The bride, gowned in a tailored costume of dark blue cloth carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her maid of honor, Miss Agnes McCarthy, who wore a tan crepe de chine and had a cluster of tan France roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Hankins left last night for a northern tour. Instead of returning to Richmond they will travel south for several months.

The occasion will stand out distinctly as one of the most interesting and largely attended events of its kind during the Easter season. Miss Harvie has a wide family connection and a great many friends among the society people of Richmond. She is a lovely young girl, having had the advantages conferred by foreign travel after the completion of her education in Richmond.

Mr. Graves is originally from "Oak-Bluff," Chesapeake county, the home of his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Graves. He is closely related to the Christian and Lamb families, and is a B. A. graduate in the class of '96 from Richmond College, being an officer in the Alumni Society of that institution. Since his graduation Mr. Graves has been engaged in journalistic and magazine work, and is now a member of the editorial staff of The Times-Dispatch.

The members of the General Assembly, the Richmond Blues and the Howitzers will join in the festivities of the "barn dance," which seems to be engaging the interest and the attention of all the pretty girls and matrons in Richmond.

The officers, chairman of tables, chairman of entertainments, and all members of the association are requested to attend. This will be the last meeting before the Bazaar.

Miss Annie and Miss Mary Elizabeth Moore are having a most delightful visit to their cousins, the Misses Murphy, of Fort Meyer, Florida. These young ladies are entertaining a large house party from all sections of the country, before going to Fort Meyer in the morning. They visited in Savannah and Jacksonville, where they were overwhelmed with social attentions.

At present they spend much of their time on the water, and altogether find it hard to decide to return to Richmond, as they intend to do the latter part of April.

IMPORTANT AMENDMENT

Mr. Halsey's Bills Regarding Commissioners of Revenue

CHANGE CONSTITUTION

House Committee Reports Unfavorably the Barksdale Bill to Prohibit the Enticing Away of Servants. Local Option.

The companion bills offered by Mr. Halsey, of Lynchburg, and now on the Senate calendar, proposing to amend the Constitution in relation to the provision for choosing commissioners of the revenue, have been passed by for several days, owing to the small attendance. It will require twenty-one votes to pass them. Under the terms of the Constitution, it is provided that if commissioners are made elective by popular vote they shall be ineligible to another successive term.

The two amendments, one relating to commissioners in the counties, the other to those in cities, are designed to let the General Assembly say whether commissioners shall be elected or appointed, and if elected to make them eligible to succeed themselves. The Legislature only in the session had protracted discussions and finally a caucus over the matter, ending by practically deferring the determination of the matter until the next session.

With the Constitution amended as proposed, commissioners may be made elective by popular vote and may serve two or more consecutive terms. As it is, many of the popular choice of commissioners object to this method, if the effect will be to make commissioners ineligible to re-election. The fate of the amendment is uncertain, though many regard it as the ideal solution of what has proved a troublesome question.

The Senate Committee on General Laws yesterday made a favorable report on the bill offered by Mr. Claytor, and known as the general dispensary bill. Mr. Wickham, opposed the bill in the committee room, and it is anticipated will do so on the floor of the Senate also. Nevertheless, Mr. Claytor is hopeful of its passage. The bill proposes merely local option in the matter of establishing dispensaries in cities, towns, counties and even magisterial districts. If the bill be passed, a county or community may be excluded from liquor license under the Mann bill and yet may establish a dispensary.

The House Committee on General Laws yesterday afternoon reported unfavorably the bill of Mr. Barksdale, prescribing a penalty for enticing away of laborers, and making such act a misdemeanor. The vote on reporting the bill was six to two, Messrs. Cumming and Powers voting in the affirmative. The measure passed.

Among the members of the vote, its Senate by a majority of one vote. The House, notwithstanding the unfavorable report. The measure is designed to prevent labor agents from enticing away laborers under contract, and proposes to impose a penalty on the agent, and not on the laborer. As it is, the employer whose labor is enticed away has the remedy afforded by an action upon the contract, but there is no penalty upon the person offering him inducements to break his contract.

ELEVEN PERSONS KILLED

Four Others Fatally Injured and a Dozen or More Hurt—Storm Came from East, Accompanied by a Terific Roar.

(By Associated Press.)

HANCEVILLE, ALA., April 8.—A tornado passed over Hopewell settlement, one and a half miles north of here, at 2 o'clock this morning, and as a result eleven persons are dead, four are fatally injured and a dozen are more or less seriously hurt, while the destruction to property is heavy. The dead:

HENRY MCCOY and three children, C. C. ODEN and three children, JOHN GRIFFIN, wife and son.

