

"Everything That's Dressy."

All Sorts of Men!

WERE provided with all sorts of Clothes' tastes; Men who want the latest and newest styles, and Men who want the quietest and plainest Clothes they can get, and men all the way between. The qualities for all sorts of men are the same; styles vary, but the quality of our garments is always as good as can be.

Whatever your Clothes-needs we intend that this shall be your place to supply them.

We offer as a very special for to-day and Saturday a splendid unfinished BLACK WORSTED SUIT, military shoulders and lapels, all hand-worked, Varsity-cut, $12.50.

An inducement extraordinary for to-day and to-morrow is a handsome Silk-Lined Through-out English Covert Cloth TOP-COAT, a very high-grade garment, $10.

Manhattan Shirts, Grossett Shoes, Howard Hats, $1.50 to $3, $3 and $3.50, A $5 Hat for $5.

707 E. Broad St. Jacobs & Levy, 707 E. Broad St. Outfitters to Mankind.

OCTOBER WEDDINGS.

CUPID HAD A VERY BUSY DAY IN VIRGINIA YESTERDAY.

A BRILLIANT NORFOLK MARRIAGE.

Miss Julia Dewey the Bride of Lieutenant Francis Laird Chadwick—Mr. Robert Lee Miller Leads Miss Jennie Mildred Northern to Altar.

NORFOLK, Va., October 10.—(Special.) The most notable of all the October weddings here so far was that of Miss Julia Dewey, one of the reigning belles of Virginia, and Lieutenant Francis Laird Chadwick, United States navy, which was solemnized at All Saints' Protestant church last evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The occasion was rendered interesting by the presence of the most distinguished of the ranking officers of the navy, with the exception of Admiral Dewey, whose duties in the Philippines prevented his presence at the marriage of his beautiful kinswoman.

The little church in which the ceremony was performed was at an early hour crowded with invited guests. Miss Dewey is one of the most popular girls who in recent years. She is a brunette of the most striking type and has a superb figure. She is by birth a North Carolinian, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chadwick of Raleigh.

The bride was attired in a gown of heavy white satin, trimmed with old family lace. She wore a necklace of pearls, an heirloom, and carried brides' roses and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor was Miss Dewey, and the bridesmaids were Misses Olga and Carrie Peck. The best man was Mr. W. L. Woodrow, of Portsmouth. The ushers were Mr. Sidney T. Manning of Baltimore, and Mr. R. D. Lankford of New York.

Among the guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Duncanson, Mr. and Mrs. Battle Batchelor, the Misses Batchelor, Miss Alexandria DuShane, Mr. Sidney T. Manning, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dewey Wildes and Miss Dewey, of Raleigh, N. C., and R. D. McBeck, Jr., of Atlanta, Ga., and R. D. McBeck, Jr., of New York (the latter gentleman being connected with J. P. Morgan & Co.)

Owing to their absence in Europe at this time Judge and Mrs. Chadwick were unable to attend the wedding, but their son, the bride will go immediately to New York, to meet them upon their return.

A LEXINGTON MARRIAGE.

Wedding of Mr. Robert Miller and Miss Jennie Mildred Northern.

LEXINGTON, Va., October 10.—(Special.)—Miss Jennie Mildred Northern, daughter of Mrs. R. L. Northern, of Lexington, was married to Mr. Robert Lee Miller, of Paris, Ill., this morning at 9:30 o'clock.

The ceremony took place in the parlor at the home of the bride, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. It was performed by the Rev. J. H. Light, pastor of Trinity Methodist church.

MARRIED IN BLACKSBURG.

Wedding of Mr. Clarence Gordon and Miss Lucy Walker.

BLACKSBURG, Va., October 10.—(Special.)—The Presbyterian church at this place was the scene Tuesday night of the most brilliant marriage of the season, when Mr. Clarence Gordon, of Bluefield, W. Va., led to the altar Miss Lucy Walker, the beautiful daughter of Professor George W. Walker, of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

WHERE IS LITTLETON MASON?

Farmville Police Looking for a Desperate Negro Ex-Convict.

