

CRAZE FOR GUNNING.

MANUFACTURERS OF GUNS CAN NOT KEEP PACE WITH ORDERS. DEMAND FOR BETTER GRADES. Indication of General Prosperity—Every Class Making Plans for Spending the Holidays in the Woods With Dog and Firearms.

Gunning this year is almost a craze. The number of guns estimated to have been sold since September 1st by the firm of A. B. Clark & Son is 15 double-barreled, and 400 with the single barrel, the latter design being most popular with the former who purchase shot-guns for their own use.

More ammunition this season has been sold, it is said, than any two consecutive seasons previous. So great is the demand on the manufacturers that they have now notified the dealers that orders placed this week will not receive their attention until the latter part of January. The general shortage is due to the Cuban war and the burning of powder stores. Dealers, however, expected this condition, and have stored on hand a large supply.

EVERY CLASS INFECTED. Almost every class of people this year, it is said, are taking a few days from work to get into the country to hunt game. Now they go after partridges, turkeys, and rabbits, mostly. The fact that so many are going, and that nearly all desire to own their own instrument of death, indicates general prosperity. Business men have systematized their daily affairs so that they can leave town, and employees of Trigg's Shipyards and the Locomotive Works are preparing to spend their Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays in their old homes in the mountains of Virginia, West Virginia, and North Carolina. Gentlemen are hunting this season who for eight years have remained quiescent. The murderous instinct is predominant.

SPORTSMEN DEMAND A BETTER GRADE OF GUN THIS SEASON. The average now runs between $15 and $25. Some of the implements, however, sold for $50, and even more. Same this year is plentiful, and as yet is not wary of the hunters.

THE TRIGG SHIP-YARDS.

What Vice-President Myers Says About His Trip to New York. In answer to a query as to what news, if any there was, with regard to the rumored sale of the Trigg ship-yards, pronounced to Vice-President Libburn T. Myers yesterday on his return from New York, he said: "I have just returned from New York, having been called there on various matters of the company's business. "I regret that I am not in position to give any information upon the subject of the reported sale of our plant to the United States Shipbuilding Company. On the occasion of his recent visit here, at the time of the Horse Show, Mr. Nixon visited our works and seemed interested and favorably impressed. I have no doubt that Mr. Nixon would consider our plant as a valuable addition to his company."

PISTOL'S CRUEL WORK

YOUNG SAM DAVIS SHOT AT VINTON WITHOUT PROVOCATION. ACT OF UNKNOWN ROWDIES. It is Feared That the Lad's Injuries May Prove Fatal—Course of the Bullet—Those Roonoke Cows—The Week in Bedford—Personals.

It is Feared That the Lad's Injuries May Prove Fatal—Course of the Bullet—Those Roonoke Cows—The Week in Bedford—Personals. BEDFORD CITY, VA., November 22.—(Special).—Mrs. E. D. Gregory was summoned this week to Vinton on account of a very serious accident to her nephew Sam Davis, the eldest son of her brother, Mr. George W. Davis, who about two years ago left this place to engage in business in Roanoke, and moved his family to Vinton to reside. The circumstances that caused the accident, if such it was, afford so eloquent an object lesson as to the necessity for the rigid enforcement of the law forbidding minors to carry pistols, that they may prove of general interest, and contain a moral.

HOW IT OCCURRED. Last Sunday evening Sam Davis, who is a bright, attractive youth of about 16, in company with a friend, accompanied two girls home from church in town and then turned to retrace their steps home. It being not quite 9 o'clock, as they were quietly walking through what is known as the West-End of the little village a party of youths appeared from behind a fence and began throwing stones and then there were heard upon the quiet Sabbath night air the sharp reports of three pistol shots. In the darkness the persons who threw the stones, and fired the shots were not recognized, but Sam received a stinging blow from what he thought was a sharp stone, and when it became known that he was hurt, the attacking party fled. Sam then walked to his home, the blood flowing profusely from the wound, and it was many hours before it could be stanchied. Next morning medical aid was secured from Roanoke, and the physicians pronounced the wound a very serious one, the skull being fractured, as was supposed the spine and been injured.

Wednesday the doctors decided that an operation would be necessary, and he was carried to the city hospital of Roanoke, where a most difficult and delicate operation was performed by several prominent physicians of the city. It was found that the wound had been inflicted by a .32-calibre ball from a pistol, which had struck the skull on the right side and been split by the bone, one half of which had been deflected. The other half, with a part of his cap and hair had penetrated through the skull to the brain, causing a very dangerous wound.

The operation was apparently an entire success and the youth at last accounts was resting quietly at the hospital and the physicians are hopeful of his recovery. For the heedless ruffianism of a party of thoughtless young men a bright young life now hangs in the balance, and his family are plunged in terrible anxiety and suspense while heavy expenses involuntarily are being incurred. There was no enforcement of law, and indiscriminate pistol handling permitted. Thus far no steps have been taken to discover the author of the cowardly deed, which was perhaps committed with no intention of injury, but was the outcome of criminal rowdiness.

