The Complot Thickens.

The friends of Mr. Yancey deny that he is a disunionist. Denials are nothing against facts proving the truth of the thing denied. We think Mr. Yancey's record fastens the charge of disunion upon him so firmly that the denials of himself and friends will be impotent to shake it off. The Huntsville (Ala.) Independent says it has received from a reliable source the following:

On the 11th day of May, 1858, in the Convention at Montgomery, Wm. L. Yancey said: "He had not taken the ground that he would make the refusal to repeal the present discriminating laws against the South the sole issue upon which to hazard the issue of Union or disunion—WHEN HE HAD A HUNDRED GOOD CAUSES OF COMPLAINT HE WAS NOT SO UNWISE AS TO GIVE UP NINETY-NINE OF THEM AND TRUST TO THE ONE, HOWEVER GOOD THAT ONE MIGHT BE." On the 15th of May, 1858, he said: "And yet the gentleman from Virginia, (Mr. Pryor) and others here, had said that they would consider the election of a Black Republican President in 1860, as sufficient cause for dissolving the Union, even though he should be elected under the forms of the law and the Constitution. He would say that he would go with the South even on that issue, though he should feel that it was an inferior one, and when, if they should not succeed and he was asked why judgment of death should not be pronounced against him for treason, he could not say he could have done upon present issues, raise his eyes to Heaven and say that he was guiltless of wrong toward the Constitution and Laws of country?"

Here we have additional proof of the deep conspiracy entered into by H. A. Wise, and W. L. Yancey, The Charleston Mercury et al consequentes, to destroy this glorious Union. How can the friends of Mr. Yancey deny that he is a disunionist when we have such irrefragible proof from his own lips, that he is one? And how can we class Mr. Breckinridge, when such men are his especial mouth pieces. When we take in consideration that he was nominated by a faction in Richmond, and that a New York delegate was called to order a half dozen times because he dared as a patriot, to speak in favor of the Union before that Southern sectional Convention, as the Mercury declares it emphatically was? How shall we class Mr. Breckinridge if not a disunionist. We are too charitable to call him a political knave, yet if he is not to be judged by his supporters his position to say the least of it, is extremely equivocal.

News and Other Items.

A Washington dispatch, of August 31st says: It is ascertained that the Administration has no more official information on Mexican affairs than is already known to the public through the newspapers. The dispatch of vessels to the Gulf is merely a precautionary matter, in view of the Spanish hostilities against Mexico. It is probable that Minister McLane will return to Vera Cruz, in accordance with a desire expressed in official quarters. While our Government would not view with indifference an armed European intervention in the affairs of that country, it would be powerless to lawfully interfere. Congress having made no provision for such a contingency.

It is a well known fact that after a certain period of life, with only a few exceptions, the eyesight begins to fail and glasses become necessary. A gentleman of this city has discovered a method, the finality use of which will prevent this failure. Also, in cases where glasses have been used for a considerable time, the eyesight can be restored so that the use of them will be no longer necessary. He has established the fact by the restoration of his own eyesight, and that of some others after glasses had been indispensable for some years. He can now read the finest print without their use. This information is communicated to us by one of our very worthy citizens, and we know of no reason to question his statement.—Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist.

Letter from Our Traveling Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17, 1860.

COL. BOYCE:—I returned to this great city a few day since, and found that so far from an abatement of the wild enthusiasm of the people, I witnessed as I passed through on my way to Boston, the furore is really greater. My heart leaped for joy, when several who had been wanderers after false Gods, were pointed out to me as enthusiastic in the cause of Bell and Everett, and who declare that whilst they were Fremont men, they are not Abe Lincoln's "irrepressible" men. There are thousands of voters here who are moderate free-soilers, that is, who are opposed to the extension of slavery, who care less for their one idea than they do for the glorious Union. Lincoln has a host of friends here, but the "out-and-out" Abolition ticket recently nominated, and the fleeing from the State of Seward and his general lukewarmness, will take off thousands of votes from his ticket. Indeed many now concede the State to the friends of the Union, and if the old rail-splitter loses New York, why he simply loses his election, and that is all. So immensely bitter is the feud between the Yancey disunionists and the Douglasites, that many of them will go for Lincoln in preference to the "Little Giant," indeed they avow it out publicly, but they can do but little harm, as there are but a corporal's guard of them. To give you an idea of what is thought of their strength, I saw a bet, (which seemed to me a most foolish one at the time,) made, that Mr. Breckinridge the candidate of the disunionists, would not get 35,000 votes north of Mason and Dixon's line. One of the gentlemen remarked that he would get 20,000 office-holders, but the other told him that if the matter could be ascertained, that Douglas would get a majority of them, for old Buck's pap had nearly run out, and Breckinridge did not stand the ghost of a chance to retain them in their places, and consequently they were for the strong man.

