FREDERICK COUNTY POTATOES.

Fredrick county thus far seems to beat the record for big Irish potatoes. Hon. C. W. Heater, president of the State Board of Agriculture, whose home is at Mountain, has sent to Commissioner J. W. H. Meade three splendid specimens. The largest of these weighs four and a quarter pounds, while the other two tip the scales at three and a half pounds and two and a half pounds. The largest of these potatoes is of the Late Rose variety.

The first consignment of anthracite coal to reach this city since the strike last May, six months ago, arrived here Saturday evening, and consisted of four loads, two to E. P. Murphy & Son, and two to the Richmond Ice Company. This coal is now being delivered to consumers.

The Richmond Ice Company is selling it at $10 a ton, and E. P. Murphy & Son are delivering it at $15 for a half ton, and only a half ton to each customer. Both firms say they are confident of receiving more coal this week.

GREENSBORO GOSSIP.

Street-Car Line to Be Extended—Better Mail Service.

GREENSBORO, N. C., November 10.—(Special.)—It developed to-day that the street railway in Greensboro, which has proved unexpectedly profitable, will be extended one and one-half miles from the city to White Oak Mills, the new coal plant to be built. Work is to commence very soon under the direction of H. S. Brown.

The mail service for this place and other points between Charlotte and Richmond was further improved to-day by making the local, No. 8, leaving here for Richmond at 7:30 A. M. and No. 7, arriving here from Richmond at 1:20 P. M., mail trains. Mail from Richmond will therefore hereafter get into Greensboro at 1:20 o'clock. This will greatly help the business here.

Preached About Jackson.

SCOTLAND NECK, N. C., November 10.—(Special.)—Dr. J. William Jones, who lectured here before the Confederate veterans Thursday and Friday nights, remained, and preached in the Baptist church yesterday morning. His theme was "Snowball Jackson as a Christian Soldier." A number of Confederate veterans heard him, and the congregation was greatly edified by the discourse.

HE HAS MANY WIVES AND TWO OF 'EM MET.

Queer Complication Resulting from the Meeting of the Wives of a Gay New Yorker.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., November 10.—(Special.)—After trial of five weeks, Joseph M. Brown found the wife of John Mary Julia Ruth. Brown's husband, Mary A. M. and M. M. at No. 11 Washington street, and Bertha Alexandra Brown's husband from 6 P. M. L. 6 A. M. at No. 305 north Third street, from soft spoken words, and now separated.

He had told his Brooklyn wife he must go home to his mother early every morning because she did not know he was married. Mrs. Bertha got worried over his absence, and inquiring at his place of employment, got the Washington street address as that of his mother.

There she met Mrs. Mary Julia. After mutual surprise and horror, and the crying spells were over, the two wives began to quarrel, and in a common law suit against the double-faced Joseph M. Brown.

The story was told to Captain Reynolds, of the Brooklyn detective bureau, of how the absent Brown had married Mary Julia Ruth in May 1892, and how May 18th, 1899, he had taken Miss Bertha Alexandra to Rev. William Hamilton, of south Third street Methodist church and married her.

An anonymous postal card to one of the wives said Brown was in Illinois, and later on Captain Reynolds was informed that Brown was under arrest and waiting extradition on the charge of bigamy, prepared by depositions taken in New York. But before extradition proceedings could be arranged, Brown was released.

On the testimony of the two wives, and corroborated by neighbors of the two establishments maintained by John M. Brown, divorce was awarded to Mary Julia Ruth Brown by Justice Marcellus M. Mrs. Bertha Alexandra Brown expects to secure an annulment of marriage to him in suit brought by William H. Chiroch.

A WHACK AT SALOONS

A MOVEMENT WHICH PROPOSES TO CUT DOWN HALF THEIR NUMBER.

BE UP TO ALDERMEN TO-NIGHT

Only Native Born and Naturalized Citizens to Be Eligible to Obtain Liquor License—Screens to Be Taken Down and Bars Closed Early.

