

A "WONDER" SALE AT THE GLOBE TO CONTINUE Two Days—Friday and Saturday

Men's Suits. Thousands of Men's Stylish Suits, made of all-wool material, such as Blue and Black Cheviots, Fancy Cassimeres, All-Wool Clay Diagonals, Indigo-Blue Serges, Scotch Plaids, &c. Perfect in every detail as regards fit, make, and trimming.

$7.50

The West of England Clay Diagonal Suits still on sale at $6—both sack and frock styles. Our exhibition of Children's Clothing is seldom equalled by any clothing house in this country. Prices begin at 95c. and end at $6, with variety enough to please the most exacting.

Furnishings, Hats, Shoes—Complete Stocks. Surprise Special Sale No. 81, at ends to-morrow night. Satisfaction that satisfies. The Globe's double guarantee.

THE GLOBE

117 BROAD AND SEVENTH STS. SEND MAIL ORDERS.

Temple, Pemberton, Cordes & Co., 7 and 9 West Broad St.

Attractive Hosiery Values.

For Friday and Saturday Hosiery shoppers a fortunate purchase enables us to offer some unusually attractive Hosiery values, which should make this one of the most attractive departments in our house.

- Ladies' Fast Black Full Regular Made Cotton, a regular 25c. value, 19c. Ladies' Fast Black Full Regular Made Silk and Cotton Hose, a regular 45c. value, 25c. Ladies' Fancy Plaid Cotton Hose, a regular 50c. value, 35c. Ladies' Fancy Plaid and Stripe Lisle Hose, a regular 62 1/2c. value, 45c.

MISS HELEN POTTER TO-NIGHT.

The Great Impersonator at the Y. M. C. A.—Ladies' Quartette.

The ninth number of the Star Course will take place to-night in Association Hall. Miss Helen Potter, one of the greatest of impersonators, gives one of her pleasant impersonation recitals.

The following most attractive and fascinating programs will be rendered: (a) A recital of Anecdotes of Orators; (b) A Texas Camp-Meeting; Music, Impromptu Impersonations—(c) Trovato, A Love Song (Hindu); (d) Hans von Hillen (Danish); (e) The Sheriff (Negro); (f) The Internal Machine (Yankee); Music, Costumed Impersonations—Scenes from Macbeth; Music, scenes from An Oriental Play (Chinese)—Chinese Speech and Song in Gorgeous Chinese Robes; Music, Temperance—A John B. Gough; Speaking of Miss Potter's appearance in the Philadelphia Academy of Music, "the North American says": "An audience of 2000 people filled the Academy of Music to hear Helen Potter again. She seems to grow better each year, and her efforts meet with unmitigated applause. The wonderful flexibility of her voice, the mobility of her facial expression, and the confidence that she gives to the slightest gesture have long since made a favorite in an entertainment that is peculiarly her own."

TO FORM A CAVALRY SQUADRON.

An Effort Being Made in This Direction With Prospect of Success.

An effort is being made to organize a squadron of cavalry in Richmond, and with the air so thick of war rumors the matter of obtaining recruits has presented no serious obstacle to the realization of the expectation of success. "A John B. Gough" is the name of the man who is to lead the squad. The recent unfortunate division in the Stuart Horse Guard troop has left little hope of reconciliation between the rival factions, and each side is determined not to yield, and if beaten, to leave the Guard in a body, in defiance of all military discipline. Those men who are opposed to the re-formation of ex-Captain E. J. Eaker have formulated a petition which they have sent through the proper channels to the Governor, asking him not to appoint Captain Eaker, but to give them a commander who will work for the betterment of the troop.

Captain J. W. Lockwood, Jr., and Captain Lanier have both been approached and asked to take the command, but no definite conclusion has yet been reached. Major Sands has been asked to form a squadron of cavalry, and he has received assurances enough to lead him to believe that he would have not the least difficulty in doing this. The temporary delay is due to a desire on the part of the officers connected with the troop recently disbanded by an order of the last Governor to have that order revoked, since they believe that it was issued contrary to law and equity.

If their petition in this respect is denied, they will then industriously set about the forming of another squadron.

"A Jolly Night."

