

THE RICHMOND DISPATCH.

BY THE DISPATCH COMPANY.

THE DAILY DISPATCH is delivered to subscribers at FIFTY CENTS per week, payable in advance...

ADVERTISING RATES.
1 line, 10 cents per week.
2 lines, 15 cents per week.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6, 1889.

Pay as You Go.

We trust that the City Council will adopt the above motto for its guidance when it shall hereafter be called upon to make appropriations and increase salaries and other expenditures.

There ought to be left a considerable margin for unforeseen calamities and for contingencies that can enter into nobody's calculations.

It is said that the Governor will not be re-elected. This is a very liberal opinion.

It is said that the Governor will not be re-elected. This is a very liberal opinion.

It is said that the Governor will not be re-elected. This is a very liberal opinion.

It is said that the Governor will not be re-elected. This is a very liberal opinion.

It is said that the Governor will not be re-elected. This is a very liberal opinion.

It is said that the Governor will not be re-elected. This is a very liberal opinion.

It is said that the Governor will not be re-elected. This is a very liberal opinion.

It is said that the Governor will not be re-elected. This is a very liberal opinion.

It is said that the Governor will not be re-elected. This is a very liberal opinion.

It is said that the Governor will not be re-elected. This is a very liberal opinion.

It is said that the Governor will not be re-elected. This is a very liberal opinion.

It is said that the Governor will not be re-elected. This is a very liberal opinion.

It is said that the Governor will not be re-elected. This is a very liberal opinion.

It is said that the Governor will not be re-elected. This is a very liberal opinion.

THE ADDRESS.

THE PRESS OF THE COUNTRY OF HARRISON'S TALK.

Comments of Papers of Various Shades of Opinion--Views Vary and Decidedly Diverse.

We give below a series of press comments upon President Harrison's inaugural address.

TO SAY SOMETHING. (Philadelphia Times, Republican.)

The address delivered by the new President reveals to the whole, and in an offensive and, in some respects, a very sensible paper.

OFFENSIVE AND OFFENSIVE. (Harrisburg News, Democratic.)

The statement of the President's address when he essays, with a degree of calmness and self-confidence that is absolutely irritating.

IS THIS A JOKE? (New York Sun, alleged Democrat.)

There is no more in the lines or behind the lines a slightest trace of that offensive egotism, that air of discovering important truths, which provokes hostility in all sane minds.

PHILADELPHIA ENQUIRER. (Philadelphia Enquirer, Republican.)

It is said in an address full of encouragement to the country, recognizing the magnitude of the task, the right of voting to negroes at the South to one word of feeble reference to the corruption of the suffrage at the North.

LEAVE IT. (Harrisburg Herald, Republican.)

The inaugural address of President Harrison, which is printed in full elsewhere, deserves the hearty approval of all classes of citizens without reference to politics or party affiliations.

A VAIN EFFORT. (New York Times, Independent.)

We look in vain in these passages of the address which deal with electoral reforms for any mention of the abuses and corruptions so conspicuously practiced in the election which placed Mr. Harrison in the White House.

THE LYNCHBURG ADVANCE says of the story about contemplating an established Church in the Confederate States.

IF our cotemporary friend Drinkard, of the Herald, or Brother Lafayette don't correct that absurd delusion, we shall be compelled to believe that the whole fishy story originated in the inventive and visionary mind of one or the other of those officers.

THE DEMOCRATIC party must not be held responsible for the acts of Messrs. Mills & Co.--Doubtful if they are.

THE LYNCHBURG NEWS says that Mr. Harrison's message is "complete with sinister suggestions."

THE SUSPICION is dwelling upon the country that Harrison thinks himself a continental monument.

THE ADDRESS.

THE PRESS OF THE COUNTRY OF HARRISON'S TALK.

Comments of Papers of Various Shades of Opinion--Views Vary and Decidedly Diverse.

We give below a series of press comments upon President Harrison's inaugural address.

