THE OLD CAPITAL. THE COLLEGE Y. M. C. A. DELEGATION OFF FOR KNOXVILLE. Invitations to the Final Ball—The Committee—Kappa Alpha Reception—The Yacht Club—Preparations for a Course—Briefs. WILLIAMSBURG, VA., June 19.—(Special.)—A delegation from the College Young Men's Christian Association, consisting of Mr. John B. Ballinger, of Maryland; Mr. Randolph R. Claiborne, of Amherst; and Mr. George Le Roy Steyens, of Gloucester, left yesterday for Knoxville, Tenn., to attend the summer conference for southern students, which is under the supervision of the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association. The conference will last ten days. Invitations are being sent out to the college final ball, which comes off this year at the Colonial Inn, Thursday evening, June 21st, at 9 o'clock. The invitation Committee is composed of L. Gordon Drake (chairman), Loudoun; John C. Tyler, Mrs. J. L. Hall, Mrs. Van F. Garrett, Mrs. H. D. Cole, Mrs. G. A. Hankins, Mrs. Lane, Jr., Mrs. B. D. Peachey, Mrs. John L. Mercer. Elaborate preparations are being made for the affair, which promises to be more largely attended than any since the reorganization of the college in 1888. Mr. W. H. Charles, who was recently elected Supervisor in Bruton District, York county, will qualify Monday (court-day) at Yorktown. This is a strong...

REST FROM STUDIES. CLOSING EXERCISES OF ST. PATRICK'S SCHOOLS ON FRIDAY. THE ROLLS OF HONOR AND MERIT. Scholastic Year Has Been a Successful One, and the Finals Were Most Impressive—Medals, Scholarships, &c., Awarded in Each Institution.