The popular comedian, Edwin Travers, and his admirable company, will present the latest musical comedy, "A Jolly Night," at the Academy of Music to-night. "A Jolly Night" is a comedy of a very high order, and the fun injected into its lines is, it is believed, the most wholesome. Fun that sweeps the webs from the tired brain and makes it better suited to take up again the serious duties of life. Aside from the comedy proper there are many unusually pleasant special features introduced, foremost among them being the famous "Barriers" in which the artists are seen in many of the best impersonations. Captain Cunningham and a large chorus will assist Mr. Miller during his act.

Next Tuesday evening Polk Miller, Oscar Elson, and Ester Wallace will repeat their clever three-act comedy, "The Fool," in which the artists are seen in many of the best impersonations. Captain Cunningham and a large chorus will assist Mr. Miller during his act.

Not Goodwin and his company, which includes Maxine Elliott, will arrive in the city tomorrow morning from Norfolk, Va. Tomorrow night he will present his greatest comedy success—"A Gilded Fool"—at the Academy. The sale of seats for his engagement has exceeded any former sale.

THE SEWING EXHIBITION

An Attractive Display of Needle-Work at Masonic Temple.

The exhibition of sewing, under the patronage of the Ladies' Guild of Holy Trinity church, opened at the Masonic Temple last evening, and though the inclement weather militated somewhat against the attendance, a large number of the best specimens of needle-work were present. Mr. Roswell Page presided at the platform and presented Mr. James L. Hughes, the Inspector of Public Schools of Toronto, Canada, who made the address of the evening. He has long expected that Governor Tyler would be present to make an address, but he was detained in Washington and did not return to the city in time to keep this engagement. Mr. Page, in a few remarks, presented Mr. Hughes, and for an hour or more that gentleman discoursed most entertainingly on the necessities for manual training in the public schools.

The exhibits which are loaned by the New York Association of Sewing Schools, including exhibits from the government schools of Belgium, France, Japan, Sweden, Switzerland, the Board Schools of London, and from schools in the United States, were most attractive. The exhibits were arranged in the large hall and proved interesting subjects for inspection by the many ladies present. All of the exhibits were of a high order of merit, and the needle and technique was done by children, and this fact added interest to it. The exhibition is in no sense a money-making enterprise, but given purely to create interest in the art of sewing, and to show the possibilities of the needle in skillful fingers.

This afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, an address will be made by Mrs. Woolman, Professor of Domestic Art in the Teachers' College of New York city.

The Noted Breach-of-Promise Case.

The event of next week at the Young Men's Christian Association, will be the great breach-of-promise case. On Thursday night, hundreds will remember the famous mock trial of January, when one of our leading citizens was tried on the charge of stealing a rooster. Hundreds of people were turned away from the trial, and the defendant was acquitted.

On next Thursday night another mock trial will be given. One of the leading attorneys of the city will be used for breach of promise by a handsome young widow. A leading attorney and member of the Legislature will be the judge on this occasion.

The defendant's case will be looked after by Mr. S. P. Patterson, while the complainant has secured to conduct her case, Colonel A. V. Newton, of Worcester, Mass., one of the leading attorneys of that city. A number of leading young men and young women have been summoned as witnesses in the case.

Court will be called at 8 o'clock sharp, and the docket read. Court will adjourn promptly at 10:30 o'clock.

Recital at Grace Church.

Despite the exceedingly inclement weather last evening, a very good audience was present in the Grace church recital-room, at the recital given for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid Society of that church.

Miss Mary Agnes Kelley was inimitable in her impersonation of the various characters she portrayed, and that her efforts were thoroughly appreciated was shown by the frequent bursts of applause she received. Another delightful feature of the evening was the songs charmingly rendered by Misses Briggs, Lawson, and Mr. Young, with Miss Meta as accompanist.

The affair was a decided success, and all agreed that the evening was a most enjoyable one.

To Transfer the Post-Office.

Mr. John L. Grubbs, who has been appointed assistant postmaster by Mr. Wray T. Knight, called on Mr. W. H. Cullinworth, at the post-office yesterday, and notified him that Mr. Knight would like to charge to-day. An inspector was coming from Washington, he said, to make the transfer.

Mr. Knight is still far from well, but is so much improved that he feels quite able to stand the strain of the work incident to taking charge of the office.

