Members of Bijou Musical Comedy Company to Hold Final Rehearsals.

The Bijou Musical Comedy Company--twenty-six people--will arrive from New York this evening for last rehearsals at the Bijou prior to opening up the season of musical comedy at the Bijou Theatre Monday night. The company has been at rehearsal in New York for the past week or ten days, getting ready to present "At Gay Coney Island," one of the most successful comedy and musical plays known.

The company is a most carefully selected one, the principals being well up in the profession, and the chorus one that promises to become a feature of every production during the season. The troupe has been carefully drilled under the direction of James T. Kelley, one of the most capable stage directors of musical comedy, and Max Hoffman, of Mathews & Bulker fame, has trained the artists in the musical numbers.

The scenery and stage effects are being built here, by experts in scenic and stage work, and "Gay Coney Island" will be presented in a most finished style. Manager Wells has spared neither expense or work to make the company and furnishings establish a new standard for the theatre.

The principal members of the company, as has been stated, rank away up in this department of the stage world. These are some of the Mathews & Bulker Company--Tony Hart, George H. Wiseman, David Andrad, Andrew Bode, and J. L. Hall; and among the others are Joseph Kearney, Charles J. Stine, John Jess, Charles Glenwood, and James T. Kelley. Misses Ollie Evans, Eva T. Kelley, Dorothy Carter, Florence McNeill, Ruth Gray, Lillian Delasco, Maud Morrison, and a large chorus of pretty girls in the company.

BISHOP HANDY

SAYS

"I Cheerfully Recommend Peruna to All Who Want a Good Tonic and a Safe Cure for Catarrh."

Prominent members of the clergy are giving Peruna their unqualified endorsement. These men find Peruna especially adapted to preserve them from catarrh of the vocal organs, which has always been the bane of public speakers, and general catarrhal debility incident to the sedentary life of the clergyman. Among the recent utterances of noted clergymen on the curative virtues of Peruna is the following one, from Bishop James A. Handy, D. D., of Baltimore:

"I take great pleasure in acknowledging the curative effect of Peruna. At the solicitation of a friend I used your remedy and cheerfully recommend your Peruna to all who want a good tonic and a safe cure for catarrh."--James A. Handy.

OTHER NOTABLE CURES.

A Husband Escaped the Pangs of Catarrh of the Lungs.

Most Cases of Incipient Consumption Are Catarrh.

Internal remedy that will cure catarrh in one location will cure it in any other location. This is why Peruna has become so justly famous in the cure of catarrhal diseases. It cures catarrh wherever located, at once, unless it remains. Peruna does not palliate; it cures. It cures.

Mrs. Frederick Williams, president of the South Side Ladies' Aid Society of Chicago, Ill., writes the following words of praise for Peruna from No. 6773 Crary Avenue, Chicago, Ill.:

"My health is never well without Peruna. For I have found during the past six years that there is no remedy that will cure my catarrh of the lungs, and I have tried many via the suffering and actually cure, as Peruna does.

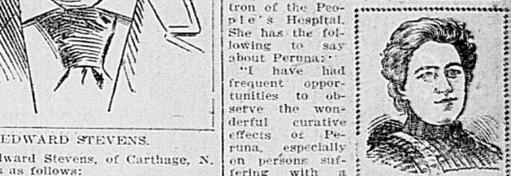

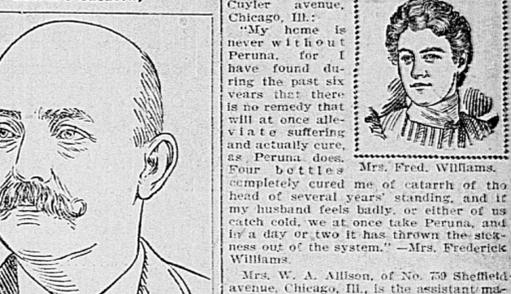

Four bottles of Peruna cured my catarrh of the lungs, and I feel as if I had several years standing and my husband feels badly, or either of us catch cold, we at once take Peruna, and in a day or two it has thrown the sickness out of the system."--Mrs. Frederick Williams.