These splendid educational institutions—St. Patrick's Male and Female Schools—closed their year's work on Friday. The sessions were eminently gratifying and successful, especially so far as the progress made by the pupils was concerned. The closing exercises of the male school took place at 9 o'clock Friday morning. Rev. Fathers Donohoe and Tierney presided. The exercises were delivered in the address in which he congratulated the pupils for their studiousness, and the teachers for their efficiency. He then conferred the following honors: Grammar Department—John J. Blake, Principal—First Class: Scholarship, gold medal, presented by St. Patrick's Male and Social Society, to William P. Sullivan. Second Class: Scholarship, silver medal, to Leroy L. McCarthy. Honorable mention—Clinton J. Alford, Philip E. Shea, and Robert E. Manning. Third Class: Scholarship, silver medal, to Freddie W. Duff. Honorable mention—Michael Hogan, Henry Keck, George Hubbard, Willie Harley, Frank Don Leavy, Peter Koch, Henry Koch, John Thorpe, and W. H. Blair. Fourth Class: Scholarship, silver medal, to Joseph Dunn. Honorable mention—John H. Blair, Charles H. Blair, George Blankenship, John C. Smith, George Alford, and Peter O'Keefe. Fifth Class: Scholarship, silver medal, to George W. Hubbard. ROLL OF HONOR. William P. Sullivan, Clinton J. Alford, John J. Blair, John J. Blair, John J. Blair, Robert E. Manning, Peter Koch, Michael J. Hogan, Henry Koch, Freddie W. Duff, Willie Harley, John Thorpe, Fredrick W. Heyer, Willie Bright, Joseph Dunn, John Craven, George Alford, Charles H. Blair, John H. Blair, John C. Smith, and Peter O'Keefe. PRIMARY BRANCH. Primary Department—Miss Julia Marks, Teacher—First Class: Scholarship, silver medal, Master John Nolan. The following are the names of pupils in the order of merit: William C. Morgan, James J. Joseph Smith, Bernard Duke, John Beirne, Joseph Bazzoli, and Harry Welsh. Second Class: Scholarship, silver medal, Master Joseph Neagle. Mentioned for improvement: Masters Leo Taylor, Charles O'Donnell, John Martin, and Robert Hubbell. Third Class: John McKinley, Richard Sowers, Clinton De Leavy, Joseph Bazzoli, Charles Morgan, James J. Joseph, Joseph Smith, Bernard Duke, John Beirne, Joseph Bazzoli, and Harry Welsh. Fourth Class: James Nolan, Robert Taylor, Emmett O'Keefe, Daniel Ruggaber, William Dowdy, and Stanley Edgar. FOR DEPARTMENT. Department—John Nolan, William Martin, Hugh McGuire, Joseph Smith, Joseph Bazzoli, Bernard Duke, John Beirne, Charles Morgan, James J. Joseph, Joseph Smith, Bernard Duke, John Beirne, Joseph Bazzoli, and Harry Welsh. The following little boys deserve to be mentioned for trying to observe school rules: John McKinley, Richard Sowers, Clinton De Leavy, Joseph Bazzoli, Charles Morgan, James J. Joseph, Joseph Smith, Bernard Duke, John Beirne, Joseph Bazzoli, and Harry Welsh. St. Patrick's Female School closed for the scholastic year 1896-97 Friday morning. The final exercises were held in the school building, and were attended by a large assemblage of friends of this worthy institution. The program, which was charmingly given, consisted of: Entrance March, Miss M. Bowen; May Pole, Senior Elocution Class; "Moonlight and Roses"; Senior Vocal Class; "Home, Sweet Home"; "The Star-Spangled Banner"; "O'Neill, M. Kerse, and K. Kerse"; "Marche Triumphant"; piano; Misses E. Hinckman, M. Glinn, M. Hallahan, M. Gogan, K. McMahon, A. Leohr, and K. ON THE APPOMATTOX. SUITS FOR DAMAGES BROUGHT IN PETERSBURG. A Police Lieutenant the Defendant—Death of a Lady—The Virginia and Carolina Road Deed Signed by the Mayor. PETERSBURG, VA., June 19.—(Special.)—Hon. William R. McKeeney, as counsel to-day, instituted in the Hastings Court three separate suits for damages against Lieutenant Robert S. Chandler, of the police corps. These suits are the outcome of the recent arrests of W. T. Crowder, a colored letter-carrier, and his son, W. A. Crowder. It was charged that the two men were creating a disturbance on Bollingbrook street, and that in the effort to arrest the elder Crowder they made resistance, and W. T. Crowder was struck twice on the head by Lieutenant Chandler. When the cases were brought before the Mayor, the elder Crowder was fined $25 and costs, and the younger $10 and costs, from which decision they appealed to the Hastings Court. In the latter court the cases were dismissed, on the ground that the warrants under which they were convicted in the court below were defective, and thereupon void. The suits instituted against Lieutenant Chandler to-day are: For $300 damages for clubbing W. T. Crowder; $300 damages for false arrest of same, and $100 damages for false arrest of W. A. Crowder. DEATH OF A LADY. Mrs. Rogers, wife of Mr. J. Rogers, a farmer of Chesterfield county, died last night, after a very brief illness. She was only about 24 years old, and leaves several small children. GENERAL NEWS. S. Roman, a dry-goods and clothing merchant, doing business on lower Sycamore street, made an assignment last evening to W. H. Camp, as trustee, for the benefit of his creditors, several of whom reside in Richmond. His liabilities are about $1,800. Mayor Collier to-day, on behalf of the city, signed the deed conveying the franchise and property of the Virginia and Carolina Railroad, which was a part of New York, General James S. Negley, of New York, who has been very active in the negotiations for the purchase of the road, left for the North this morning. He declared his belief that the road would certainly be built at an early day. Children's-Day exercises will be held at the First Baptist church Sunday morning, under the auspices of the Sunday-School and Bible School. The programs will be interesting. On account of sickness, Judge B. A. Hancock has been unable to hold his court here this week. Should he be unable to attend next week, he will hold a special term later. Miss Catherine Bueed, of Centerville, Md., is visiting our city, as the guest of Miss Mittie Pleasant. BEDFORD CITY. A House Struck by Lightning and Demolished—Briefs. BEDFORD CITY, VA., June 19.—(Special.)—On Friday afternoon quite a severe storm occurred, in which the display of electricity was the most vivid of this season. A house owned by Miss Harris on the south side of the town was struck by a bolt of lightning and demolished. A calf that had been put in the cellar for safety, was killed. When Miss Harris saw the angry cloud gathering she became alarmed and took refuge at the home of a neighbor, otherwise she would probably have been killed. The frequent showers are very reasonable for vegetation, and the gardens and crops are growing finely. Mr. O. W. Kelsey, who has been critically ill, is somewhat improved, though still in a precarious condition. The Democratic Executive Committee has not yet determined upon a mode of selecting delegates to the Roanoke convention, but will meet for that purpose shortly. The gubernatorial question has not as yet excited very much interest, and there are few who are pronounced in their preferences. It is thought the delegates will go to the convention untroubled as to the candidates. The question of country roads comes much interest, and the necessity for putting them in good condition is a matter of vital importance to the farmers. At the meeting of the Board of Supervisors this week, Mr. J. L. Campbell, a member of the committee, authorized to borrow $500 for road improvement, reported that he had secured the sum, less the dis-visiting relatives and to attend the college final. Miss Mary Trevilian, one of our handsomest girls, has returned from a lengthy stay in New York. She has for some time been engaged in the study of art. Miss Trevilian has perfected herself in the use of oil colors, and her particular talent lies in portraiture. Rev. James H. Moss, Professor of Latin in Emory and Henry College, and who was for four years in charge of the Methodist church here, arrived yesterday with Mrs. Moss to visit Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Person. Mrs. Laura Powell, after a delightful visit to the family of Rev. W. T. Roberts, at the Episcopal parsonage, has returned to her home in Shepherdstown, W. Va., accompanied by her granddaughter, Miss Ellen Lee Roberts, who will remain away in the fall. To-morrow morning at 11 o'clock the final sermon to the students will be preached by Rev. Dr. W. V. Tudor, of Richmond, and the Young Men's Christian Association will be addressed at night by Rev. E. T. Wellford, of the Newport News Presbyterian church. Mrs. Richardson, relict of Colonel Keck Richmond, for many years a well-known citizen of James City, died at her home in the county yesterday, and will be buried at 2 P. M. to-morrow from Olive Branch church. Rev. P. T. Warren, of this place, will officiate.

