

the United States; he died on the 12th of January, 1777, of the wounds he received on the 2d of the same month, near Princeton, in New Jersey, bravely defending the liberties of America.

ELKINS BILL WAS PASSED

Six Democrats Voted Against the Measure.

SUNDRY CIVIL MEASURE

It Was Practically Completed, but as No Quorum Was Present Effort to Pass It Was Not Made—Dewey Attacked the Mormon Church.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Under the operation of a special order which cut off opportunity to offer amendments, the House, after a debate of an hour, to-day by a vote of 211 to 8, passed the Elkins bill, to prohibit rebates to shippers.

Mr. Littlefield, of Maine, was present, but did not vote on either the rule or the bill. The Democrats protested against the rigorous terms of the rule. It had been their purpose, they said, to offer the provisions of the Littlefield bill as an amendment to the bill. Mr. Dabell, of Pennsylvania; Mr. Overstreet, of Indiana; and Mr. Hepburn, of Iowa, practically announced that with the passage of the Elkins bill the anti-trust legislation for this session would be completed.

Mr. Dabell, of Pennsylvania, presented the bill, which provided for an hour's debate and vote on the bill, and committee amendments at the end of that time, without intervening motion. The previous question being ordered on the adoption of the rule, twenty minutes' debate on each side was allowed under the rule. Mr. Dabell contented himself with a very brief explanation. He said the provisions of the measure were familiar to all, that it was one phase of anti-trust legislation which had received consideration.

Mr. Richardson, the Democratic leader, protested that there was an emergency which required such a drastic course, the special order proposed. It permitted no opportunity to amend or recommit the bill.

Mr. Underwood, of Alabama, said he favored the passage of the bill, but he protested that it did not go far enough. Mr. Cannon called attention to the fact that less than three weeks of the session remained. Public sentiment demanded that legislation be passed. The pending bill, he declared, did not go more to solve some of the troublesome problems than any other. He urged the House to take what it could now and try for more later on.

Mr. Littlefield attempted to get in with an inquiry, but Mr. Dabell declined to yield him the time. He, however, got a minute from Mr. Richardson to state that he called attention to the word "willful" before "failure" in the provision imposing penalties for the "willful" failure of carriers to publish and observe rates. He said he would like to come out and that Senator Elkins the author of the bill, agreed with him.

Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, denied emphatically that the country was in a state of emergency. "It will do no good," he said, "and the people foremost in urging it, know it. That is the reason they urge it." (Democratic applause.)

The bill, he declared, was an attempt to curtail the power of the majority in offering of amendments. The majority "dare not vote against." It was a more democratic plan to stifle legislation.

Mr. Richardson concluded the debate on his side, and urged the House to vote down the bill. He said the production of another that would open the bill to amendment.

The roll was called and the rule was adopted 140 to 110, a strict party vote. Mr. HAZEN AND STRAUBER.

The debate was then proceeded. Mr. Cochran, of Missouri, then introduced the bill as a "brazen and shameful" imposition on the credit of the people. His argument was directed chiefly against the repealing of all the provisions of existing laws making officers and agents of railroads guilty of discriminating punishable by fine and imprisonment.

Mr. Shackelford denounced the course of the majority in refusing to permit the bill to be amended. He said the bill, as amended, passed last Saturday.

During the course of Mr. Hepburn's remarks he denied a statement previously made by Mr. Cochran that the bill involved individual officers of responsibility. "I say there is no responsibility," he said, "in all this legislation," he was saying when Mr. Cochran sought to interrupt him.

"I prefer not to yield," said Mr. Hepburn. Mr. Cochran—"The gentleman ought not to refer to the gentleman from Missouri if he does not want to yield."

Mr. Hepburn—"I ought to refer to the gentleman at any time when he deliberately misstates a proposition."

Mr. Cochran—"The gentleman is a deliberate liar. I did not deliberately misstate the proposition."

Mr. Hepburn—"Then, ignorantly, the gentleman can take either proposition. I say there is no responsibility in the present statute making culpable and responsible criminally the individual under the interstate commerce law."