There is but little doubt but that the State of New York is to decide the contest, tho' many believe it depends upon the land of Penn.

I leave here for Philadelphia on the morning train, from which point I will write you again. I have no doubt you consider me a poor correspondent, but a plain business man, unaccustomed to writing for the public eye, cannot be expected to write otherwise than in the simple style that will convey what he actually sees, and what is occurring around him daily, to the understanding of the reader. Yours, X.

Political Items.

Ex-Gov. Foote recently said that Breckinridge could be certain of but one State, South Carolina, and it he makes any more professions of attachment to the Union would probably lose even that.

John Wentworth, Mayor of Chicago, and editor of the Black Republican organ in that city, advises, as the "surest way of electing Lincoln, that

All that the Republicans have to do is to see that Breckinridge tickets are put in nomination and supported in every State.

And his advice is being followed—for we have yet to hear of the first Yancey-Breckinridgeite who entertains the remotest hope of giving to their candidate the vote of a single Northern State, though electoral tickets will be run in the most of them, for the express purpose of electing Lincoln, and thus "fixing the Southern heart."

We perceive by the Austin Intelligencer of the 9th, that the Union ball has been fairly started in Texas. There was a grand and enthusiastic meeting in Austin, in which some of the most distinguished men of the State took part. Among them were Ex-Gov. E. M. Pease, Gen. A. H. Hamilton, M. C., Hon. E. W. Cave, and others. The following, among other resolutions, was adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That we will cheerfully support Messrs. B. H. Epperson and Geo. W. Paschal as electors for the State at large, and Messrs. Wm. Steadman and John H. Robson as district electors on the Union electoral ticket for the State of Texas.

These gentlemen are warm friends of General Houston, and the whole conservative elements of the State will be thus united.

We perceive by the Jackson, (Miss.) News that the Constitutionalists of that city have determined upon having a great State mass meeting there on Thursday and Friday, the 4th and 5th of October. It will be a grand affair no doubt. Committees of arrangement have already been appointed, and there will be a whole-souled Mississippi welcome to all the world and his beloved cousin! Mississippi is evidently on fire. Never before was the conservatism of the State so fully aroused. On brethren up there are a noble set of fellows, and they expect to carry the State. Well, when the old dominion votes against disunion, why should not Mississippi, and Louisiana, and every other Southern State imitate her glorious example. That Virginia will so vote is given up frankly by her own Democratic Executive.

Some idea may be formed of the efforts which the friends of Bell and Everett are making in Pennsylvania by the following names who have placed their services at the disposal of the State Executive Committee, to address their fellow citizens upon the issues of the canvass: Hon. Joseph R. Ingersoll, Hon. Edward King, Hon H. M. Fuller, Wm. P. Seymour, Esq., Frederick W. Grayson, Hon. Jacob Broom, David P. Brown, Jr., Esq., John K. Zollin, Esq., E. C. Reckin, Esq.

These are among the most distinguished and eloquent men of Pennsylvania.

We learn from the Natchez Courier that a great meeting of the friends of Bell and Everett took place there last Wednesday. The Courier says it was a day that will be long remembered. Hon. W. A. Lake, Hon. W. Brooks, and others made speeches. Many ladies were in attendance, and great enthusiasm prevailed.

The Hon. H. W. Hillard, of Alabama, whose noble letter we published yesterday addressed a great crowd at Newark, N. J., on Friday last. He was received with vociferous cheering, and made the welkin ring for Bell and Everett.

The San Antonio Herald of the 28th learns through a private letter from Austin dated August 22d, that Maj. Jno. Marshall of the State Gazette, and Hon. A. B. Norton, of the Intelligencer, have gone out to have a hostile meeting. The parties are said to have retired to some point on the confines of the Cherokee Nation. Much excitement exists in Austin on account of the expected result.

Bell and Everett Recruits.

Hon. H. M. Hilliard, of Alabama, a supporter of Buchanan's administration, and Breckinridge, has come out in favor of Bell and Everett.

Col. Lochrane, a prominent of Macon, Ga., until recently supporting Breckinridge, has declared for Bell and Everett, saying that Breckinridge has "no earthly chance."

The Limestone News, a Breckinridge paper in Athens, Ala., has been converted into a Bell paper.

The Osceola, (Mo.) Democrat has taken down the names of Breckinridge and Lane, and run up the flag of Bell and Everett. Still they come!