FARMVILLE, Va., October 10.—(Special.)—The police of Farmville are tonight looking for a desperate negro named Littleton Mason, who to-day attempted the life of George Brown. They were engaged in the common negro pastime of shooting when they were interrupted by Mason pulling his pistol and fired it directly at Brown.

ARGUED HIS OWN CASE.

J. O. Terry Succeeded in Causing the Jury to Disagree.

In the United States District Court yesterday morning the case of Mr. J. O. Terry, charged with causing an illicit distillery, was called and tried, but the jury failed to agree and were dismissed.

MR. HANFORD'S FINE PRODUCTION.

The manner in which Mr. Charles E. Hanford drills his company at rehearsals is responsible for the finished performance given by organizations of which he is the star.

HE MUST HANG.

Found Guilty of Murder in First Degree.

Bristol, Tenn., October 10.—(Special.)—Cleora Harris, a negro, 40 years of age, who was shot and killed Sunday, another case was tried in the Corporation Court of Bristol to-day and the jury after having been out five minutes brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree.

NEGRO BOY SHOT.

By a White Youth in Lunenburg County.

Notes of Society.

A MASSACHUSETTS BRIDE.

Marriage of William A. Wagner and Miss Alice B. Raymond.

BOSTON, MASS., October 10.—(Special.) One of the prettiest weddings in South Weymouth this season took place at the residence of General Raymond on Pleasant street last evening, when his daughter, Miss Alice B. Raymond, was married to William A. Wagner, of Norfolk, Va.

The house was very elaborately decorated. The parlor was a room with white drapery and the remainder of the rooms with dahlias.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. E. Butler, of the Union Congregational church, during which Miss Bessie Raymond sang "O My Promise Land."

The best man was Walter A. Poor, of Boston, and Miss Grace A. Wagner, of Norfolk, Va., sister of the groom, was maid of honor.

A JOURNALIST MARRIED.

Wedding of Mr. Hamilton and Miss Ethelreda in Norfolk.

NORFOLK, Va., October 10.—(Special.)—Miss Adelaide Ethelreda, and Mr. Norman R. Hamilton, were wedded at 5 o'clock this afternoon in the presence of a host of friends.

The bride was attended by Miss Virginia C. Ethelreda, her sister, as maid of honor. The groom's best man was his uncle, Mr. Edward W. Leach, of Norfolk.

LYNCHBURG WEDDINGS.

Rev. Vincent Folen Merrell, of Hay Market, Va., and Miss Carrie Peck were married this afternoon at "Bonnie Brae," the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. E. A. Cleland, in Rivermont.

Mr. Benjamin Childress, of Bristol, Tenn., and Miss M. Lella Myers were married this afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents.

MINISTER ARRESTED.

Charged With Using Mails for Fraudulent Purposes.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., October 10.—(Special.)—Rev. W. D. Sharp, a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was brought here to-day from Greenvier county by Deputy United States Marshal Dan Cunningham, and placed in jail on the charge of using the United States mail for fraudulent purposes.

FOR THE CHILDREN.

To Keep Their Digestion Perfect Nothing is so Safe and Pleasant as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Thousands of men and women have found Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the safest and most reliable preparation for any form of indigestion or stomach trouble.

Thousands of people who are not sick, but are well and wish to keep well, take Stuart's Tablets after every meal to insure perfect digestion and avoid trouble.

On Monday evening, October 22nd, the Richmond public will have an opportunity of listening to this distinguished lecturer.

Madame Sarah Grand is known to the English-speaking world as an invigorating, humorous lecturer her fame now is all that the most ambitious would demand.

Members of the club may also buy $100 tickets for any number of friends under the same conditions, which will enable them to secure reserved seats on payment of 50 cents extra at the box office.

After the lecture a reception will be given by the club to the ladies of the Woman's Club.

Seats may be secured by the public at the Academy of Music office after the 21st inst. at 50 and 75 cents can be bought only at the Academy.

Miss Kate Pearl Jordan and Walter P. Turner, of Roswell, N. M., were married yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by the Rev. W. C. Starnes, of the Fulton street church.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner left on the 3:30 train over the Chesapeake and Ohio route for Washington. Their future home will be in Roswell, N. M.

