They Enticed Well. The Virginia Democrats build well in their platform...

The German papers announce that the test of the friendly relations now existing between England and Germany...

The Chicago Tribune, Radical Negroes. The Chicago Tribune, Radical Negroes, says the advance of the negroes during the last twenty years has been in the face of appalling difficulties...

Colonel J. Richard Lewellen and Mr. W. S. Copeland, who recently purchased the Danville Register, have more than fulfilled their promise to make the paper one which the people of Danville will be proud of...

We have received from R. E. Lee Camp, No. 1, Confederate Veterans, a neat little pamphlet containing the address of Colonel Archer Anderson on the opening of the Lee-Camp Soldiers' Home...

"Irregularities have been found in the Government carpenter-shops." A plain case, doubtless.

The Chicago Mail says: "KILLEY's fight is now the country's fight." That is the right view to take of the matter.

"But what do you GOSUCHY?" exclaims the Cleveland Plain Dealer. We would suggest that a few yards of rope would not cost much.

The Philadelphia North American says: "The shrinking process continues in the case of poor KILLEY." Mistake. It is with the poor organs that abused KILLEY that the shrinking process continues. KILLEY is getting bigger every day.

The Philadelphia Press says there is a "cheering prospect ahead for the iron trade." A boom in the iron business means a boom in everything else; and now what becomes of the Stalwart prediction that the election of CLEVELAND meant a universal business smash?

United States Senator Vest, of Missouri, who has been suffering acutely from a neuralgia malady, is better.

Senator Platt, of Connecticut, recently shot the largest deer that has been slain in the Adirondacks for many a year.

Cards are out for the marriage of Professor James A. Harrison, of Washington and Lee University, to Miss Lizzie, daughter of the late Governor John Lee, of Kentucky.

Mrs. Grant has grown much attached to the cottage at Mount McGregor, where she will remain for a large portion of her time, as she feels better to bear her loss in that retired place. She has left the cottage but once since her husband's death.

Harry Jackson, the English actor, whose death occurred last week, will be remembered principally for his representations of Napoleon I. He bore a striking facial resemblance to that character, and with stage accessories is said to have produced an appearance for all the world like that which the little Corporal presented.

Queen Victoria takes a strong personal interest in the picture she has ordered to commemorate the wedding at Wapping. She has expressed a wish that the altar and the standing between herself and the Prince of Wales, prior to the commencement of the ceremony.

VIRGINIA FRUIT-GROWERS.

THE ALBEMARLE MEETING. The Work They Are Doing--Good Report of Virginia Fruit in New York-Regulate Charities.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, August 18th. At the last meeting of the Fruit-growers Association Mr. Holladay presided in the absence of the chairman, Mr. Lyman. The following gentlemen were elected members of the Association: W. L. Heuser, F. H. Syers, E. Morey, William Mann, J. O. H. Pendleton, W. R. Campbell, Thomas W. Elson, R. H. Fife, J. G. Green, George Randolph, E. C. Mead, Dr. R. H. Stratton, and the Rev. T. A. Ware, Messrs. J. M. Hill and John Ott, of Richmond, were elected honorary members.

The chairman of the Committee on Exhibition and Premiums reported that the committee ought to have more time to prepare for the proposed exhibition; and Captain Bryan thereupon offered a resolution, which was adopted, postponing the exhibition until 1886.

The Committee on Theft, of which Oscar Verboon, Esq., is chairman, reported verbally. No thefts had been committed, and no demand had been made upon the committee to prosecute petty thieves. The committee desired more particular instruction as to their duties, and during the discussion Captain Bryan related his experiences on a plantation in Missouri, where the present committee had a committee like that and furnished it with money to prosecute the thieves who stole their fences and crops.

Mr. Keiser, chairman of the Committee on New Varieties, made an interesting report of a visit to an experimental vineyard, where he saw thirty-three new varieties. His observations led him to believe that of these the Florida and Noah were the best, while he thought favorably of the Highland, Wyoming, and Brighton. The Elvira and Noah he found free from rot, while the Brighton was subject to it.

