

EPSOM GRAND PRIZE.

It Is Won by Russell's Brown Colt, Whittier.

MONTAUK AND HARRY REED.

Neither of These Horses Runs—The Surrey Breeders' Foal Plate Won by Rosbery's Avon—Events in This Country.

LONDON, May 30.—The race for the Epsom Grand Prize of 2,000 sovereigns for 3-year-olds, one and one-quarter miles, the city and suburban course, was run at Epsom to-day, and won by Russell's brown colt Whittier, by Kurato, out of Virginia Shore. J. Best's bay colt Powick, by Saraband, out of Elegance, was the only other starter out of a large field of entries.

Powick was a hot favorite at 3 to 5, but at the fall of the flag Whittier led to the front and soon drew clear of his competitor. The horses kept their respective positions until they began the descent of the grade for home, when the pace was somewhat improved, but Whittier kept ahead throughout, and won with ridiculous ease by three quarters of a length. The withdrawal of the other probable starters from the race was due to the recognized form of Powick, who is regarded as the best 3-year-old now on the turf.

Craker's colt Montauk did not start in the race for the Heston Plate. M. F. Day's Harry Reed was scratched from the race for the Royal Stakes.

The race for the great Surrey Breeders' Foal Plate, 1,200 sovereigns, was won by Lord Rosbery's chestnut filly Galin, by Camford, out of Myra. Douglas Baird's bay colt Stington, by Ayrshire, out of Sphonia, was second, and A. W. Cress's chestnut filly Radiant, by Springfield, out of Radiant, was third.

NEW YORK TRACK. GRAVESEND, May 30.—A crowd which gathered favorably with Handicap Day put in an appearance here to-day. Three racing associations were present. The weather was fine and the track fast.

The talent began the day auspiciously. Damsel, on her victory last week, was mounted on an old-fashioned horse, and the race Griffin was unable to get a free hold until the last furlong pole was passed. He had all he could do to win. Damsel, clearly outclassed, was a poor second.

The result of the second race was a big surprise. Roy de Santa Anita was backed as if the race was all over but the counting. In spite of the defeat of a few days ago in weight-for-age race by Keenan he was plumped upon to-day. On that occasion he fell in front, and was unable to establish his reputation. This afternoon were to keep him with his field. This did not have so good an effect. Stowaway and Ajax turned the tables on the Californian. They both finished in the middle of the pack. This enabled Keenan to take the lead. Lamby succeeded in staying his mount, and got him going again. Counter Tenor was rapidly gaining the lead, when Lamby suddenly drew his whip, and this time Counter Tenor swayed out of the race, so that winning was conceded. Keenan, who was inclined to balk at several stages of the proceedings, won by two lengths. Counter Tenor lagged out of the race, but he gave way to Ed. Keenan, who set a clinching pace all the way to the home stretch, where he was beaten. Taral finished his lead with every bound, and won as he pleased by three lengths. Pacemaker came strong at the place. Pacemaker broke a track for the place. Summary:

First race—five furlongs—Damsel (33), Griffin, 2 to 5, won, Fustation second, Ajax third, Time, 1:22 1/2. Second race—handicap, one and one eighth miles—Stowaway (39), Damsel (32), to 1, won, Ajax second, Roy de Santa Anita third, Time, 3:52. Third race—a private sweepstakes of $50, for 2-year-old fillies, five furlongs—Ajax (16), Taral, 1 to 2, won, Besiege (16), Ajax second, Fustation third, Time, 1:42 1/2. Fourth race—The Brooklyn Derby—one and one fourth miles—Damsel (32), Griffin, 15 to 20, won, Counter Tenor (27), Lamby, 15 to 20, second, Sir Galahad (12), Taral, 15 to 20, third, Time, 2:40 1/2. Fifth race—May Day Handicap, seventh sixth mile—Pacemaker (32), Damsel (36), to 1, won, Pacemaker second, Buckner third, Time, 1:49. Sixth race—six furlongs—Hallstone (36), to 1, won, Manchester second, Sunup third, Time, 1:33. Seventh race—six furlongs—Cornell (38), Garrison (39), to 1, won, Decatur second, Golden Gate third, Time, 1:36 1/2.