Miss Bessie Whitfield, of Enfield, N. C., is stopping on east Franklin street.

Mrs. C. W. Astrop and Master Robert Astrop, of Surrey Courthouse; Miss Julia Green, of Petersburg; and Miss Norma Wood, of Norfolk, are making a merry party in town attending the Carnival.

Mrs. A. T. Lincoln, of Marion, is spending the week in the city. Mr. Lincoln is a member of the Constitutional Convention.

Miss Anne Winston, of Louisiana, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Lindsay Gordon, will be one of the bridesmaids at the Porter-Black wedding, which will take place on October 22nd.

Miss Mary Ashley Bell will leave for New York next week, where she will pursue her musical studies.

Invitations have been received in Richmond to the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Dunbar Long, of Winchester, Va., and Mr. Franklin Minor Magruder, of Albemarle county, Va. The marriage will take place in the Episcopal church, Winchester, October 23d.

Lieutenant Shadrack of the United States navy, is stopping in Richmond for Carnival week, on his way to the mar-

Notes of Society.

A MASSACHUSETTS BRIDE.

Marriage of Mr. L. O. Wendenburg and Mrs. Ethel Elliott Merrill.

The marriage of Mr. L. O. Wendenburg and Mrs. Ethel Elliott Merrill was solemnized at the residence of the Rev. Dr. W. E. Evans, rector of Monumental church, last evening at 7 o'clock.

The happy couple left on the 7:42 train for an extended trip through the North. Their immediate address will be the Walden-Astoria, New York.

The bride is a beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. James Hammond Ley-Brand, a large cotton-raiser and broker, as well as a large real-estate owner of Columbia, S. C. Her mother was a Miss Elliott, was closely related to General Elliott of South Carolina, and her grandmother was a first cousin to President James K. Polk, and also a relative of Henry Clay.

Mr. Wendenburg is the well-known and talented attorney, whose ability has placed him among the most successful in his profession.

Their approaching marriage had been known to the intimate friends of the bride and groom for some time, but on account of a recent death in the family of the bride, the wedding was a quiet wedding; consequently, no invitations were issued.

Miss Daisy Evans, daughter of Rev. W. E. Evans, acted for the bride, and Mr. William A. Moncure was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendenburg will be at home to their friends after October 19th, at his beautiful suburban home, Edgemere.

Several hundred people called last evening to congratulate Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Lear on the celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

The decorations were by Harry, and the artistic arrangement of the lamps and candles was done by Mrs. Eugene Clowes. In the parlors the color scheme was pink and green, and the reception committee was composed of Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Lear, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. and Mrs. H. V. Tudor, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Winston, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Diblett, Mr. and Mrs. Grey Watson, Mr. and Mrs. John Freeman, Mayor Taylor and his wife, Dr. George K. and Mrs. M. C. Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Lyon, who also received, celebrated their silver anniversary, having been married the same day Dr. and Mrs. Lear were wedded.

The refreshments were served by the following young girls: Misses Alice Clark, Alice and Laura Lear, Kate Lyon, Edith Booth, Carrie Pulliam, Lucy Armstrong, Mary Webb, and Annie Keese.

Mrs. Lear is the youngest daughter of the late Rev. W. W. Lear, of Ash-ley, and is a member of the Virginia Methodist Conference. Her mother before her marriage was Miss Emily C. Greenhaw.

Mrs. Lear is the son of the Rev. W. W. Lear, of the Virginia Methodist Conference. His mother was Miss Susan Wilkinson. The presents were numerous and extremely handsome. The members of Centenary church presented Dr. and Mrs. Lear a handsome gift, and the Methodist Church Conference, also gave an appropriate gift.

Madame Sarah Grand is known to the English-speaking world as an invigorating, humorous lecturer her fame now is all that the most ambitious would demand.

Members of the club may also buy $100 tickets for any number of friends under the same conditions, which will enable them to secure reserved seats on payment of 50 cents extra at the box office.