Among the communications was one from the American Pomological Society, giving notice of the next meeting of that society and the requesting the attendance of a delegate from the Albemarle Association. A motion requesting a man to attend was unanimously adopted.

A detailed account of Mr. Lyman's recent visit to the cities of New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Cape Charles, and Newport's News, with all views to the fruit-growers of the Albemarle Association. Mr. Lyman had learned from the commission merchants that the Climax baskets were the best for the market, and the still more gratifying fact that Albemarle fruit is the best that reaches New York city.

Mr. Lyman expressed in reducing the charges of the express company, with fair prospects of cheaper rates in the future. The subject of grape-rot was discussed, and Mr. Lyman explained the method of bagging.

It was reported to the Association that the Midland railroad had promised that rates should be reduced and that the fruit-growers should be notified of the interests of the fruit-growers of this Association. QUIT.

A Street Row: Alexander Chisholm Baily Out-Ferris-Large Vote, &c. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

August 18, 1885. Saturday evening a difficulty occurred between Alexander Chisholm and John Langford, both of whom were under the influence of whiskey. Chisholm had Langford on the ground, but was pulled off by his opponent, who, when released, cut Chisholm rather badly on the thigh. Dr. Miller was soon on the ground, and sewed up the wound. Langford was arrested.

The late George William Bailey, whose serious illness was noted in the Dispatch, was buried Saturday in Oakwood. His funeral took place from the Presbyterian church. He was a lawyer by profession, and a man of fine intelligence. He was a veteran member of the Monticello Guard.

The largest vote ever had in a primary election in this county was cast Saturday. In this town the vote was over 400 strong.

DANVILLE.

About Striving With-Minded Him-Be-Holden. About Striving With-Minded Him-Be-Holden. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

August 17, 1885. In the neighborhood of Kentuck there are about ten wells made by boring, and of a depth of from twenty to forty feet. The augers are turned by a lever, to which a horse is hitched; but I am told that they will not penetrate hard rock. The curbing is generally of wood. The water is very good.

A negro woman named Betty Edmondson was cut in several places very severely here Saturday night by a negro named William Eggleston because she refused to fill an engagement to marry him. One cut was at the throat on the right side, one on the left, one down the breast, and two in the back. The wounds in the back will, the physician says, prove fatal. The woman had a child in her arms, and that was also wounded. The man escaped.

Rev. H. Petty baptized ten or twelve persons at Mill-Creek church, near Chatham, yesterday.

Rev. John Boyle, of the Presbyterian Church, preached here yesterday morning and lectured in the Presbyterian Mission Society last night.

Mr. H. C. Slaughter, superintendent of schools, gives me these items from his last annual report: Number of white children enrolled in the city, 539; colored, 751; average daily attendance, 319; average daily attendance of whites, 1,080; colored, 900; percentage of school population enrolled—white, 57; colored 62; white teachers employed, 43; colored, 11; amount of salaries paid, $9,233; 203; in private schools, 279. In the Danville district (Danville city excluded) the number of pupils enrolled was: White, 1,579; colored, 1,944; average daily attendance of whites, 1,080—colored, 900; percentage of school population enrolled—white, 63; colored, 49; salaries of teachers, $13,674.03; other expenses, $3,762.63; teachers employed—white, 45; colored, 25. Amount of funds received from Danville for city schools, $8,851.97; from the State for said schools, $2,826.33; amount of funds received from

THE STATE FOR DISTRICT SCHOOLS, 1885-86.

ALPHA. August 18, 1885. The colored woman Etta Edmondson, who was cut and stabbed by the negro man William Eggleston on Saturday night, is still lying in a hospital, but is recovering.

On Friday night the dwelling of Mr. James Forbes, in Buckingham, was entirely consumed by fire. The inmates barely escaped, and much valuable furniture and clothing was destroyed.