CINCINNATI TRACK. LANTONIA, KY., May 30.—Decorations Day and a good racing crowd brought over 15,000 persons to Lantonia to-day. The sport was fine in every respect, the betting good, and the track fast. Only two favorites won. The chief event was the Decorations Day handicap, one mile and three sixteenths. Lamplighter was well commended, and the bookies were good, and a crowd of him. The race was good, and he remained in a bunch to the three-quarters pole, with Lamplighter half a length ahead. George Beck, at 5 to 1, came through the stretch and finished first. Selika, another long shot, second; Lamplighter third.

First race—seven and a half furlongs—Tomb (32), to 1, won, Yesterdays second, Lightroom second, The Sculptor third, Time, 1:26. Second race—one mile—Lisack (17), Perle (30) to 1, won, Goodwin second, George (31), third, Time, 1:21 1/2. Third race—five furlongs—Semper Ego (32), Clayton, 2 to 1, won, Time, 1:23 1/4. Fourth race—Thirteen sixteenths of a mile, Decorations Day Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward, value $250—George Beck (32), to 1, won, Selika second, Lamplighter third, Time, 2:03 1/4. Fifth race—four and a half furlongs—Lioness Lady (37), Thorpe, 15 to 1, won, Sunbeam second, Tonia third, Time, 1:24. Sixth race—seven and a half furlongs—Tomb (32), to 1, won, Yesterdays second, Lightroom second, The Sculptor third, Time, 1:26.

ROBY. CHICAGO, ILL., May 30.—Roby had its best attendance to-day. Fourteen persons began on hand to see the racing. The feature—a mile handicap—went to Wanderer, from Eagle Bird, with Mopsy, the winner's companion, third. The odds were 12 to 1. Three favorites and a second choice won the four purses. The track was fast, and the weather hot. Jockey McKnight was suspended indefinitely.

First race—selling, six furlongs—Dominic won, Tosno second, Lulu T. third, Time, 1:17. Second race—2-year-olds, four and a half furlongs—Miss Kitty won, Gretchen S. second, Ada Mc. third, Time, 2:12. Third race—selling, six furlongs—Pulleyton, Frank F. second, Lilla Miller third, Time, 1:17 1/2. Fourth race—handicap, one mile—Wanderer won, Eaglebird second, Mopsy third, Time, 1:41 1/4. Fifth race—selling, seven furlongs—Flowerman won, Hannigan second, Wolveman third, Time, 1:21 1/4.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 30.—The excellent racing at Belmont track attracted about 1,500 people there this afternoon, and they saw thirteen sharp contests. The day was closed with to-day's racing. Summary:

2:25 class—pacing—Prize, 1 to 1, by Adrian Wilkes (Hoyler), 1 to 1, Miss Woodford, 2 to 1, Dalgity, 3 to 3, Happiness, Walter D., Omega, 2 to 1, Tibb in order named, Time, 2:13, 1:41, 2:13, 2:14. 2:25 class—pacing—Prize, 1 to 1, by Adrian Wilkes (Hoyler), 1 to 1, Miss Woodford, 2 to 1, Dalgity, 3 to 3, Happiness, Walter D., Omega, 2 to 1, Tibb in order named, Time, 2:13, 1:41, 2:13, 2:14. 2:25 class—pacing—Prize, 1 to 1, by Adrian Wilkes (Hoyler), 1 to 1, Miss Woodford, 2 to 1, Dalgity, 3 to 3, Happiness, Walter D., Omega, 2 to 1, Tibb in order named, Time, 2:13, 1:41, 2:13, 2:14.

THEY MUST ANSWER.

COLLEGE TRUSTEES CONSIDERING CHANGES IN THE FACULTY.

They Demand that Professors Pay their and Harrison Make Known their Intentions Relative to Resigning.

The Board of Trustees of Richmond College met in the college chapel yesterday afternoon, and as forecast in the Dispatch, took action concerning the resignation of several members of the faculty. The body was in session until nearly midnight.

There were twenty-one members present, of whom the following were in the State other than Richmond: Rev. Dr. Fisher, of Petersburg; Judge Keenan, of Culpeper; Mr. J. E. Griffin, of Portsmouth; Judge Barkdale, of Houston; and Dr. J. R. Garlick, of Gattaway.