Mrs. W. A. Allison, of No. 739 Sheffield avenue, Chicago, Ill., is the assistant matron of the People's Hospital, Chicago, Ill., and writes the following to say about Peruna:

"I have had frequent opportunities to observe the wonderful curative effects of Peruna, especially in cases of catarrh of the lungs, suffering with a congested condition of the head, Mrs. W. A. Allison, writes as follows:

"I now take pleasure in notifying you that my husband has entirely recovered from catarrh. He is well, hearty, and thanks to you and Peruna. He took six bottles of your medicine as directed, and it proved to be just the thing for him. His appetite is good, and everything he eats seems to agree with him. His cough has left him, and he is gaining in flesh, and seems to be well every way. I hope others will try your medicine and receive the benefits that we have."--Mrs. Edward Stevens.

When the catarrh reaches the throat it is called tonsillitis, or laryngitis. Catarrh of the bronchial tubes is called bronchitis; catarrh of the lungs, consumption. Any

STILL ON TRIAL.

Case of Corn V. Tate Against P. & P. Co. and the City.

In the Law and Equity Court yesterday, the case of Corn V. Tate, against the Richmond Passenger Company and the city of Richmond, to recover $3,000 damages, occupied the attention of the court most of the day and will be resumed this morning.

The plaintiff alleges that the railway company contracted with the city of Richmond to construct a sidewalk on the side-walk on Seventh street, between Grace and Broad streets, causing her to break several bones in one of her ankles, and otherwise injuring herself.

JAMES CITY SUPERVISORS.

Mr. Arthur Denmond Announces Himself as Independent Candidate.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va., April 21--(Special). The County Board of Supervisors, of James City, met to-day and transacted routine business.

Mr. Arthur Denmond, present chairman of this County Board of Supervisors, announces himself an independent candidate for re-election. He will oppose Mr. E. J. Wynne, who is the present incumbent.

The score then stood 2 to 1 in favor of Fredericksburg.

BILL ALL THAT'S PROMISED.

Bijou Audiences Continue Large--Howitzer Benefit To-Night.

The bill at the Bijou this week is all that was promised for it. It is one of the most enterprising, clean comedy, good music, and real novelty. The show goes with a refreshing rapidity that is pleasing to the audience. The advance sale of seats tells the story of large houses the balance of the week.

The "Beaux and Belles" octette continues much to an audience's pleasure. The girls are pretty, but don't depend on good looks, and they are well assisted by the male members of the "eight."

Miss Julia Kingery, in her comedy playing, assisted by Nelson Lewis, scores one of the hits, while the bicycle exercises of the marvelous Merrills afford excitement and cause for enthusiastic applause. Every one of the seven acts "make good."

The usual matinee will be given this afternoon, and to-night a complimentary benefit will be tendered the Richmond Howitzers, to assist the artillerymen in cutting the ribbon of the proposed trip with the "vets" to Memphis.

MISS McCOMB OR MRS. HERZOG?

Interesting Situation Aneat the McComb Millions.

(Philadelphia North American.)

DOBBS' FERRY, N. Y., April 21--Mrs. Mary Esther McComb, widow of the late James Jennings McComb, who left a fortune of $1,000,000, is dying of heart failure at her home, near here. The attack came suddenly this afternoon, and many rumors are flying about the village as to the cause of it.

The exact amount of them is that Mrs. McComb to-day learned for the first time that her stepdaughter, Fanny, who was left only an annuity of $21,000 a year if she married Artist Louis Herzog, of Philadelphia, was already his wife.

How this came to her ears cannot be learned, but this fact, with the publicity already given the curious clause in the millionaire's will, was too much for her, and she faints.

MARRIED A YEAR AGO.

The family is gathered about the bedside to-night, and Dr. Robert Dennison the physician in a brief but earnest way this evening, states that death is imminent.

It is impossible at this time to discover how the rumor of this reached Dobbs' Ferry. By some it is said a servant told it. This much is known. It was suddenly divulged that a year or more ago, while on a trip south with a party, Miss McComb and Mr. Herzog were married. They determined to keep the matter a secret in view of the objection made to the young man by the father, and were more than ever determined after the reading of the will.

The plot then was to wait for a year in order to give the young woman a chance to inherit her full share of the estate, which would amount to about $1,000,000. She then got through another marriage, and was married to Mr. Herzog.

But by some mistake or mischance the matter was suddenly revealed. Those members of the family seen to-night are extremely reluctant about the revelation. They professed surprise when told of the rumor, but would not deny it. They content themselves by saying that they had never been aware that there was anything in common between Miss McComb and the young man.