The crops continue up, and farmers say drought is suffering, which up to this time has given fair promise of an abundant yield of our domestic products.

Another Account of the Spontaneous Combustion of a Negro. FARMVILLE, VA., August 17, 1885. This is our day. The Mahone canvasser, Craig, opened the campaign with a furious attack upon McKinney for saying that Redjacks hereabouts are known by the pink of the hair and the color of the skin. McKinney arose in his wrath, denied the charge, and completely squelched this attempt to attack the blacks against the whites, and poured such a storm of invective upon the impudence that ventured to attack the lion in his den that made the Democrats prouder of McKinney than ever. He is nothing daunted by his failure to get the nomination for Governor, and will fight, as he promised, from the "rising of the sun to the going down thereof." He is as true as steel and as bold as a lion.

ROANOKE ASSOCIATION.

A Number of Personal Items About the Recent Meeting--The State to the Memory of Elder Weatherford. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

DANVILLE, August 17, 1885. Rev. L. E. Spencer, of the Roanoke Association, presented the report on the meeting held at this place on the 10th and 11th inst. with a forcible speech. Rev. F. H. Jones, recently from North Carolina, also made an able and strong speech. A number of short speeches were made about churches at Shiloh and Pleasant Grove by Rev. M. W. Read, Rev. H. Petty, Rev. P. H. Fontaine, Rev. Alexander Kubank, the membership of those churches having passed over to Lynchburg, and Lynchburg, by deaths and removals, having become a church that required help.

Rev. Dr. Dickinson closed the discussion by taking a collection for the completion of a church-building at Holly-wood. The idea commonly expressed was that it was good policy to build up and not neglect "the waste places."

In 1873 Rev. J. S. Glass, Rev. Dr. Brown, and Mr. J. S. Hubbard were appointed a committee to have marble slabs erected over the graves of Elders John Weatherford and John Jenkins. Mr. Hubbard died several years ago. The slab over the grave of Elder Jenkins was erected six years ago. On the last day of the session a number of the members of the Association attended the erection of the slab over Elder Weatherford's grave, which was superintended by Rev. Mr. Glass, and a report was made that the duty of the committee had been discharged.

Speeches were made on the report by Rev. Mr. Brown, Mr. T. Jones, Rev. Mr. J. H. Power, and Rev. W. R. L. Smith. The work of raising the money for these slabs was done mostly by the late Rev. Elias Dodson. On the slab over Elder Weatherford's is this inscription: "Elder John Weatherford, a devoted Baptist minister. Born in 1740; began to preach in 1761; jail in Chesterfield jail in 1773 five months for preaching; moved to Hanover in 1813; died January 23, 1837." Mr. Weatherford was born in Charlotte county.

Mr. George W. Boyd, one of the oldest of the Roanoke Association men, is now in feeble health, suffering at intervals from inability to speak, caused by paralysis about the throat, and from a general loss of strength. But he came out from his home, near Spring Garden, and was generally saluted.

ALBEMARLE NOMINATIONS.

Good Democratic Work--J. Richard Wingfield for Senate and W. D. Dehner and M. L. Taylor for House. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., August 18, 1885. The Senatorial Convention met yesterday at the court-house. Mr. P. M. Willis was made temporary chairman, and Mr. F. B. Davis, of Lindsay's, was made secretary.

A Committee on Credentials was appointed, and it was found that there were present thirty delegates from Albemarle and six from Greene. The temporary organization was made the permanent one. The Convention resolved that the full vote of the county, Mr. Grigsby, of Greene, renominated Senator J. Richard Wingfield, and Mr. R. S. Thomas, of the same county, nominated general James M. Dehner for senator. Mr. J. H. Power, of Lindsay's, was made commander; Lewis Wood, first ward; J. B. Wood, second ward; D. A. Payne, third ward; R. W. Duke, treasurer; R. H. Wood, secretary. The proper appliances have been ordered.

Dr. Hatcher preached to a very large audience here Sunday night. QUIT.