The vote then was taken on the passage of the bill. It was passed 211 to 8. Those voting in the affirmative were: Messrs. Cochran and De Armond (Democrats); Missouri; Glass (Democrat); Virginia; Hooker (Democrat); Mississippi; Klutz (Democrat); North Carolina; and Nebraska (Democrat).

The House then adjourned until tomorrow.

GENERAL BOOTH OFFERED INVOCATION

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, D. C., February 13.—An immense crowd was attracted to the Senate to-day to hear the invocation of General William Booth, founder and commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army. Among the occupants of the galleries were Booth Tuckers, the General's chief assistant and son-in-law, and a large number of Salvationists.

When the statehood bill came up Mr. Dewey resumed his remarks, and attacked the Mormon Church because he said there is no respect of persons in the practice of polygamy. Referring to the anti-polygamy provision in the statehood bill, Mr. Dewey said it would seem that "the fine Italian hand of the Mormon apostles had been at work to

FUNERAL OF DR. CURRY

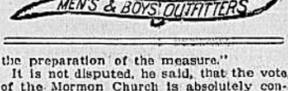

Services Conducted To-Morrow Afternoon at College. ALL SEEK TO HONOR HIM

St. Valentine's Day Feb. 14th. The day is just as amusing to some people now as it ever was to any of us.

If you think about the day at all—you'll think of HER! That means all the "fixings" in our shop window will interest you to-day.

New Shirts, new Scarfs and new Shoes for the new season are opening up.

HATS Surplus stock of Derbys and Fedoras—$1.35. There's enough hat value back of this offering to tempt any man with the bloom of his hat.

the preparation of the measure." It is not disputed, he said, that the vote of the Mormon Church is absolutely controlled by the central hierarchy of that organization. He declared that the migration of Mormons to different States and Territories was not for the purpose of securing homes or farms, but through compact controlled organization.

The effort of Mormonism is futile unless there is a public sentiment in favor of it. Persecution is the seed of the Mormon Church, he declared, and it did not do any good to arraign the entire people and brand every Mormon as a slave, a most unjust accusation.

Mr. Dabell declared that if the statehood bill is allowed to be put on the post-office appropriation bill, he would consent to and advocate the placing of the Idaho Constitution relating to elections as an amendment, and require Arizona and New Mexico to subscribe to it before being admitted.

After the test oath of that Constitution, he said, Idaho, disfranchised every member of the Mormon Church, and for years they were without a vote.

After an executive session the Senate returned to the statehood bill to-morrow. The members who voted for the proposition are: Messrs. Elkins, Mitchell and Penrose, Republicans, and Messrs. Clay, Culberson and Dubois and Tamm, Democrats.

Those who voted for the amendment were: Messrs. Beveridge, Deboe, Dooliver, Lodge and Proctor, all Republicans. Senator Mason, chairman of the committee, presided and did not vote.

Mr. Underwood, of Alabama, said he favored the passage of the bill, but he protested that it did not go far enough. Mr. Cannon called attention to the fact that less than three weeks of the session remained. Public sentiment demanded that legislation be passed.

The pending bill, he declared, did not go more to solve some of the troublesome problems than any other. He urged the House to take what it could now and try for more later on.

Mr. Littlefield attempted to get in with an inquiry, but Mr. Dabell declined to yield him the time. He, however, got a minute from Mr. Richardson to state that he called attention to the word "willful" before "failure" in the provision imposing penalties for the "willful" failure of carriers to publish and observe rates.

He said he would like to come out and that Senator Elkins the author of the bill, agreed with him.

Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, denied emphatically that the country was in a state of emergency. "It will do no good," he said, "and the people foremost in urging it, know it. That is the reason they urge it." (Democratic applause.)

The bill, he declared, was an attempt to curtail the power of the majority in offering of amendments. The majority "dare not vote against." It was a more democratic plan to stifle legislation.

Mr. Richardson concluded the debate on his side, and urged the House to vote down the bill. He said the production of another that would open the bill to amendment.

The roll was called and the rule was adopted 140 to 110, a strict party vote. Mr. HAZEN AND STRAUBER.

The debate was then proceeded. Mr. Cochran, of Missouri, then introduced the bill as a "brazen and shameful" imposition on the credit of the people. His argument was directed chiefly against the repealing of all the provisions of existing laws making officers and agents of railroads guilty of discriminating punishable by fine and imprisonment.

