

ENJOY A CUP OF TEA.

MEMBERS OF WOMAN'S CLUB SPEND A PLEASANT HOUR.

A PRETTY AFTERNOON WEDDING.

Miss Clara Lee Lynch Married to Mr. Charles M. Dunnaway—State Convention U. D. C.—King's Daughters Meet—Personal.

Many of the members of the Woman's Club and their guests dropped in yesterday afternoon between the hours of 5 and 6 o'clock for a cup of tea. The beverage was prepared by Mrs. John Robertson, who was assisted by Miss Ellen Guignon.

The visitors were Mrs. R. T. Cosby, of Danville; Miss Rebecca Powell, of Alexandria; Mr. Arthur Wilmer, of Norfolk; Mrs. William Overton, of Louisiana county; Mrs. Edward C. Morris, of Ashland, Ky.; and Miss Annie Patterson, of New York.

Miss Clara Lee Lynch was married to Mr. Charles Melvin Dunnaway yesterday at 5:30 o'clock, at the residence of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Taylor, Rev. Dr. Robert F. Kerr officiating. The parlor was prettily decorated with palms and ferns, and the ceremony was a simple and beautiful one.

The bride wore a tailor-made gown of gray cloth with hat and gloves to match. Her bridesmaids wore white. She is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Z. A. Taylor of Church Hill, and the daughter of the late James M. Lynch. Mr. Dunnaway is the superintendent of an electric plant at Williams, S. C.

The young couple left yesterday for their future home, in Wilson, S. C.

The delegates from the Richmond Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, at the annual convention of the Grand Division of Virginia held yesterday for Danville, where the convention meets this year. The delegates are Mrs. Virginia Hall, Mrs. Charles Bolling, Mesdames George A. Lynch, Maria Robinson, Robert A. Wawter, James Capers, John H. Henson, Robert Christian, and J. H. Timberlake.

Among the business of the convention will be the election of delegates to the convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, to be held at Montgomery, Ala., November the 15th.

The St. John Circle of King's Daughters held a largely-attended meeting at the residence of Mrs. Ramon Garcia. The meeting featured a reading of the report of Mrs. Kate Harbour, Howard, the delegate to the State convention of King's Daughters at Warrenton last week. The St. John Circle made the most interesting report of any in the State, and a considerable portion of the time at yesterday's meeting was devoted to discussing a proposition to establish a junior circle. It is probable that such a circle will be organized.

Several needy families were helped. The society has raised by individual work and otherwise $160.62 during the past year. It has been expended, or will be expended, in relieving the needy, in the East End, and in helping sustain the Sheltering Arms Hospital. The next meeting will be held at the residence of Mrs. Clarence Franklin, No. 2167 east Broad street, on Monday afternoon, November 5th.

The George Washington Memorial Association met yesterday at noon, at the Jefferson Hotel, with Mrs. Decatur Allen as president in the chair. The purpose of the meeting was to suggest and form plans for winter work, and for an entertainment to be given for the benefit of the society. The ladies present were Mrs. A. C. Williams, Mrs. James Werth, Mrs. Virginia Hall, Miss Knox, Miss Lewis, Mrs. Robins, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Minor, Mrs. Thomas, and others.

Miss Conway Straus gave a delightful luncheon recently to a few of her friends and their guests. Among those present were Miss Nora Heller, Washington; Miss Day, Louisville, Ky.; Emmie Frank, York, Pa.; Hannah, Petersburg; Mrs. Rosenheim, Baltimore; Helen Thalhimer, Mabel Sytle, Mrs. Labenberg, Juliet Strauss, Beita and May Meyers, Fannie Dietz, and Mrs. Joe Wright, New York.

A wedding, interesting to many in this city, is that of Mr. John Lewis Smith to Miss Marie Livingston Bagaley, of Washington, which will take place on Wednesday in Washington. Mr. Smith is a son of Hon. John Amber Smith, who once represented this district in Congress.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Minnie Smith, to Mr. Gustav Conrad, of Baltimore. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride, 384 east Leigh street, Thursday evening, October 27, at 6 o'clock.

Mr. Sol E. Ullman, who, after a three-months' tour to Europe, has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Henry Wallerstein, left Wednesday for Cleveland, O.

Captain Henry Jervoy, of the corps of engineers, United States army, accompanied by his wife, left for New York.

When They Needed It Bad.

When a 2-months-old baby refuses to nurse, and you have tried every other remedy, besides the cow's milk, but nothing seemed to agree with him. He suffered from indigestion, until by the time he was 2 months old he had grown so weak and emaciated that you think he could die. At last his stomach refused to take anything, and for three days the little fellow was actually starving for something he could digest.

He refused to have a box of Grape-Nuts in the house and getting a teaspoonful poured a little hot water over it, letting the food stand a few minutes, then gave the baby the brown water, which had the strength of the Grape-Nuts in it. He could take no other food at a time and then rest awhile.

His stomach retained the food and after one day's use of the Grape-Nuts in this way his bowels were right, for the first time in six weeks. I continued to feed him the water from the Grape-Nuts and a little cream, and later on the softened food itself, and he steadily improved, his little body and limbs beginning to get round and plump, and by the time he was a year old he was as large and strong as when 3 months old. At 15 months he weighed 23 pounds, and now at 18 months, he is a great, fat, jolly baby, climbing and going everywhere, full of fun, rosy cheeks, and bright eyes.