Picture Presentation at Lee Camp. The picture gallery of Lee Camp will be enriched to-night by the addition of an oil portrait of General George W. Randolph, the first commander of the Richmond Howitzers. Mr. Leigh Robinson, a prominent lawyer of Washington, D. C., will deliver the presentation address, and Major Henry C. Carter will accept the portrait on behalf of the camp. The Howitzers will attend the ceremony.

WED AT ST. PAUL'S.

MISS DUNLOP BECOMES THE BRIDE OF MR. EWING.

A PRETTY POST-LENTEN WEDDING.

The Chancel Set With Evergreens and Made Fragrant With Lilies—Bride a Social Leader; Groom a Prominent Lawyer.

One of the most impressive and beautiful of the weddings of the week was that of Miss Maria Louisa Dunlop and Mr. Hampton Denman Ewing, of New York, which took place at St. Paul's church last night at 8 o'clock.

The church was fragrant with lilies, which were massed about the chancel, their whiteness thrown into relief by palms and ferns. The ceremony was solemnly conducted by the rector of the church, Rev. Dr. Hartley Carmichael, in the presence of a large number of friends of the contracting parties.

The bride entered upon the arm of her uncle, Mr. R. A. Lancaster, who gave her away. She is a daughter of the late James N. Dunlop. She was met at the altar by the groom, with his best man, Mr. P. Tecumseh Sherman.

BRIDESMAIDS AND USHERS. The bridesmaids in attendance were Misses Ann Dent Dunlop and Bessie Dunlop, sisters of the bride; Mattie Curcell, Calvin Braze, Mary Rogers, Elsie Carmichael, Susie Noiding, and Marie Williams, of Richmond; Louie Sharp, of Norfolk, and Mary Ewing, of Lancaster, O. They formed a dainty spring picture in their gowns of bird-seed blue organdy.

The ushers were Messrs. William Cox Ewing, of Yonkers, N. Y.; Benjamin Dreyfus, of New York; Lawson Woodford, of Yonkers; Hampton Y. Ewing, of Washington city; Rev. Herbert Shipman, of West Point; Dr. S. E. Getty, of Yonkers; Messrs. Robert A. Lancaster, Jr., Granville Valentine, and Overton Howard, of Richmond.

A limited number of relatives and intimate friends were entertained after the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother, on West Grace street. Among the strangers present were Mrs. Ewing, mother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ewing, Jr., Miss Belle Ewing, and Mr. and Mrs. Getty, all of New York State.

THE BRIDE AND GROOM.

The bride was given in white silk and carried a huge bouquet of lilies of the valley. Since her debut, a season or two ago, she has been justly reckoned one of the foremost beauties in Richmond society. She is of the Irish type, with soft, brown hair, blue eyes, and a complexion as fair as the lilies which surrounded her last evening. Like the lilies, also, she is tall and slender. Her beauty never shone more than on this important occasion. She is of the Irish type, with soft, brown hair, blue eyes, and a complexion as fair as the lilies which surrounded her last evening. Like the lilies, also, she is tall and slender. Her beauty never shone more than on this important occasion.

Under the old law the period of detention of a boy committed to us as a vagrant or disorderly person, the court shall ascertain whether the parent or guardian is able to support the minor, and if so, shall order the parent or guardian to pay us, not exceeding $5 per month toward the support of the minor.

Under the old law the period of detention of a boy committed to us as a vagrant or disorderly person, the court shall ascertain whether the parent or guardian is able to support the minor, and if so, shall order the parent or guardian to pay us, not exceeding $5 per month toward the support of the minor.

Under the old law the period of detention of a boy committed to us as a vagrant or disorderly person, the court shall ascertain whether the parent or guardian is able to support the minor, and if so, shall order the parent or guardian to pay us, not exceeding $5 per month toward the support of the minor.

Under the old law the period of detention of a boy committed to us as a vagrant or disorderly person, the court shall ascertain whether the parent or guardian is able to support the minor, and if so, shall order the parent or guardian to pay us, not exceeding $5 per month toward the support of the minor.

Under the old law the period of detention of a boy committed to us as a vagrant or disorderly person, the court shall ascertain whether the parent or guardian is able to support the minor, and if so, shall order the parent or guardian to pay us, not exceeding $5 per month toward the support of the minor.