TO SAY SOMETHING. (Philadelphia Times, Republican.)

The address delivered by the new President reveals to the whole, and in an offensive and, in some respects, a very sensible paper.

OFFENSIVE AND OFFENSIVE. (Harrisburg News, Democratic.)

The statement of the President's address when he essays, with a degree of calmness and self-confidence that is absolutely irritating.

IS THIS A JOKE? (New York Sun, alleged Democrat.)

There is no more in the lines or behind the lines a slightest trace of that offensive egotism, that air of discovering important truths, which provokes hostility in all sane minds.

PHILADELPHIA ENQUIRER. (Philadelphia Enquirer, Republican.)

It is said in an address full of encouragement to the country, recognizing the magnitude of the task, the right of voting to negroes at the South to one word of feeble reference to the corruption of the suffrage at the North.

LEAVE IT. (Harrisburg Herald, Republican.)

The inaugural address of President Harrison, which is printed in full elsewhere, deserves the hearty approval of all classes of citizens without reference to politics or party affiliations.

A VAIN EFFORT. (New York Times, Independent.)

We look in vain in these passages of the address which deal with electoral reforms for any mention of the abuses and corruptions so conspicuously practiced in the election which placed Mr. Harrison in the White House.

THE LYNCHBURG ADVANCE says of the story about contemplating an established Church in the Confederate States.

IF our cotemporary friend Drinkard, of the Herald, or Brother Lafayette don't correct that absurd delusion, we shall be compelled to believe that the whole fishy story originated in the inventive and visionary mind of one or the other of those officers.

THE DEMOCRATIC party must not be held responsible for the acts of Messrs. Mills & Co.--Doubtful if they are.

THE LYNCHBURG NEWS says that Mr. Harrison's message is "complete with sinister suggestions."

THE SUSPICION is dwelling upon the country that Harrison thinks himself a continental monument.

THE ADDRESS.

THE PRESS OF THE COUNTRY OF HARRISON'S TALK.

Comments of Papers of Various Shades of Opinion--Views Vary and Decidedly Diverse.

We give below a series of press comments upon President Harrison's inaugural address.

TO SAY SOMETHING. (Philadelphia Times, Republican.)

The address delivered by the new President reveals to the whole, and in an offensive and, in some respects, a very sensible paper.

OFFENSIVE AND OFFENSIVE. (Harrisburg News, Democratic.)

The statement of the President's address when he essays, with a degree of calmness and self-confidence that is absolutely irritating.

IS THIS A JOKE? (New York Sun, alleged Democrat.)

There is no more in the lines or behind the lines a slightest trace of that offensive egotism, that air of discovering important truths, which provokes hostility in all sane minds.

PHILADELPHIA ENQUIRER. (Philadelphia Enquirer, Republican.)

It is said in an address full of encouragement to the country, recognizing the magnitude of the task, the right of voting to negroes at the South to one word of feeble reference to the corruption of the suffrage at the North.

LEAVE IT. (Harrisburg Herald, Republican.)

The inaugural address of President Harrison, which is printed in full elsewhere, deserves the hearty approval of all classes of citizens without reference to politics or party affiliations.

A VAIN EFFORT. (New York Times, Independent.)

We look in vain in these passages of the address which deal with electoral reforms for any mention of the abuses and corruptions so conspicuously practiced in the election which placed Mr. Harrison in the White House.

THE LYNCHBURG ADVANCE says of the story about contemplating an established Church in the Confederate States.

IF our cotemporary friend Drinkard, of the Herald, or Brother Lafayette don't correct that absurd delusion, we shall be compelled to believe that the whole fishy story originated in the inventive and visionary mind of one or the other of those officers.

THE DEMOCRATIC party must not be held responsible for the acts of Messrs. Mills & Co.--Doubtful if they are.

THE LYNCHBURG NEWS says that Mr. Harrison's message is "complete with sinister suggestions."