With much consideration, and with many expressions of regret, the resignation of Professor Harris was accepted, under the conditions named in his letter—that is, that it should take effect at the close of the present session. Dr. H. A. Tupper, vice-president of the board, was appointed to prepare a letter to Professor Harris, setting forth the high esteem in which he was held by the board; the profound regret of the board; and the best wishes for his highest prosperity.

PROFESSORS WAITED ON. The Committee on Instruction was directed to wait on the professors present, and to ascertain whether any of them intended to dissolve their connection with the college at the end of the present session. The committee, composed of Dr. Landrum and Garlick and Mr. Josiah Ryland, proceeded at once to execute this order, and while they were out, the board of trustees reassembled and the committee reported. Their report was that five of the faculty—Professors E. Gaines, W. D. Thomas, Dr. H. W. Winthrop, and Judge Roger Gregory—declared their intention to remain, and to continue their purpose to remain. Professors F. C. Macfarlane and Harrison—replied that they had not reached a decision, and indicated that they would make known their purpose later. The committee, therefore, adjourned to a date to be determined.

MEET AGAIN MONDAY. The board met Monday at noon at the time, and the lecture-room of the Second Baptist church as the place, for the reception of this second report of the committee. Instead of having the catalogue printed as has heretofore been done in time for the commencement, the board decided to postpone the printing of the catalogue until after the faculty shall have been settled.

A petition was presented by the students asking that the catalogue be printed in the manner in which it had been printed in the past. The committee, however, advised that it was better to wait until the faculty had been settled.

THE CHARGES MADE PUBLIC. Mr. Shell's Complaint About the Conduct of the Revenue Office. Mr. Alfred P. Shell, who was a deputy under Mr. William Ryan, Collector of Internal Revenue, up to March 23, last, when his commission was recalled, has made public a complaint that he preferred against Mr. Joseph Miller, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, accompanying the formal statement of charges. Mr. Shell also gave out for publication a letter that he wrote to Commissioner Miller, in which he complained of the manner in which he had been treated, and setting forth in detail the circumstances under which his resignation was accepted.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

Mr. Shell's complaint is a long and detailed one, and it is not possible to give a full account of it here. It is, however, a very interesting one, and it is well worth reading. It is published in full in the Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

OLD WILD BIRDS.

DAY'S ACQUAINTANCE WITH WEST VA. FEATHERED MOUNTAINERS.

A Ramble in a Ravine—A New Musical Trill—An Odd Frank—the Wing Foot of a Yellow-Breasted Noddy.

(Lander Keyser in New York Post.) "Can you show me a ravine in the mountains where nobody lives?" This question I asked my hostess one morning at the breakfast-table while arranging for my first jaunt among the mountains of West Virginia. A ramble need not be looked upon as selfish because he seeks out-of-the-way places where he may be freed from the intrusion of the world. It is the feeling that while you are ogling the birds curious people may be ogling you, and perhaps wondering what species of mania has taken you in its grip. In reply to my question the good landlady pointed to a hollow that riveted the green mountain on the other side of the river. It looked solitary enough for the most devoted bird lover, and so at seven o'clock I was perched on the yellow towards the top of the eminence. On either side the emerald mountains sprang up towards the sky, and from acclivity to acclivity the choral of a vast outdoor cathedral. Loveliest of avian folk will wonder what I had in mind, and part in the song. I was quite abundant among the Virginia mountains in person, and the birds were quite abundant among the Virginia mountains. Their sweet, chaste songs, which were the sweetest I had ever heard, seemed to be haunted by some lorn spirit. But one's mind could not long dwell on the bird world, and the birds were making a musical din of the liveliest sort. The dainty redstarts—exquisite in plumage and in the darkening ravines and on the acclivities far up towards the summit. The modestly robed females were as musical as their mates. I had not gone far up the winding hollow before I heard a musical trill that was new to me. It came from the dense woods, and I was sure that it was a new bird. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen it in the woods. It was a chipping sparrow without a doubt, but the trill was quite different from the trill of the chipping sparrow. It was a trill that I had never heard of before. I had never heard of it in the village or near a farm-house. I should have known it, for I had seen