

AGUINALDO CHEERFUL He Has a Comfortable Room in Malacanan Palace, FILIPINOS ARE DISHEARTENED

Marked Increase in the Number of Surrenders.

EXEN CALLES MAKES OVERTURES. He is Told, However, That He Must Give Up Unconditionally, and Stand Trial for His Crimes—Reward for Funston Party.

MANILA, March 29.—Aguinaldo is now detained in a comfortable room in a wing of the Malacanan Palace. He is in charge of Captain Benjamin H. Randolph and Lieutenant Gilbert A. Youngberg, of Battery G, Third Artillery.

When Aguinaldo was captured he wore a plain, dark blue suit, with the coat closely buttoned at the throat, and a wide, white helmet, with a leather band. He takes his capture philosophically. He is generally cheerful, but sometimes gloomy. His health during the past year has been very good. It is uncertain what attitude he will now assume.

Certain visitors are permitted to see Aguinaldo, but newspaper interviews with the prisoner are not allowed.

Since Aguinaldo has been domiciled in the Malacanan Palace, persons not provided with special permits have been refused admission to the grounds.

TRIAS EXPLAINS. General Trias, the commander of the insurgent forces in Southern Luzon, who recently surrendered to the American authorities, visited Aguinaldo and told the latter why he surrendered. Trias said that a continuance of armed opposition to the United States was unjustified and ruinous; that the independence of the Philippines was impossible, and that the Filipinos would better accept liberty, prosperity, and progress under American rule.

The capture of Aguinaldo, following the surrender of General Trias, will probably result in the surrender of the insurgent leaders Malabari, in Batangas province, Luzon; Bellarmino, in Albay province, Luzon; and Lucban, in the Island of Samar, with a month.

CALLS ON THE FUNSTONS. Many people visited the residence of General and Mrs. Funston, on the 29th, in the suburb of Ermita, to-day. The General modestly declined to talk. Mrs. Funston was evidently the happiest woman in the Philippine Islands. General Funston has been recommended for the highest practicable reward. It is believed here that he will receive an appointment as brigadier-general in the regular army.

Some hours elapsed before the news of Aguinaldo's capture was generally known. The fact that he was a prisoner caused surprise and congratulation among the Americans. The native population was apathetic. There was no particular excitement anywhere.

GERONIMO GIVES UP. After being convinced of Aguinaldo's capture, General Geronimo, the insurgent leader in the province of Morong, Luzon, has surrendered, with six hundred, forty-seven men, and fifty rifles, to Colonel J. M. Thompson, of the Forty-second Regiment, at San Mateo.

The news of Aguinaldo's capture has been spread through the archipelago, and there is a marked increase in the number of individual surrenders.

General Calles, who is practically outlawed on account of his atrocious crimes, has sent an emissary to General Bates, who answered that he must surrender unconditionally, and stand trial.

REWARDS FOR FUNSTON'S MEN. The former insurgent officers and the Mesquero scouts who took part in the capture of Aguinaldo will probably receive a monetary reward. The amount has not been specified. It has also been rumored that every man participating in the capture of Aguinaldo receive a special medal.

The first execution in Manila under American rule, took place to-day at Fort Magasin, where five natives were hanged for the murder of Archibald Wilson, an Englishman, superintendent of the water-works. The motive for the murder was robbery.

Over a thousand Filipinos have taken an oath of allegiance to the United States at San Vicente, South Ilocos Province.

CHARGED WITH ARSON. Three Men Arrested—Warrant Out for Fourth.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 29.—On a bench warrant, issued by Chief-Justice Dickinson, of the District Supreme Court, on the request of Governor Smith, of Maryland, John H. Walter, real estate broker, and Aaron Bradshaw, clerk in the District Government building, well-known in Washington, were arrested to-day, on the charge of arson, made by the Montgomery county (Md.) authorities.

Granville C. Shaw, a decorator, was arrested on the same charge, last night.

A warrant also is out for the arrest of Thomas H. Pickford, a well-known real-estate agent and grocer.

The indictment presented by the Montgomery county grand jury, and accompanying the Governor's requisition, alleges that the defendants caused the destruction by fire on September 12, 1897, of a magnificent residence at Four corners, that county, the property of Pickford and Walter. It was previously the property of George N. Beale, who sold it to a Mr. Bryan, formerly of New York, and was known in that section both as the Beale mansion and the Bryan mansion.

CADETSHIP FOR MUSICIAN TITUS. He Was the First American to Enter Pekin.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 29.—A petition, signed by all officers serving with the Fourteenth Infantry Regiment, has been sent to Adjutant-General Corbin, requesting the appointment of Musician Calvin P. Titus, Company E, Fourteenth Infantry, the first American soldier to enter Pekin during the recent troubles in China as a cadet-at-large at the Military Academy.

