

BIG LITTLE FAMILY.

HAPPY YOUNG PEOPLE AT THE VIRGINIA MASONIC HOME.

MRS. H. M. BARBOUR, MOTHER.

Bright Boys and Girls, to the Member of Fifty-Six, Represent Families of Culture and Refinement—Heart, Head, and Hands All Taught

About two miles from Richmond, situated on the Seven Pines road, is the Masonic Home, one of the most complete institutions of its kind in the South, and at the same time one of the most successful. The home is an orphan asylum, supported by the Masons in the State, but it is run on the principle of a large family, there are fifty-six children living there.

The institution differs from most asylums in that all the children are well born, and come of families of culture and refinement. One is struck in going through the place, with the exceptional intelligence and happiness portrayed in the faces of the little ones. Every effort is made to keep the children from realizing that they are orphans. They are not dressed alike, and they have the same respect and affection of the management, which engenders in them an air of independence and freedom.

THE SUPERINTENDENT. Mrs. H. M. Barbour, the superintendent, is the one woman for the place. She understands children thoroughly, and finds no trouble in the management of those under Agents for Knox Hats.

WE are all alike in one respect—we like to be encouraged; it spurs us on to renewed efforts to do better—makes us try to excel even when we had already reached a position of excellence. That is just the way we feel about the encouragement that has been tendered us. While we feel that we have done well, we intend doing better and cementing still firmer that feeling of confidence and good-will now existing between us.

In the home are thirty-four boys and thirty-two girls, ranging from the ages of 5 to 18. In this interesting group are represented many of the best families from all parts of the State. Many of the children bear names which have been handed down to us through history. The strangest part about a visit to the home is that one has no feeling of pity or envy for them. Rather, indeed, does one envy them their healthfulness and happiness, and feel sorry that the day must come when they must leave the comfort of the home to go forth and battle with the world.

HOW IT STARTED. The home has been opened twelve years.

her charge. The children come to her with their troubles and pleasures as they would to a mother. It was particularly noticeable in going through the home, to find how natural the children were. Mrs. Barbour's private room, like the mother's chamber in a home, is the favorite spot in the house, and the children congregate there all hours of the day, often crowding it to its utmost capacity. Upon reaching upon this Mrs. Barbour said she never objected to it, for she realized that in this way one could get nearest to the child. She runs the home on the same principle that she ran her private home before the death of her husband. She is not bothered by the children with useless rules and regulations, she strictly enforces but one law, and that is obedience, leaving the rest of the love which she has undeniably aroused in the heart of every child. Her word is law, and when she gives an order, not alone the one to whom she is speaking, but several will listen to carry it out.

It first started in a small frame building, but soon money enough was raised to build the present structure. The home was endowed by Captain A. G. Bawcock, a northern by birth, but a soldier in the Confederate army. He was a prominent Mason, and gave for the building four acres on which the home was built with money to put up the building. Major Ginter left $5,000 to the institution. With this and the aid of the Masons in the State, the school is kept up, and the good work is carried forward. The children are brought to Richmond every Sunday, and alternating, they give one Sunday to each denomination. Sunday school is held at the institution every Sunday afternoon. The place is decidedly interesting, and to one who has never been through an asylum it would be an education to spend an afternoon with these children and their "mother," Mrs. Barbour.

WILD TURKEYS ABUNDANT.

Several Killed in the Courthouse Section of Chesterfield.

CHESTERFIELD, VA., November 8.—(Special.)—The ever shy though beautiful wild turkey seems to be very abundant in the courthouse section. Mr. Stonebrink, Chesterham, who lives in that neighborhood, killed two very fine ones last Thursday and Mr. Nett Clayton of the same place, succeeded in bagging one this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Blanton, of Floyd avenue, Richmond, are visiting Mrs. I. S. Hillman, of Chesterfield.

Miss Nannie Brooks, the efficient teacher of Salem school, has gone to Skinker to spend to-day and Sunday with her parents.

Mrs. Cora Howlett, accompanied by little Julia Rose Coghill, left to-day for Petersburg to spend a few days with relatives.

Miss Page Snellings, of Manchester, is the guest of Mrs. A. M. Cheatham.

Pensions for Virginians.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 8.—(Special.)—Pensions granted to Virginians to-day were as follows:

Originals: William A. McWhorter, Norfolk, $6. Increase, release, etc.: John R. Miller, Alexandria, $4. William Bernhart, National Soldiers' Home, Elizabeth City, $8.

BOND-HAY TREATY SIGNED.

Reciprocity Between the United States and Newfoundland.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Secretary Hay for the United States, and Sir Michael Herbert, representing the British government and the government of Newfoundland, to-day at the State department, signed what is known as the Bond-Hay treaty, providing for reciprocity between the United States and Newfoundland, covering fish products and bait.

