When six months old he had a large tumor on his neck and the tumor was so large that it was necessary to have it removed. About five months after it became a running sore. Soon after some formed. He then had two more of each kind, and as his tumor became more and more impure it took less time for them to form. He had a tumor on his neck, and it was so large that it was necessary to have it removed. He had a tumor on his neck, and it was so large that it was necessary to have it removed.

METHODISTS MEET. QUADRENNIAL CONFERENCE OF THE CHURCH SOUTH.

Session to Begin in Centenary Church This Morning—The Address, &c.—Sketches of the Bishops.

Prior to the year 1844 the Episcopal Methodists of the United States were embraced in one General Conference. The question of slavery had agitated the Church almost from the beginning of its history, and in 1844 this contention became so fierce that it resulted in division. The General Conference of that year adopted a plan of separation which practically divided the Church into North and South.

THE CHURCH SOUTH. In May, 1845, the convention of southern delegates met in Louisville and organized the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

The first General Conference of the Church, South, was held in Petersburg, Va., in 1846. Since then it has not met in Virginia.

The General Conference is composed of an equal number of lay and clerical delegates elected by the Annual Conferences at their sessions next preceding the time for the meeting of the General Conference. The present body is composed of 268 delegates. The bishops are the presiding officers of the Conference, but they have no vote. They usually preside alternately. Bishop Holland N. McTeirie is now senior bishop.

MEMBERSHIP. At the beginning of the war the Church South had 5,377,136 white, 207,760 colored, and 4,000 Indian members. In 1866 there were only 425,400 white, and 78,742 colored communicants. In 1882 the membership numbered 861,000 whites, and the colored members had been organized into a separate General Conference. The present General Conference represents more than a million of ministers and members.

CHURCH ENTERPRISES. The Church owns and manages through an agent a large publishing-house at Nashville, and it carries on extensive missionary operations in China, Brazil, Mexico, and among the Indians of the West. The income of its Mission Board for the last fiscal year was $230,000.

The Church has flourishing colleges in almost every southern State; but its principal educational center is the Vanderbilt University, at Nashville, which is one of the best-equipped universities of this country.

DELEGATES COME. Many of the delegates have already reached the city and every train adds to the number. It is believed that to-morrow the delegations will be about full.

Besides the members of the Conference and the General-Conference officers, there will be present fraternal delegates from all the great Methodist bodies, and very many visitors from our own and other States.

The Conference assemblies at Centenary church, on Grace street between Fourth and Fifth streets, this morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Rev. A. C. Bledsoe, of Broad-Street church, will welcome the Conference, and it is expected that Bishop McTeirie, senior bishop, will respond to the speech.

THE BISHOPS. All yesterday morning the bishops were in session making the final revision of their quadrennial address, which will be read this morning.

The Conference will be opened with religious exercises by Bishop McTeirie, after which it will proceed with the election of secretaries and the appointment of the standing committees.

BISHOP MCTEIRIE. Bishop McTeirie is the senior bishop of the Church. He is a native of South Carolina and a graduate of Randolph-Macon College. He began to preach when quite young, and rapidly rose to distinction; was editor of the New Orleans Christian Advocate, and subsequently of the Nashville Christian Advocate, the general organ of the Church. He is the author of several books, and notably the History of Methodism in the United States, published in 1866, and is now the oldest bishop in office though not in years.

BISHOP KEEZER. Bishop J. C. Keener is of Maryland, but has been a resident of New Orleans for most of his life. He was editor of the New Orleans Christian Advocate for a long period, from which he was elected to the episcopacy in 1874. He is the author of that Methodist classic, "Post-Ok Circuit." He is a man of remarkable executive force and energy.

BISHOP WILSON. Bishop A. W. Wilson was born in Virginia, but has spent most of his life in Maryland. He has an extraordinary public ability, and rendered most valuable service to the Church as missionary secretary for four years. He was elected to the episcopacy in 1878.

BISHOP GRANBERY. Bishop J. C. Granbery is a native of Virginia and is too well known to Dispatch readers to require any notice. Among all the army chaplains none were more efficient or popular. He was elected bishop in 1878 and is now a resident of St. Louis. As a counsellor, preacher, and executive officer he is highly esteemed.

BISHOP HARGROVE. Bishop R. H. Hargrove is a native of Alabama. He has won distinction as an educator and as a preacher, and possesses fine business qualifications. He was elected bishop in 1878, and has proved an energetic, systematic, and efficient officer.

THE DAILY ADVOCATE. The first issue of the Daily Advocate will come out to-morrow morning, and be edited by Dr. O. P. Fitzgerald, the present editor of the Nashville Christian Advocate, which paper, it is claimed, has the largest circulation of any religious paper in the South.

The Board was also urged to use their influence to induce the City Council to grant the ground asked for a lake.

