WYTHEVILLE. Badly Burned—Coming Fight for Circuit Judgeship—Personal. WYTHEVILLE, VA., November 6.—(Special.)—A little 2-year-old daughter of Dr. Peery, of Rural Retreat, was severely burned about the body a few days ago, and her condition is now precarious. She was standing before an open fireplace, when her clothing ignited. Mrs. Peery was in an adjoining room, and she ran to her little one's assistance and extinguished the flames without much trouble, but not until her daughter had been painfully, if not seriously, burned.

MR. ROUNTREE AND THE SCHOOLS. Gives Reasons Why Additional Appropriation Cannot Be Made. To the Editor of the Dispatch: If to close the public schools six days this year (which is the worst that can happen) is necessary, it is a step in the right direction of saving both the city and schools, and it had better be done. The members of the Council who pledged themselves to a rule not to vote for any appropriation in excess of the annual budget, and voted against the extra appropriation for schools, will in due time receive praise instead of condemnation.

SHENANDOAH. The Wheat Looking Well—Church Dedication—Personal. WOODSTOCK, VA., November 6.—(Special.)—The recent rains have been a wonderful boon to the growing wheat crop, and the young wheat is looking better than for a number of years. The acreage was above that of last year. Marion S. Emswiler, who lives a few miles west of Woodstock, was fined $10 and costs on Thursday by Justice of the Peace Hias for the defiance of the special bird law, which applies to Shenandoah county. This is the first conviction under this act.

IN THE SOUTHWEST. UNPRECEDENTED DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY IN MONTGOMERY. Y. P. INSTITUTE FOOT-BALL TEAM. Schedule for the Month—Plays University of Tennessee on Thanksgiving-Day—Many Personal Notes from Blacksburg.

BLACKSBURG, VA., November 6.—(Special.)—The unprecedented majority in the county at the recent election for the Democratic nominees was a surprise to Democrats and Republicans alike. There was no doubt felt as to the State ticket, but it was feared that Mr. Gill might push General Wharton uncomfortably close. When the reports commenced coming and evidenced the large Democratic gains, the joy and enthusiasm of the old Jeffersonians was immense. Such a majority has not been given in this county in years. Though it is to be largely attributed to the factional quarrel in the Republican ranks, yet, doubtless, much of it was due to the desire of our people to once more honor the gray-haired old Confederate veteran, with whom many had fought and bled, and of whom, many had only too few are now left to honor.

SCHEDULE OF THE V. P. I. TEAM. The Virginia Polytechnic Institute football team, after the game to be played to-morrow with the University of Maryland, has the following schedule: November the 8th—Portsmouth High School, at Portsmouth. November the 13th—Richmond College, at Richmond. November the 15th—Hampden-Sidney College, at Hampden-Sidney. November the 20th—Not fixed. November the 25th (Thanksgiving)—University of Tennessee, at Knoxville. The victory over North Carolina gives our team a very different standing in the State and South from that which it occupied before the game. It would seem that to decide the State championship, a game must be played between the Virginia Polytechnic Institute and the Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

BEDFORD CITY BUDGET. Dr. H. S. Hawes Called to the Presbyterian Church There. BEDFORD CITY, VA., November 6.—(Special.)—The two gentlemen who were elected on Tuesday to represent the interests of Bedford in the House of Delegates, are both well known to our readers. Mr. H. S. Hawes is from the Northside near Big Island, and was one of the members of the last House. The approval of his course by the majority of his countrymen was demonstrated by the fact that he received the largest vote in the last election. Captain A. L. Minter represents the southside of the county, and is a man of about 70 years of age, will make his debut as a statesman in the coming session of the House. On last evening there was a meeting of the congregation of the Presbyterian church, when, by a unanimous vote, it was decided to extend a call to Dr. H. S. Hawes to accept the pastorate of the church. Dr. Hawes for some time past has had no regular charge, being engaged in evangelistic work. When communicated with in regard to the call, he was visiting a son who is a minister in Kentucky. After favorable consideration, and there is a probability that he will arrive here to preach to-morrow, and investigate the details of the call. Dr. Hawes is regarded as a man of ability, a man of high character, and a man of high standing in the church. He is the brother of Mrs. Terhune (Marian Harland), of whose success as an authoress, Virginians are justly proud, and Mr. H. S. Hawes, of Richmond, is a native of Bedford, and until recently a leading hardware merchant of this place. Dr. Hawes is the son of Mr. H. S. Hawes, late of Danville, to Miss Harriet M. Minter, daughter of Mr. W. H. Carter, who is now of Wilkes-Barre, Pa. Dr. Hawes is a member of the First Presbyterian church, Wednesday, the 17th instant, at 8 o'clock. On Thursday evening Rev. L. G. Broughton, D. D., of Roanoke, delivered a lecture at the Baptist church, his subject being "As I See It," that has been pronounced as one of the finest and most striking ever heard here.
