NOTES OF SOCIETY

The National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, has purchased a site for the Continental Memorial Hall, for which purpose the society all over the country has been zealously working. The following circular letter has been sent out to all of the regents of chapters and contains some interesting facts concerning the proposed Memorial Hall. To the Chapter Regents, National Society Daughters of the American Revolution: I am glad to advise you that a site for Continental Memorial Hall has been purchased for $20,250. It fronts on Seventeenth street, and extends from C to D streets, a distance of 230 feet, containing in all about 25,000 square feet. It is near the Corcoran Art Gallery and Washington monument, and we are assured by United States senators and prominent business men that the situation is most advantageous, and in the line of improvements which will make Washington the most beautiful city in the world. To place upon this site a building worthy of ourselves, of our ancestors and of the great principles they suffered and fought to establish, will require the united, earnest effort of every member of our great society. We have upon our rolls nearly 40,000 members, but deaths, resignations, life memberships, and "real Daughters" (who pay no dues) have reduced the actual paying membership to about 35,000. There remains of the amount already collected nearly $20,000. We need $20,000 more to erect a building that will properly commemorate the service and perpetuation of our glorious ancestry. This building should contain rooms for the working force of the national society, and for the preservation of its archives, and for a meeting place for the annual congress, and above all it should be a fitting memorial to those men and women who considered no sacrifice too great to win for us our priceless heritage. I have never known the society to fail to respond promptly and generously to every call that had for its object the good of the order and the honor of our country. Therefore I place the facts plainly before you, that we may take counsel together and devise some way to raise the necessary amount promptly and gladly, even at a sacrifice to ourselves. Asking that you advise me, through your State regent, of your plans for raising your part of the sum needed for this great work. I am, in the bonds of the past and present, very sincerely, MARY DESHA, Founder and Chairman of Committee on visit to her sister, at Red Springs, N. C. Invitations have been issued to the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Union Council, No. 51, of the Royal Arcanum, which will take place on Tuesday, July 8th, at 9 o'clock P. M. at the delightful musical programme has been arranged, and refreshments will be served. Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Potts and family are spending the summer months at Chester. The friends of Mr. Gayle Anderson will regret to learn that he is very much indisposed at the residence of Mr. Robert Hughes, in Norfolk. Mrs. Rankin, of Red Springs, N. C., is spending a month with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Strickler, at the Union Theological Seminary. The following is taken from the New York Herald of yesterday: "Commodore Steige of the German warship Veneta, a Richmond dispatch states, was the guest of honor at the splendorous jubilee of the Geanvener Virginia."

Miss Zaida Diamond English, of the Union Theological Seminary, is the guest of Miss Meta Russell, in Winchester. She will return home the latter part of this month. Mr. Grayson D. Thornton left Monday for his father's home in Henrico county, where he will remain during the summer. Mrs. Thomas Leary and Miss Nora Leary will spend the summer at Coburg. Mr. Robert Hankins arrived in the city yesterday, and will spend several days with his family on Grace street. Mr. J. Carroll Payne, of Atlanta, Ga., will be the guest of Miss Nan Payne, en route to Lenox, Mass., and Staten Island. Misses Lucy and Courtney Bridges have returned from a delightful visit to Norfolk. Later they, with Miss Evelyn Bridges, will spend some time with the Misses Cooke, at "Bremo."

Miss Marguerite Warwick has returned from a pleasant sojourn of several weeks at "Bremo," where she was the guest of the Misses Cooke. She will shortly for an extended trip, which will include various northern resorts. Mr. Robert Hankins arrived in the city yesterday, and will spend several days with his family on Grace street. ANOTHER OIL GUSHER IN SOUR LAKE FIELD.

The Sour Lake oil region of Texas, operated by a syndicate in which many well-known Richmond financiers are interested as stockholders is proving a bonanza, and this bids fair to rival all the other recently opened oil fields. Mr. S. Galeski, of this city, a stockholder in the company, of which Henry W. Flournoy is promoter, yesterday received a telegram from Mr. Henry Flournoy, Jr., of which the following is a copy: "Third well in to-day. Gushed fifty feet over the derrick through six-inch casing. Bout of oil well in Sour Lake." The company which has opened this Sour Lake field is the Atlantic and Pacific Oil Company, and it embraces a large number of stockholders of whom perhaps a hundred reside in this city. The results of the third well, and the splendid results attained therefrom will, no doubt, be most gratifying to the Richmonders who have money invested in this territory. The three wells alone, with the capacity of 75,000 barrels of petroleum per day, and the future of the region is promising of even greater results in the future. There is no excitement, but the directors of the enterprise are naturally gratified at the vindication of their judgment by the results of their venture. The J. M. Guffey Petroleum Company, of Pittsburg, is now laying a pipe line between the wells at Sour Lake and Port Arthur, where the ground is a prosperous young oil field, and the pipe line will be used for the storage of the crude oil until it can be piped to the refinery. Mr. Guffey, the head of this company, is prominent in Pennsylvania politics. It is not known whether the Guffey company has any connection with the Standard Oil Company or not, but if it is, that fact is being kept secret for the reason that under the anti-trust law of the State the Standard Company cannot operate in this territory.

NORTH CAROLINA'S CAPITAL.

