

THROUGH THE STATE

PETERSBURG AND VICINITY.
Increase in Rate on Railroad...
The Richmond Dispatch, November 21, 1888.

A gentleman of this city is the possessor of an interesting memento of the Revolution...
The document bears the date of November 15, 1781, and is a receipt for a sum of money...

THE EASTERN SHORE.
Grand Democratic Demonstration—Cont.
The Richmond Dispatch, November 21, 1888.

The grandest political demonstration ever witnessed on the Eastern Shore of Virginia took place in this town last night, in honor of the election of Cleveland and Hendricks and Croxon.

In spite of inclement weather and drizzling rain, a large crowd, including persons from both counties, assembled here to participate in the celebration. All the houses of the town, with the exception of a few, were brilliantly illuminated...

Robert Davis, a white youth, aged about twenty years, was found in his home in Salisbury, Md., on the morning of the 21st inst., living in the National Capital, of whose losses he had heard. Yesterday he traveled to this city, and on his way to Washington, seeking transportation from the railroad companies to enable him to get back to his mother. In this he has been successful so far, his condition being such as to excite compassion.

The counties throughout the Fourth congressional district are appointing bills of delegates to the Farmers' Convention to be held at the State House on the 26th of December next. If all the delegates who have been appointed should attend, the body will not only be the largest but also the most important ever organized in this section.

Rev. D. A. Glenn, a young clergyman of the Episcopal Church, was called to the pastoral charge of the Byram-Street Baptist Church in this city, whose pulpits have been vacant for some time. His services will be rendered on the next day, and a meeting will be held on the next day, with the view of calling a pastor.

YOUTHFUL DEATHS.
A young girl, named Mary, aged about five years, died at her residence in this city, last night, in the sixty-fourth year of her age. The doctor says she had been one of the most prominent and wealthiest business-men of Lynchburg, and held various positions of honor and trust.

THE MARRIAGE OF SENATOR J. SIMONDS.
Senator J. Simonds, of this State, is reported to have been married in this city, last night, at the Episcopal church west Thursday, 21st inst.

LABOR TROUBLES.

Reduction of Wages—Mill Closes and Shutters Down.
The Richmond Dispatch, November 21, 1888.

The mill-closers, November 21.—Nearly all the mill-closers were closed to-day, owing to the refusal of the owners to reduce wages to 16 to 20 per cent. The few mills which did make a reduction in wages, and which were running, with reduced forces, all operated with reduced forces, and upon short time.

NEW YORKS VOTE.
Tables and Certificates Signed—Highest Cleveland Piracy 1.19.
The Richmond Dispatch, November 21, 1888.

ALBANY, N. Y., November 21.—The Albany State Convention met to-night to receive the tables and certificates of the vote of the State for the election of Cleveland and Hendricks.

SOLDIERS' LONGEVITY.

Calculations in regard to the Length of Human Life.
The Richmond Dispatch, November 21, 1888.

It is a hard thing to tell when the last soldier of the civil war will die. The old soldier says, "We do not know the number of men who enlisted, or what portion of them died, and without this it would be impossible to form an accurate estimate."
