ROANOKE, VA., August 18.—(Special.)

The Bluebirds won again this afternoon with ease. Mullarkey pitched great ball, and the visitors hit Coons freely, while the Mountaineers were ragged in the field. Richmond began the run-getting at the start. Two doubles, a single, and an error resulted in two in the first inning; two errors and a single added another in the second. In the third Viox was hit by a pitched ball and had to retire from the game. This, with two hits and an error, scored two more. In the eighth two singles and a double piled up the score to eight runs. The locals did not receive until the eighth, when a base on balls, two singles, and a bad throw by Marr gave them three runs. EXCLUDE THE PRESS.

THE CITY COMMITTEE TO HOLD SECRET MEETINGS HEREAFTER.

PREPARED FOR THE PRIMARY.

Precinct Polling Places Selected and Judges and Clerks Named—Official Apportionment of Delegates—Other Election Matters.

Arrangements for to-morrow's Democratic primary election in this city have been completed, and indications point to a lively contest, but a very small vote.

Tickets will be issued from the offices of Mr. Marion L. Dawson, chairman of the City Committee, at noon to-day, and this afternoon between 4 and 7 o'clock the paraphernalia of the election will be given to the ward superintendents at Powhatan Club. The polls will be opened at 6 A. M. and closed at 8 P. M., and the voting will be by secret ballot.

The City Democratic Committee held a meeting at Powhatan Club last night and completed the details for the primary. Chairman Dawson presided, and the attendance was quite large. As soon as the body was called to order it went into executive session, and the representatives of the press and all others not members of the committee were excluded.

During the secret meeting the committee decided, after a great deal of debate, that hereafter the meetings should be held in secret, and that the secretary should give the newspapers reports of the sessions.

The ward superintendents presented their reports as to places selected in the precincts for the establishment of polls, and the judges and clerks were named. These lists were approved by the committee.

It was decided that the committee should meet at Old Market Hall at 9 o'clock to-morrow night for the purpose of receiving the returns from the election.

up immediately upon his appearance. Captain Lamb at once got down to work, and for almost an hour addressed the audience. THE REDS GIVE A BANQUET.

The Association Contest Team Has a Good Time.

When the hour set for the banquet to the Reds of the Young Men's Christian Association contest team arrived, nearly all of the boys and the men who had been secured for the membership were present.

Shortly after 8:30 the guests sat down at the festive board. The tables were draped with red, the lights were covered with red, the badges were all of the crimson hue, and everything was red except the refreshments.

In his usual happy style, Mr. L. G. Burrus, captain of the Reds, started the thing a-going by reading a piece of poetry by the famous actor of the past, and in a few well-chosen words presented the toastmaster of the evening, Mr. McKee. The Secretary happily introduced Mr. F. W. Loughton, who responded to the toast of the evening.

After refreshments had been served by the Red team, impromptu speeches were made by the following gentlemen: Messrs. A. Arthur, T. Ruffin, H. Bell, S. L. Morris, C. B. Richardson, O. W. Gregory, and U. O. Michaels.

A pleasant social half-hour was spent afterwards, and predictions are that the work of the Red team will be greatly facilitated by this social gathering.

The score stood at the close of the evening: Reds, 56; Oranges, 49. The contest is resulting in great good to the association, and the increased membership being secured.

VIVIAN SAYS HE IS NO FAKIR.

He is Going Back to England Friday.

Arthur Vivian, alias William O'Brien, the alleged filibuster, does not propose to sit quietly by and permit himself to be stripped of the honor of having escaped from Moro Castle, as evidence the following letter which he left at the Dispatch office yesterday:

Sir,—Having been released from jail and sent to the United States, I am a "board-bill-beater," and, in fact, everything that's low, I wish to inform the general public that I am a "fakir," as I did the Virginia United States authorities, and there is nothing in my story about my being a fakir.

The only grievance I have to make is about the Consul. If Mr. Brine is an Englishman, I wish to see him on next Friday for England, and I remain your filibustering fakir and "imaginary" friend.

P. S.—Furthermore, I helped to drown 50,000 cases of ammunition in the Hitter Lake, which was the property of Arabia Pasha.

Vivian returned to the Dispatch office later in the day and talked at some length with the reporters. He laughed and joked, and said he had gotten himself into, and then gotten out of, and told all kinds of marvelous stories.

He denied that he had defrauded Hotel-keeper Watkins, of New York, and that George C. Wilde, judge; John Notting, clerk.

He also denied that he had been arrested as a deserter, as soon as he got on British shores.

Vivian called on Mr. Brine yesterday and secured transportation to New York, but was not accommodated.

Saved Off Four Finers.

The ambulance was summoned to reach his home on the city street. Holmes's planing-mill, on George street, had severed four fingers on his left hand and a special meeting Thursday night at Elliott's Hall.

Robert Walker, a rather impressive-looking negro, was arrested by Sergeant Tomlinson yesterday, charged with a suspicious character. It is claimed that he has been obtaining money here from colored Masons and Pythians.

SENSATION IN KENTUCKY.

Social Trouble—A sanguinary encounter Approached.

LEXINGTON, KY., August 18.—The famous letter purporting to have been written by Mrs. J. Fletcher Johnston, of this city, to Governor Bradley, regarding the appointment of Mrs. Judge Cantrell and Mrs. S. A. Charles as delegates to the Tennessee centennial, is developing one of the biggest sensations ever known in Kentucky.

S. A. Charles, the husband of the latter of the two ladies named, who was referred to in the letter to Governor Bradley as being of no more culture than a chambermaid, is pushing the matter to a crisis. He took a photo-graph of Mrs. Charles, and of the Governor's letter and a letter written by Mrs. Eugene Dunlap Potts to a newspaper office in this city, and showed them to the managing editor, Mrs. Potts, who is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Charles.

Both men are recognized as possessing the most daring courage, and the friends of both apprehend a sanguinary encounter. Mrs. Charles has proposed to defend the honor of his sister-in-law, no matter what the consequences may be. He does not talk of filing suit, and the indications point toward a personal encounter.