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen this evening, resolutions will be offered in the name of the board requesting the members of the General Assembly from this city to introduce legislation at the forthcoming session of that body with a view to limiting the number of saloons in the city of Richmond to one for each 500 of the population. The proposed legislation will also include a provision for early closing, not later than 12 midnight, and the removal of screens from before the bars.

The author of these proposed resolutions, when seen yesterday and requested to furnish the details of his measure said that he had not as yet reduced them to their final shape to be offered to the Board, and some of the minor details might be subject to change. He therefore, preferred not to give the matter in detail until it came up before the body. He would say, however, that the proposition was along the line suggested by the police board as best enacting them to enforce the existing laws and not intended to impose additional penalties or hardships on the saloon men, of course, but intended to be penalties for the breaches of the various provisions of the law.

FEWER SALOONS.

The chief feature of the measure, of course, would be the limitation of the number of saloons. One saloon for 500 inhabitants would be about 100 saloons for over 50,000 population, as against some 250 saloons that now are understood to exist here. He was asked if the measure was intended to apply to Richmond only, to which he replied: "Yes, it was proposed for the saloon men, of course, but it is intended to be constitutional objection as special legislation."

"Possibly it might," he replied, "but that question would not be brought out on the floor of the Legislature."

"If necessary," he continued, "the cities could be classified according to population and Richmond be legislated for as one of a class."

"The measure as I shall propose it," the author of the proposed resolutions added, "will prohibit granting licenses to any but native and naturalized citizens of the United States. I do not propose as a reformer, but my object is to bring about a legislation that will enable saloons to be controlled without so much friction or imposing unnecessary hardships."

SAYS MORGAN DOESN'T CONTROL SOUTHERN.

Remarkable Avowal Made to Interstate Commission in Response to Declaration of Kentucky Commission.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 10.—(Special.)—Edwin Colston, of Cincinnati, general counsel for the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas-Pacific Railway Company, and J. M. Dickinson, of Chicago, general counsel for the Illinois Central Railroad Company, have made answer to the complaint of the Railroad Commission of Kentucky against the Southern, Louisville and Nashville, and other railroads, which is to the effect that the roads in question, under the leadership of J. P. Morgan & Company, have entered into a combination for the purpose of controlling the commerce of several Southern States.

The Illinois Central denies that the railroads mentioned cover all the important railroad points and all the railroad lines within the territory south of Baltimore, Louisville and the Ohio river to the Gulf of Mexico and eastwardly to the Mississippi river to the Atlantic ocean.

It denies also that J. P. Morgan & Co. have become in effect legal owners of the railroads owned, controlled, or operated by it. It denies, furthermore, that the roads in the territory mentioned are to become one system, dominated by a few individuals, and avers that so far as it is concerned, it is absolutely independent of its several co-defendants, and is a party to no such agreement or combination as the one alleged by the Kentucky Railroad Commission. It has entered into no agreement to prevent competition, pool freights, or enter into a joint ownership or joint control. Mr. Dickinson's statement is subscribed to by Stuyvesant Fish, president of the Illinois Central railroad.

The answer of Edward Colston, on behalf of the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas-Pacific, is subscribed to by W. J. Murphy, general manager of the road, and is much to the same effect, with additional charges denying that "the combination" exists, which it denies, all competition will be destroyed or removed, or that traffic upon the roads in question, within the territory named, under a single hand and by the operations of a single company, will be moved over one or other of said lines.

In conclusion, asking for dismissal of the petition, Mr. Colston says: "And it is respectfully submitted that said avowal does not show any violation of any law of the United States; that there is no law, so far as this respondent is advised, either of the United States, or any of the several States mentioned in the petition, which forbids the same person or firm from holding stock in two or more railroads."

and also with Senator Morgan, the senior member of the minority of the same committee. Canal matters were under discussion and the Secretary was able to show them substantial progress making toward the completion of a treaty with the Colombian Government conveying the necessary rights for the construction of a canal across the isthmus of Panama.

In fact, so well have the negotiations proceeded lately between Secretary Hay and Senator Concha, the Colombian Minister, that it is now expected that by the end of the present week all of the phases of the proposition will have been disclosed, and little will remain to be done to conclude the convention.