THE SUSPICION is dwelling upon the country that Harrison thinks himself a continental monument.

THE ADDRESS.

THE PRESS OF THE COUNTRY OF HARRISON'S TALK.

Comments of Papers of Various Shades of Opinion--Views Vary and Decidedly Diverse.

We give below a series of press comments upon President Harrison's inaugural address.

TO SAY SOMETHING. (Philadelphia Times, Republican.)

The address delivered by the new President reveals to the whole, and in an offensive and, in some respects, a very sensible paper.

OFFENSIVE AND OFFENSIVE. (Harrisburg News, Democratic.)

The statement of the President's address when he essays, with a degree of calmness and self-confidence that is absolutely irritating.

IS THIS A JOKE? (New York Sun, alleged Democrat.)

There is no more in the lines or behind the lines a slightest trace of that offensive egotism, that air of discovering important truths, which provokes hostility in all sane minds.

PHILADELPHIA ENQUIRER. (Philadelphia Enquirer, Republican.)

It is said in an address full of encouragement to the country, recognizing the magnitude of the task, the right of voting to negroes at the South to one word of feeble reference to the corruption of the suffrage at the North.

LEAVE IT. (Harrisburg Herald, Republican.)

The inaugural address of President Harrison, which is printed in full elsewhere, deserves the hearty approval of all classes of citizens without reference to politics or party affiliations.

A VAIN EFFORT. (New York Times, Independent.)

We look in vain in these passages of the address which deal with electoral reforms for any mention of the abuses and corruptions so conspicuously practiced in the election which placed Mr. Harrison in the White House.

THE LYNCHBURG ADVANCE says of the story about contemplating an established Church in the Confederate States.

IF our cotemporary friend Drinkard, of the Herald, or Brother Lafayette don't correct that absurd delusion, we shall be compelled to believe that the whole fishy story originated in the inventive and visionary mind of one or the other of those officers.

THE DEMOCRATIC party must not be held responsible for the acts of Messrs. Mills & Co.--Doubtful if they are.

THE LYNCHBURG NEWS says that Mr. Harrison's message is "complete with sinister suggestions."

THE SUSPICION is dwelling upon the country that Harrison thinks himself a continental monument.

THE ADDRESS.

THE PRESS OF THE COUNTRY OF HARRISON'S TALK.

Comments of Papers of Various Shades of Opinion--Views Vary and Decidedly Diverse.

We give below a series of press comments upon President Harrison's inaugural address.

TO SAY SOMETHING. (Philadelphia Times, Republican.)

The address delivered by the new President reveals to the whole, and in an offensive and, in some respects, a very sensible paper.

OFFENSIVE AND OFFENSIVE. (Harrisburg News, Democratic.)

The statement of the President's address when he essays, with a degree of calmness and self-confidence that is absolutely irritating.

IS THIS A JOKE? (New York Sun, alleged Democrat.)

There is no more in the lines or behind the lines a slightest trace of that offensive egotism, that air of discovering important truths, which provokes hostility in all sane minds.

PHILADELPHIA ENQUIRER. (Philadelphia Enquirer, Republican.)

It is said in an address full of encouragement to the country, recognizing the magnitude of the task, the right of voting to negroes at the South to one word of feeble reference to the corruption of the suffrage at the North.

LEAVE IT. (Harrisburg Herald, Republican.)

The inaugural address of President Harrison, which is printed in full elsewhere, deserves the hearty approval of all classes of citizens without reference to politics or party affiliations.

A VAIN EFFORT. (New York Times, Independent.)

We look in vain in these passages of the address which deal with electoral reforms for any mention of the abuses and corruptions so conspicuously practiced in the election which placed Mr. Harrison in the White House.

THE LYNCHBURG ADVANCE says of the story about contemplating an established Church in the Confederate States.