CAUGHT AT CREWE. Knights Templar and Epworth League Elect Officers. CREWE, VA., June 19.—(Special.)—On Friday evening, June 18, Knights Templar, at their meeting last night, elected the following officers: Jasper Wells, commander; R. O. Roberts, generalissimo; C. S. Smithson, captain-general; W. J. Sowers, prelate; T. S. Harlan, senior warden; W. G. Collins, junior warden; N. W. Norworthy, treasurer; J. P. Binley, recorder; R. W. Slaughter, standard-bearer; W. P. Watkins, sword-bearer; C. H. Kruse, warden; J. E. Andrews, tiller. The Epworth League, which is in a flourishing condition, at its regular semi-annual meeting elected the following officers: T. S. Harlan, president; M. L. Hillsman, first vice-president; Mrs. J. P. Binley, second vice-president; Mrs. J. T. Routten, third vice-president; Miss Beattie Jones, secretary; Miss Lena Harvey, treasurer. Mrs. T. P. Rivers, of Dinwiddie, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. John W. Knechtel, has returned home. Dr. W. V. Atkins, of Blackstone, was in town to-day. THE STABBED BOY IN COURT. Young Mercer Appears Against the Negro Who Stabbed Him. The impish young negro, John Wesley Drew, who stabbed Garnett Mercer, a son of Dr. C. A. Mercer, about ten days ago, was in the Jail Court yesterday morning, and was sent on to the grand jury. Young Mercer was himself in court, and gave his own version of the case. His story was substantially that told at the time of the occurrence. Drew also repeated the narrative which he had already ventilated in the cell of the Second Police Station. The case was then certified to the Hastings Court.

MR. LUCIEN BALL DEAD. Accidentally Shot and Killed in Southern California Yesterday. The many friends of Mr. Lucien Ball, of this city, will be shocked and grieved to hear of his death, which occurred yesterday in Cambria, Cal. He was killed by the accidental discharge of a pistol. Deceased was a son of the late Judge Charles B. Ball and Emma Read, and a grandson of the venerable Rev. Dr. Read, of this city. He was just 22 years of age, and had been residing on a ranch in Southern California for several years. He was a young man of rare personal attractions and bright promise, and was greatly beloved because of his pure, high-spirited, sunny, and affectionate nature. The news of his sad taking off was communicated to his family in a telegram which they received last evening. The blow was indeed a sad one to them, as it will prove to their many devoted friends, who will grieve with them in this sad affliction.

THE SCHOOL BOARD ELECTS TEACHERS—Political. ROANOKE, VA., June 19.—(Special.)—The Roanoke School Board elected thirty-two teachers for the various public schools to-day, all of whom served as such in the session just closed, except as to the Glimmer-Avenue school, where one change was made. Miss Ella M. Cutchin being the new teacher elected. The following principals were reappointed: Professor J. P. Massey, of the High School; Professor H. H. Shanklin, of the Commercial Street School; Professor N. P. Painter, of the Glimmer School; Professor J. W. Miller, of the Belmont School; Professor C. S. Hawkins, of the Melrose School; E. W. Harsh, Fifth Ward Colored, and T. T. Henry, Third Ward Colored School. The remaining appointments will be made next Tuesday. The election of delegates to the Democratic State Convention, at the primary to-day, resulted in the election of the following: J. D. Ward, W. K. Andrews, P. W. Huff, J. D. Price, C. W. C. Wood, W. T. Tillet, and J. S. Lylander. Second Ward, S. Hamilton Graves, Leola Buckner, and S. S. Brooke; Third Ward, J. D. Carr, W. E. Malone, and E. J. McDonald; Fourth Ward, J. Allen Watts, J. J. Casey, Harry Myers, and Louis Ruff; and Fifth Ward, W. T. Strickland, H. G. Hogan, J. C. Leonard, and W. H. Karnes. CADETS AT WEST POINT. Only Thirty-Eight Candidates Pass the Examinations.
