

HAID KEPT IT SECRET. A Marriage That Occurred in Washington in February Just Announced.

THE GROOM A COLLEGE STUDENT. How He Has a Pastorate, for Which He Will Leave To-Day with His Bride—A Meeting That Was Not Called—Other Manchester Items.

The friends of Rev. Edgar T. Higginson, late of Richmond College, and Miss Lily C. Wells, of Chesterfield, were surprised Wednesday by the announcement that they were married on the 23d of February last, in Washington, D. C., the ceremony having been performed by Rev. Thomas H. Addison, rector of Trinity Protestant Episcopal church, as shown by the marriage certificate.

As above stated, Mr. Higginson is a young Baptist minister, and until a few days ago was a student at Richmond College. His bride is the daughter of Mr. Lee Wells, of Chesterfield, and sister of Mr. E. H. Wells, of this city.

Who Called It? The City Central Committee met Wednesday night, a bare quorum being present, and the question now being asked by the members is, "Who called the meeting?"

Chairman Wells did not, and no one else had authority to do so, and no one has yet stated that he issued the call which appeared in the newspapers, and in response to which five members appeared in Leader Hall building on the evening mentioned, and after waiting outside Mr. Wells's office for some time, in the expectation that the chairman would put in an appearance, they proceeded across the passageway to the office of Secretary W. B. Cox, where the meeting was held.

Mr. A. J. Galligher presided in the absence of the chairman. Mr. T. E. Owen, who is the Democratic nominee for justice of the peace, was present and stated his views of the situation in the Third Ward. After the meeting the committee decided to canvass the ward, and appointed Messrs. Redford, Fisher, and others as a committee to do so.

They then adjourned to meet to-night, when they will decide upon the manner in which they will proceed in the ward, and the committee decided to canvass the ward, and appointed Messrs. Redford, Fisher, and others as a committee to do so.

Police-Court News. James Loran alias Low Brown alias Charles Watkins, a colored boy, who is well known in police circles as a brass-and-lead-pipe stealer, was up yesterday in the Police Court for stealing a small colored boy. He was fined $1 and costs, which amounted to $2.75.

George Roberts, who makes his living by fixing umbrellas, was charged with mending one for Mr. J. G. Rice, and charging him three dollars for the same. Mr. Rice, however, gave George fifteen minutes in which to shake the dust of old Manchester from his feet. Mr. Rice got his umbrella back, after which he paid George 50 cents for putting in a rib.

PERSONALS AND BRIEFS. The ladies who have in charge the May festival, which is to be given at Central Methodist church to-night, have about completed their arrangements.

United States Circuit Court of Appeals. The United States Circuit Court of Appeals convened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, Judges Goff, Simonton, and Hughes presiding.

There was a very fine attendance and interesting meetings at Clifton street and West-End churches on Wednesday night. Brother Ellis's mission meetings will hold every night, except Sunday, and every afternoon at 3 o'clock, except on Saturdays.

Its Effect in Richmond. The chief topic in governmental circles yesterday was the President's order placing under the civil-service rules nearly all of the offices now out of the classified service. This affects only one position in the post-office at Richmond—that of assistant postmaster. All of the others were already in the class of office. The postmaster is the only officer now not subject to the civil-service regulations.

Improvements at the Farm. There is some doubt as to how the order will affect the employees under the Collector of Customs. The law provides that where there are employed by the collector of the civil-service regulations. Governmental employees subject to the civil-service rules can be removed only for cause.

The Richmond Industrial Home. The following is a list of persons who have recently made donations to the Industrial Home: Richmond Milk Dairy, G. Solari, O. Bosquit, H. Wasserman, P. J. Bagby, Gillis's Bakery, G. W. Saunders, A. Jennings, E. W. Kelly, P. A. Hays, Smithers, J. M. Dandridge, Mrs. J. Thomas Shannon, Mrs. K. F. Luderbach, Mr. Koch, S. A. Fox, Mrs. R. M. F. Williams, E. J. Howe, W. Brannan, Monroe Market, A. Felig, Herman Schmidt, Joseph Krainitzky, Mrs. Ford, Mrs. Annie Procter, Messrs. J. C. and N. C. York, J. M. O'Byrne, W. A. Lambert, John H. Atkinson, A. McDonald, Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac railroad.