After the lecture a reception will be given by the club to the ladies of the Woman's Club.

Seats may be secured by the public at the Academy of Music office after the 21st inst. at 50 and 75 cents can be bought only at the Academy.

Miss Kate Pearl Jordan and Walter P. Turner, of Roswell, N. M., were married yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by the Rev. W. C. Starnes, of the Fulton street church.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner left on the 3:30 train over the Chesapeake and Ohio route for Washington. Their future home will be in Roswell, N. M.

Miss Bessie Whitfield, of Enfield, N. C., is stopping on east Franklin street.

Mrs. C. W. Astrop and Master Robert Astrop, of Surrey Courthouse; Miss Julia Green, of Petersburg; and Miss Norma Wood, of Norfolk, are making a merry party in town attending the Carnival.

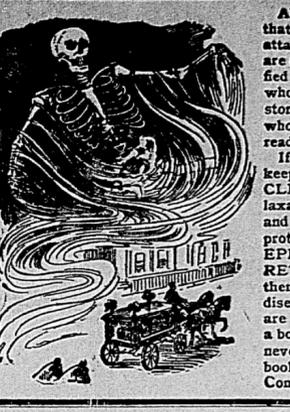

Mrs. A. T. Lincoln, of Marion, is spending the week in the city. Mr. Lincoln is a member of the Constitutional Convention.

Miss Anne Winston, of Louisiana, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Lindsay Gordon, will be one of the bridesmaids at the Porter-Black wedding, which will take place on October 22nd.

Miss Mary Ashley Bell will leave for New York next week, where she will pursue her musical studies.

Invitations have been received in Richmond to the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Dunbar Long, of Winchester, Va., and Mr. Franklin Minor Magruder, of Albemarle county, Va. The marriage will take place in the Episcopal church, Winchester, October 23d.

Lieutenant Shadrack of the United States navy, is stopping in Richmond for Carnival week, on his way to the mar-

APPENDICITIS—that dreadful fiend that threatens the life of rich and poor, can attack and kill only those whose bowels are not kept thoroughly cleaned out, purified and disinfected the year round.

If you want to be safe against the scourge, keep in good health all the time—KEEP CLEAN INSIDE! Use only the only tonic laxative that will make your bowels strong and healthy, and keep them pure and clean, protected against appendicitis and ALL EPIDEMIC DISEASES. It's CASCAETS, that will keep and save you. Take them regularly and you will find that all diseases of the stomach, liver and bowels are absolutely cured by Cascaets. Get a box, too, prove their merit and you will never be without Cascaets. Sample and booklet free. Address Sterling Remedy Company, Chicago or New York.

riage of a friend at Winchester, Va.

Mrs. Charles L. Sadler and Miss Ella Smith, of Fluvanna county, are the guests of Mrs. W. H. Sadler, 17 north Fourth street.

Mrs. D. M. 8th and Miss Marie 6th, of Chatham, and Miss Molly Scott, of Petersburg, are the guests of Mrs. W. W. Lear, 113 north Fifth street.

Miss Margaret Gould, of Huntington, W. Va., is the guest of Miss Elizabeth Sales Haynes, No. 2703 east Grace street.

Mrs. Charles H. Smit, of New York, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. C. W. Scott, No. 24 north Laurel street. She came down to attend the Horse Show, and had with her in her box on the opening night Mr. and Mrs. Mayo, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. Maddux. Mrs. Smit leaves on Saturday for her estate in Albemarle county.

Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Leigh Alcocke are visiting their parents at 117 north Lombardy street.

Mrs. William E. Hatcher and Miss Edith Hatcher have returned to the city from their country home, "Carey Hall." They are with Mrs. William R. Jones, 112 Lamb avenue, Barton Heights.

Miss Hope Carr, of Portsmouth, Va., is the guest of Miss Marye S. Puller.

Mrs. Andrew Simonds, of Charleston, S. C., is the guest of Mrs. Thomas Bolling, No. 610 west Franklin street.

Mr. W. W. Morris, of Henderson, N. C., is visiting his sisters at 45 east Clay street.

