DESTRUCTION OF TOBACCO BARNS. Information was received here Monday that a fire had broken out in the barns of three large farms filled with tobacco on the farm of Mr. J. M. Abernathy, in Amelia county. Mr. Abernathy lives near the Dinwiddie line, and usually raises the grades of Virginia tobacco. His loss nearly ruined him, and he is in a bad way in money is serious.

The fire was accidental, originating, it is said, from the fire kindled to cure the tobacco. The barns adjoined each other and hence the loss of all.

NORTH CAROLINA NOTES.

Fashionable Wedding at Raleigh—Registration About Completed.

RALEIGH, N. C., October 22.—(Special.)—At Christ church here this evening there was a notable gathering of fashionable folk to witness the marriage of Professor Henry M. Wilson and Miss Mary A. Turner. Professor Wilson is a native of Baltimore, and has charge of the textile department of the Agricultural and Mechanical College here. The bride is the only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Vines E. Turner, of Philadelphia; Henry G. Turner, of Birmingham, Ala., and Frank P. Hayward, of Raleigh. After the wedding there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

President Joseph G. Brown, of the Citizens' National Bank, here, accepts an invitation to deliver an address on "The New South," at the annual meeting of the American Bankers' Association at New Orleans, November 11th-13th.

President J. A. Long, of the fair, says the railroads are co-operating with marked heartiness and promise to provide plenty of cars and special trains next week.

NEGROES NOT REGISTERING. It is learned that of 2,676 white persons here who paid their poll tax, or are free of that tax in this township, about 1,600 have registered. It is said also that out of some 1,000 negroes who voted two years ago only 132 have registered. Some negroes do not care to register or to vote, while some are quite sure about their disfranchisement.

Democratic State Chairman Simmons will very quickly after the registration this week to give out the names of the registrants. This will show the white and colored registration.

It is learned from Seaboard Air-Line officials that Engineer Robertson, who was hurt in a collision at Rockingham Sunday, is doing very well, and will quickly recover. It is also said the damage to the railway by the wreck is only $3,200.

CENTRAL CAROLINA FAIR.

Remarkably Fast Green Trotter Brought to Notice.

GREENSBORO, N. C., October 22.—(Special.)—The races at the Central Carolina Fair this afternoon were the most exciting ever seen in North Carolina. The 2:27 trot and pace uncovered a remarkably fast green trotter, Harry Woodford, owned by L. G. Roper, of Rocky Mount, and driven by J. H. Morrow, of Washington, D. C. He secured a record of 2:23 1/2 in the first heat, lost the second heat by breaks, and won the next two in a walk. The same party owns Lady Woodford, winner of a 2:20 trot, also driven by Morrow. This was stubbornly fought, as shown by the summary. During the entire race a blanket would have covered Lady Thelma and Queen Bess, owned by Garland Daniel, of Greensboro.

On account of dry weather and want of water, the track was deep and sandy, and about three to four minutes slow.

The two fine trotters mentioned, have been entered for the Alabama State fair at Birmingham, and a member of the firm of George H. Mills, of Goshen, N. Y., was the starting judge. Summary: 2:29 class trot; purse $100.—Lady Thelma, 2, 1, 2, 1, 1; Queen Bess, 1, 2, 1, 2, 2; Forney, 2, 3, 1, 4, 1; Trip Gemini, 4, 4, 3, 3. Time, 2:27, 2:27 1/2, 2:27 1/2.

2:27 trot and pace, mixed; purse, $200.—Harry Woodford, 1, 2, 1, 1; Edith Faviile, 2, 1, 3, 2; Empire W., 3, 3, 2, 3. Time, 2:23 1/2, 2:23 1/2, 2:23 1/2.

PROMINENT MERCHANT DROWNED.

David C. Whitehurst, of Elizabeth City, N. C., Loses His Life.

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C., October 22.—(Special.)—News reached this city to-night of the death by drowning of David C. Whitehurst, a prominent merchant of this city, and a member of the firm of Fulmer and Whitehurst. He left here Monday, with a party of friends, to go on a hunting trip to Stumpy Point. He was in the act of reefing the jib of the boat when he was knocked overboard by the sail. The boat was tacked to the rescue, but the body could not be found. It was a moonlight night, but there was a high sea. The city is in gloom. A searching party leaves to-night. Mr. Whitehurst was educated at Horner's, and was very popular.

It will be remembered that W. J. Criften, a prominent lawyer, met death similarly, a few years ago.

FREDERICK'S HALL.

Crops Suffering for Lack of Labor—Game Plentiful.

FREDERICK'S HALL, VA., October 22.—(Special.)—The farmers are very backward with their fall work, partly owing to recent unfavorable weather, but largely due to the lack of labor. It seems utterly impossible for white people to obtain close help for "love or money," and most of the white people have crops of their own to save. The corn crop is being shocked, but is found to be greatly damaged on account of the late wet weather. Much fodder is also ruined from the same cause.

The early cuttings of tobacco are also injured, owing to the damp, foggy weather recently.

POLITICS QUIET.

Politics are quiet in old Louisa at present, except in Jackson District, where a vote will be taken next month on the fence law question.

The negroes, since being disfranchised, are keeping very quiet, the only sign of unrest or dissatisfaction being their almost uniform disinclination to work for white people.

A larger quantity of fertilizer for wheat has been delivered from this point than for a number of years. Louisa, the field sportsman's paradise, abounds this season in game. There are more partridges this year than were ever known before. Wild turkeys, rabbits, and squirrels are also plentiful. The season is well on.

CHATHAM, VA., October 22.—(Special.)—Tuesday evening a splendid young horse belonging to Mr. Luther Blair broke one of its front legs. CONSIDER MILK ORDINANCE.

