

Cohen's Tuesday Sales

are in point of fact the continuation of the "Monday special sales" to unload great stocks. On Tuesday many goods are shown, for which it is impossible to find a placing Monday, owing to the throng of buyers and piles of merchandise. Many goods, too, are late coming, and these will meet with "special sales" Tuesdays.

Here are a few sample prices of to-day's sale:

NOTES OF SOCIETY.

who will assist in receiving will be Misses Jessie Harrison, Amy McRae, Wessie Cony, Katherine Michaux, Elizabeth Brander, Elizabeth Robins, and Mrs. Archer Cook, Jr.

Mr. James Branch Cabell, of this city, who received his apprenticeship in the literary workshop of the New York Herald and afterwards in that of the Richmond News, has met with gratifying success. He abandoned newspaper work and is now recognized as a sagacious writer of short stories. In the past few weeks he has had four stories accepted, two by Harper, and two by Munsey, which are to appear in the near future. The Smart Set editors have written and asked for the privilege of having all his manuscripts submitted first to them, and have requested Mr. Cabell to write them a novel.

A reception will be held in the chapel of the Second Presbyterian church Friday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock, to which all members of the congregation are invited. The entertainment will be for the purpose of bringing new members into a better acquaintance with the entire congregation.

Among the Richmonders who will attend the marriage of Mr. Elmer Edward Stringfellow and Miss Alice Lacombe, to-morrow in Washington, D. C., are Mayor Charles S. Stringfellow, Messrs. James and Horace Stringfellow, Miss Margaret Stringfellow, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scott, Miss Edith White, Mr. Coleman Wortham, and others.

Miss Elizabeth Freeman, of Norfolk, well-known here, entertained informally at cards on Friday evening at her home in Bousch street. A game of eight hand euchre was played and a supper afterwards enjoyed. Her guests were Mrs. Alton M. Cooke, Miss Daisy Elliott, Lieutenant Crahan, J. W. Wilson, of Wilmington, Del.; Lieutenant Willis, Mr. Stansbury and Lieutenant Cooke.

Mr. N. B. Florsheim announces his engagement to Miss Minnie Kaufman, of Baltimore. She is the daughter of Mr. Wolfe Kaufman, a retired merchant. Next Sunday a reception will be held at the bride's home. Mr. Florsheim is proprietor of the Jefferson Laundry and a son of the late B. Florsheim, and lives in Westwood avenue.

Julie Eriman, the authoress, arrived in Pittsburgh Sunday, to collect material for a story of the city's iron workers, with its central figure, Pittsburgh steel magnate. The general supposition is that the steel magnate referred to by Miss Rives is Charles M. Schwab.

Miss Rives will spend a week with friends near the city, studying local characteristics. She will visit the historic old Block house point to-day, and to-morrow expects to visit Homestead and other steel mills.

Miss Emma Jackson is the guest of Mrs. William T. Freeland, of Baltimore.

At the annual meeting of the Richmond city mission, the following officers were elected: First Vice-President, Mrs. John Scholer; Second Vice-President, Mrs. A. B. Camm; Third Vice-President, Mrs. Josiah Ryland; Fourth Vice-President, Mrs. G. W. Bagby; Secretary, Mrs. C. E. Boling; Assistant Secretary, Mrs. W. L. Sadler; Treasurer, Miss Virginia Jones; Assistant Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Derbyshire. Mrs. A. Y. Stokes is president for a week.

Visitors were assigned to all except two of the thirty-three districts into which the city is divided.

Mrs. S. H. Boykin has returned from Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Boykin, who were recently married in Massachusetts, are expected here to-day, and will visit the bridegroom's mother, at 814 west Grace street.

The Woman's Christian Association has secured the services of Professor Epps, of Newport News, to give classes three times a week in the languages and English. Outsiders, as well as the inmates of the home, can take the classes.

The meeting of the Huguenot Society, which was postponed from last Thursday, will be held to-day at noon, in the lecture-room of the First Presbyterian church, Grace and Madison streets.

Mrs. Ebert G. Leigh, Jr. is visiting her old home in Orange county.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Gudebrod, of New York, are at Mrs. Leigh's, on East Franklin street.

Mr. Louis Albert Gudebrod left Saturday night for New York.

Mr. J. T. Anderson and family, who have been spending the summer and fall in Gloucester, will return to Richmond for the winter.

Mrs. Sidney Dudley, of Hampton, is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Atkinson.

Mrs. Phillip Tallafiero and Miss Evelyn McCannish, of Gloucester, have gone to Baltimore for the winter. They visited Judge Wellford's family last month.

Mrs. George Lynde and Mrs. Ellenor left yesterday for New Orleans, to attend the convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Mr. A. Lang and wife, formerly Miss Winfield, of Richmond, arrived in Norfolk last Monday and will live there in future.

Miss Emily Hannewinkel is at the city with her mother, Mr. William Hannewinkel. She will go abroad in November and spend the winter in Sicily.

Mr. and Mrs. Dabney S. Crenshaw returned Saturday from New York.

Mr. James McDonald was the guest of honor at a stag dining club party Saturday night, when wean rare bit and other dainties were consumed.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Atkinson and family have returned to the city.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Reed left Saturday for Sussex county for a week's hunt.

The many friends of Miss Elizabeth Robinson, the well-known Shakespearean teacher, will regret to know of her serious illness. She is suffering from a nervous affection and is in the care of a trained nurse.

Mrs. Campbell, of Lexington, is visiting Mrs. George K. Cannon, of west Grace street.

We are crowded every day to such an extent that we are waiting for that increased police force to have an officer detailed to keep the crowds from falling over one another to be waited on.

TO THE PUBLIC AND FRIENDS OF LEE ASHER.
I have this day, November 10, 1902, sold my ICE BUSINESS, horses, harness, wagons, etc., to my sons, Frank and Emory Asher, as I am not able to carry on the business, on account of my health. Thanking you for the past patronage, and hoping you will continue the same.

Yours truly,
LEE ASHER.