The youth who was injured is of slenderly built nature and was not known to have any enemies. THOSE ROANOKE COWS AGAIN. To a looker-on the privilege accorded the persons who in Roanoke afford so much amusement in from a family grocery on a business street a cow was seen quietly helping herself to the contents of a large basket of fruit or vegetables, undisturbed by the passers by on the wheel of business or onward rush of the electric car, which was a picture of domestic comfort was viewed. Sometimes when a group of cows become engaged in deep bovine converse upon the car track, it becomes necessary to stop the car, and politely invite them to disperse so that the conveyance may proceed upon its journey.

So mild and balmy has been the season that nature is masquerading as spring. Lilacs and jonnquils are blooming and in sheltered spots strawberries are ripening. The electric car, which has had days of rain and cloudiness, has again come out bright and warm, and there is another suspension of making fires, a sort of reprieve on the heat question that has proved so painful a subject to ponder.

HERE AND THERE.

There is much satisfaction that Rev. J. W. Shackford and Rev. R. B. Scott have been returned to their charges in Bedford by the conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. The Rev. Mr. Shackford is being laid by the Norfolk and Western railway has been accepted to Ironville, east of the Blue Ridge Springs, and large forces of hands are at work along the line of the road preparing the roadbed for the new track. Much of the course is blasted through solid rock, and the work is slow and laborious. The friends of Rev. E. E. Lane will be pleased to learn that he has recovered from an attack of fever and is again able to appear on the streets. Lieutenant William Griffin, son of the Major and Mrs. S. Griffin, has been promoted to a first lieutenancy or artillery in the United States army and is stationed at Fort Leavenworth, Kas. Lieutenant Griffin served in the army during the war in Cuba, and gained signal distinction for his gallantry as a civil engineer in constructing bridges in the Philippines. His many friends and school comrades will tender him congratulations for his promotion in his chosen profession, the army. Miss Alberta Williams, of Richmond, is the guest of Mrs. W. H. Griffin, who is coming to participate in the wedding ceremony of Mr. J. W. Hurt and Miss Annie S. Mosby, next Wednesday evening at St. John's Episcopal church. Mrs. Thomas H. Marshall has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Snellings, at Manassas, Va. Miss Fannie Upshur is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. A. Hatcher. Mrs. William Gibbons, of Giles county, is the guest of Mrs. J. R. Summerson.

THAT'S A FOXY RIVAL.

Alleged He Had the Other Fellow Arrested on Serious Charge. NEWARK, N. J., November 22.—(Special).—Maurice Sherlock was arrested today on a charge of embezzlement preferred by George W. Ware, secretary of the American Realty Company, of New York, for which Sherlock is agent at Elizabeth. The specific charge covers only $22.50. Sherlock is very indignant over his arrest, and explains it as being due to jealousy on the part of Ware, the secretary and he having been attentive to the same young woman. "It is a move to make me look like a thief in her eyes," he said, "he is to be headquartered." "It is a conspiracy to ruin me so that Ware can marry her, but the end of this thing will show a different front." Mr. Cohen, president of the company, who notified of the arrest of Sherlock and the charge, exclaimed: "Why this is an outrage. It should never have taken place."

Miss Susie Pleasant's Morris' school in the West End has assumed such proportions as to force her into larger quarters.

GUATEMALA TRAGEDY

DIRECTLY CONTRADICTIONARY ACCOUNTS OF THE KILLING. AMERICAN COLONY INDIGNANT. Dead Man Said to Have Had No Chance to Defend Himself—On Other Hand, Minister Hunter Makes Fitzgerald the Aggressor.

GUATEMALA CITY, Friday, November 22.—In the case of William A. Fitzgerald, of Grand Rapids, Mich., who was shot and instantly killed yesterday, by W. Godfrey Hunter, Jr., son of the United States minister, Hunter fired the shots from behind Fitzgerald, with James O. Bailey, of Kentucky, secretary of the legation here, standing by, with a drawn revolver. Both then ran away with their revolvers in hand. They were arrested, but are now at liberty, through Minister Hunter's claiming immunity for them. It is asserted that Fitzgerald had no chance to defend himself, and that he was an inoffensive man. The lives of the Hunters and that of Bailey are threatened by indignant Americans.

CONFLICTING REPORTS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 22.—The State Department to-day received reports from Dr. Hunter, minister at Guatemala City, and Consul-General McNally, at the same place, regarding the case of Godfrey Hunter, Jr., and Secretary Bailey of the American legation there, who were parties to the shooting affray resulting in the death of William Fitzgerald. Mr. McNally's latest advice give the official aspect of a shocking and cold-blooded murder, making it appear that Secretary Bailey was a party to the shooting, and up Fitzgerald with a revolver in front, while Hunter shot the man from behind. Minister Hunter's statement is a flat contradiction of this report. He says that his son, Godfrey, and Secretary Bailey, while sitting on a bench in a public park, were attacked by Fitzgerald, who struck young Hunter and snapped a pistol, which fell to explode. Hunter thereupon shot and killed him.

