

A BAD NEGRO CAUGHT

HE HELD UP MRS. WILLIAM EGERTON NEAR PETERSBURG.

ISAAC VAIDEN THE OFFENDER

When Arrested at City Point He Was Found to Have Been Guilty of Many Crimes—Accused, After Being Identified, Confessed.

PETERSBURG, VA., June 28.—(Special.) Mrs. William Egerton left her home in Prince George county this morning to drive to Petersburg on business. She was travelling alone in a buggy as she had often done before. When within about two miles of the city, driving slowly, she passed a negro, who turned and grasped the bride of the horse, and drawing a pistol, pointed it at her head and roughly demanded her money. The lady was greatly frightened, and declared that she only had half a dollar. She was forced to surrender this, and was further molested by the negro, who demanded more money. She determinedly refused to give any more, and the negro then turned and ran away. The negro then turned and ran away, and was seen by several citizens. They were coming to Petersburg, but they had no suspicion that he had committed a crime, thinking indeed that he was hurrying for a physician. Mrs. Egerton came to the city and reported the facts to the police, giving a description of the robber. Officer George W. McGee was armed, mounted, and sent at once in pursuit.

A MAN OF MANY CRIMES. The officer caught the negro at City Point, and telegraphed the fact to Chief Ragland, who at once went down to assist in bringing the prisoner back. The negro proved to be Isaac Vaiden, a notorious thief, who is wanted here for several crimes recently committed in this city. In his possession was found one of the fine gold watches stolen from the residence of Mr. B. H. Jenkins, on Adams street. While the family were temporarily out, the house was entered and ransacked, and watches and other property stolen. When the ladies returned, they found the man in the yard, and demanded to know his business, but he denied doing anything wrong, and finally dashed away. The description of the negro at once identified suspicion on Vaiden, and the watch found upon him confirms his guilt.

ANOTHER ROBBERY. In the same manner, several days ago, the residence of Mr. J. J. Robinson, on St. Andrew street, was entered, and the family by in this instance being at home. In one of the chambers were two trunks, one of them containing about $500 in money; the other an old naval pistol and several small sums of money. The first named trunk was unfortunately not touched, probably because the thief was too hurried for time. But the second trunk was broken open and the pistol and the dollars stolen. It was this pistol that Vaiden found to-day on Vaiden. He used it in holding up and robbing Mrs. Egerton.

WAS FULLY IDENTIFIED. Vaiden was taken to the residence of Mrs. Egerton, in Prince George county, and was fully identified by her as the negro who held her up this morning. From a statement made by Mrs. Egerton, it seems the negro's intentions were to make a more serious assault upon her, but he was deterred by the firm determination of Mrs. Egerton to resist him and the fear of being caught by persons who might be passing along the road. Vaiden later confessed all and implicated himself in several other robberies which have lately occurred in Petersburg. The prisoner was brought to this city and lodged in jail for safe keeping. Notwithstanding the fact that he is charged with three felonies in this city, in all probability he will be turned over to the Prince George authorities for trial.

THE STORM TERRIFIC. Five Persons Were on the Boat—All Killed. CHARLOTTE, N. C., June 28.—A special to the Observer from Washington, N. C., says: With a fearful burst of thunder and lightning, one of the heaviest electric storms ever known, struck here last night. The average velocity of the wind was about forty-five miles an hour, though it came in flurries as hard as fifty. The tug J. L. Patterson, belonging to the Knicker-Lumber Company, was towing two schooners, run by E. B. Moore, the fish dealer here, and when the squall struck, the wind turned the boat on her side and she scooped water. The boat was turned on end, and the pilot-house was entirely torn away, carrying with it two persons. Five were on the boat. All were drowned. The dead are as follows: WILLIAM J. WOMBLE, captain. HENRY DAVENPORT, engineer. DICK WALTERS, fireman. JOHN CHERRY, cook. ALLAN MOORE, the son of E. B. Moore. Young Moore was on the boat in the pilot-house, and was carried off by the wind and waves. The United States buoy-tender Violet was in port, and it took on two submarine divers and went to the scene of the disaster. Several tugs are assisting in the recovery of the bodies.

CAPE HAITIEN, HAITI, June 28.—Great excitement has prevailed here since yesterday. Admiral Killeck, commander of the Haitian fleet, disembarked troops to support General Firmin, formerly Haitian Minister at Paris, and one of the candidates for the presidency of the republic, and after refusing to recognize the constituted authorities, threatened to bombard Cape Haitien. The consular corps to-day protested against such action being taken. The Bishop and a delegation of foreign consuls endeavored to bring about harmony between the contending factions, but their efforts failed of success. Since 5 o'clock this evening fighting has been in progress in the streets, and the firing still continues. The situation is exceedingly grave, and everything is to be feared.

"THE MUSICAL-COURIER EXTRA" ENDORSES THE STIEFF METHODS. From the Musical Courier Extra of June 21, 1902, we clip the following: There is more in the one-price plan than the man who has never tried it imagines. It means a CLEANING OUT OF EVERYTHING THAT HAS A SEMBLANCE OF TRICKERY, which has given the piano trade such a reputation in the minds of those who have had to do with some members of the trade. There will be more of this one-price system in effect as time rolls on, and the dealers will appreciate more and more the efforts of this paper to establish it throughout the country. THE DEALER WITH THE ONE-PRICE PLAN AND A GOOD LINE OF PIANOS HAS NO NEED TO FEAR ANY COMPETITION. ON THE contrary, the one-price plan gives him confidence, it gives his salesmen confidence, and it gains the confidence of the public. Confidence, we have before remarked, sells pianos. The Stieff is the ONLY Piano in Richmond that is sold on the one-price plan. And, IT IS THE ONLY PIANO IN RICHMOND THAT HAS ITS PRICE MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES! This assures you that the Stieff price is a FIXED price—everybody is charged the same—there's no deviation—no lowering or raising according to the size of your pocket-book. Sold on easy monthly payments. Surely, STIEFF methods beget confidence—and CONFIDENCE SELLS PIANOS. CHAS. M. STIEFF, 431 EAST BROAD STREET. Next to Fourquare, Temple & Co.
