The students of the dental department of the Medical College of Virginia attended the funeral in a body, and the Dental Infirmary was closed out of respect to Dr. Atkinson.

The body of Mrs. Mary Courtney Snyder, wife of Mr. W. F. Snyder, who died in Newark, N. J., last Monday, reached here yesterday evening, and was carried to the residence of her son, Mr. Clarence E. Snyder, No. 115 east Clay street, from which place the funeral will take place this morning at 11 o'clock.

BODY IN THE RIVER.

An Unknown Negro Fished Out Yesterday Morning.

The body of an unknown negro man was discovered in the river near the end of the Free bridge, on the Manchester side, by a white man named David Hood yesterday morning. He succeeded in fastening the rope about the body and dragged it to shore, where he left it and notified the coroner.

Since the body had not been taken from the water Coroner Taylor was sent for, and after viewing it had it sent to the colored almshouse.

The body could not be identified, and so one has called for it, nor has any absence been reported. Its condition denoted that it had been in the water for some time.

SPECIAL FOOT-BALL TRAINS.

The Chapel Hill Rooters Will Be Here in Force.

Arrangements have been perfected by the Southern railroad to bring the North Carolina football team and friends to this city by special train for the Thanksgiving football game. This special will leave Chapel Hill, N. C., at 6 A. M., on the morning of the 27th, and will arrive here shortly after noon. It is expected that from 50 to 300 people will take advantage of this fast train to attend the game.

Orders have been issued to have this train made up from the most modern comfortable cars on account of the high-class patronage. This train will leave here going south at midnight, arriving in Chapel Hill during the early morning.

In addition to this special there will be a number of other trains from North Carolina and Virginia points, all of which are expected to handle large crowds of spectators for the hot game. Many of these traveling towards RICHMOND from Charlotte, Winston-Salem, and all intermediate stations in North Carolina and Virginia points, all of which have been attracted to make the trip on account of the greatly reduced rates.

FARLEY VS. THALHIMER.

The Jury Renders a Verdict in Favor of the Defendant.

The jury in the city circuit court in the case of Ellen J. Farley vs. Moses Thalhimer, this morning returned a verdict for the defendant and a judgment was entered against the plaintiff for costs.

The suit was for $10,000 for damages alleged to have been sustained by reason of the charge made by the defendant that Miss Farley had stolen several small articles from Mr. Thalhimer.

A motion was made to set the verdict of the jury aside, and when this was denied the suit was given an appeal. The plaintiff's attorneys were given the remainder of the term in which to file their bills of exception on which to base an appeal.

Catarrh

Invites Consumption

It weakens the delicate lung tissues, deranges the digestive organs, and breaks down the general health.

It often causes headache and dizziness, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, and affects the voice.

Being a constitutional disease it requires a constitutional remedy.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Radically and permanently cures catarrh of the nose, throat, stomach, bowels, and more delicate organs.

Read the testimonials.

No substitute for Hood's acts like Hood's. Be sure to get Hood's.

"I was troubled with catarrh 20 years. Seeing statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla resolved to try it. Four bottles entirely cured me." WILLIAM SHERMAN, 1030 8th St., Milwaukee, Wis.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

CLOTHING FOR POOR

Appeal Through the Institute for Christian Work.

The Institute for Christian Work has decided on Thanksgiving Day for wardrobe day. By that is meant that the workers appeal for donations of clothing of any and all kinds, for men, women and children, to be sent in that day, to be used by the large and capable body of adobe whose names appear below, for distribution among the poor.