IF our cotemporary friend Drinkard, of the Herald, or Brother Lafayette don't correct that absurd delusion, we shall be compelled to believe that the whole fishy story originated in the inventive and visionary mind of one or the other of those officers.

THE DEMOCRATIC party must not be held responsible for the acts of Messrs. Mills & Co.--Doubtful if they are.

THE LYNCHBURG NEWS says that Mr. Harrison's message is "complete with sinister suggestions."

THE SUSPICION is dwelling upon the country that Harrison thinks himself a continental monument.

THE ADDRESS.

THE PRESS OF THE COUNTRY OF HARRISON'S TALK.

Comments of Papers of Various Shades of Opinion--Views Vary and Decidedly Diverse.

We give below a series of press comments upon President Harrison's inaugural address.

TO SAY SOMETHING. (Philadelphia Times, Republican.)

The address delivered by the new President reveals to the whole, and in an offensive and, in some respects, a very sensible paper.

OFFENSIVE AND OFFENSIVE. (Harrisburg News, Democratic.)

The statement of the President's address when he essays, with a degree of calmness and self-confidence that is absolutely irritating.

IS THIS A JOKE? (New York Sun, alleged Democrat.)

There is no more in the lines or behind the lines a slightest trace of that offensive egotism, that air of discovering important truths, which provokes hostility in all sane minds.

PHILADELPHIA ENQUIRER. (Philadelphia Enquirer, Republican.)

It is said in an address full of encouragement to the country, recognizing the magnitude of the task, the right of voting to negroes at the South to one word of feeble reference to the corruption of the suffrage at the North.

LEAVE IT. (Harrisburg Herald, Republican.)

The inaugural address of President Harrison, which is printed in full elsewhere, deserves the hearty approval of all classes of citizens without reference to politics or party affiliations.

A VAIN EFFORT. (New York Times, Independent.)

We look in vain in these passages of the address which deal with electoral reforms for any mention of the abuses and corruptions so conspicuously practiced in the election which placed Mr. Harrison in the White House.

THE LYNCHBURG ADVANCE says of the story about contemplating an established Church in the Confederate States.

IF our cotemporary friend Drinkard, of the Herald, or Brother Lafayette don't correct that absurd delusion, we shall be compelled to believe that the whole fishy story originated in the inventive and visionary mind of one or the other of those officers.

THE DEMOCRATIC party must not be held responsible for the acts of Messrs. Mills & Co.--Doubtful if they are.

THE LYNCHBURG NEWS says that Mr. Harrison's message is "complete with sinister suggestions."

THE SUSPICION is dwelling upon the country that Harrison thinks himself a continental monument.

THE ADDRESS.

THE PRESS OF THE COUNTRY OF HARRISON'S TALK.

Comments of Papers of Various Shades of Opinion--Views Vary and Decidedly Diverse.

We give below a series of press comments upon President Harrison's inaugural address.

TO SAY SOMETHING. (Philadelphia Times, Republican.)

The address delivered by the new President reveals to the whole, and in an offensive and, in some respects, a very sensible paper.

OFFENSIVE AND OFFENSIVE. (Harrisburg News, Democratic.)

The statement of the President's address when he essays, with a degree of calmness and self-confidence that is absolutely irritating.

IS THIS A JOKE? (New York Sun, alleged Democrat.)

There is no more in the lines or behind the lines a slightest trace of that offensive egotism, that air of discovering important truths, which provokes hostility in all sane minds.

PHILADELPHIA ENQUIRER. (Philadelphia Enquirer, Republican.)

It is said in an address full of encouragement to the country, recognizing the magnitude of the task, the right of voting to negroes at the South to one word of feeble reference to the corruption of the suffrage at the North.

LEAVE IT. (Harrisburg Herald, Republican.)

The inaugural address of President Harrison, which is printed in full elsewhere, deserves the hearty approval of all classes of citizens without reference to politics or party affiliations.

A VAIN EFFORT. (New York Times, Independent.)