The petition says: "During his service, Musician Titus has proved himself to be a trustworthy, intelligent, sober, brave, and thorough soldier. On August 3, 1900, at Pekin, China, he was the first American to scale the wall of the Chinese city and enter Pekin. On the following day, while engaged in the fight in the Imperial city, he received a slight wound. His meritorious conduct deserves recognition, and it is believed that if given an appointment to West Point, and a commission upon graduation, Musician Titus will make an excellent officer."

A NEW POLICE OFFICER. William A. Toler Appointed to Succeed Officer J. W. Curie.

The Police Board, at their meeting held yesterday afternoon, appointed William A. Toler to fill the unexpired time on Policeman J. W. Curie's last appointment.

Officer Curie was tried by the board for infractions of the police rules, which they deemed sufficiently serious to relieve him from duty permanently, although he has been an officer in the force for the past fourteen years. He was reappointed on the force July 1, 1900, to serve three years, which leaves two years and three months for Toler to serve.

Toler has done duty as a substitute for Curie in the Police Department for some time past, and given excellent satisfaction. He is 32 years of age, and a splendid specimen of physical manhood.

Nothing further came up to claim the attention of the board, which adjourned till the next regular meeting.

CHATTANOOGA ELECTRIC ROAD. It Pays Off $250,000 of Its Indebtedness.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., March 29.—The Chattanooga Electric Railway Company to-day paid off $250,000 of its bonded indebtedness.

This marks the consolidation of this railway line with that of the Chattanooga Rapid Transit Company. It is understood the consolidation will be officially announced within the next three days.

These bonds, which were paid to-day, did not expire until February, 1900. Their holders are scattered throughout the East.

LEGISLATORS FIGHT. Come to Blows on Floor of the House.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., March 29.—In the Arkansas House of Representatives this afternoon a personal difficulty occurred between Representatives Leary, of Lee county, and Blackok, of St. Francis, over a local bill affecting Lee county.

A while addressing the House, Blackok denounced as a falsehood a statement reflecting on him, made by Leary in a speech. The latter then struck Blackok on the head with a cane. Both men clinched, and were engaged in a struggle when other members separated them, and the Sergeant-at-Arms demanded peace.

The affair threw the House into great confusion, and it was some time before order could be restored.

The Police Court Docket. In the Police Court yesterday Barbara Dickson (colored) was fined $5 and costs on a charge of being disorderly on the street.

David Harris (colored), charged with stealing $23 from John H. Smith, was sent to jail for sixty days on default of bond.

C. King (colored), charged with stealing a gold watch from James Jarper, was in court. His case will be heard on April 3.

Lee Brown, charged with assaulting and robbing H. H. Mills, was fined $20.

C. King (colored) was sent to jail for six months on the charge of being a suspicious character.

Pulaski Marriage. Mr. E. H. Hays and Miss Lena Reid were married yesterday in the Methodist church at Dublin, in this county, by the Rev. Mr. Ward.

Mr. Radcliffe is a rising young businessman of Dublin, and the bride is the accomplished daughter of Major James H. Hart of Dublin, formerly a member of the Legislature, and now a large merchant. The bride and groom left at once for a bridal tour.

Free Lecture on Peace. Dr. Richard H. Thomas, of Baltimore, Md., a minister of the Society of Friends, will lecture on the subject of "Peace." Illustrated by the Rev. J. E. Cook, and assisted by Professor Maurice, of Manchester, at Friends' meeting-house, on Clay street, near First street, this evening at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

Dr. Thomas will also hold meetings for public worship at the same place tomorrow at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M., to which the public is also invited.

What to do with him That is the Cabinet Question Now Regarding Aguinaldo. NO CONCLUSION REACHED. Prisoner, However, Will Not Be Harshly Dealt With. REWARD TO BE GIVEN HIS CAPTOR. This Also Considered, and is Likely to Take the Form of a Brigadier-ship in the Regular Army—Full Reports Awaited.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The Cabinet meeting to-day was devoted almost entirely to a discussion of the capture of Aguinaldo, its effect upon the military situation in the Philippines, the disposal to be made of the insurgent chief, and the reward to be given to General Funston.

The subject was considered in all its phases, but no definite conclusions were reached, either with regard to General Funston's reward or to the punishment of Aguinaldo. The President and all the members of the Cabinet are in favor of the most liberal and substantial recognition of the service performed by General Funston. There was some discussion of the question of making him a brigadier-general in the regular army, but it was thought that full reports should be awaited before action was taken. The matter probably will be allowed to rest where it is for the present.

General Funston is holding a volunteer commission as a brigadier-general, which will not expire until June 30th of this year, so that so far as the honor and emoluments are concerned, his standing would not be prejudiced by the delay.