Mrs. Ida L. Crockett, of Yorktown, is visiting Mrs. S. A. Knight, on east Clay street.

Mr. C. R. Watkins, proprietor of the Mountain View Hotel, Christiansburg, Va., and his wife are in the city, and are stopping at the Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Brower, of New York, Va., visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Jones, of 515 Park avenue. Miss Mabel Moore, of Charlottesville, and Miss Nannie Turner, of Lanexa, are visiting Miss Edith Jones.

HOT SPRINGS.

Visitors—Mr. Montague Billed to Speak.

HOT SPRINGS, Va., October 10.—(Special.)—Mrs. Van Alfelds, of Monroe county, W. Va., and her niece, Miss M. E. of New Orleans, are guests at the Virginia.

Hon. William M. McAllister is in Baltimore. Judge George Morris, of Charlottesville, has been here for a few days this week.

Mr. Melville E. Ingalls, Jr., of the New York bar, has been here within the week on some legal business.

Mrs. Rebecca Duggess Love, of Atlanta, Ga., has purchased a home here, and will probably spend most of her time at this place. She is president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs in the United States.

Mrs. Tannant and Miss Tannant, of Richmond, are among the guests at the Virginia. Mr. Charles B. Tannant is also here.

Mrs. Lanle Dunn, of New York, has been visiting friends in the village in the past week.

Mr. M. E. Ingles will move his family to Clinchfield during this week.

Hon. A. J. Montague, Attorney-General, is expected to address the voters of the county on next Tuesday (County Court day). A good deal is expected that he will have a large audience.

Hon. C. F. Moore, the nominee for the House from this delegate district, is also expected to address the voters.

It is currently reported here that the Virginia Hot Springs Company has purchased from Colonel James A. August the part of the Hot Springs property owned by him and his wife.

If true, this gives the owners of the property complete title to all the property in the community, and will enable it to make more extensive improvements.

SAILORS PROTEST.

But the Police Could Not Interfere.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., October 10.—(Special.)—Eight men of the crew of the Chesapeake and Ohio steamship Rapidan, to-day applied to the police for a warrant against Cap Buckingham, charging him with violating the law in putting them off here. The men are Baltimoreans, who shipped on the Rapidan, for the voyage to Liverpool and return, thinking they would be landed at Baltimore. Their contract reads, "At any American port on return," and the police could not interfere.

Major James Houghton, British Vice-Consul, today received a letter from Captain Robert Harrison, commanding the British steamship Lord Lansdown, in which the captain states that he is recovering rapidly from the accidental pistol wound he suffered recently. Not an artery or a nerve was touched. He expects to be able to return on his ship in ten days.

City Hall Clock. Editor of the Richmond Dispatch: I wish to call your attention to the fact that the City Hall clock has ceased to run. It seems to me that this week above all others, care should have been taken to have this useful timepiece in good order, so that the masses could tell the hour of the various free shows and other amusements especially provided for them.

APPENDICITIS—that dreadful fiend that threatens the life of rich and poor, can attack and kill only those whose bowels are not kept thoroughly cleaned out, purified and disinfected the year round. One whose liver is dead, whose bowels and stomach are full of half decayed food, whose whole body is unclean inside, is a quick and ready victim of appendicitis.

If you want to be safe against the scourge, keep in good health all the time—KEEP CLEAN INSIDE! Use only the only tonic laxative that will make your bowels strong and healthy, and keep them pure and clean, protected against appendicitis and ALL EPIDEMIC DISEASES. It's CASCAETS, that will keep and save you. Take them regularly and you will find that all diseases of the stomach, liver and bowels are absolutely cured by Cascaets. Get a box, too, prove their merit and you will never be without Cascaets. Sample and booklet free. Address Sterling Remedy Company, Chicago or New York.

NEWS OF MANCHESTER.

HAPPENINGS ON THE SOUTH SIDE YESTERDAY BY OUR REPORTERS.

MANY CITIZENS ATTEND CARNIVAL.

Business Suspended and City Deserted Yesterday—Holiday in Public Schools To-Day—City Council Tonight—Death of Mr. Robinson.

