TRINITY COLLEGE.

THE NEW CATHOLIC INSTITUTION AT WASHINGTON DEDICATED.

BUILT BY SISTERS OF NOTRE DAME.

It Will Relieve the Catholic University. Says Cardinal Gibbons, from the Embarrassment of Refusing Admission to Women.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 22.—Trinity College, the newly-founded Catholic institution for the higher education of women, was dedicated to-day, with imposing ceremonies.

The college is located near the Catholic University, and the grounds cover twenty-seven acres, overlooking the Capitol and the National Library.

Cardinal Gibbons, in giving his first blessing to the project, referred to its proximity to the university, and said it would relieve the university from the embarrassment of refusing admission to women, many of whom had applied for its higher instruction, and would complete and crown the whole system of Catholic education.

The ceremony to-day began at 10:20 o'clock, when Cardinal Gibbons, in the full robes of his exalted position, and attended by archbishops and bishops, in processions of purple, and the representatives of many orders, in their habits, proceeded around the building, and through its spacious halls, sprinkling holy water and pronouncing the blessing.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES. The services within the chapel were deeply impressive. The chapel is of classic design, the walls are hung with tapestries of the masterpieces of Botticelli and Perugino. Amid a forest of plants and flowers could be seen the papal colors and emblems intertwined. On a raised throne, with the red drapings distinctive of the Cardinalate, sat the head of the Church in America, Cardinal Gibbons, attended by many priests and deacons. To the left of the altar another raised throne was occupied by Monsignor Martinelli, the representative of Pope Leo XIII., attended by those assisting in the celebration of mass.

A CHILD BURNED TO DEATH. Terrible Abjection of Mr. M. Y. Berry—Culpeper's Sewerage System.

CULPEPER, VA., November 22.—(Special.)—Little 3-year-old Granville Bryan, son of Mr. M. Y. Berry, of Clarksville, this county, was fatally burned a few days ago, and died after lingering for three days. Mr. Berry manufactures and supplies the surrounding country with home-made axes-helves. He uses the outer room of his residence for his workshop, and there is always a quantity of wood-shavings about the place. The mother left the child in the room, and went out to get some fuel to put on the fire. The little unfortunate, understanding that his mother had gone to get some wood to rebuild the fire, went into the father's workshop, and there caught up an armful of shavings, hastened back to the fireplace and dashed his inflammable burden on to the smoldering embers, which quickly ignited the shavings. The blaze caught the child's clothes, and before assistance could be rendered he was fatally burned.

sewerage, and even should any of this refuse to be put into the stream, it would be purified before it reached the water. The proposition favorably impressed the Council, and a committee has been appointed to make further investigation and report. This committee is composed of Council members Bailey, Bostom, and Delmer. They have written to Mr. D. E. McCombs, Engineer of Sewerage for the city of Washington, D. C., to come to Culpeper and give an expert opinion upon the question. Our people are hopeful of a favorable report, as our town needs a modern sewerage system, and the people are anxious to have one put in.

SUFFOLK AND VICINITY.

FUNERAL OF MR. BOOKER—FATALITY IN JAIL.

SUFFOLK, VA., November 22.—(Special.)—The funeral of Hon. J. E. Booker took place to-day from the Baptist church. Rev. H. A. Bantz, of Richmond, a former pastor of the church, and a warm personal friend of the deceased, was the officiating minister, and was assisted in the solemn services by Rev. J. Henry Thomas, pastor of the Presbyterian church; Rev. J. B. Dunn, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church; Rev. W. W. Staley, D. D., pastor of the Christian church, and Rev. L. R. Christie, of Baptist church of Windsor, Va. There was a large and sorrowful attendance, being a man universally loved, and his sudden death having shocked the whole community.

Mr. Joshua S. Wheelbee, who lived near Middle Swamp, Gates county, N. C., died very suddenly about 6 o'clock this morning, at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. John D. Parker, in Hereford county, N. C., where he was visiting. The deceased was about 87 years of age, and a gentleman who was held in the highest esteem. He was the father of Mr. L. H. Wheelbee, and an uncle to Dr. J. P. Wheelbee, both of Suffolk.

This morning, about 1 o'clock William Riddick (colored) was discovered lying in an unconscious condition along the Seaboard railroad, about four miles north of Suffolk. He was brought to this place and died by surgery. They found that his skull had been crushed, but it is a matter of conjecture as to how he received his injury.

Some think that while he was sitting on the end of a railroad-tie he was struck by a passing train; others incline to the belief that he was struck with an axe. The wounds were inflicted until 6:17 o'clock this evening, when he died.

DR. W. W. ANDERSON SINKING.

Can Hardly Survive His Injuries—Has Never Regained Consciousness.