Council Committee on Health to Do So This Evening.

The Council Committee on Health will begin the consideration to-night of the pure milk ordinance presented by the Board of Health, to the Common Council, and by it referred to the Health Committee for investigation and report. This is the first meeting the committee has held since the ordinance was in the hands of its clerk.

At the same meeting the committee will take up the report of the sub-committee on the removal of the care of garbage and alleys from the Street Cleaning Department, placing it again under the direction of the president of the Board of Health. This report, if adopted, by the City Council, would leave only the cleaning of the streets in the department presided over by Superintendent Henry Cohn.

It is not believed that Dr. W. T. Oppenheimer, the head of the Board of Health, favors the change, and it is thought that his views on the innovation will have great weight with the committee as to the character of the recommendation to be made to the City Council, if any at all.

Another case that will come before Squire Cheatham to-morrow morning, is that of George Thomas, the Syrian, who was arrested by Constable Grant on the charge of peddling goods without a license. He was bailed for his appearance to-morrow, his bondsman being Mr. Joseph Simons.

Manchester and Chesterfield.

Promiscuous shooting by some unknown miscreant, in Chesterfield county, shortly before noon yesterday, resulted in the serious injury of John Jones, the small son of Mr. J. W. Jones, a prominent farmer, who lives near Bondy's plantation.

Nine shots penetrated the right leg and caused the youngster much suffering while Dr. Kagland was probing for them. The boy had gone out to the wood pile in company with his mother, when the report of a gun was heard. Several shots were fired, and Mrs. Jones saw her son fall, crying to his mother to come to him. The wounded lad was taken to the house and Mrs. Jones went for Dr. Kagland, who was called to the scene and removed the shot from the boy's leg.

Mr. Jones was in Manchester yesterday afternoon, and said that his son was getting along as well as could be expected. He thinks that the person who did the shooting was some one who was hunting or trespassing on his land. Constable Grant and other county officers will probably work up the case.

TWO BRILLIANT WEDDINGS.

Cupid reigned supreme in Manchester last night, and the result of the fact that he had made several hearts his targets and pierced them with his darts. The 'little god of love' had won the day and last night brought about the consummation of his work, which started two happy marriages. The first, according to sacred vows and law, the wedding of the first couple were brilliant affairs, and both ones to take place being that of Miss Ruth Gallagher and Mr. Maury Perdue, in the Central Methodist church, at 7 o'clock.

The bride was attended by Miss Ethel Brown, who acted as bridesmaid. The groom entered with Mr. David Perdue, his brother, who acted as best man. They were followed by the ushers, Messrs. J. H. Freeman, of Richmond; Henning Anderson, David Moody, and Oscar Owens, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played while the bridal party entered the church.

THE BRIDE'S ATTIRE. The bride was attired in a beautiful mauve tulle gown with gloves and hat to match. She carried Bride's roses and was given away by her father, Mr. A. J. Gallagher.

Miss Brown, who acted as bridesmaid, wore a white silk brocade dress, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Gallagher, of 817 Bainbridge street. Mr. Perdue is the son of Mr. Sidney M. Perdue, the well-known undertaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Perdue were the recipients of many costly, as well as handsome, presents. They left immediately after the ceremony last night for an extended northern tour, after which they will make their future home at 49 West Twelfth street.

Mr. Perdue is a machinist, and is employed at the shops of the Chesapeake and Ohio railway in Richmond.

Amid the glare of beautiful parlor lamps and the strains of Beethoven's wedding march in the home of Mr. Smith, of 109 east Eighth street, Mrs. Annie E. Chance became the bride of Mr. John M. Dunning, a well-known business man of Richmond. The ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock last night by the Rev. J. W. Kinloch, of the Stockton Street Baptist church, who was assisted by the Rev. Samuel Templeman.

The bride was attended by Miss Ida Flourey. The ushers were Dr. Hill and Mr. Clifford Davidson.

The parlor was crowded with friends and acquaintances, who witnessed the ceremony.

After spending two or three days in Richmond, Mr. Dunning and Mrs. Dunning will leave for their future home, in Charleston.

AGED LADY'S BIRTHDAY.

Only a few of those who attended the wedding of Miss Dabney and Mr. Perdue last night knew that two of the attendants were the aged grandmothers of the bride, one of whom celebrated her 75th birthday at the home of Mr. Gallagher last night.

Mr. Brady, formerly the wife of Eugene Gallagher, father of the bride's father, Mrs. Brady was hale and hearty last night. Mrs. Jane P. Traylor, of Manchester, another grandmother of the bride, participated in the celebration.

Mrs. Traylor is 78 years old. WANT HIGH PRICE FOR CHURCH. The members of the colored congregation who now attend the old Central church, are so satisfied that they will get their own price for the building if they are forced to sell it to the city. They paid $4,000 for the church, and now want the city to pay $5,000 for it. Only $1,000 has been paid on the building.

They are exceedingly anxious to hold the building now, because they know that the city wants to get control of it, as it is thought that the fact that the old land mark being abandoned by negroes, would tend to depreciate the value of property along Ninth street, between Decatur and Hull.

Emma Leonard, the colored evangelist of North Carolina, will arrive in Manchester Saturday, and give a series of meetings in the old Central church Sunday morning.

Mrs. L. A. Bass will have charge of a box party which will be given at the Fifth-Street Methodist church to-night.

WILL BE TRIED TO-MORROW.

Constable E. W. Grant has arrested Willie Hobeck and William Turner on the charge of violating the game laws, by shooting wild geese. It is alleged that the boys shot the geese of William Mescot, who lives near Manchester. They will be tried before Squire L. W. Cheatham to-morrow morning.