During all this time his food has been Grape-Nuts; just the water at first, then later on he had the food itself. He is the best advertisement Grape-Nuts could have in this town, for every one knows his condition and no one thought he could possibly live. We give all the praise to this most valuable food, and never lose an opportunity to recommend it to persons suffering from indigestion and lack of nourishment. Mrs. C. D. Johnson, Greenfield, Ind.

Actual proof is better than all theory. It is well to know that Grape-Nuts food is made scientifically and made for a purpose. The most powerful elements in wheat and barley are preserved so prepared as to furnish the human body with those food elements, predigested in a natural manner—that is, turned from wheat into grape sugar.

The food is so carefully prepared for athletes and easy enough of digestion (as shown by the above experience) for the weakest babe.

CROWDS TO HEAR HIM

DR. HAWTHORNE HEARD BY IMMENSE CONGREGATIONS SUNDAY.

SYMPATHY AND AID POUR IN.

Grace-Street People Give Over $1,200 For Rebuilding Grove-Avenue, and First and Second Churches to Take Collections—Other Church News.

The central ministerial figure in Richmond Sunday was that of Dr. J. B. Hawthorne, pastor of Grove-Avenue Baptist church, which was destroyed by fire Saturday morning.

Great crowds—so great, indeed, that the churches could not hold them—came to hear him Sunday morning at the Second Baptist church, and Sunday evening at the First church. He spoke with even more than usual power and eloquence, and touched every heart with his words, not despondent, but hopeful and grateful to God and the people of Richmond for their sympathy and kindness in his and his people's dark hour.

Dr. Hawthorne's morning text was, "I shall try every man's work, of what sort it is."—I Corinthians III, 10.

Speaking at the close of his discourse of the loss of his church, Dr. Hawthorne said:

"I recognize the calamity that befell the church of which I have the honor to be pastor, in the loss of its beautiful sanctuary, as one of those providences which test the faith and fealty of God's people, and discipline their spirits for higher achievements here and greater glory hereafter. I could not but be gratified when women in that church, for more than ten years, have toiled, sacrificed, and suffered to liquidate the indebtedness incurred by the church in erecting its temple of worship, and when they gathered to look upon the ashes of that sacred edifice. They did not tarry long about that scene of desolation. They turned from it with a thankful eye, but with a firm determination in their hearts. A few hours afterward they gathered in this home of a sister church and adopted the following resolution:

"Looking to our Heavenly Father for His blessing, we will rear upon the same site another edifice in which to praise His holy name.

"This disaster is a divinely-appointed one, not only the sacking of Grove-Avenue-chains, but for the sake of the fellow-Christians in the other churches of this city. A crisis is upon us in which we shall see who are the men and women of this community that love their neighbors as themselves."

A committee was appointed to canvass the membership for contributions to the Grove-Avenue building fund.

"The Polly of Anxious Forethought" was the subject of Dr. Hawthorne's sermon at the First church Sunday night. Here, too, he made a tender, and yet hopeful, reference to his people's loss. He said he could not be cast down, though, in a community where there is so sympathetic upon another's distress.

A committee was appointed to canvass the membership for contributions to the Grove-Avenue church. A committee was appointed to superintend and have charge of the special collection of next Sunday.

GRACE-STREET TO THE RESCUE. The congregation of the Grace-Street Baptist church, which has lately passed through an experience similar to that which the Grove-Avenue church is now passing, came to the rescue nobly Sunday morning. A collection, headed by Dr. Hatcher, was started, and about $1,200 was raised.

The giving was most spontaneous, a resolution of sympathy with the Grove-Avenue people was offered by Deacon John F. Jacob. It was heartily adopted, and it was this that led up to the collection.

Yesterday morning the Baptist Ministers' Conference appointed a committee to present the calamity of the destruction of the Grove-Avenue church to the Baptist ministers of Virginia, and to request their aid. Dr. Hatcher, Dr. Hutson, L. Smith, H. W. Battle, and R. H. Pitt compose this committee.

The Pine-Street Sunday School gave $90 Sunday at the Grove-Avenue fund, and both churches, in a most generous way.

The Methodist pastors had their usual conference yesterday morning. Dr. S. A. Steel and Rev. H. W. Wiley were named committee to draw up a resolution of sympathy with Dr. Hawthorne and his people, and this was adopted.

BOARD NOT DECIDED.

CENTRAL CHURCH BUILDING PURCHASE ATTRACTING ATTENTION.

OTHER ITEMS FROM MANCHESTER.

Judge Ingram Renders Decision in an Important Case—Rev. Mr. Dennis Re-Elected—Police News and Briefs.

The Manchester School Board held a meeting last night in regard to the matter of purchasing the old Central Methodist church building, but after considerable deliberation did not reach a decision.

The matter was left pretty much where it was. It is not considered probable now that the city will purchase the building in question. Quite a number of members of the Council were in favor of buying the church and using it for a school, but the idea does not seem to be popular. Other members of the Council said they would vote to buy it, if the School Board voted that it needed it. In view of the halting deliberation of the School Board last night, the matter may be closed. The Council met in secret session, and then an open session on Saturday night, discussing the matter. The church wants $5,000 for the property, and the colored Methodists have an option on the building.

The Council may be called to-night, as it is understood that a report from the city to the Board of Stewards of Central church is to be made Thursday night.