Fatally injured: Two children of Henry McCoy and three children of C. C. Oden. Seriously injured: Mrs. Oden and child, Mrs. McCoy.

Among the less seriously hurt are L. Quick and family. The names of the other injured have not been ascertained. The storm came from the southeast, and its roar was so terrific that it woke many people, some of whom fled from their houses in time to escape death by having the houses blown down on them. Buildings were tossed about like paper boxes, and several structures were blown a hundred yards or more. The body of McCoy, who was a prominent farmer, was blown two hundred yards and landed in a sand pit. The house of Mrs. John O. Morton was blown down, but the family escaped by crawling under the bed, while the timber and brick fell on top of the bed, breaking the force of the fall. The houses of the Oden and Griffin families were smashed to splinters, and it seems marvelous that any of them escaped death. Trees were uprooted in all directions, and many were blown across the Louisville and Nashville Railroad track, delaying trains for a time.

The roar of the storm was heard at Hanceville, where it awoke many people, but no damage was done here. As soon as the destruction wrought became known here rescuers hurried to the scene to give attention to the dead and wounded. The death list at noon stood at eleven, but it is possible that it may be larger, as some of the bodies found were blown some distance.

PRESIDENT IS RESTING

Visits Yellowstone Park

Led Procession of Which His Friend, the Naturalist, Brought Up the Rear in an Army Wagon—Will Have Solitude.

(By Associated Press.)

CINNIBAR, MONT., April 8.—President Roosevelt is in the fastness of Yellowstone Park, and for the next sixteen days he expects to enjoy complete rest and cessation from public duties. He will be in almost daily communication with Secretary Loeb at Cinnibar, but nothing except of the utmost importance will be referred to him. In company with John Burroughs, the naturalist, who accompanied him from Washington, he will study closely the nature of the various animals that inhabit the park.

The President has looked forward to this outing for some time, and he was in a particularly happy frame of mind when he led the cavalcade into the park to-day. Every trail leading into the preserve will be closely guarded and no one will be allowed to disturb the President's solitude.

The headquarters will be at the home of Major Fletcher, the superintendent of the park. Several camps have been established in different localities, and these will be occupied by the President from time to time.

The special train bearing the President and his party arrived at Gardner, the entrance to the park, at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon, and was met by a detachment of the Third Cavalry and a number of cowboys. Lunch was served in the President's car, after which, dressed in riding breeches and coat, with a light colored slouch hat on his head, he mounted his horse and made a brief address to the people congregated near his train. He then rode the members of his party good-bye and led the way into the park. Mr. Burroughs followed in an army wagon. The train returned to Cinnibar, where Secretary Loeb and others of the party will live in it while the President is absent.

The President will start on his trip to St. Louis and the Pacific coast on April 21th. The weather here is very mild, and reports from the park are to the effect that there is but little hope of the severity of the President's headquarters.

NOT NECESSARY TO LEAVE RICHMOND

Physicians Here Are as Able as Can Be Found Anywhere.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:

Sir,—In a notice, personal to me, in your issue of yesterday, there are some inaccuracies. Of these, most are not of sufficient interest to any one to need correction. There is one, however which, in justice to a friend, I hope you will promptly correct. This lies in the statement that the trouble for which I was going away to be treated was eczema.

I had a most uncomfortable visitation of that obstinate disease some months ago, so uncomfortable that both sleep and anything like concentrated thought were almost impossible. But I had no need to leave Richmond to get relief from that. Dr. Beadles, of No. 221 East Grace Street, Richmond, treated me for me as to secure me good sleep on the first night of his treatment, and entirely to relieve me in ten days after my first application to him. I write this not only in debt of gratitude, but in behalf of suffering humanity. Many are troubled with this vexatious complaint, and I want to say to them through your paper, don't go out of Richmond for relief. We have a prophet in our midst, who deserves our honor, and who can do us good!

If you will pardon one more word, Mr. Editor, I would like to say that my observation for many years in many places would lead me to the conclusion that for no medical treatment it is quite time to leave Richmond when our doctors here send us to some one else.

LONDON R. MASON, Richmond, April 8th.

A BARN DANCE

Most Unique Entertainment Takes Place April 14th.

As a curtain-raiser to the big Confederate Bazaar, which begins April 15th, a barn dance will be given in the Masonic Temple on the evening of the 14th at 9 o'clock.

MUSIC will be furnished and the figures called by Polk Miller's Quartette. The military will be on hand, and one of the most pleasant occasions of months is promised.

STILL CONSIDERING CORPORATION BILLS

The Senate Committee for Courts of Justice and Roads held a meeting yesterday afternoon, and considered the corporation bills in executive session, after which the body arose until to-night, when the matter will be further considered. The committees will not likely report the bills to the Senate before next week.