Society of the Cincinnati Elected Officers—Very Hot Yesterday. RALEIGH, N. C., July 4.—(Special.)—The North Carolina Society of the Cincinnati held its annual meeting here this afternoon. Visiting guests, presiding Marshall Delancy Haywood, secretary. The society elected the following new members: Dr. Robert J. Brevard, Judge W. O. Hoke, and Haywood Clark, of North Carolina; James A. Mahell, of Richmond; Isaac Ridgeway Trimble, and William Hall Harris, of Baltimore; J. W. Grant, of Atlanta, and Lucius Lamb, of Memphis. Heriot Clarkson, of Charlotte, N. C., was elected an honorary member, an honor rarely conferred. A BEASTLY HOT FOURTH. It was a witheringly hot day here this Fourth of July; so hot that the youngsters who, as early as 4 o'clock, were waiting the deal of noisily, absolutely subsided long before noon, as the heat was almost unbearable. There was no celebration here, and the only observance of the day was the closing of buildings and the display of flags. In the afternoon a baseball game was played with Durham, and in the evening a lawn party in one of the parks in aid of the local base-ball association. The day was celebrated at Southport, at Weldon, and at other places. The celebration at Weldon (where Julian S. Carr and F.

FULTON MAN KNOCKED OUT WITH A PAVING STONE.

Charles Dillard Said to Have Thus Assaulted a Man, and Made His Escape—No Arrest as Yet. The glorious Fourth was celebrated in a general way in Fulton, but it was not without the shedding of blood. During the hours of the early morning, about 3 o'clock, Robert Cockington and Charles Dillard, who had become involved in a war of words in a bar-room on Louisiana street, Cockington struck Dillard with his fist, felling him to the street. In an instant he was on his feet and hurled a paving stone at Cockington, knocking him down and rendering him insensible. While he was down, it is said that Dillard kicked him and then ran away. Officer Keegan, of the First Police district, was attracted to the scene, but not until Dillard had disappeared owing to the fact that he was unable to leave his beat, and there being no magistrate in Fulton, no steps could be taken for a warrant against Dillard until late in the morning. At midnight last night Dillard had not been apprehended. Mr. R. Nelson, the well-known furniture director and furniture dealer of Fulton, was assaulted in his store yesterday evening about 7 o'clock by a drunken man. Nelson was unable to do anything but to issue against the man, but to come up town to swear out the warrant.

DULL DAY FOR AMBULANCE. Celebration of the Fourth Made No Difference With City Surgeons. Dr. Sandidge, the surgeon in charge of the City Ambulance, had an easy day of it yesterday. The fact that the day was a holiday and that it was being celebrated more generally than ever before, did not increase the work of the ambulance. If anything, it was lighter than usual. At 5:25 A. M. John Smith was treated at Twenty-third and Cary streets for a dog bite. After being fixed up he went home. At 7:50 A. M. Ray Stone, a white girl, had a shot in one of her fingers. Dr. Sandidge relieved the damsel and left her at the station house. William Shalva, a white man, was suffering from a kick in the abdomen shortly after 10 o'clock in the morning at Ninth and Byrd. He, too, was cared for, but he "didn't know how it happened." At 8:15 P. M. W. H. Richardson, a ne-

"THE MONROE POSTMASTERSHIP." It is said there is a very pretty contest going on for the postmastership at Monroe. There are four aspirants and it is stated that each has employed counsel. There are charges and counter-charges. There was an amusing street scene here this morning. In a buggy of an antique fashion sat a ponderous negro woman, a white and red dog, "the dorkiest" letter her. The motive power was a black bull, harnessed, but managed by one line, part of it chain. The vehicle was piled high with vegetables, which she was selling. Secretary T. K. Bruner, of the Agricultural Experiment Station, was in this rig, with an immense umbrella as a back-ground. The bull's name is Ebenezer. The picture will be equal to the best of a dorky ever taken. In the various State departments to-day nothing was doing. A number of the officials went out to see the ball game. The Corporation Commission decides to take up next week the assessment of railway property for this year.

OLD SOLDIERS AT WELDON.

Ex-Confederates Celebrated the Fourth With a Big Reunion. WELDON, N. C., July 4.—(Special.)—The Fourth was a red-letter day in Weldon. A reunion of Confederate veterans was held here, and the old soldiers were given a big dinner. General Julian S. Carr was the principal speaker. He reviewed in eloquent terms the deeds of the Southern soldier, giving the North Carolina troops their just dues in the great civil conflict. He was followed by Mr. F. H. Busbee, of Raleigh. General Ransom, "the noblest Roman of them all," was called upon, but he declined to speak. Hon. Thomas W. Mason, of Northampton, made a few happy and well-timed remarks. General Carr was introduced by Colonel W. H. Burry, of Weldon. Mr. Busbee was introduced by Solicitor W. B. Danford. The election of officers for Bill Johnston Camp resulted in the election of Major T. L. Emry, commandant by acclamation, and Mr. W. R. Smith was elected vice-commandant. Dr. A. R. Zollicoffer was chosen secretary.

RETAIL CLERKS' UNION IN TROUBLE IN ROANOKE.

One of the Merchants Placed on the Unfair List Asks for an Injunction. ROANOKE, VA., July 4.—(Special.)—A circular was distributed throughout the city last night and to-day by members of the Retail Clerks' Union, calling on all union men, their families, and the public generally, to deal only at stores closing at 7 o'clock. A list was given of the stores alleged to have broken their agreement with the Retail Clerks' Union to close at 7 o'clock. The circular bears the union label. Today A. L. Sbert, the proprietor of 131, a large dry-goods establishment, which has repeatedly refused to close at 7 o'clock, asked for an injunction restrain-