Mr. Shackelford denounced the course of the majority in refusing to permit the bill to be amended. He said the bill, as amended, passed last Saturday.

During the course of Mr. Hepburn's remarks he denied a statement previously made by Mr. Cochran that the bill involved individual officers of responsibility. "I say there is no responsibility," he said, "in all this legislation," he was saying when Mr. Cochran sought to interrupt him.

"I prefer not to yield," said Mr. Hepburn. Mr. Cochran—"The gentleman ought not to refer to the gentleman from Missouri if he does not want to yield."

Mr. Hepburn—"I ought to refer to the gentleman at any time when he deliberately misstates a proposition."

Mr. Cochran—"The gentleman is a deliberate liar. I did not deliberately misstate the proposition."

Mr. Hepburn—"Then, ignorantly, the gentleman can take either proposition. I say there is no responsibility in the present statute making culpable and responsible criminally the individual under the interstate commerce law."

FUNERAL OF DR. CURRY

Services Conducted To-Morrow Afternoon at College.

ALL SEEK TO HONOR HIM

Students, Faculty, Virginia Historical Society and Trustees Adopt Resolutions—Governor Orders Flags at Half Mast.

The news of the death of Dr. J. L. M. Curry was received with profound sorrow in Richmond. Everywhere, among all classes, words of praise for this talented and magnetic man and his noble work for popular education were heard.

The body will reach Richmond to-morrow morning, and the funeral takes place from the Chapel of Richmond College to-morrow afternoon. The arrangements at this end are being looked after by Mr. Thomas M. Rutherford, and he is waiting definite information before completing the arrangements in detail. The hour of the funeral will be announced to-morrow.

The funeral services will take place Sunday afternoon from the Chapel of Richmond College. The interment will be in Hollywood Cemetery. The services will be conducted by the Rev. W. C. Bittling, D. of New York, an old and close friend of Dr. Curry's, who will be assisted by Bishop C. B. Galoway, of the M. E. Church, South, of Mississippi, who has served on the Peabody Board with Dr. Curry for more than a quarter of a century. A short service will be held at Richmond College. They will be in the chapel, under the auspices of the Rev. Dr. W. W. Landrum, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Atlanta.

A special car will convey the body to Richmond. This car will be attached to passenger train No. 10, which leaves at 11 o'clock, and will arrive at Richmond at 3:30 o'clock.

Dr. Curry leaves a wife and one son, Major Manley B. Curry, United States Army, both of whom were at his bedside at his death. Mrs. Curry has been ill for several weeks, and will be unable to attend her husband's funeral.

Messages of sympathy to Mrs. Curry poured in all day, and included cables from the court of Spain, ministers of state, and many of Dr. Curry's friends abroad. Telegrams also came from President Roosevelt, General Wheeler, Secretary Hay, and others.

Mr. Rutherford expected to receive the names of those who wish to participate in the funeral, but he did not do so, and expects them to-day.

WILL LIE IN STATE. As soon as the train gets here in the morning the remains will be taken to Richmond College. They will lie in state in the chapel, under a guard of students of the college until the afternoon.

The interment will be made in the Curry section in Hollywood. This is very near the Davis section. It was a wish of Dr. Curry, long ago expressed, that no matter when he died his body should be brought to Richmond College and the interment made from his chapel. Every known wish of his will be carried out to the letter.

The faculty of Richmond College held a called meeting yesterday morning and after declaring the exercises of the day suspended in honor of the deceased, they adopted resolutions of respect and sympathy for Mrs. Curry were adopted. At 1 o'clock in the afternoon the students met in the chapel and they, too, adopted resolutions. Addresses were made by President Boardman, Dr. Ryland, Professor Winston and others.

The trustees of the College met to-day at 1 o'clock in the Foreign Mission rooms.