We look in vain in these passages of the address which deal with electoral reforms for any mention of the abuses and corruptions so conspicuously practiced in the election which placed Mr. Harrison in the White House.

THE LYNCHBURG ADVANCE says of the story about contemplating an established Church in the Confederate States.

IF our cotemporary friend Drinkard, of the Herald, or Brother Lafayette don't correct that absurd delusion, we shall be compelled to believe that the whole fishy story originated in the inventive and visionary mind of one or the other of those officers.

THE DEMOCRATIC party must not be held responsible for the acts of Messrs. Mills & Co.--Doubtful if they are.

THE LYNCHBURG NEWS says that Mr. Harrison's message is "complete with sinister suggestions."

THE SUSPICION is dwelling upon the country that Harrison thinks himself a continental monument.

Spring Is the Time To Cure Aching, Humiliating, Itching, Burning, Soaly, and Primping Humors of the Skin, Scalp, and Blood. Includes text about Cuticura Remedies and testimonials.

Cuticura Remedies. Spring is the time to cleanse the skin, scalp, and blood of every impurity and disease. Includes text about the benefits of Cuticura.

Boston Shoe Company. Leaders of the Latest Novelties. High Grade Footwear. Reduced Price List. Includes list of shoe styles and prices.

Removal. Daughman Brothers. Have removed to No. 1205 E. Main, and Nos. 7 & 9 S. 12th St. Entrance, No. 1205 Main.

Thompson's Wonderful Bromine-Arsenic Spring Water. Nature's Panacea. Persistent Nausea, Stomach and Kidney Complaints.

Polk Miller & Co., Agents. The South in the Lead. Berke Company, Macon, Georgia. Concentrated Eye Ball and Can. Spring Water. Potash.

Dishes for Lent. R. L. Christian & Co. No. 1 and 2 Mackerril. Also, Block Island Macaroni, Weighing from 1 to 2 Pounds Each.

House-Furnishing Goods. In great variety, from the cheapest to the finest, all of which will be sold at very low prices. We invite all who need goods in our line to call and examine our goods and prices.

E. B. Taylor & Co. 1011 Main Street. Lime, Plaster, Cement, &c. Land and Blast Furnace. Includes text about various building materials.

To Mothers. We have the choice stock of Baby-Carriages. At $15.75. Includes text about the quality and features of the carriages.

Julius Syde & Son. 213 East Broad Street. Chamber and Parlor Sets. Includes text about furniture and home furnishings.

6 1/2 A YARD. Will buy a Dress Gingham, quality ordinarily sold at 10. We have but a few pieces on the counter at the front door.

Baby-Carriages. At $15.75. Includes text about the quality and features of the carriages.

Levy & Davis. 107 and 109 Main Street. Dealers in every description of Hosiery, Socks, Shirts, and Underwear.

Waterbury's. Will never break. Guaranteed to wear any custom-made corset. Includes text about the quality of the corsets.

Isaac Syde & Co. 303 Broad Street. Our Special Sale of Bargains. Still continues. Includes text about the sale of various goods.

Just Received. We are now opening up a large line of cheap goods. Includes text about the arrival of new merchandise.

E. B. Taylor & Co. 1011 Main Street. Lime, Plaster, Cement, &c. Includes text about building materials.

Proposals for Tobacco. Includes text about the solicitation of proposals for tobacco.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. Purifies the Blood. Includes text about the benefits of the medicine.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 100 Doses One Dollar. Includes text about the price and availability of the medicine.

Beecham's Pills. For Weak Stomach--Impaired Digestion--Disordered Liver. Includes text about the benefits of the pills.

Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. Includes text about the company's financial strength and services.

Howard Swineford, Agent. 1108 Main Street, Richmond, Va. Includes text about the agent's services.

Professional Services. Dr. G. Smith, Dentist. Includes text about dental services.

Merchants National Bank. Includes text about the bank's services and capital.