It can be stated that the attitude of the Colombian negotiators place no insurmountable obstacle, and that a treaty can be framed, acceptable to both sides, yet in strict conformity with the spirit of the Spooner act.

COLLECTOR BINGHAM REMOVED FROM OFFICE

He Had Too Much to Do With Excluding Negroes from the Alabama Republican Convention.

WASHINGTON, November 10.—Julian H. Bingham, collector of internal revenue for the district of Alabama, has been removed from his office, and Joseph O. Thompson appointed to succeed him. The reason for his removal is a political one, which recently arose in Alabama.

Colored Republicans were excluded from participation in the Republican State Convention, and Collector Bingham was held responsible, at least in a measure, for this exclusion.

Thomas H. General Payne visited the White House to-day, and as he left he issued a statement denying the reasons for his change.

"The change in the office of collector of internal revenue for the district of Alabama in no wise reflects upon the integrity of Mr. Bingham, the incumbent of the office. It is one of those changes which are occasionally made in political positions taken by the Republicans of Alabama, at their recent State convention, and which are not the fault of the Republican party, and Mr. Bingham is in no way responsible for that action; hence the change."

"Neither a candidate for the Republican party of the North will stand for the exclusion of any section of our people by reason of their race or color, which in other respects such persons have complied with the laws and are eligible under the law to hold office and to be elected to a high position of personal character. In other words, there are a few hundred colored men in Alabama who are eligible to the requirements of the recently adopted constitution, and are eligible for participation in political affairs. It is the duty of the Republican State convention referred to, in arbitrarily excluding them, is not approved; no more than such action would be approved if it were taken in Ohio or Indiana."

Mr. Thompson, the appointee, is a brother of Representative Thompson, of Alabama. He is a Republican, although his brother represents a Democratic district.

The President has appointed John S. Webb postmaster at Tusagee, Ala., vice Joseph O. Thompson, appointed collector of internal revenue of Alabama.

Spanish Cabinet Resigns.

MADRID, November 10.—Premier Sagasta to-day tendered to King Alfonso XIII. his resignation as cabinet minister.

The King will decide whether he will accept the ministers' resignations. The reports will be returned to the King, and will suspend its sitting until it is solved. Should the King accord a continuance of his confidence in Premier Sagasta, the ministry will be modified, and probably the ministers of war, marine, and justice will be sacrificed.

Lottery Cases December 8th.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 10.—Chief Justice Fuller, in the Supreme Court, to-day, announced that the two cases of Char. A. Champion and John Francis, involving the right to transmit lottery tickets by express, will be argued to the docket of the court for argument before a full bench and set the hearing for December 8th.

Another Balloon Experiment.

LONDON, November 10.—Rev. J. M. Bacon, the aeronaut, accompanied by official representatives of the naval and military authorities, ascended in a balloon from Douglass, Isle of Man, to-day, with the object of crossing the Channel. The balloon is fitted with a sail and a trial rope for purposes of steering. The gunboat Renard is following the balloon so as to be of assistance in case of mishap. The balloon started in a northeasterly direction.

Packing Employees on Strike.

CHICAGO, ILL., November 10.—Seven hundred employees of the Hammond Packing Company went on strike to-day, compelling the company to live up to an agreement entered into some time ago with the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butchers' Workmen's Union. The strikers claim that the company has not lived up to its agreement for a uniform wage scale, and the strike was precipitated by the discovery that many of the men had been underpaid Saturday night.

NEW JERSEY DECISIONS.

Question Raised With Respect to Excise Boards.

TRENTON, N. J., November 10.—This was opinion day in the Supreme Court. A large number of cases were decided, only a few being of general importance.

Of more interest than any of the decisions was a query raised by the court in declaring unconstitutional the act under which Camden elected an excise board of five members, not more than three of whom could belong to one political party.

The court sustained the ordinance of Hoboken, prohibiting saloon-keepers from having bar-maids, and sustained also recent litigation authorizing counties to acquire fresh-water lakes for public fishing grounds.