Under the old law the period of detention of a boy committed to us as a vagrant or disorderly person, the court shall ascertain whether the parent or guardian is able to support the minor, and if so, shall order the parent or guardian to pay us, not exceeding $5 per month toward the support of the minor.

Under the old law the period of detention of a boy committed to us as a vagrant or disorderly person, the court shall ascertain whether the parent or guardian is able to support the minor, and if so, shall order the parent or guardian to pay us, not exceeding $5 per month toward the support of the minor.

Under the old law the period of detention of a boy committed to us as a vagrant or disorderly person, the court shall ascertain whether the parent or guardian is able to support the minor, and if so, shall order the parent or guardian to pay us, not exceeding $5 per month toward the support of the minor.

Under the old law the period of detention of a boy committed to us as a vagrant or disorderly person, the court shall ascertain whether the parent or guardian is able to support the minor, and if so, shall order the parent or guardian to pay us, not exceeding $5 per month toward the support of the minor.

Under the old law the period of detention of a boy committed to us as a vagrant or disorderly person, the court shall ascertain whether the parent or guardian is able to support the minor, and if so, shall order the parent or guardian to pay us, not exceeding $5 per month toward the support of the minor.

MAJ. MYERS ELECTED

CHOSEN PRESIDENT OF THE PRISON ASSOCIATION OF VIRGINIA.

MR. CASKIE INSISTS ON WITHDRAWING His Views on Report of the Legislative Investigation Committee—The Laurel Reformatory May Be Idle—Annual Election of Officers.

The annual meeting of the Prison Association of Virginia was held in the blue room of the Young Men's Christian Association last night. It had been expected that in view of the recent investigation by the Legislative Committee, and the report which followed it, that several members of the board would tender their resignations, but the meeting passed off without any allusion to the report of that committee, other than that contained in President Caskie's report, which is given below.

It is significant, however, that several changes have been made in the personnel of the board, and Mr. Caskie insisted upon retiring from the presidency, though he consented to serve in a subordinate capacity. There were present at the meeting Messrs. James Caskie (president), Major Robert Stiles, John S. Harwood, Thomas Polndexter, E. B. Addison, George C. Jefferson, S. M. Woodward, J. W. Cringan, Rev. R. B. Williams (secretary), and Thonias Potts.

After the reading and adoption of the minutes of the last meeting President Caskie read his annual report. It dealt at the outset with the situation as regards the contract with the manufacturing firm that is now operating the Laurel Reformatory. On the present contract expires about one month's time, and the president insists upon the necessity of making arrangements to provide suitable employment at an early date.

The report contains the following reference to the recent investigation conducted by the committee of the Legislature: "During last January and February an investigation was conducted by a committee of the House of Delegates, and the report was made to the House of Delegates. You are, no doubt, familiar with most of the evidence taken by the committee, as our city newspapers devoted much space to it. The report of the committee, while it was most respectful and disappointing to your board, yet in the main it was a vindication of the management of the association. The committee recommended that some change be made in the laws relative to the commitment to our custody of minors by the association. As a result of this investigation, the Legislature passed four acts, all of which are satisfactory to your board, except the act of February 25, 1898. The first of the three satisfactory acts provides that the Governor of the State shall have the power to pardon any boy committed to our custody, and your board has refused to discharge the boy.

"The most onerous and disagreeable duty which devolves on your board is the decision of applications for the discharge of boys. The grant of the power to the Governor in the above act, which your board has been constrained to reject, will, we believe, a most salutary effect in removing a prejudice existing in some minds against our association, due to the fact that heretofore we have been unable to pardon prisoners committed to us, while he has the power as to prisoners committed to the jails and penitentiary of the State. The second act provides that no person shall be committed to our custody, after such person shall have reached the age of 17 years.

"The testimony taken by the Aeylum and Prison Committee of the House of Delegates showed that the use of chains and fetters on boys, which was so distasteful to our patrons, and as a substitution for which the committee recommended an iron cage or cages, was limited to boys over 17 years of age. These boys are usually committed to us by the courts in criminal cases, and generally so hardened that the percentage of them actually reformed is small, embrace practically all the runaways from the school, and are the disturbing and disorderly element in the school.

"The enactment of a law forbidding us to receive them should be welcomed by us. The third act provides, in substance, that when a boy is committed to us as a vagrant or disorderly person, the court shall ascertain whether the parent or guardian is able to support the minor, and if so, shall order the parent or guardian to pay us, not exceeding $5 per month toward the support of the minor.