TIME FOR DECISION NOT YET. The view of the majority of the Cabinet was that the time is not yet ripe to decide what course should be pursued in the disposition of Aguinaldo. It is felt that some little time should elapse, to permit an opportunity to deliberate carefully over what course would prove the wisest; whether he can be of any service to the United States Government by remaining at Manila, and exerting his influence in the direction of peace; whether it would be dangerous to permit him to remain so close to the field of insurrectionary activity, or whether even General Funston is holding a volunteer commission as a brigadier-general, which will not expire until June 30th of this year, so that so far as the honor and emoluments are concerned, his standing would not be prejudiced by the delay.

It is the prescription of Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., Professor of Materia Medica at Dartmouth College. There is no mistaking the standing of Pain's colery compound in the family of Maj. A. M. Wheeler, Supt. of Exhibits at the Pan-American Exposition, New York State Commissioner at the Atlanta Exposition, and former Assistant Postmaster of Buffalo.

Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 2, 1901. Dear Sirs:—Being run down from overwork, physically and mentally, I tried Pain's colery compound as a remedy. It undoubtedly did me much good. My wife and some of my relatives have also been using it, and inform me they have been very greatly benefited.

Sincerely yours, ALGER M. WHEELER.

The superiority of Pain's colery compound is well illustrated by the way entire families are benefited whenever any one of the household tries it. Nothing is more common than for husband, wife, and children to be led to use it, because they have observed its health-making effects in the case of some relative or intimate friend.

Young and old now need to take a spring remedy to purify their blood, to feed their tired nerves, and to invigorate their bodies. Long experience has shown the necessity of such a spring cleaning for everybody, sick or well.

Thousands are taking Pain's colery compound. It is so far above all other spring medicines in its strengthening, nerve-restoring, blood-purifying, health-giving, lasting effects that it has no competitor among discriminating people.

The old "cures," one by one, in the last few years, have dropped by the way, until to-day the sales of Pain's colery compound in every civilized country are larger than those of all other spring medicines of kinds combined.

People who are just sick enough not to be healthy—should take advantage of Pain's colery compound to put their blood and nerves into a healthy condition. Spring is the time to get well.

HOMELESS CHILDREN. The Home Society Sends Out an Appeal in Their Behalf.

The Children's Home Society of Virginia met yesterday at the residence of Mrs. E. C. Minor, on Sixth and Franklin streets.

The following letter has been issued by the society:

The Children's Home Society of Virginia is now in a most urgent need of funds, and already many urgent appeals on behalf of homeless and dependent children have been received.

This society, being organized on purely charitable lines, having no legacies or endowments, depends entirely on voluntary offerings from members and friends to defray the expenses incurred in the settling of these children in good family homes.

This work is especially urgent at this time, on account of the overcrowded condition of the orphan asylums, and the many neglected and grossly-amused children awaiting the care of the society.

After carefully reading the accompanying explanatory circular, may we not entreat your name as one of our members? See membership blank enclosed.

Hoping to receive a favorable reply at an early date, we are, Sincerely yours, JOHN GARLAND POLLARD, President.

ROBERT A. GIBSON, Vice-President. CHARLES P. WALFORD, Secretary. CAREY E. MORGAN, B. R. WELLFORD, Jr., Committee.

Address all communications to Rev. W. J. Maybee, State Superintendent, 213 East Grace street, Richmond, Va.

Banquet and Smoker. The members of the office staff of the William R. Trigg Company will tender a complimentary banquet and smoker to Mr. D. B. Brown, one of their associates.

Mr. Brown's name is mentioned in the position of chief draughtsman of the company, now held by Mr. Davie, who leaves the company's employ in a few days. Mr. Brown is a Scotchman by birth, and received his education in Scotland. He is a well-known and successful building in the best technical and scientific schools of his native country, in addition to which he had an extended practical connection with ship-building interests on the Great Lakes. He entered the employ of the company a short time ago.

Live Themes to Be Discussed. Instead of the review lesson this afternoon at 8 o'clock in the Young Men's Christian Association auditorium, there will be discussion, full of interest and instruction, on the following subjects: "The Sunday School—Why?" by Professor J. A. Sprinkle, field secretary of the Virginia Sunday-School Association; "Graded Work—Why?" by Rev. W. L. Smith, pastor of the Second Baptist church; "Rally Day—Why?" by Rev. J. E. Cook, pastor of Hope-Memorial Presbyterian church; "Decision Day—Why?" by Rev. M. Ashby Jones, pastor of Leigh-Street Baptist church. The services will begin promptly at 8 o'clock, and last but one hour. Every superintendent, teacher, and worker is cordially invited to be present.

MISPLACED CONFIDENCE. Young Woman Deserted After Being Robbed by Male Companion.

A young woman, giving the name of Rucker, who came here from Washington a few days ago, accompanied by a young man, by whom she alleges she was victimized to the extent of a valuable diamond ring, left Thursday night for New York. She was assisted on her way to New York by Major Howard and the detective force, having been deserted without means by her companion, as she alleged.