Last winter, hundreds of articles were given through this institution to the suffering, including overcoats, cloaks and wraps, underwear, shoes, etc. It is hoped there will be a general response to this appeal to the superintendent of the institute, or to any one of the following ladies:

Mrs. R. E. Michaels, Miss Rebecca Jardwickie, Mrs. William McEain, Miss Jennie Jones, Miss Louie Doggett, Mrs. George H. Wiley, Mrs. W. E. Dibble, Mrs. Herbert Dalton, Mrs. A. C. Becker, Mrs. N. H. Forbes, Mrs. Michie, Mrs. Jane Ball, Mrs. William Lyman, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Webb, Miss Lizzie McKie, Miss Emma Thomas, Mrs. Walter Davis, Miss Emily Ayers, Miss Kate Buford, Miss Irene Barber, Miss Linda Jeter, Miss Alice Mitchell, Mrs. T. Nuckolls, Mrs. Croer.

Let those who would give to the wardrobe send through phone or mail to any one of the committee and the superintendent of the institute will send for them on Thanksgiving Day. Denominations are not regarded in the work of the institute.

Alleged Horse Thief Captured.

John St. John, an alleged horse thief, was arrested yesterday by Officer Wyatt, of the city, and Officer Rogers, of the county, and locked in the county jail.

The man was caught just as he was entering a saloon on east Franklin street.

Last Saturday night the horse of Mrs. St. John, on Brook road, disappeared, and complaint was made to the police, who took up the matter yesterday.

The man who took up the matter yesterday, who took up the matter yesterday, had done all in their power, but with no avail. The whole of the young man's body is paralyzed.

Mrs. Felicia Rice, the widow of John Rice, was paralyzed while stirring about her hotel on Saturday. Mrs. Rice has passed her three-score and ten, but up to Saturday had been wonderfully active and agile. She has been the proprietress of the large hotel here since her husband's death, twelve years ago. She has done most of the enormous amount of work with her own hands, and taken all in all, is one of the most wonderful of women.

Her son, John Rice, of East River, reached here Sunday morning. Her condition is considered serious.

Portrait is Presented.

Likeness of Judge Atkins to Adorn Hastings Court Room.

The family of the late Judge Thomas S. Atkins, of the Hastings Court, presented yesterday morning to the court a portrait of the dead jurist.

Judge L. L. Lewis presented the picture for the jury, and it was accepted by Judge Witt.

The session of the court was opened as usual with but a few chance spectators in the room.

After the jury had taken seats in the box for the work of the day, Judge Lewis who was in the bar, arose and asked leave to present the portrait. He said he had been honored by the family in being requested to formally present the portrait, and it was not his purpose to make an oration, because he did not think the time opportune.

The judge paid a high tribute to the memory of the departed jurist and characterized him as a man of many excellent qualities. "As a friend," he said, "he was warm-hearted, and as a jurist, always faithful, fearless and efficient. He was a remarkable man and possessed wonderful qualities as a judge. No man ever presided in a court in Virginia more acceptably than he, and when he retired, he left a name which will stand as a monument of respect and confidence rarely seen."

He referred to his conduct on the bench in the famous boycott and Cluverius cases, recalling how the work of Judge Atkins in these cases was favorably commended throughout the world.

In accepting the portrait of the court, Judge Witt acquitted himself in his characteristic manner. He said it was with peculiar pleasure that he had accepted the portrait on behalf of the camp, because he was the commonwealth's attorney during the six years Judge Atkins was on the bench. He, too, paid glowing tribute to the memory of the departed jurist and said he could make no better wish for the bench of the Old Dominion than that it should emulate the life and character of the man who was thus being honored.

Judge Witt said the portrait would be hung on the walls of the court-room along with others who preceded Judge Atkins.

The picture, which is said to be an excellent likeness, is the work of O. S. Morton, of this city.

LYNCHBURG CONCERN ASSIGNS.

Clark Hardware Company Quits Business.

LYNCHBURG, Va., November 25.—(Special.)—The Clark Hardware Company, wholesale and retail dealers in hardware, this afternoon filed a deed of assignment for the benefit of its creditors. William W. Wilson, Jr., is named as trustee.

The deed provides first for the payment of the claims of the creditors, second, for the rent and third for all creditors without enumerating them.

