

RICHMOND, VA., TUESDAY, MAY 27, 1902.

News of the Old Dominion.

THE VIRGINIA CAPITOL.

Plan Showing the Rearrangement of the Main Floor of the Building, as Agreed Upon.

A STREET-CAR VICTIM.

MR. JOHN T. RICHARDS KILLED IN NORFOLK YESTERDAY.

THE SPOTSWOOD HOTEL.

New Hotel for the City by the Sea—Colonel John Murphy May Be Interested—Criminal Assault Case. General Wood in Town.

NORFOLK, VA., May 26.—(Special).—John T. Richards, chief engineer of the Cotton Oil and Fibre Company, is dead as a result of injuries received under the wheels of a Norfolk street car.

Strong resolutions were to-day adopted by the Baptist ministers' conference of Norfolk and Portsmouth, condemning the contempt proceedings against Rev. Dr. Crawford, president of the Virginia Anti-Slavery League, who has been cited by the United States District Court.

THE NEW HOTEL. A new hotel, to be called the Spotswood, and to cost a quarter of a million dollars, will be chartered here to-morrow.

The report is current, and it appears to be well founded, that Colonel John Murphy, of Richmond, proprietor of Murphy's Hotel, of that city, will be the managing director of the new hotel.

THE WILL OF A SUICIDE. The farewell note of Sallie Dennis, a maiden in which she, five years ago, declared her belief in the small estate of $25,000, was to-day, in the Court of Law and Chancery, declared to be her legal will.

There are already in the city many delegates to the Episcopal Council of the Southern Diocese of Virginia, which convenes in Christ Church Parish house here to-morrow.

CHARGED WITH CRIMINAL ASSAULT. Adam Rose, 42 years old, is in the county jail on the charge of attempted criminal assault on Bernice Consovo, a 13-year-old white girl, at Sewell's Point.

GENERAL WOOD IN NORFOLK. General Wood's General was here to-day. General Leonard Wood, U. S. A., arrived in Norfolk this morning on the government yacht Kanawha, accompanied by his Adjutant-General, Colonel H. L. Scott, and his aides, Lieutenant M. E. Hanger, P. R. McCoy and Edwin Carpenter. The Kanawha left Havana May 24th and en route up the coast, stopped at Jacksonville, Fla., and Charleston, S. C., leaving the latter place on Friday last.

GENERAL WOOD IN NORFOLK. General Wood came ashore for a short stop during the early morning. The Kanawha weighed anchor at noon and left immediately for Washington, where General Wood goes to make his formal report to President Roosevelt in the delivery of Cuba to the civil authorities at Havana on the inauguration of President Palma last week.

LOCAL TRANSPORTATION NEWS. It is rumored that Mr. E. C. Hathaway, of Baltimore, will be placed in charge of the operating department of the street railway and ferry combination in Norfolk, Portsmouth, and on the Peninsula.

THE BUTCHERS WIN OUT. The fight of the butchers of Portsmouth and Norfolk for the modification of the regulations of the State Board of Control, which prohibited the slaughter of the cattle sold by the butchers except at the Union Stock Yards in Berkeley, has been won.

BREAK OF LIGHTNING

STRANGE ADVENTURE OF FRANK KESTER AT CAMBRIA LAYD.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH

The Lady and a Child in the Buggy With Him Escaped Unhurt—The Vehicle Demolished—Mr. Kester Was Terribly Burned.

CAMBRIA, VA., May 26.—(Special).—A most remarkable freak of lightning occurred here yesterday afternoon, when Frank Kester, a Montgomery county farmer, was driving to a neighbor's house, when he overtook Mr. Akers, with his wife and child, who fearing that they would be caught in an approaching storm, asked that the lady and child be taken to the nearest house until after the shower.

SAW A TERRIBLE SIGHT. When he had proceeded a short way he turned to see how far those in the buggy had gotten and a terrible sight met his gaze. A thunder clap, that shook the very earth and was accompanied by a vivid flash of lightning, burst upon the country. Mr. Akers saw his wife and child hurled from one side of the buggy and Kester from the other part of the vehicle.

HIT THE UMBRELLA. Mrs. Akers was holding an umbrella over herself and Kester when the bolt struck a short distance above her head, struck Kester on the neck, and tore his collar and necktie in two. It then passed down his back, tearing the flesh as with a hot iron, and leaving the buggy as a wreck. Thence it passed down Mr. Kester's leg, tearing his shoe heel off and leaving a mark of scorched flesh the entire length of his body. The buggy was completely wrecked.

RECOVERED CONSCIOUSNESS. Supposing that Kester was dead, Akers gave his whole attention to his wife and child, but after they were found uninjured, he turned his attention to Kester, and, finding evidence of life, hastened to secure medical aid. After receiving medical attention Kester began slowly to recover consciousness. Late in the afternoon he had entirely regained consciousness and was able to converse with those about him. The doctors announce that he will recover, but refuse to allow any one to see him.

LAWLESS CHALLENGES MAYNARD. Invites a Joint Discussion—Latter Declines for the Present. SUFFOLK, VA., May 26.—(Special).—Hon. H. L. Maynard, member of Congress from this district, was in Suffolk to-day, looking after his interests. Hon. J. T. Lawless, who wishes to succeed Mr. Maynard in the Senate, has invited him to a joint discussion throughout the district, as it was apparent that they would be the only candidates in the Democratic primary to be held on the 19th of August.

HOY RIGER MURDERED. A Staunton Man Killed at Biscoe, N. C., Sunday. STAUNTON, VA., May 26.—(Special).—A telegram was received by Mrs. S. H. Riger to-day announcing the death of her son, Hoy Riger, who had been murdered at Biscoe, N. C., yesterday. The telegram gave no particulars as to how he was killed. He was a native of Staunton.

PIERCE STORM IN CUMBERLAND. Great Damage Done to Crops—Fork Union Academy Finaled. CARTERSVILLE, VA., May 26.—(Special).—This section was visited Saturday night by a fierce storm, which did considerable damage to houses, fences, trees, gardens, and crops. In some instances, houses were blown down, and orchards were destroyed, and large oaks that have stood for centuries were either uprooted or snapped off. In several places the public highways are blocked with felled trees. The severity of the rain and hail entirely destroyed several flourishing gardens. At the home of Mr. John H. Irving, two miles from here, the lightning struck the chimney, which fell into his house, and in grounding made a report so loud that it frightened the inmates terribly. Only a few limbs of trees were blown off.

THE COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES OF FORT HENRY MILITARY SCHOOL ON SUNDAY. FORT HENRY, VA., May 26.—(Special).—The commencement exercises of Fort Henry Military School, which were held to-day, were attended by a large number of guests. The exercises were held in the gymnasium, and were presided over by the principal, Mr. J. C. Gwatkin. The exercises were of a high order, and the school has a fine record.
