neighborhood compel the lazy, the indifferent and the sulky to register. Their property, their rights are at stake and no man has the right to jeopardize either.
TAXES.
Our citizen taxpayers should not allow the political excitement now prevailing to cause them to forget the fact that their taxes are now due and payable on 1st November next. Our tax collector publishes a call in this week's issue which we hope will be responded to right royally by all. In order to have an efficient government taxes must be paid to sustain it, and as they have been considerably reduced by both parish and state authorities, we trust our taxpayers will come and settle without further delay.

Independents.
Some dissatisfaction was manifested at the action of the parish convention and the talk for a few days afterwards was of independent candidates. Of course such policy would turn the parish over to her worst enemies and submit our property and rights to those outrages which in the past aroused us to action. The independent movement of Democrats, we are proud to note, has entirely subsided, but it continued long enough to embolden the enemy into talking of their independent candidates, who, strange to say, were the same individuals that were Republicans or Radicals two years ago. They changed their political garb simply, and now propose to run on the independent, high cockalorum ticket, as if independents were as respectable even as Radicals. Natchitoches parish has suffered much from bad local and State government, she don't intend to suffer any longer from either. Her present condition, which is so unmeasurably better than it was two years ago and beyond comparison with that of four years past, is due to the efforts of a united, solid Democratic party, and all good men certainly intend to maintain the integrity and discipline of that party to which they owe so much.
The Independent dodge is too thin to disguise radicalism with and is certain to meet as prompt an efficient resistance from the people as radicalism has.

Were There.
We have the names of a few white men who were on the eve of turning traitors to their race and going over to Blunt and who signed his roll on 21st just before the negro mob fired on our town. Do the people want to hide themselves in shame and disgrace forever?
Let them begone with their grumblings and their endorsement at the last hour of Radicalism in Natchitoches parish.
OUR RIOT.
[Coushatta Citizen.]
The majority of our readers are familiar with the cause of the trouble, consequently we shall have but little to say about it. Blunt and his followers certainly knew and fully appreciated the danger attendant upon their action in calling a mass meeting upon the same day that a Democratic Convention was to be held. They knew, or ought to have known, that a collision was not the least of probabilities, if not an absolute certainty, if the least braggadoio or bombast was practiced by armed men. In the face of these dangers, Blunt not only held his mass meeting, but his speakers used incendiary language, excited the whites to such a degree that, instead of transacting their legitimate business, they dispersed for protection of life and property.
It may appear, as the Shreveport Times says, to those at a distance from the scene of disturbance, and who do not understand the characters of these leaders, or the temper and animus of an excited negro population that this was a very high-handed measure. Those who are familiar with such matters will commend the good people of Natchitoches for their forbearance in having permitted these men to live in the parish for so long a time.
The trouble is over with for the present, and we trust, for all time to come. But little blood has been shed, so far, and discretion and prudence during this campaign, will do much towards making Louisiana a prosperous State.
[Shine Southron.]
The heroic patience and forbearance with which the people of Natchitoches have borne the insults and cruel outrages, from time to time, for several years, of these stupid and malignant disturbers of their peace and safety, is calculated to enervate the sturdiest native virtue. Now that their iniquity has culminated in an attempt to murder and despoil them of their property, they still exercise moderation, and forego their extermination. Will these people never learn that their resistance to law and order, through a spirit of vindictiveness to the white race, will surely and certainly result in their final ruin if not total extermination.
Their leaders, white as well as colored, by fostering this spirit of delusion, that the white people of this country are their enemies, and should be forced to surrender the government into the hands of their leaders, is the cause of all this trouble. They incite these collisions between races and seek to make political capital by crying "bloody-shirt," etc., against the only true friends of the negro race and of law and order. Under these circumstances can the intelligent and patriotic men of this country be so indifferent to the welfare of their country as to withhold their support from the party that is now struggling to save us from the lawlessness and ruin of this stupid and deluded race, whose prejudices are incited to madness against us by a remorseless set of demagogues and vampires.

From Above.
NEGROES STILL WARLIKE.
Startling intelligence brought here on Thursday morning by dis patch from Camptoe to the effect that the negroes were organized to burn and slay on that night every white man aroused us all to action. A strong party was sent up on horseback from this point.

The Democratic Platform.
The platform on the vital, all important and absorbing question of State retrenchment and reform is pronounced in the general pledge of reform, abolition of useless officers and reduction of salaries. There are matters within our own control in which we have no consultation with the general government. From 1845 to 1861 the State taxation for all purposes, save school tax, was from 12 1/2 to 6 two-thirds cents on the hundred dollars valuation. It is now nearly 20 times that on an individual valuation of property much greater than then. Here is room for vigorous, unceasing and determined reform. Lops of useless officers, cut down the salaries of all. The frugality and simplicity of life of the days of Jackson and Jefferson are demanded by the times. They are practiced of necessity by all who do not live either through the labor of others, or on inherited wealth or the accumulation of past industry. Among the cases of reform needed, only the Governor's patronage and power are specialized. There is another office quite as much needed—that of the Auditor. His presence at the Convention may explain the silence which is conspicuous, taking into view the resolution passed by some of the Parish Conventions. His is an office, the next most important in the State, that needs deep and incisive surgery. In 1844 S. Mr. Michel Masson, then as now an honored citizen of New Orleans, under the unpretending title of Chief Clerk in the Treasurer's office, performed the duties now attached to both Treasurer and Auditor on a salary of $2,000 and two assistants. In addition to the ordinary duties of the position he planned and effected a liquidation of the State debt accumulated during the flush times of 1837-43, which raised the credit of the State to the highest point and left it almost without public debt. This is in most striking contrast to the small work and big pay now attached to the personnel of the State government. But the whole official edifice is crumpled with un-