PLAGS AT HALF MAST. Governor Montague yesterday ordered the flags upon the Capitol building to be put at half-mast in honor of Dr. Curry. In connection with this action the Governor said:

"I have known Dr. Curry for many years. He has been one of the most useful men in American public life. He is both a pioneer and a veteran in public school education for Virginia and the South. His life has been a ministry in behalf of education. His conception of the public service was of the highest order, and his intelligence to perceive, encourage and honesty to perform this service should be alike a model and an inspiration to the young men of the State. I think it peculiarly appropriate that the flags on the Capitol should be put at half-mast, as in this building he displayed eminent qualities as a statesman in the Confederate Congress. I beg the greatest ever fought on the side of the Confederacy to raise the Camp. The presentation speech will be made by ex-Governor William E. Cameron. It will be received on behalf of the Camp by ex-Governor Charles T. O'Farrall. Ex-Governor Fitzhugh Lee and Governor A. F. Montague were, by resolution, especially invited to attend these exercises. The Camp, by resolution, heartily endorsed the movement of the Daughters of the Confederacy to raise money for the Jefferson Davis Monument.

General A. L. Phillips, a former commandant of the Camp, called the attention of the body to the death in California of Colonel A. G. Shepherd, of John A. Andrew Post, of Massachusetts. He told of the visit of Lee Camp to the New England States some years ago and of the courtesies shown the members by Colonel Shepherd, and also of Colonel Shepherd's friendship for the Camp while temporarily residing here as the superintendent of the Davis Shoe Company.

Adjutant Stratton spoke eloquently of Colonel Shepherd, and the Adjutant, by the unanimous vote of the Camp, was directed to convey to John Shepherd, Post a letter expressive of the Camp's sorrow at the death of Colonel Shepherd.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY. WANTED, ROOM AND BOARD IN EARLY part of the month of February, by a private family of moderate means. Moderate; occupation March till June; dress, sailing suits, G. & W. care this.

LOST—FRIDAY AFTERNOON. A BRASS KEY with bar and gold, set with pearls, in envelope, with cure BUTTON with pearl in gold. Lost between Spilling's Jewelry Store, 101 East Broad, and Smith's of College.

VALENTINE BALL. Belvidere Hall. Benefit Home for Invalids. February 14th, at 5 P. M. Admissions 25c. Refreshments and other attractions extra.

W. A. WHITTY, FLORIST. Broad and Ninth Sts. Violets, 75c. hundred. Carnations, 50c. dozen. Wedding Decorations, 9c.

VETERANS ENDORSE IT

Judge Christian for Halsey Bill Before Lee Camp.

FINE SPEECH MADE BY HIM

His Hearings Approved Heartily Every-thing That He Said—The Attendance Large and Extremely Enthusiastic.

Judge George L. Christian last night at Lee Camp Hall came out flat-footed and squarely in favor of the bill passed by the Senate yesterday to place the statue of General Robert E. Lee in the Statuary Hall in the Capitol at Washington.

The Judge, by special invitation, addressed the Camp on the subject of Lee. He repeated his Williamsburg address, with some few changes, and talked most interestingly of Lee as a soldier, as a man, and as a Christian. The hall was pretty well filled. Many of the members of Pickett Camp were there. A few ladies were present. In the audience were several members of the Legislature, Commander, the Rev. Dr. J. P. Smith, presided.

It was during his introductory remarks that Judge Christian, a man who hears upon his person the evidences of his service to the Confederacy, stated his approval of the Halsey bill to place Lee's statue in the Statuary Hall. He did so in no uncertain tone, for Judge Christian is always frank and never takes middle ground. He thought Virginia had the right to place Lee's statue in Statuary Hall, and he was in favor of assuring that right.

This statement was received with great applause, for there is no man in Virginia whose views are so generally received with more consideration than those of Judge Christian, especially before a Confederate audience.

A FINE ADDRESS. Judge Christian's brief eulogy of Lee contained about as much praise of that great man, warrior and Christian as could be crowded into such short space. Judge Christian was not only a soldier himself, but he has been one of the closest students of war history of any man in the country.

LEE AS A SOLDIER. There was a lack of anything bordering on the "brilliant" in the address, calmly and in the most conservative spirit, hastily reviewed some of Lee's campaigns. He told what the great Southern leader had accomplished under the most adverse circumstances. He classed Lee as the equal of any general the world has ever produced. As a man, Judge Christian ranked Lee as greater than any other general. As a Christian, the Judge in that delicate way so characteristic of him, placed Lee as above all of those who have won fame as the leaders of great armies or as the greatest ever fought on the side of the Confederacy to raise the Camp.