That Manchester has entered thoroughly with Richmond in the Carnival spirit can be gauged. The city was practically deserted all day yesterday. Stores and other places of business were closed almost all day. So widespread was the yearning for a holiday and a trip to Booth street that had there been a fire alarm in the city, it would have been difficult for Stationman Smith to find someone to assist him to make a connection. It was remarked last night that the fire alarm may have been a warning, but it was doubtful. To-day the children will do their part, and this afternoon the conductors on the two lines crossing the Free street will have plenty to do. The children will go to the Capitol Square from the Southside in great numbers. This has been made possible by the fact that the public school facilities, after they may be vacated, is going to the Carnival, because, next to Manchester, the people think Richmond the greatest place on the universe.

FINGER MASHED. Wednesday afternoon the ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Finney, of east Eighth street, had one of his fingers badly mashed while breaking rock with a hammer. Dr. B. G. Hill rendered the necessary medical aid.

CITY COUNCIL TO-NIGHT. The regular monthly meeting of the Manchester City Council will be held to-night at 7:30 o'clock. Aside from regular business which will be brought to the attention of the body by the regular committees, the question of requiring the Richmond City Council to place a car on North Hill street below Seventh will be brought up for consideration. There is quite a cry in the First Ward for street car facilities, although there was a warm fight in the council over the matter.

MR. ROBINSON DIES. Mr. J. H. Robinson, who resided at No. 314 east Tenth street, died yesterday morning at 7 o'clock. He is survived by his wife and four sons, Messrs. J. E. W. H. G. W., and Wade Hampton Robinson, and one daughter, Mrs. H. W. Blankenship.

Funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

BRIEFS AND PERSONALS. Judge B. A. Hancock is at Lawrenceville, Ga. He is expected here on Saturday evening.

Mrs. James Powell, of Staunton, is spending Carnival week with Mrs. N. H. White.

Miss Lela May Allen, of Virginia, and Miss Efra Daniel, of Granville county, N. C., are spending Carnival week with their aunt, Mrs. M. A. Hewman, 1005 Market street.

Misses Bertha Allen and Maudie Ingraham, of Weldon, N. C., and Miss D. Cochran, of Emporia, are visiting Mrs. Cattie Taylor, on west Thirteenth street.

Misses Mattie and Floss Goodman, of Sunnyside, are visiting Mrs. J. W. Justice, on west Thirteenth street.

Mrs. R. A. Justice is visiting her son, J. W. Justice, on west Thirteenth street.

Miss Florence Hawks, of Portsmouth, is visiting Miss Callie Taylor, on west Thirteenth street.

Miss Emma Cox, who has been sick, is recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Bredup, of Oberlin, Va., are visiting the family of Mrs. Wilkerson, on Maury street.

AMUSEMENTS.

ACADEMY, TWO OCT. 18-19, Matinee, NIGHTS, Saturday

The eminent Shakespearean Star, CHAS. B. HANFORD, Supported by HELEN GRANTLY, and a splendid company, in "The Taming of the Shrew."

Prices, $1, 75, 50, 25. oc 9-2t

A CARNIVAL FEATURE.

BIJOU. To-Day 2:30. To-Night 8:45. 8-HIGH-CLASS ACTS—8 The Acme of Vaudeville. A Great Big Show. Popular Prices. oc 8-5t

The Confederate Museum TWELFTH AND CLAY STREETS. Open daily from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. Admission, 25 cents. Free on Saturdays de 15-1t

THE VALENTINE MUSEUM ELEVENTH AND CLAY STREETS. Open daily from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. Admission, 25 cents. Free on Saturdays de 15-1t

PAINTS. WE OFFER THE BEST QUALITY ONLY OF PURE LINSEED OIL, LEWIS' WHITE LEAD, and PAINTS IN COLORS. PURCELL, LADD & CO. my 11-2t Wholesale Druggists.

WINE OF CARDUI. Regulates the menstrual flow, cures leucorrhoea, falling of the womb and all the other ailments peculiar to women. Buy a $1 bottle from your druggist to-day.

oc 2-P. 2t. W. W. W. W. W.