CONSPIRACY ALLEGED.

The existence of a conspiracy between members of the American colony, including Consul-General McNally, is charged by Dr. Hunter. It is known here that a bitter personal feud has existed for several years between Dr. Hunter and Mr. McNally. The State Department will want to hear from the Guatemalan government before taking any action in the matter.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 22.—

Touching the case of Godfrey Hunter, Jr., and Mr. Bailey, secretary of the American legation at Guatemala City, who were parties to the shooting affray resulting in the death of William Fitzgerald yesterday, the State Department takes the ground that if the Guatemalan law had been violated in the killing of Fitzgerald, it is for the Guatemalan government to take the initiative in the prosecution of any guilty parties. It is stated that if Hunter and Bailey are exempt from the operation of Guatemalan law, they will not be held liable for the shooting. They cannot be tried in the United States for an offense committed in a foreign country, even though the victim were an American citizen.

DEAD MEN DON'T DRINK.

This the Opinion Expressed by a New York Doctor. NEW YORK, November 22.—(Special).—"Never during my experience," said coroner's physician Philip F. O'Hanlon, in testifying before Justice Greenbaum and a jury in the Supreme Court to-day, "have I heard of a dead man drinking whiskey, and I consider that for a corpse to do so would be an impossibility."

The suit was that of Hugh Keogh, who said the Metropolitan Street Railway Company to recover $20,000 damages for the loss of his brother, Owen Keogh, who was killed by a trolley car last February 21. One Hundred and Thirty-fourth street, O'Hanlon testified that Keogh died from a fracture of the skull, and that at the time of the accident he was suffering from acute alcoholism, naming as one of the proofs the inflamed condition of his stomach. "Could this not have been caused by pouring a bottle of whiskey into the dead man's mouth, after death?" counsel for the plaintiff asked. It was this question that brought the physician's reply that dead men cannot drink whiskey. The jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant.

SWEATBOX CRAZED HIM.

Michael T. Sullivan After the Ordeal Committed Suicide. NEW YORK, November 22.—(Special).—Alphonse Darcy, of No. 92 Bowery, today identified the body of Michael T. Sullivan in the Brooklyn morgue. Darcy said Sullivan came from South Boston.

Fibroid Tumors Cured.

A distressing case of Fibroid Tumor, which baffled the skill of Boston doctors. Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, Mass., in the following letter tells how she was cured, after everything else failed, by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Hayes' First Letter Appealing to Mrs. Pinkham for Help.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been under Boston doctors' treatment for a long time without any relief. They tell me I have a fibroid tumor. I cannot sit down without great pain, and the soreness extends up my spine. I have bearing-down pains both back and front. My abdomen is swollen, and I have had flowing spells for three years. My appetite is not good. I cannot walk or be on my feet for any length of time. The symptoms of Fibroid Tumor given in your little book accurately describe my case, so I write to you for advice."—(Signed) Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass.

Note the result of Mrs. Pinkham's advice—although she advised Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, to take her medicine—which she knew would help her—her letter contained a mass of additional instructions as to treatment, all of which helped to bring about the happy result.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Sometime ago I wrote to you describing my symptoms and asked your advice. You replied, and I followed all your directions carefully, and to-day I am a well woman. The use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound entirely expelled the tumor and strengthened my whole system. I can walk miles now."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth five dollars a drop. I advise all women who are afflicted with tumors or female trouble of any kind to give it a faithful trial."—(Signed) Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass.

Mountains of gold could not purchase such testimony—or take the place of the health and happiness which Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought to Mrs. Hayes.

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands without a peer as a remedy for all the distressing ills of women; all ovarian troubles; tumors; inflammations; ulceration, falling and displacements of the womb; backache; irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation. Surely the volume and character of the testimonial letters we are daily printing in the newspapers can leave no room for doubt.

Mrs. Hayes at her above address will gladly answer any letters which sick women may write for fuller information about her illness. Her gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so genuine and heartfelt that she thinks no trouble is too great for her to take in return for her health and happiness.

Truly it is said that it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that is curing so many women, and no other medicine; don't forget this when some druggist wants to sell you something else.

$5000 FOREFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

that the dead man had jumped from the Brooklyn bridge on the afternoon of November 5th. His wife and mother lived together in Boston and were in comfortable circumstances. He was a never-to-well character, and knocked around the country, never staying long in any place. At one time Sullivan was employed as a waiter in Newark and was arrested by the police, who suspected him of complicity in the murder of a young woman. He established his entire innocence, after an ordeal in the "sweet-box," which it is alleged, unscathed his mind and made of him a dangerous maniac. "Could this not have been caused by pouring a bottle of whiskey into the dead man's mouth, after death?" counsel for the plaintiff asked. It was this question that brought the physician's reply that dead men cannot drink whiskey. The jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant.