When Judge Christian had concluded his splendid address, which ought to be heard by every camp in Virginia, and throughout the South, for that matter, Dr. William J. Smith, who was equal to the occasion, moved a rising vote of thanks to Judge Christian. Everybody in the hall, old or young, great or small, male or female, arose. The Judge briefly thanked the audience.

In his address, Judge Christian referred to his correspondence with the Hon. Charles Francis Adams. In this connection he made the very interesting statement that Mr. Adams may soon visit Richmond and Lee. But the speaker, GEN. KEMPER'S PORTRAIT. It was announced that on next Friday night the portrait of General James L. Kemper would be presented to the camp. This was once Governor of Virginia. The presentation speech will be made by ex-Governor William E. Cameron. It will be received on behalf of the Camp by ex-Governor Charles T. O'Farrall. Ex-Governor Fitzhugh Lee and Governor A. F. Montague were, by resolution, especially invited to attend these exercises. The Camp, by resolution, heartily endorsed the movement of the Daughters of the Confederacy to raise money for the Jefferson Davis Monument.

General A. L. Phillips, a former commandant of the Camp, called the attention of the body to the death in California of Colonel A. G. Shepherd, of John A. Andrew Post, of Massachusetts. He told of the visit of Lee Camp to the New England States some years ago and of the courtesies shown the members by Colonel Shepherd, and also of Colonel Shepherd's friendship for the Camp while temporarily residing here as the superintendent of the Davis Shoe Company.

Adjutant Stratton spoke eloquently of Colonel Shepherd, and the Adjutant, by the unanimous vote of the Camp, was directed to convey to John Shepherd, Post a letter expressive of the Camp's sorrow at the death of Colonel Shepherd.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY. WANTED, ROOM AND BOARD IN EARLY part of the month of February, by a private family of moderate means. Moderate; occupation March till June; dress, sailing suits, G. & W. care this.

LOST—FRIDAY AFTERNOON. A BRASS KEY with bar and gold, set with pearls, in envelope, with cure BUTTON with pearl in gold. Lost between Spilling's Jewelry Store, 101 East Broad, and Smith's of College.

VALENTINE BALL. Belvidere Hall. Benefit Home for Invalids. February 14th, at 5 P. M. Admissions 25c. Refreshments and other attractions extra.

W. A. WHITTY, FLORIST. Broad and Ninth Sts. Violets, 75c. hundred. Carnations, 50c. dozen. Wedding Decorations, 9c.

ACADEMY TO-NIGHT. The World's Greatest Violinist KOCCIAN. Assisted by MISS JULIE GEYER, solo piano forte. MR. FRANZ SPINDLER, Accompanist.

ACADEMY. Tuesday, Matinee and Night. HERRMANN THE GREAT. The World's Greatest Prestidigitator. USUAL PRICES. Seats on Sale.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC. Monday Night, February 16. THE HOOSIER. Benefit of the Seventeenth Regiment. Tickets 25c, 50c and 75c.

BIJOU TO-DAY. Matinee and Night. SEE ABELEIDE HERRMANN in wonderful feats of Magic and Illusion. SEE LOTTIE BRANDON in her sensational bicycle ride through mid air. AND ALL THE REST.

BOSTOCKS GREAT ANIMAL ARENA. TWICE DAILY AT 2 AND 7 P. M. ADMISSION 25c CHILDREN 15c.

THE VALENTINE MUSEUM. ELEVENTH AND CLAY STREETS. Open daily from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. Admission, 25 cents. Free on Saturdays.

THE CONFEDERATE MUSEUM. TWELFTH AND CLAY STREETS. Open daily from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Admission, 25 cents. Free on Saturdays.