The treaty will be submitted to the senate immediately upon its reassembling, and meanwhile following the rule in such cases the State department refrains from making public the details of the instrument.

CONFLAGRATION IN CAMDEN.

Plants of Coric, Chemical, and Liquor Manufacturers Burned.

CAMDEN, N. J., Nov. 8.—This plant of the New Jersey Coric Manufacturing Company, the Camden Milling Company, manufacturers of chemicals and McAndrews' plants, have manufacturers comprising about a dozen frame buildings, located at Knight's Point in the southern section of this city, were destroyed by fire to-day.

ARVONIA HAPPENINGS.

ARVONIA, VA., November 8.—(Special.)—Mrs. Owen Jones has just returned to Arvon, after a two-months' visit to relatives in Amblec, Wales. This is the first visit Mrs. Jones has made since her residence in America, which covers a period of seventeen years. It is a pleasure to hear her tell of the old home-land, but she fills with emotion when she relates the many sad changes of the past. She reports a very rough homeward voyage of six days on the fast mail steamer Campana.

Mr. Stanley Jeffrey, who has been travelling through the Western States for the past five months, returned yesterday

MR. TILTON'S LIBEL SUIT.

The term of the Law and Chancery Court ended to-day without a judgment from Judge Martin in the Tilton libel suit. John G. Tilton, Commonwealth's attorney, sued the Virginian-Pilot for $10,000, because of actionable comments made on his conduct of the Osborne murder case. The judgment will not be rendered till the next term later in the month.

WILLIAM LEE AND SAM CARTER, TWO NEGROES, PLAYING WITH AN OLD PISTOL IN CAKE'S STORE, AT BOWER'S HILL, IN NORFOLK COUNTY, THIS AFTERNOON. THE PISTOL EXPLODED AND THE BULLET LODGED IN LEE'S HEAD, CAUSING DEATH IN A FEW MINUTES. THE CORONER'S JURY FOUND A VERDICT OF ACCIDENTAL DEATH.

Thomas Bragg, a chiroprapist of Charlottesville, Va., and grandson of former President Zachary Taylor, who died in the Norfolk county jail at Portsmouth Friday night from dropsy and alcoholism, was buried in the potter's field last night at the city's expense.

REDUCTION OF REPRESENTATION.

WASHINGTON, November 8.—There is no authority for coupling the name of the President, with the statement published to-day that the administration is in favor of a change in the basis of, and a reduction in, the representation of the southern States in Republican national conventions and in the House of Representatives.

Who is William Haach?

POCAHONTAS, VA., November 8.—(Special.)—William Haach, who is reported to have disappeared from Wabash College, Indiana, is not from this city. He is known by those in this city who are specially interested in the location of the orphanages as working in harmony with the hope of being able to bring both here.

ROOSEVELT AND SHAW BUTTONS.

No Political Significance in Their Distribution, It is Said.

WASHINGTON, November 8.—R. H. Armstrong, private secretary to Secretary Shaw, to-day said there was no political significance whatever in the fact that a button bearing the portraits of the President and Secretary Shaw. The buttons, he said, were prepared at the time of the proposed visit of the President and Secretary Shaw to Dennison, Ia., the Secretary's home town, during the President's recent trip through the Northwest, which was unexpectedly terminated at Indianapolis. They were prepared without any thought of political significance by a non-partisan citizens' committee, and were to be given out as souvenirs of the occasion.

THE BRIDE OF "CLIFTON."

Marriage of Mr. L. S. Horner and Miss Julia S. Barry.

WARRENTON, VA., November 8.—(Special.)—A wedding of much interest and importance was that of Miss Julia S. Barry, the youngest daughter of Major R. P. Barry, to Mr. Leonard S. Horner, of New York, which was celebrated to-day at 12:30 P. M. at "Clifton," the beautiful country home of the bride's father, near Warrenton. The house was elaborately decorated with chrysanthemums and palms, while myriad lights shaded in pink shed their soft glow over the solemn ceremony. The bride was gowned in flowered chiffon over white satin. Her hair was styled with a pearl pin, and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Margaret Nelson Barry, sister of the bride, wore a creation of blue and white and carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums. Mr. Putnam A. Bates, of New York, was best man. The ushers were Mr. F. V. Henshaw and Mr. T. Towar Bates, of New York. Rev. John S. Bunting, of Wilmington, performed the ceremony. Miss Charlotte Nelson, of Warrenton, played the wedding march. A delightful breakfast was served after the ceremony.