Funeral of Mrs. Kirk. The funeral of Mrs. J. O. Kirk took place from Howard's-Grove Baptist church at 4 P. M. yesterday. The church was crowded with the people of the vicinity, who held the deceased in the highest esteem for her Christian character and her loving and helpful deeds among them. There were present also all the Baptist ministers of the city, except those who are absent in attendance at the State Baptist Convention. The services were presided over by Dr. J. S. Dill, of Venable-Street church. The Scriptures were read by Rev. J. R. Tucker, of East-End church; prayer was offered by Rev. W. C. Williams, of the same church; Rev. I. M. Mercer gave out the hymn, "Some Sweet Day" which was sweetly sung by the choir. Dr. John Pollard, who has been an intimate acquaintance of the deceased from her early childhood, and also of her husband, made the address on the occasion. In calm and thoughtful words he brought to view the noble and useful career in every relationship of life. He then drew some illustrations from the life of the deceased, and the presence of the other, to which he referred as attaching a great deal of interest. The little woman objected, and trouble followed.

WE'RE NOT NEIGHBORLY. Two women who acted in a very unneighborly manner in their dispute over a white chamber, each told their tale to Justice John, after which one of them was placed under bond in the sum of $50 for six months.

CAPTAIN FOWLE'S CASE. What General Lee Says Regarding It—Opposed to Unit Rule. (Lynchburg News.) A news reporter called on General Lee yesterday afternoon at the latter's residence, on Court street, and asked him if there were any developments in regard to the confirmation of Captain Fowle's appointment as collector.

Highest of all in Leaving Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

WANTED AN IMMEDIATE HEARING, BUT THE CASE WENT OVER. Detective Hall Expects a Witness to Testify that the Prisoner Made a Green Goods Proposition to Him—Some Circumstances.

Fred. Rohde, who was arrested Wednesday afternoon by Detective Hall on the charge of being a suspicious character, and who is suspected to be either a green-goods man or a counterfeiter, was before Justice Crutchfield yesterday.

When Hall asked that it be postponed for ten days, Mr. Gordon, of the firm of Smith, Moncre & Gordon, appeared as Rohde's counsel, and stated that he objected to a continuance of the case, as he could show that his client was not a suspicious character, and that the charge against him was not well founded.

TRUSTEE'S AUCTION SALE OF A Handsome Suburban Residence FIFTY-TWO VERY BEAUTIFUL RESIDENTIAL LOTS IN THE PLAYS OF "THE PLATEAU" WHICH IS DIRECTLY BETWEEN CHESTNUT HILL AND HIGHLAND PARK. ABOUT ONE MILE NORTH OF RICHMOND.

IN execution of a certain deed of trust to me, dated January 18, 1888, of record in Henrico County Court Clerk's office, in Deed-Book 148 A, page 59, default having been made in the payment of said debt, I have caused the same to be directed to do by the holder of said note, I will, on FRIDAY, MAY 8TH, at 4:30 o'clock P. M., on the premises, sell, by public auction, to the highest bidder, the HANDSOME NEW SUBURBAN DWELLING, situated on the west side of Third avenue, near the corner of the said plan of "The Plateau," and FIFTY-TWO LOTS, fronting on the west side of Third avenue, and each one-half of Second avenue between Victor and Stuart streets.

This property is magnificently located, and has all the advantages possessed by the most attractive sections around Richmond. Highland Park adjoining on the north, and Chestnut Hill on the south, had a substantial growth even during the depression of the past twelve months, and it is fair to say that no section has advanced so rapidly in value. This is an exceptional opportunity for a nice investment.

TERMS: Cash, sufficient to pay the cost of executing this trust, all post-due taxes, if any, and a ratable proportion of the taxes for 1895, 30, and interest thereon from April 21, 1895, to July 21, 1896, and $50, so on, at the end of each quarter until January 21, 1897; $5,000 January 21, 1898; and the balance in equal payments at one and two years, with interest added, and secured by trust deed. my 3 PRESTON COCKE, Trustee.