Mr. Lee Lorraine was assisted in her management of the contest by Miss Pauline Powers, Miss Janie Wingo, Miss Elise Parkison, Miss Kate Turpin and Miss Caroline Holladay. The postoffice, supervised by Mrs. B. A. Blenner, Mrs. J. D. Reynolds, Mrs. Frank Cunningham and Miss Herring, delivered its letters through Miss Sallie Cunningham, Miss Daisy Hancock, Miss Marie Curley, Miss Mary Curley, Miss Rose Gary, Miss Belle Walthall and Miss Jennie McCarthy.

At the candy table, presided over by Mrs. Arthur Clarke, delicious homemade candies were served by Miss Louise Knight, Miss Coakler and Miss Ida Christian. An excellent musical programme was one of the features of the evening.

Miss Mary Ball Saunders was a charming little hostess of last evening at a "progressive trolley-walk" party, given by her in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Saunders, of No. 605 West Franklin Street. Decorations and refreshments embodied the pretty Japanese idea. Miss Saunders receiving her guests in the costume of a Japanese maiden.

Miss Linda Bargamin entertained at a progressive euchre last evening, those present being: Miss Lillian Atkins, Miss Louise Price, Miss Alice Doyle, Miss Eugene Taylor, Miss Louise Herbert, Miss Mary Drake, Miss Alice Jennings, Miss Mary Moulton, Miss Courtenay Crump, Miss Beattie Tompkins, Miss Liesa Archer, Miss Lucy Shelton, Miss Mary Street, Miss Lillian Hammon, Miss Lillian Haynes, Mrs. Stuart Cooke, Miss Nan Haynes, Miss Charlotte Miller, Miss Nanie Montague, Miss Helen Stevens, Miss Lillian Binford, Miss Alma Cecil, Miss Helen J. Chappell, Miss Charles Todd, Mr. W. H. Gifford, Mr. G. W. Gifford, Mr. William Turner, Mr. George Morgan, Mr. Paul Stevens, Mr. Cabell Fitzgerald, Mr. Hal Adair, Mr. Warner Robins, Mr. Woodson Waddy, Mr. Frank O'Farrall, Mr. H. H. Biddgood, Mr. James Dimpson, Mr. Percy Montague, Mr. Walter Jones, Mr. Russell Cecil, Mr. Brock Jones, Mr. Barksdale Lathrop, Mr. Henry McCance, Mr. Stuart Cooke and Mr. Charles R. Burnett.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cooper, of No. 505 East Grace Street, left last night for St. Louis, Mo., to be away for a few days. Mr. Cooper will visit her mother and Mr. Cooper is going on a business trip.

Tea will be served at the Woman's Club Monday afternoon next, from 5 to 8 o'clock.

After a month spent in New York, Mrs. Peyton Wills is at the Colonial Hotel, in Washington. She will shortly return to her home in this city.

Miss Helen O'Farrall left last Tuesday to make a short visit to friends in Newport News, Va.

Mrs. J. H. Drake will give a silver tea next Monday from 6 to 8 o'clock P. M. in her home, No. 1366 Floyd Avenue. This tea will be for the benefit of the Alabama Club in the Confederate Bazaar. Mrs. Drake being the chairman of that table. Everything will be done to make the occasion bright and attractive to others, and all who go are sure of a pleasant time.

Mr. Alston Cabell was the guest of honor at a luncheon given Thursday, by Mrs. A. E. Forbes, of New York. Mrs. Cabell is spending some time in the metropolis with her mother.

Miss Annie Dyson, of Petersburg, Va., is visiting Mrs. Albert C. Digges, at No. 1113 East Clay Street.

Mrs. H. H. of No. 508 South Pine Street, entertained Thursday evening in honor of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Cameron.

Miss Roberta Ellsworth is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Armstrong Thomas, of Edinboro.

Miss John Danahill Williams is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Henry Harwood, at No. 111 North Fifth Street.

Mr. C. Lee Morrison, of Delaware, the assistant accountant of the W. B. Trigg Company, has left Richmond to accept a business position in Delaware. Mr. Morrison leaves behind him a number of friends made during his stay here, who exceedingly regret the fact that circumstances have called him away from Richmond, and that for the future his home will be in another city.

Eruptions

Dry, moist, scaly, itchy, all forms of eczema or salt rheum, pimples and other cutaneous eruptions proceed from humors, either inherited, or acquired through defective digestion and assimilation.

