NOTES OF SOCIETY.

An approaching marriage of much interest to Richmond society is that of Miss Florence Clair McAcnerney, daughter of Colonel McAcnerney, a retired banker of New York, to Mr. Buckhill Forts, a prominent and wealthy business man of New York city. The wedding will take place on November 20th, at St. Patrick's Cathedral, in New York. Miss McAcnerney is a niece of Mrs. Cazenue McLeod, of this city, at whose home she has frequently visited, and is a favorite in Richmond society. Her mother, before her marriage to Colonel McAcnerney, was a Miss Marshall, of this city.

Miss Sarah Alice Lawrence and Mr. Christopher Duncan McRae were married yesterday afternoon at the bride's home, by the Rev. J. O. Kirk. The parlors were artistically decorated in shades of white and gold chrysanthemums and palms, being used with charming effect. Mr. John Yarbrough played the wedding march as the bride party entered. The bride wore a blue going-away gown, with hat and gloves to match, and carried a large bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Miss Rose Lawrence, who acted as maid of honor, wore a light yellow silk, with yellow chrysanthemums. Mr. F. D. Ball, of Manchester, acted as best man. After a very happy and enjoyable tour, and on their return will be at home at 22 west Main street. The bride is the beautiful blonde daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Lawrence, and the groom is connected with the Southern railway.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hechler, on North Twenty-fifth street, was the scene of a pretty wedding yesterday. The contracting parties were Miss Annie Verory, Miss Mamie Sitterling rendered an organ. The bride was attired in an ashes-of-roses gown of pearl de soie, a creation of pin-tucks and hand embroidery. She wore a hat of white more and chiffon, with a border of fur, and carried Brides' roses. The maid of honor was costumed in cream crepe trimmed in ecru mocha tones, and wore a large picture hat of black, and carried American Beauty roses. After the ceremony breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents to the bridal party and the immediate family of the bride. The young couple left on the noon train for a northern tour, after which they will reside in New York, where the groom is a popular business man, and treasurer of the New York Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Chiswell Dabney, of Chatham, Va., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Louise S. Dabney, to Mr. Ernest Heald, of Lynchburg. Miss Dabney, who was recently a sponsor to the Confederate encampment at Wytheville, Va., is a niece of Mrs. Richard H. Meade and Mrs. Catesby Jones, of this city, and a grand-daughter of the late Colonel Edmund Fontaine, of Beaver Dam, Hanover county.

The meeting of the Huguenot Society which was to have been held to-day at noon has been postponed until next Tuesday at the same hour. Owing to a large number of members of this society being interested in the mass-meeting to be held to arrange for the bazaar to-day, it was thought advisable to postpone this meeting.

Mrs. Joseph Bryan and Mrs. N. V. Randolph request that all memorial associations, Confederate organizations, and other patriotic societies be present at Lee Camp Hall at noon to-day, November 6, to make arrangements for the Confederate bazaar to be held the latter part of April, or May. This is the last great rally of Confederate women, and it is hoped that every one interested in the Confederate Museum and the Davis monument will be present.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Thilow will be at home to their friends at No. 215 east Marshall on Saturday afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock and from 8 to 11 o'clock in honor of the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding day. Mrs. Thilow was formerly Miss Clara Schramm, of Erfurt, Germany, and one of the most beautiful girls in her native city when she married Mr. Thilow, who was a native of Gotha, Germany. The marriage was solemnized in Erfurt fifty years ago, and last summer Mr. and Mrs. Thilow visited Germany, where they were heartily welcomed by the friends of their youth.

Rev. Dr. William E. Evans, officiated at a pretty wedding yesterday afternoon at 6:30 o'clock at the Monumental church, when Miss Lotchen Polioexter became the bride of Mr. Robert Randolph Harrison. The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. George Polioexter and a niece of Mr. Thomas Polioexter. Mr. Harrison is a popular young insurance man of this city. After receiving the congratulations of their friends Mr. and Mrs. Harrison left on the 8:30 train for a northern trip.

Miss Maria Blair will deliver a lecture, entitled "An Evening with the Madonnas," at the Woman's Christian Association on Tuesday, November 18th at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, for the benefit of the Day Nursery and mission work. The lecture will be given under the auspices of the White Memorial Circle of King's Daughters, of which Mrs. John B. Lightfoot is the leader. A choice collection of Madonnas will be for sale immediately after the lecture.

Colonel and Mrs. Alexander Cameron have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Grant Cameron, to Mr. James Heron Crossman, Jr., The ceremony will take place Wednesday, November 13th, at 4:30 o'clock, in the afternoon, at No. 519 east Franklin street. After December 1st the young couple will be at home at No. 202 State street, Harrisburg, Pa.

The Kate Wheelock Whist Club met at the residence of Mrs. J. Willard Craig Tuesday afternoon and enjoyed a very spirited game, resulting in the highest score north and south being made by Mrs. C. C. Walker and Mrs. Lorde. The next meeting will take place at the residence of Mrs. Junius Riddick. The next meeting will take place at the residence of Mrs. Junius Riddick next Tuesday afternoon.

The Friday Cotillon Club will give another of their very delightful germans at Belvidere Hall on Friday evening, Nov. 7, 1902.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Taylor and Miss Elizabeth Taylor of Bedford City will arrive in Richmond Saturday and will be at the Jefferson for several days en route to Lanesville, Ky., where Dr. Taylor has accepted a lucrative position in the railroad office. Mrs. Taylor will be pleasantly remembered as Miss Grace Lee Griffin.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stevens, Miss Helen Stevens, Mr. Paul Stevens, and the other members of the family, who have been enjoying country life at its quietest at "Glenloch," a fine estate in Albemarle county, have now returned to Richmond for the winter.

All Annapolis society is interested in the wedding next Thursday of Miss Hannah P. Randall, the daughter of Hon. John B. Lowndes, to Mr. William Bladen Lowndes, the son of ex-Governor Lloyd Lowndes. The bride-elect is entertaining a number of her bridesmaids at an antinuptial house party.

The Friday Cotillon Club will give another of their very delightful germans at Belvidere Hall on Friday evening, November 7, 1902.

Mr. William Gray, who went abroad October 12th, is now spending some time in London, England, and expects to return to Richmond in a fortnight, where they will live.

Mrs. Legar Whitney, of Hampton, Va., has been the guest of Mrs. Thomas Cary Johnson, at Union Theological Seminary, for some days. She was before her

Rev. Weston Bruner Declines.

The Rev. Weston Bruner, of Baltimore, has finally declined to consider a call to the pastorate of the Calvary Baptist church at this city. A special from Baltimore says:

Rev. Dr. Weston Bruner, pastor of Lee-Street Baptist church, announced to-day that he has formally declined the call which he received a few days ago from Richmond, Va. Dr. Bruner was invited to occupy the pulpit of Calvary Baptist church there.

He, however, was disinclined to go, and his "book" had no difficulty in persuading him to stay in his present charge.