"The object of the act is to prevent parents who desire to rid themselves of the expense of supporting their children, and who are able to support them, from sending them to us.

"The object of the act is to prevent parents who desire to rid themselves of the expense of supporting their children, and who are able to support them, from sending them to us.

"The object of the act is to prevent parents who desire to rid themselves of the expense of supporting their children, and who are able to support them, from sending them to us.

"The object of the act is to prevent parents who desire to rid themselves of the expense of supporting their children, and who are able to support them, from sending them to us.

"The object of the act is to prevent parents who desire to rid themselves of the expense of supporting their children, and who are able to support them, from sending them to us.

"The object of the act is to prevent parents who desire to rid themselves of the expense of supporting their children, and who are able to support them, from sending them to us.

"The object of the act is to prevent parents who desire to rid themselves of the expense of supporting their children, and who are able to support them, from sending them to us.

"The object of the act is to prevent parents who desire to rid themselves of the expense of supporting their children, and who are able to support them, from sending them to us.

"The object of the act is to prevent parents who desire to rid themselves of the expense of supporting their children, and who are able to support them, from sending them to us.

"The object of the act is to prevent parents who desire to rid themselves of the expense of supporting their children, and who are able to support them, from sending them to us.

"The object of the act is to prevent parents who desire to rid themselves of the expense of supporting their children, and who are able to support them, from sending them to us.

"The object of the act is to prevent parents who desire to rid themselves of the expense of supporting their children, and who are able to support them, from sending them to us.

"The object of the act is to prevent parents who desire to rid themselves of the expense of supporting their children, and who are able to support them, from sending them to us.

"The object of the act is to prevent parents who desire to rid themselves of the expense of supporting their children, and who are able to support them, from sending them to us.

"The object of the act is to prevent parents who desire to rid themselves of the expense of supporting their children, and who are able to support them, from sending them to us.

"The object of the act is to prevent parents who desire to rid themselves of the expense of supporting their children, and who are able to support them, from sending them to us.

GRIND TOBACCOSTEMS

MANCHESTER MAY HAVE FERTILIZER-MILL FOR THAT PURPOSE.

OTHER ITEMS FROM THE SOUTH SIDE

Finance Committee Wants More Definite Proposition—Hillgrens Before Mayor Maurice—Death of a Young Lady—Briefs.

Manchester already has on her side of the river one of the largest and most complete fertilizer manufacturing plants in this country—the Allison-Addison Works. She is also likely to have another. A few days ago a gentleman from Richmond came to this city to look out for a suitable site for such a factory. He placed himself under the conduct of Captain James A. Lipscomb, City Engineer, and together the two went on a search for a location. It is understood that the purpose of those interested is to erect a mill to grind tobacco stems for fertilizing purposes. The gentlemen found several sites in the First Ward, near the railroad, which pleased the visitor greatly. However, no purchase or rental has yet been reported. Such an enterprise would pay the city well, and it is safe to predict that she will give it a welcome.

Another important meeting of the Council Committee on Finance will be held soon. When Mr. A. L. Adamson appeared before the committee Wednesday night and made a statement of what his people, who wished to establish a underwear manufacturing house here, wanted, the body did not think his requests were definite enough for them to act, so the committee adjourned subject to the call of the chairman, Captain W. W. Pool, who will convene it when Mr. Adamson desires.

The question Mr. Adamson put to the committee was this: If a desirable concern employing 150 persons wished to locate in Manchester, would the Finance Committee recommend to the Council that the city build such a structure and rent it to the concern for a term of years at a cost of interest on money invested and insurance?

A meeting of the Committee on Light was held last night. Hon. Harry B. Owen presided for the body and presented a new ordinance, granting a franchise to the Richmond Gas Company to supply Manchester consumers. The paper was discussed at length, but action was deferred to a meeting to be held next week.

WHERE A GODDESS PRESIDES. Mayor Maurice had quite an interesting service at the White Temple of Manchester yesterday morning. Had it not been raining there would have been a large attendance. When interviewed on the matter yesterday after the service was over, his Honor said he had no right to complain, as he had had a similar attendance in better weather several times at other temples of worship.