The deed includes resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors to the effect that the impatient claims of creditors, in the opinion of the directors, rendered an assignment necessary. The resolutions also express the belief that the assets will cover the liabilities. It is said the liabilities will aggregate between $42,000 and $48,000.

Drowning at Morehead City.

MOREHEAD CITY, N. C., November 25.—(Special.)—The body of a young man was recovered from a severe southwest squall at 2 o'clock this afternoon. All the occupants were saved, except Dan Benson (colored), who was drowned within fifty yards of the railroad depot here. The body has not yet been recovered.

HE WAS HUMILIATED.

An Old Confederate Soldier Locked Up Charged With Drunkenness.

Confined in one of the iron cells at the Third police station last night was Mr. Fred Sherwood, who lives at No. 321 west Main street and is a painter by trade, being employed by the Traction Company. Mr. Sherwood is an old Confederate soldier, and is 65 years of age. He was arrested on the charge of being drunk.

It was possible to see the old man, as he stood behind the bars. He was deeply mortified at being locked up, and wept copiously while he talked. He said he was an old soldier and a law-abiding citizen and had never been in such a place before. He denied that he had been or was drunk.

At the request of the officer in charge, Captain Whitlock gave his consent that the old gentleman be discharged, and he left the station expressing his thanks while tears rolled down his wrinkled cheeks.

"Crematory" Arrested.

John Harris alias "Crematory," was arrested Monday night in a cook-shop at the corner of Twentieth and Main streets by Officer Rogers, of the county force. Harris is a bad negro, and is wanted on several charges of felony. His arrest was fortunate.

A BRIGS MUTINIOUS CREW.

Trouble in Hampton Roads—Attempted Suicide—The Barton Divorce.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 25.—(Special.)—Deputy United States Marshal West left here on a tug at 2 o'clock this afternoon for Hampton Roads to arrest five members of the crew of the New York brig Jennie Hulbert, under command of Captain Veazie, upon the charge of refusing duty and mutinous conduct.

The brig Hulbert, which is bound from Maricao, Venezuela, to New York with asphalt, arrived here a week ago.

The crew, which is from New York, refused to sail the vessel out of Hampton Roads before they were paid off, and Captain Veazie sent to New York for the vessel's owners, Pendleton Bros., to come here. F. S. Pendleton arrived this afternoon and warrants were secured from Federal Judge Waddill. Those of the crew to be arranged are J. Vannorton, Oscar Anderson, James E. Butler, L. Bengston and Herman Grand.

Grace Taylor, of 128 Washington street, attempted to commit suicide this morning by taking an anesthetic tablet. Physicians saved her life.

Mrs. Annie Gordon Hunt, of Oxford, N. C., died at Norfolk Protestant Hospital last night. The body was sent to Oxford to-day.

J. M. Barton has filed an answer and cross bill to a suit for divorce, brought by his wife, Elizabeth J. Barton, of Philadelphia. The question of temporary alimony was continued.

The injunction against Frank Jacobs and brother, in the Beerman bankruptcy case, was by consent to-day dissolved.

CONDITION OF RICHARD CLARKE in Northumberland.

HEATHSVILLE, Va., Monday, November 24.—(Special.)—In less than two months, the angel of death has twice entered the home of the Sissons, and to-day, wife and husband lie side by side in the Smithland Cemetery. Mrs. Edward Sisson was in the prime of life, and her death was a sad one. She had been very ill, suffering intensely until relieved by the best and most expert physicians, Dr. Brock and Cockrell. It was hoped after operation she might improve, but she never rallied. She was a member of Smithland Baptist church, where she was buried on Sunday. She leaves several children, a father and two brothers. Rev. A. D. Reynolds, of Village, in this county, is her brother. Rev. George W. Beale officiated at the burial.

CONDITION OF RICHARD CLARKE.

Richard Clarke, the young man of Brown's Store, in this county, who had his neck broken in a runaway last week, lies with no chance of recovery. Four of the best and most expert physicians have done all in their power, but with no avail. The whole of the young man's body is paralyzed.