FARMVILLE, VA., November 22.—(Special.)—Dr. W. W. Anderson, the aged and retired physician, who was terribly injured last Monday in a runaway accident, is to-night lying at the point of death. His son, Dr. W. E. Anderson, who was in the buggy with his father at the time of the runaway, has been constantly at his father's side. No hopes whatever are given out from the home tonight for his recovery.

Dr. Anderson has not gained consciousness at any time since he was thrown from the buggy. Dr. W. A. Kearney has just been called to the residence, and it is believed that Dr. Anderson will not survive the night. His entire family are at his bedside. Mr. Henry W. Anderson, of Richmond, having arrived here the day after the accident.

CUT HIS THROAT.

A Farmer of Shenandoah County—Cannot Survive, It is Thought.

WOODSTOCK, VA., November 22.—(Special.)—William Grandstaff, a farmer, aged about 40 years, whose home is near Red Banks, in this county, cut his throat this morning, and cannot survive through the night. He left his house early to attend to his regular duties, but his stock, but when breakfast was cooked he did not return as usual. After some time a search was instituted, and kept until 1 o'clock this afternoon, when he was found sitting on a log in the woods, the opposite side of the river from his home, with a deep cut in his throat, his hat and shoes were missing. Bleeding profusely, he was carried home, and medical aid summoned, but the physicians are powerless.

R. A. STEVENS ESCAPES.

MR. CLARK'S ALLEGED ASSAULT BREAKS JAIL, BUT WAS RECAPTURED.

WARSAW, VA., November 22.—(Special.)—R. A. Stevens, who for several weeks has been confined in jail at Montross, awaiting trial on a charge of attempting to kill Mr. Austin Clark by shooting him with a shotgun, made his escape last night, and was recaptured this afternoon and again placed in jail. A negro prisoner asserts that Stevens was taken from the outside in gaining his liberty.

Judge Wright to-day at Lancaster set January 24 as the date for the trial of the breach-of-promise suit of Coleman vs. Sanders.

SENSIBLE TEMPERANCE.

A Word to Temperance Ladies.

It is universally admitted that temperance women work for their cause with a desire to make life happier—that is, improve the human race, and to do this amount of misery in human life, and temperance movement is an effort to replace this misery with happiness, peace, and comfort.

Many temperance women make the mistake of being at the subject hammer and tongs, and to force their views on to believe their way. It is far better to exercise a broad charity and take the position that one's own peace of mind and happiness, not only of the individual, but of the family and friends, depends upon sensible habits of life.

A very much greater foe to human happiness than whiskey, exists, and it will startle many an honest temperance worker when the name of that foe is given. It is Spiced Coffee—Coffee.

Some ardent temperance worker says, who is really a slave herself to the coffee cup.

Cast your thought among your sick friends, nervous, irritable, broken down women, who are unable to do their peaceful homes, because of the irritation and friction brought about by their physical and mental condition. In ninety-five cases out of a hundred, the nervousness, irritability, dyspepsia, kidney trouble, female troubles, and various diseases, which such people are subject to come directly from a broken down nervous system, brought about by the daily use of coffee.

Careful chemical analysis proves this statement to be absolutely true, and something in this world, and the same to any one who cares to make it.

You may have a few friends who are made miserable by whiskey, but you have many more who are made miserable by coffee, as well as the lives of their families, by the use of coffee. Hard to believe, isn't it? Many of the most profound truths are not accepted by humanity when first brought to humanity's attention, but, as the saying is, "Lead us not unto temptation, for we are already there."

Leave off coffee altogether, and start in with Postum Food Coffee, which can be obtained at any first-class grocery store. You will find within ten days an improvement in your health, and you will be able to do for your friends about you. Life will take on a new aspect; strength, vigor, and vitality will begin to come back for your use. You can do things that you have heretofore been unequal to. You can acquire a new and better habit of life, and you can quietly and without ostentation become a most efficient worker in securing to humanity that peace, content, and happiness that we are all seeking.

"The Little Minister" To-Morrow Night. Barrie's popular story and play "The Little Minister" will give in fascinating form to-morrow night at the Young Men's Christian Association Hall, Albert Armstrong, of Boston, who has become famous because of his picture play "The Boy in the Bush," will give "The Little Minister" in three parts.

This charming story will be illustrated by dramatic and realistic pictures, made from real people and real scenery. Mr. Armstrong presents the characters in a most convincing style. A large house is already assured, and only 125 more served seats for sale, and the money placed on sale yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Owing to the fact that a high-grade stereopticon will be used in presenting the pictures, no standing-room will be sold. Every indication points to a full house. Admission, including reserved seats, to non-season ticket-holders, will be 50 cents.

Colored Teams to Play.

The Richmond Athletic Club and the Virginia Union University team will meet on the gridiron at West-Chester Park, this afternoon. Both sides are colored. Much interest has been manifested among the colored population, and a large attendance is expected. A good deal of rivalry exists between the teams, and a good game is confidently expected.