To treat these eruptions with drying medicines is dangerous. The thing to do is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills.

Which thoroughly cleanses the blood, expelling all humors and building up the whole system. They cure Hood's Sarsaparilla permanently cured G. Hines, Frank, Ill., of eczema, from which he has suffered for some time; and Miss Ales on her face, which was not cured by her body, which had been treated with various remedies. There are more testimonials in favor of Hood's than can be published.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises cure and keeps the promise.

Two Favorites Were Beaten. L'Etrienne and Chickadee Not Among the Winners in New Orleans Races.

(By Associated Press.) NEW ORLEANS, LA., February 13.—L'Etrienne and Chickadee were the beaten favorites to-day. Summary: First race—six and a half furlongs—Birch Broom (8 to 5) first, War Cry (7 to 1) second, Novetta (7 to 1) third. Time, 1:23.1.

Two Favorites Were Beaten

L'Etrienne and Chickadee Not Among the Winners in New Orleans Races. (By Associated Press.) NEW ORLEANS, LA., February 13.—L'Etrienne and Chickadee were the beaten favorites to-day. Summary: First race—six and a half furlongs—Birch Broom (8 to 5) first, War Cry (7 to 1) second, Novetta (7 to 1) third. Time, 1:23.1.

Second race—selling, two years old, three and a half furlongs—Happy Hooligan (8 to 5) first, Miss Nancy (8 to 5) second, McGonigle (14 to 6) third. Time, 1:18.

Third race—selling, seven furlongs—Stratton 11 (9 to 10) first, Bonoraok (10 to 1) second, Vesuvia (10 to 1) third. Time, 1:30.

Fourth race—handicap, six furlongs—Chief (9 to 2) first, Sumner (6 to 1) second, L'Etrienne (7 to 10) third. Time, 1:15.

Fifth race—selling, mile and eighth—Benson Caldwell (5 to 1) first, Chickadee (8 to 5) second, Willard J. (5 to 1) third. Time, 1:48.

Sixth race—mile and sixteenth—Jim Clark (even) first, Albert F. Dewey (3 to 1) second, Melbourne Eclipse (8 to 1) third. Time, 1:49.2.

C. F. PUTZE MEETS INSTANT DEATH

Young Man Loses His Life Between Chesapeake and Ohio Cars.

Mr. C. F. Putze, a young white man employed as a yard hand at the Seventh and Third Sts. Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, was caught between two cars while the latter were being shifted and coupled yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock and crushed to death.

The man died instantly and before either Dr. C. W. P. Brock, the surgeon of the company, or Dr. Morris, of the ambulance corps, who were hastily summoned, could arrive.

Mr. Putze was a resident of Henrico county and lived in Baltimore, just outside the city limits.

The funeral will take place at Fairmount M. E. Church at 8:30 o'clock to-morrow morning. The interment will be in the family burying ground, near by.

Mr. Putze was a young man and was well known and popular in his community.

VALENTINE BALL

Belvidere Hall. Benefit Home for Invalids. February 14th, at 5 P. M. Admissions 25c. Refreshments and other attractions extra.

W. A. WHITTY, FLORIST. Broad and Ninth Sts. Violets, 75c. hundred. Carnations, 50c. dozen. Wedding Decorations, 9c.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cooper, of No. 505 East Grace Street, left last night for St. Louis, Mo., to be away for a few days. Mr. Cooper will visit her mother and Mr. Cooper is going on a business trip.

Tea will be served at the Woman's Club Monday afternoon next, from 5 to 8 o'clock.

After a month spent in New York, Mrs. Peyton Wills is at the Colonial Hotel, in Washington. She will shortly return to her home in this city.

Miss Helen O'Farrall left last Tuesday to make a short visit to friends in Newport News, Va.

Mrs. J. H. Drake will give a silver tea next Monday from 6 to 8 o'clock P. M. in her home, No. 1366 Floyd Avenue. This tea will be for the benefit of the Alabama Club in the Confederate Bazaar. Mrs. Drake being the chairman of that table. Everything will be done to make the occasion bright and attractive to others, and all who go are sure of a pleasant time.

Mr. Alston Cabell was the guest of honor at a lun