DWYER DECISION AFFIRMED.

Constitutionality of State Parole Law Not Passed Upon.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 10.—The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decision of the Supreme Court of Illinois in the case of Edward W. Dwyer, formerly a member of the West Chicago Park Commission, charged with having failed to turn over to his successor $3,000 of public funds. He was found guilty under this charge and sentenced to a term in State prison. The case was then brought to the Federal Supreme Court, on a writ of error, on the ground that the punishment was in violation of the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States, in that he was to be deprived of liberty without due process of law. Several points were involved in the case, the principal one being the constitutionality of the parole law of the state of Illinois. The court did not pass upon this point, beyond pronouncing the opinion that as no Federal question is involved in it, the court is without jurisdiction. The opinion was delivered by Justice Harlan.

Inter-Collegiate Chess Match.

NEW YORK, November 10.—The annual chess match between the chess clubs of Columbia and Yale universities, was played at the Mannatt Chess Club on Saturday evening, and when play was concluded the teams were tied, each side having won four games, and drawn one.

While one game, to decide the match, will have to be adjudicated. This game was played on board No. 6, where the Columbia player Schroeder won a pawn in the course of the game and held it to the end. On this pawn depends the issue of the match, and the adjudicator will have to say whether or not the pawn which has been destroyed by the Columbia player is sufficient to win the game for Columbia.

The Yale winners were Sawin, Hull, Hall, and Chandler, and the Columbia winners were Shenshine, Tucker, Barshol, and Tolchinsky. Barclay, of Yale, and Solow, of Columbia, drew.

CASTRO ENTERS CARACAS.

Flight of the Armies of the Revolution Continues.

CARACAS, VENEZUELA, November 10.—President Castro made a triumphant official entry into Caracas yesterday, at the head of 3,200 troops, amidst the ringing of bells and a display of fireworks. President Castro reached Los Teques on LaVictoria Saturday, without having encountered any revolutionists on the way there, and left Los Teques Sunday for Caracas by train, over the German railroad, the bridges along the line which had been destroyed by the revolutionists having been repaired.

The flight of the armies of the revolution continues. Not even the Caracas Revolutionary Committee can explain the cause of the split among the leaders of the movement, or say what has become of about 10,000 soldiers who were under arms as late as November 2d. The government officials believe General Matos has gone in the direction of Tucacas (a seaport on the Caribbean sea, twenty-five miles from Puerto Cabello).

President Castro intends to re-occupy Coro, Barinas, Ciudad Bolivar, and Cumana immediately. He has ordered he sent 1,500 men, under General Leopoldo Baptista, to attack Coro.

Communication between Caracas, Valencia, and Puerto Cabello is re-established.

STRONG ANTI-CHURCH MOVEMENT IN MEXICO.

A Government Organ Suggests That Churches Be Sold to Pay Amount of Plus Claims.

CITY OF MEXICO, November 10.—(Special.)—There is a strong anti-church movement on foot here which is backed by "El Imparcial," the anti-clerical organ of the Diaz administration, which contains radical articles against Catholic interests.

"El Imparcial," commenting on the Hague treaty against the Republic of Mexico and in favor of the United States in the Plus claim, ventures the suggestion that, as all the Catholic churches of Mexico are the property of the State, which the church of Rome is "suffered to occupy without payment of any impost whatever to the republic," a few of these edifices might now well be sold by the Minister of Finance to raise funds to enable the government to cancel the amount awarded to the United States as representative of the claimants in this Plus case before the Hague International Tribunal of Arbitration and Friendly Settlement.

The proposition suggested, is, however, being bitterly opposed by the clerical and more conservative press of Mexico in general, and it is doubtful if the government will seriously consider such radical action unless it shall develop that the position of "El Imparcial" and other anti-clerical elements have a strong backing among the people.

It is hinted that the suggestion has been put forth with the consent, if not at the suggestion of the government, as a feeler so as to gauge public sentiment before the matter is really seriously considered. Officials will not admit that such action has been contemplated.