Y. M. C. A. Entertainment. The entertainment in the Second Baptist church Sunday-school room last night under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association was well attended. The programme embraced music, vocal and instrumental, and readings. Mr. Gay L. Barker sang very sweetly.

ARRIVAL OF A SPECIAL TRAIN FROM NASHVILLE—AN ACCIDENT. The special train bringing the Nashville delegates to the Conference (see Lynchburg and Burkeville) arrived at 11 o'clock last night. The following passengers are passengers: Mr. L. D. Palmer, business manager of the publishing-house; Revs. Drs. C. Kelley, Robert A. Young, Thomas J. Dodd, Dr. W. H. Morgan, Professor W. T. Orwyn, Mr. H. L. Goode, and S. A. Cunningham of the American, all of Nashville; Rev. J. W. Hill and wife, Clarksville; Dr. S. E. Dance, Dr. Dance, Jr., Lynch-

RICHMOND RACES. THE WEATHER GOOD AND SOME CLOSE CONTESTS.

The winners Pearl Tyler, Easter, Trolope, and Plunket—To-Day's Programme.

The first meeting of the Virginia Running and Trotting-Horse Association took place at the Fair-Grounds at 3 o'clock sharp yesterday afternoon. The sun was shining with force, but there was a bracing breeze, which made the weather very pleasant, and the track was in fine condition for this season of the year.

There was a much larger attendance than was expected, including many of the best ladies of Richmond. In short, this was a promising beginning of what is expected to be a successful scheme for having good races here. The horses entered were of good speed, and the races were of rare interest to those who enjoy this sport.

THE JUDGES. The judges were: Running: Judge Robert W. Hughes, Judge L. L. Lewis, and Messrs. R. B. Selden and C. E. Holt. Trotting: Mr. David S. Watson, Messrs. H. C. Chamblin, E. D. Starke, J. B. Bryan, and J. H. Hays. Stakes: Mr. T. M. Hewitt, Mr. J. P. E. Dupuy, W. C. Adams, and W. S. Ayres.

FIRST RACE. The first race was running—pure, $200; gentlemen riders; for horses used as saddle horses; to start, $20 to second, and $25 to third horse. Entries: Trollope, owned by Mr. W. Westover, Robert Bradley, Ingomar, W. T. Mosely owner; Fox-Gibbon, owned by Mr. A. H. Drewry, Esq.; Pearl Tyler, E. M. Hewitt owner; Sir Galahad, W. R. Moore owner.

When the signal was given to start the horses, after one or two unsuccessful attempts, came up all together and made a beautiful start. They ran together for about one hundred yards, when Pearl Tyler and Joe Gibson darted ahead and ran very nearly together to the three-quarter pole, when Fox-Gibbon took the lead, which was maintained until she won the race, with Joe Gibson close behind, and Abbie, Westover, Ingomar, and Sir Galahad following in the order named. Time, 1:51.

SECOND RACE. The second race was trotting to harness—pure $200, for three-year-olds and under—open to all horses; to start, $15 to second, $25 to third, and $25 to fourth horse. Entries: Powhatan, owned by Mr. W. Westover, Robert Bradley, Ingomar, W. T. Mosely owner; Fox-Gibbon, owned by Mr. A. H. Drewry, Esq.; Pearl Tyler, E. M. Hewitt owner; Sir Galahad, W. R. Moore owner.

Powhatan was given the inside track, with Easter and Snowdrop in order. Easter took the pole before reaching the first quarter and held it until she came under the wire, when Powhatan, on the inside, took the lead, which was maintained until she won the race, with Joe Gibson close behind, and Abbie, Westover, Ingomar, and Sir Galahad following in the order named. Time, 1:51.

THIRD RACE. The third race was running—pure $200; gentlemen riders; for horses used as saddle horses; to start, $20 to second, $25 to third, and $25 to fourth horse. Entries: Trollope, owned by Mr. W. Westover, Robert Bradley, Ingomar, W. T. Mosely owner; Fox-Gibbon, owned by Mr. A. H. Drewry, Esq.; Pearl Tyler, E. M. Hewitt owner; Sir Galahad, W. R. Moore owner.

The horses in this trial made a very pretty start, and for a short distance ran all together. When about half way to the first quarter King Bee took the lead, with Trollope close after.

The fourth race, which was the most exciting of the evening was trotting—pure $200, for three-year-olds and under—open to all horses; to start, $15 to second, $25 to third, and $25 to fourth horse. Entries: Powhatan, owned by Mr. W. Westover, Robert Bradley, Ingomar, W. T. Mosely owner; Fox-Gibbon, owned by Mr. A. H. Drewry, Esq.; Pearl Tyler, E. M. Hewitt owner; Sir Galahad, W. R. Moore owner.