The case of James Milstead and Walter Harrison, charged with fighting, was the particular feature of the exercises most attractive. It was shown that Milstead had struck Harrison, and Harrison had struck Milstead, that meant $250 towards the rock-crusher, and Milstead had to pay it. Harrison was said to be afraid Milstead was going to give him further trouble, and prayed for him to be put under bond. Milstead was required to give security in $50 for three months. In the case of Harrison and George Milstead, summoned before the tribunal of his Honor for fighting Tuesday night, was continued until Monday. In this instance Harrison struck the blow. Milstead has not recovered sufficiently to appear at public worship, as he has a severe cold, and he is unable to attend church to-night. The exercises will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

MISS MARY COOK DEAD. Miss Mary Ellen Cook, a popular and much-beloved young lady of 18, died last Wednesday night at her residence, Maury and Ninth streets. She was the daughter of Mrs. Jane Cook, and also leaves to mourn their loss a sister and several brothers. Her death had been ill about three weeks. The immediate cause of her death was congestion of the lungs.

The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Fifth-Street Methodist church. Rev. George H. McPadden will conduct the service. Interment will be in Mary Cemetery.

The funeral of Albert Langdon Heath, the young son of Mr. W. L. Heath, of Swansboro, took place at his parents' residence in Swansboro, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. W. T. Williams, pastor of West-End Methodist church, conducted the services. The interment was made in Maury Cemetery.

PERSONALS AND BRIEFS. Mr. A. J. Smith has been elected delegate to the Grand Council of the Royal Arcanum, which will meet in Richmond on Tuesday, April 19th. Mr. George E. Gary is his alternate.

Mr. C. E. Morris and family have returned to the city, where they will reside in the future at their old home, on Fifth and Hall streets. The Captain has given up the railroad business.

Manchester Lodge, No. 14, A. F. and A. M., will hold a special communication this night at 7 o'clock in the Masonic Temple. An adjourned meeting of the City Council will be held to-night, when the city budget, referred over from the March meeting, will be considered.

The County Court has adjourned for the term. The case of Bayley, a white man, charged with stealing a cow and horse from Major Joseph Walker, went over until the May term because of the absence of material witnesses.

The trial of Charles Mosby, the Swansboro negro, who got a shotgun and proceeded to take possession of the town some weeks ago, has been reset for the June term.

Rev. Dr. W. R. L. Smith, pastor of the Second Baptist church, will conduct the service at the Oak-Grove Baptist church to-night. The exercises will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

The Grays will have their regular drill to-night and company inspection by Lieutenant Meredith. This may be the last regular meeting the company will have before the Hispano-American war passes into history, so a full attendance is urged.

Will Attend the Opening. The ladies of the Confederate Memorial Literary Society have decided to accept the invitation of the Blues to be present at the opening of the bazaar on Wednesday evening, April 23rd.

DEATHS. CHRISTIAN.—Died, in this city, Thursday, April 11, 1898, Captain E. F. CHRISTIAN. Interment at Shockoe Cemetery TODAY (Friday) at 2 o'clock P. M.

KEMP.—Died, Thursday, the 23rd instant, at 9 o'clock, MADALINE LOUISE, infant daughter of Harry and Maggie Kemp. Funeral from residence FRIDAY, 4 P. M.

TIMMERMAN.—Died, April 14th, at A. M., at his residence, 228 West Main street, H. C. G. TIMMERMAN, in the 60th year of his age.

Farwell, my wife, lament no more; I am not lost, but gone before; Behold the place in which I lie, As ye are now, so once was I.

My time has come, and I am gone, So leave thee thus all forlorn; Yet hope on, children, do not delay, Think of your God and still obey.

Your God and mine is your only friend, Till death your troubles shall end; Yet pray for me, but do not cry— Jesus died for you and I.

Funeral from the residence THIS (Friday) AFTERNOON at 5 o'clock. Friends of the family invited to attend.

GRIND TOBACCOSTEMS

MANCHESTER MAY HAVE FERTILIZER-MILL FOR THAT PURPOSE.

OTHER ITEMS FROM THE SOUTH SIDE

Finance Committee Wants More Definite Proposition—Hillgrens Before Mayor Maurice—Death of a Young Lady—Briefs.