Miss Rucker claims that she sent the young man her ring, in order that he might get himself a stud like it, and that he left, ostensibly to go to a jewelry store. When her former companion failed to return, she discovered that he had carried off a sum of money, as well as the ring. The man, she states, afterward sent her by messenger a note containing $100, with which to enable her to return to New York. As this was barely sufficient to pay her fare, a scalper's ticket was procured, and she started for the metropolis.

BREACH OF PROMISE. THE COLEMAN-SANDERS CASE IN LANCASTER COURT. DEFENDANT UNDER EXAMINATION. He Explains That He Couldn't Now Marry the Plaintiff, Having a Wife Already—Effort to Prove That the Plaintiff Was Engaged to Two Men.

LANCASTER COURTHOUSE, VA., March 29.—(Special).—When court convened at 9:30 o'clock this morning for the further hearing of the Coleman-Sanders breach-of-promise suit, Mr. R. M. Sanders, the defendant, was for the third day on the witness-stand, and was occupying it when court adjourned this afternoon.

The first question propounded to him was to this effect: Did he not say on the last trial he was willing and ready to marry the plaintiff? To this the witness answered that he had been asked if his plea did not state that he was ready and willing to marry her, and to this he answered, he was then, but that could not marry her now.

When asked why he could not marry her now, the counsel for the defence objected to his answering the question.

ONE WIFE ALREADY. The jury was sent out and most of the morning was taken up discussing the right of the plaintiff to ask the question. The point was stubbornly fought on both sides. The court ruled that it was a proper question, considering the defendant's pleading.

When the jury was recalled witness's answer was to the effect that he could not marry the plaintiff now, because he was already married; that he had married in December, 1897, four or five days after the Supreme Court had rendered its decision reversing the lower court, which had given $1,000 damages, and, as a result of this union, his home had been brightened by a beautiful girl.

QUESTION OF ENGAGEMENT. When the court assembled in the afternoon Mrs. Bassett, of Princess Anne county, Va., with whom the plaintiff had boarded when teaching in that county, who had testified on the previous days being sworn to testify, was allowed, by consent of parties and the court, to take the stand, in order that she might return home by the steamer this afternoon.

Mrs. Bassett had been brought here for the purpose of showing that Miss Coleman had been engaged to some one else during the time she was engaged to Mr. Sanders, which the plaintiff had denied. Her testimony proved that she was a thing of puffy in the hands of both sides.

SANDERS QUESTIONED. Afterwards Mr. Sanders resumed the stand, and several very pertinent questions were propounded to him.

He was asked if he had not, on the day that the jury rendered its verdict at the former trial (and after the same was rendered), stated to several gentlemen, who had expressed the opinion that he ought to have married Miss Coleman, that he would not get for $4,000, or $10,000, either, the amount of damages for which he was being sued.

The counsel for the defence objected to the question, and the jury was adjourned until to-morrow.

The next witness then elaborately argued, and the court will announce its decision to-morrow morning on this point.

KING WILLIAM COURT. Judge Wright announced to-day that, on account of being engaged in this trial, he would not be able to hold the spring term of the King William Circuit Court on Monday next.

VESTA AND HER DEVOTEES. Mystical Scene Rehearsed Yesterday—Notes of Society.

The mystical scene in the Carnival of Musical Romances, when Vesta, on her lofty throne, is worshipped by the Garland Girls, Vestal Virgins, Lattis, Flower Dancers, and others, was rehearsed last evening at the Masonic Temple. The scene is a very beautiful one, and the dancers take their parts with grace and charm.

The Indian braves rehearsed their wild dance later in the evening with vim, and the halcyon song with their war-whoops.

The Coronation of Elizabeth, which was rehearsed this morning at 11 o'clock.

The collection of Chapman pictures, recently purchased by the Confederate Memorial Literary Society, will be framed in Confederate gray with an inside mat of red and gold.

It is interesting to recall in connection with these same pictures that the defenses of the Confederacy were planned and erected under the sole supervision of Colonel D. B. Harris, of Goodland county, Ga., the chief of General Beauregard's Engineer Corps, a patriot who laid down his life in the southern army in 1862.

The original map of the battle-field of Manassas, drawn by Colonel Harris, was in possession of his widow some years since.

Miss Lina Mayo gave a charmingly informal card-party yesterday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Davidge, of Washington.

After the game an elegant collation was served on small tables. The prizes were won by Miss Davidge and Miss Michaux.

Miss Mayo's guests were: Misses Katherine Michaux; Margaret Watkins; Margaret Elizabeth; Elizabeth; Sally Reid Anderson; Gabriela Page; Guile Harrison, of Brandon.

Mrs. Lewis, of Charleston, W. Va., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Charles Stacy, at the home of the latter, in the West End.