Messrs. Miller and Keene, prominent Breckinridge electors in North Carolina, have abandoned him. Two members of the Executive Committee of the Breckinridge party in the same State, have abandoned the sinking ship of the Yancey-Breckinridge party.

We close here for this week in hopes that

I WILL PAY the above reward and all reasonable expenses, if delivered to me, for my negro man ISOM, or I will pay $100, (one hundred dollars,) for evidence that would lead to the conviction of any party or parties that may have been tampering with the said boy. Isom is black, about 35 years old, rather spare built and carries himself very erect. He generally wears a light hat and on the chin will (perhaps) a small moustache, and has a good open countenance. He left my plantation in the parish on the night of the 4th inst., and it is presumed he had no other apparel than that worn through the day, viz: pantaloons and shirt of white cotton osnaburg, as he left the cotton field when work for the day was suspended. Address me at Alexandria, La., or if the boy should be placed in jail in New Orleans, apply to Messrs. West, Renshaw & Carmichael, thereof.

THE CELEBRATED
PATENT SILVER TRUSS.

IT is indestructible—always clear, comfortable and secure. Its peculiar formation affords as much elasticity, when made of silver, as when made of steel, and the advantages of a silver one are: It will not corrode; it can be fitted with just sufficient pressure to answer the condition of each case, which amount of pressure it will always retain. It will not break; it affords more support with less pressure than any other truss, and it is the best one suited to a person residing in warm climate, and when directions are strictly followed, a is certain, and guaranteed if required.

Dr. T. P. Bundy, of New Orleans, would inform the citizens of Alexandria that he has taken rooms at the Ice House, where he would be happy to receive a call from all those who are suffering from that terrible infirmity, hernia.

Many who have but a small rupture do not attend to it, under the impression that there is no danger; but as Sir Astley Cooper has justly remarked: "A small rupture is more to be feared than a large one, from the fact the opening through which the intestines pass is so small, that a misstep or sudden turn of the body may force out the intestine, and strangulation in its worst form will soon follow." Then delay not, for delays are dangerous, and you may soon have cause to blame yourself for not procuring a proper fitting Truss.

Fever and Ague,

from which mankind suffer over a large part of the globe, is the consequence of a diseased action in the system, induced by the poisonous effluvia of vegetable decay. This exhalation is caused by the action of solar heat on wet soil, and rises with the watery vapor from it. While the sun is below the horizon this vapor lingers near the ground, and the virus is taken with it through the lungs into the blood. There it acts as a fermenting poison on the internal organs and fluids of the body. The liver becomes torpid and fails to secrete out only this virus, but also the bile from the blood. Both the virus and the bile accumulate in the circulation, and produce violent constitutional disorder. The spleen, the kidneys, the stomach sympathize with the liver, and become disordered also. Finally, the treatment of organism, as if in an attempt to expel the poisoned fluids, concentrates the morbific matter in the liver, in the internal excretories of which it is thrown out. The blood leaves the surface, and leaves all the central organs with congestive chills. This is the Crisis. But in this effort it fails. Then the Fever follows, in which the blood leaves the central organs and rushes to the surface, as if in another effort to expel the irritating poison through that other great excretory—the skin. In this also it fails, and the system abandons the attempt exhausted, and waits for the recovery of strength to repeat the hopeless effort another day. These are the fits or paroxysms of FEVER AND AGUE. Such constitutional disorder will of course undermine the health if it is not removed.

We have labored to find, and have found, an antidote, which neutralizes this malarious poison in the blood, and stimulates the liver to expel it from the body. As it should, so it does cure this ailening disorder with perfect certainty. And it does more, or rather does what is of more service to those subject to this infection. If taken in season it expels it from the system as it is absorbed, and thus keeps those who use it free from its attacks; keeps the system in health although exposed to the disease. Consequently it not only cures, but protects from the great variety of affections which are induced by this malignant influence, such as Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb, or Masked Ague, Periodical Headache, or Bilious Headache, Bilious Fevers, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitations, Painful Affections of the Spleen, Hysterics, Colic, Paralysis, and Painful Affections of the Stomach and Bowels, all of which, when arising from this cause, will be found to assume more or less the intermittent type. This "Ague Cure" removes the cause of these derangements, and cures the disease.

This it accomplishes by stimulating the excretories to expel the virus from the system; and these organs by degrees become habited to do this their office of their own accord. Hence arises what we term acclimatation. Time may accomplish the same end, but often life is not long enough, or is sacrificed in the attempt, while this "Ague Cure" does it at once, and with safety. We have great reason to believe this is a surer as well as safer remedy for the whole class of diseases which are caused by the miasmatic infection, than any other which has been discovered; and it has still another important advantage to the public, which is, that it is cheap as well as good.