Manchester already has on her side of the river one of the largest and most complete fertilizer manufacturing plants in this country—the Allison-Addison Works. She is also likely to have another. A few days ago a gentleman from Richmond came to this city to look out for a suitable site for such a factory. He placed himself under the conduct of Captain James A. Lipscomb, City Engineer, and together the two went on a search for a location. It is understood that the purpose of those interested is to erect a mill to grind tobacco stems for fertilizing purposes. The gentlemen found several sites in the First Ward, near the railroad, which pleased the visitor greatly. However, no purchase or rental has yet been reported. Such an enterprise would pay the city well, and it is safe to predict that she will give it a welcome.

Another important meeting of the Council Committee on Finance will be held soon. When Mr. A. L. Adamson appeared before the committee Wednesday night and made a statement of what his people, who wished to establish a underwear manufacturing house here, wanted, the body did not think his requests were definite enough for them to act, so the committee adjourned subject to the call of the chairman, Captain W. W. Pool, who will convene it when Mr. Adamson desires.

The question Mr. Adamson put to the committee was this: If a desirable concern employing 150 persons wished to locate in Manchester, would the Finance Committee recommend to the Council that the city build such a structure and rent it to the concern for a term of years at a cost of interest on money invested and insurance?

A meeting of the Committee on Light was held last night. Hon. Harry B. Owen presided for the body and presented a new ordinance, granting a franchise to the Richmond Gas Company to supply Manchester consumers. The paper was discussed at length, but action was deferred to a meeting to be held next week.

WHERE A GODDESS PRESIDES. Mayor Maurice had quite an interesting service at the White Temple of Manchester yesterday morning. Had it not been raining there would have been a large attendance. When interviewed on the matter yesterday after the service was over, his Honor said he had no right to complain, as he had had a similar attendance in better weather several times at other temples of worship.

The case of James Milstead and Walter Harrison, charged with fighting, was the particular feature of the exercises most attractive. It was shown that Milstead had struck Harrison, and Harrison had struck Milstead, that meant $250 towards the rock-crusher, and Milstead had to pay it. Harrison was said to be afraid Milstead was going to give him further trouble, and prayed for him to be put under bond. Milstead was required to give security in $50 for three months. In the case of Harrison and George Milstead, summoned before the tribunal of his Honor for fighting Tuesday night, was continued until Monday. In this instance Harrison struck the blow. Milstead has not recovered sufficiently to appear at public worship, as he has a severe cold, and he is unable to attend church to-night. The exercises will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

MISS MARY COOK DEAD. Miss Mary Ellen Cook, a popular and much-beloved young lady of 18, died last Wednesday night at her residence, Maury and Ninth streets. She was the daughter of Mrs. Jane Cook, and also leaves to mourn their loss a sister and several brothers. Her death had been ill about three weeks. The immediate cause of her death was congestion of the lungs.

The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Fifth-Street Methodist church. Rev. George H. McPadden will conduct the service. Interment will be in Mary Cemetery.

The funeral of Albert Langdon Heath, the young son of Mr. W. L. Heath, of Swansboro, took place at his parents' residence in Swansboro, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. W. T. Williams, pastor of West-End Methodist church, conducted the services. The interment was made in Maury Cemetery.

PERSONALS AND BRIEFS. Mr. A. J. Smith has been elected delegate to the Grand Council of the Royal Arcanum, which will meet in Richmond on Tuesday, April 19th. Mr. George E. Gary is his alternate.

Mr. C. E. Morris and family have returned to the city, where they will reside in the future at their old home, on Fifth and Hall streets. The Captain has given up the railroad business.

Manchester Lodge, No. 14, A. F. and A. M., will hold a special communication this night at 7 o'clock in the Masonic Temple. An adjourned meeting of the City Council will be held to-night, when the city budget, referred over from the March meeting, will be considered.

The County Court has adjourned for the term. The case of Bayley, a white man, charged with stealing a cow and horse from Major Joseph Walker, went over until the May term because of the absence of material witnesses.

The trial of Charles Mosby, the Swansboro negro, who got a shotgun and proceeded to take possession of the town some weeks ago, has been reset for the June term.

Rev. Dr. W. R. L. Smith, pastor of the Second Baptist church, will conduct the service at the Oak-Grove Baptist church to-night. The exercises will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

The Grays will have their regular drill to-night and company inspection