

WASHINGTON.

MR. CROTON'S VIEWS TOUCHING SENATORS' PRIVATE CLERKS.

Mr. Daniel and the Master of Soluter-General-Texas... Notes-Editorial.

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Senator-to-day Daniel visited the President to urge the claims of Mr. Tucker to be Solicitor-General.

Mr. Croton said this morning: "You saw how the vote was yesterday in the House on the amendment to the bill regarding the private clerks."

The Charlotte public-building bill was referred in the House to-day to the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds, along with many other measures of the same kind.

THE SENATE.

The Senate bill permitting John F. Chamberlain, of Washington City, to erect a hotel on United States ground at Fort Monroe, in the discretion of the Secretary of War, was referred in the House to-day to the Committee on Military Affairs.

THE SENATE.

The appointment of Marshal Boykin, of South Carolina, is being up in the Senate. The bill expired at the time of the appointment. Representative Perry, of that State, says that he knows no reason why there should be delay.

TEXAS FENCIBLES.

It is said that all of the Texas delegation in the House will be re-elected except Governor Throckmorton and Mr. Miller, who have declined re-nomination. A Lone-Star man says that the people of Judge Reagan's district will return him because he talks so much, and that the voters of Judge Gilbertson's will keep him because he talks so little.

POSTAL.

New fourth-class post-offices: Virginia—John F. Reeves, Mountain Gap, Loudoun county; North Carolina—John R. Parks, Cape Randolph county; James A. Cole, Coleridge, Randolph county; Wiley J. Mayo, Halloway, Lincoln county; West Virginia—Mary E. Harper, Cortland, Tucker county; Noah Dulin, Dulin, Wirt county; Joseph T. Moore, Elwell, Mason county; John F. Harrison, Forsyth, Tucker county; John P. Hambrick, Verania, Mason county. A commission has been forwarded to Washington Ratliff, Deep Creek, N. C.

ARRIVALS.

Mr. C. A. Linsey and wife, Petersburg; Mrs. M. M. Marshall, daughter, and son, Virginia; James A. Galloway, Atlantic Coast Line; Goldboro, N. C.; Colonel Paul B. Mears, Concord, N. C.

AUDITOR MORTON MARYE and his daughter were in the Capitol to-day.

Judge D. A. Grimsley, of Culpeper, is on business at the Departments.

Charles M. Busbee, Esq., of Raleigh, was here this afternoon.

REX CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, July 28, 1886.

Mr. McMillan, from the conference committee on the river-and-harbor bill, reported the committee unable to agree.

THE CHAIR (Mr. Sherman) thereupon laid before the Senate a message from the House to the effect that it had instructed its conferees to insist on striking from the bill such items as the Portage-Lake and Lake-Superior ship canal, Lake-Michigan and Hennepin canal, Sturgeon-Bay and Lake-Michigan ship canal, Mississippi-river improvements, and Potomac-river improvements.

Mr. McMillan remarked that there was a parliamentary question, as to the right of the House to give these instructions and remove the conference from being a full and free conference.

The Senate conferees, however, had concluded to waive the question, and the action was so near its close as to be of the interests of the country required action on the bill. He therefore moved that the Senate insist on its disagreement, and agree to the conference asked by the House.

After a long discussion, a resolution was adopted that the Senate insist on its amendments, including the amendments to the bill to give the Secretary of War the right to purchase the land on which the fortifications are to be located.

THE GREAT TRIAL.

DAMAGING TESTIMONY AGAINST THE ANARCHISTS ACCUMULATING.

Schnaubel Identified as the Man Who Threw the Bomb, and Spies as Having Lighted the Fuse.

(By telegraph to the Dispatch.)

CHICAGO, July 28.—In the Anarchist trials to-day H. N. Gilmer, a painter, living at No. 5 North Ann street, testified that he arrived at Haymarket at 9:45 o'clock. At the corner of Desplaines and Randolph streets he saw a wagon occupied by speakers. Fadden was speaking. Witness saw some one leave the wagon and start toward the alley where four or five persons were conversing.

Witness was shown a picture of Schnaubel, and recognized it as that of the man who threw the bomb. How many men were there? Four or five.

You say a man came from the wagon and joined this group. Can you recognize any of the defendants as that man? Yes; that is the man (pointing at Spies).

When Spies was pointed out he displayed great and palpable agitation. You say you recognize any of the remaining defendants as composing any part of that group? Yes; that man there was in the group. (Witness pointed out the defendant Fischer).

This testimony, following that of Thompson yesterday, occasioned a most profuse sensation in the courtroom. Witness, on cross-examination, said that prior to coming to Chicago he lived at Des Moines, Iowa. He came here in 1879.

Mr. Foster desired to know everything about the history of the man who had given such frightful testimony against his clients. He asked witness when he learned that a reward had been offered for conviction in this case. He replied that he was not aware that a reward had been offered.

Witness explained that he was there when the witness showed the bag to Nebe Officer McKeogh was in the room and Officer Haas at the door. Mayor Harrison was in the building at the time or a moment before, but he didn't ask Nebe's contents of the bag.