The bride is one of the best-known horsewomen in the South, and will be greatly missed by a host of friends in this part of the country. The groom, who is a son of the late Dr. Frederick Horner, of this county, is an electrical engineer, now located in Amper, N. J. The newly-married couple will reside at East Orange, N. J. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Barry, Mr. Horace Barry, Mr. Samuel Barry, of New York; Mr. Fred C. Horner, Mrs. Frederick Horner, day. The combined loss is estimated at $150,000. The burned district covers an area of about three city blocks along the Delaware river. The British-Siam Company from India, loaded with ice-cream, was moored to McAndrews' and Forbes' wharf and was saved from destruction by the timely arrival of the Philadelphia fireboat Ashbridge, which towed her to a place of safety.

John Dougherty, firemen on the tug Ashbridge, was badly burned and was taken to the Cooper Hospital.

The origin of the fire is unknown.

Game is plentiful in this section, and affords the huntsmen fine sport. Dr. W. T. Oppenheimer, of Richmond, and Mr. E. B. Hughes bagged twenty-five partridges last Thursday.

Mr. White Hughes and a few friends claim thirty-nine partridges as the spoils of one day's hunting.

MAT. COLER KILLED.

FOOT SLIPPED AND HE FELL IN FRONT OF A TRAIN.

ACCIDENT AT PINNER'S POINT.

Important Decision in the Norfolk Police Court Concerning Gaming—Yarn Mills Chartered—Rev. Richard H. Jones Dead.

NORFOLK, VA., November 8.—(Special.) Mat Coley, lately from Williamston, N. C. was crushed to death at Pinner's Point to-day. He was crossing the tracks of the railway yard at 5:30 P. M. when his foot slipped on the wet rails and he fell. Before he could rise the train came on him and crushed his body. He was dead in a few minutes. He was a single man, and a conductor on the Atlantic Coast Line.

Carlyle Hozity, charged with running a crap or gambling table, was examined in the Police Court to-day upon the indictment recently found against him by the grand jury, and the trial resulted in the defendant's acquittal. Attorneys Jeffries and Lawless appeared for the defence.

The court decided to-day that the maintenance of crap tables is not a violation of the law as it now stands, unless the same are operated in a public place, or it is proved that more than $20 is lost or won during any twenty-four hours, or that the chances of the game are more favorable to the operator of the table than to the person playing.

This decision, counsel say, is far reaching, and one in which all sections of the State will be interested.

Judge Hankle to-day granted a charter to the Norfolk Yarn Mills, which company is to lease the old Lambert's Point knitting factory and convert the same into a yarn mill. Operations will be commenced at once, and 100 persons are to be employed. This will be good news indeed to the residents of Lambert's Point.

THE ORPHANAGE MATTER.

Council Committees Consider the Odd-Fellows Request.

LYNCHBURG, VA., November 8.—(Special.)—A meeting of the committee on finance and parks of the City Council was held at noon to-day in the office of Messrs. Caskie & Coleman, in the Law building, to consider the request of the local committee of Odd-Fellows for the donation of a site for the proposed orphanage. Mr. H. A. Robinson appeared before the committee, which after considering the matter, agreed that they would favorably recommend any reasonable donation for the purpose named in the Odd-Fellows' petition. There is at present no meeting of the City Council.

The board of trustees are coming here for the purpose of inspecting the Yeager property, the Westover Hotel, and other sites which might be suitable for an orphanage. They will be met by a local committee from Lynchburg, Lodge No. 10, and James River Lodge, No. 8.

Some extent, the matter of securing a site for the Presbyterian orphanage will have to be held over until the Odd-Fellows have determined what they are going to do, but those in this city who are specially interested in the location of the orphanages are working in harmony with the hope of being able to bring both here.

MOSES. HIGH-GRADE PIANOS. Leaders for a quarter of a century. We only handle the best known and tried makes. Every instrument that comes to our warehouses is chosen by an expert. TO ANY ONE who desires to play the piano, but has never learned to do so; to any one who HAS learned to play the piano, but would like to play the vast number of pieces which the lack of time or skill, or both, prevents them from performing; to those and to all others interested in music the Pianola is an exceedingly interesting instrument. For it is the means whereby THAT in piano-playing which has heretofore been called impossible is now successfully accomplished. All the leading makes and latest styles. Some extraordinary bargains. Organs in our warehouses are to be sold at wholesale cost. W. D. MOSES & CO., 103 EAST BROAD ST.

100 Doses For One Dollar. Economy in medicine must be measured by two things—cost and effect. It cannot be measured by either alone. It is greatest in that medicine that does the most for the money—that radically and permanently cures at the least expense. That medicine is Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies and enriches the blood, cures pimples, eczema and all eruptions, tired, languid feelings, loss of appetite and general debility. "I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and found it reliable and giving perfect satisfaction. It takes away that tired feeling, gives energy and puts the blood in good condition." Miss ETTIE COLONNE, 1535 10th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keep the promise.
