

DIFFERENT PLATFORM

Next One Will Be Nothing Like Last, Says Daniel.

NEED MUCH MORE MONEY

Volume Entirely Too Small for Proper Conduct of Business of the Country.

Shudders at Result if Gold Production Should Decrease.

The Times-Dispatch Bureau. No. 1417 G Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., April 8.

We should not select a candidate or make a platform in 1908 for the campaign of 1904," said Senator Daniel today.

"But I can say this," he added, with great significance, "the platform the Democrats will adopt next year will be very different from the one adopted at Chicago in 1896, or at Kansas City in 1900. It would be foolish to try conclusions on those issues again, or with Mr. Bryan as a leader. It has twice been demonstrated we cannot win in that way."

As suggestive of the character of the next platform, the following remark by Senator Daniel was highly interesting: "One of the most widely known Republicans in this country told me a few days ago that there was the unanimous opinion of Wall Street that the volume of money in this country was not sufficient to transact the country's business. Some days ago he said he attended a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Equitable Life Assurance Society. It was the opinion of every member of the board that we needed a greater volume of money."

Senator Daniel then alluded to the fact the Republican members of the Senate Finance Committee are now making the purpose of the bill to give us more money, and said that Senator Aldrich, the chairman, had told him that he would have three of the Democratic members sit with the committee before Congress reconvened.

"I cannot predict the nature of the relief the Republican bill proposes," said Senator Daniel. "It is probable it will be a bill providing for more paper money. I shudder to think of currency conditions if, after emitting an enormous amount of paper circulating medium, there should be a great falling off in the production of gold, so that there is no reason to expect gold production to be as great always as it has been during the past six years."

Senator Daniel only smiled when I spoke to him concerning an attack recently made upon him by the Roanoke Times for his alleged failure to defend the State of Virginia during the "fringe debate" at the late extra session of the Senate.

"I have not heard of any such debate," he said.

As a matter of fact, the speeches made by Senators McClain and Arroyo, both of Mississippi, on the floor of the Senate, were in no sense a fringe debate, and there was no reason why Senator Daniel or any other Senator should have defended the constitution of any Southern State. The Roanoke Times seems to have been laboring under a misapprehension.

IMPORTANT RULING. The Secretary of War has issued a circular in which he states that an enlistment in the army does not operate as a discharge from the National Guard, and a member of the National Guard in his State who enlists in the regular army repudiates his engagement in said State troops, and by so doing becomes a deserter. The circular directs that men who present themselves for enlistment in the National Guard, and in the event that they have served in such State troops they shall be required to present satisfactory evidence that they have been honorably discharged therefrom, or if unable to do so, enlistment shall be refused.

By direction of the Secretary of War a class of gunnery specialists will be organized from the Long Point Artillery, Monroe, Va. Selections for the class will be made by the commandant of the artillery school from those candidates who have passed a successful examination, and recommendations will be submitted by him to the adjutant-general, who will in turn permit a class to be ordered to report at the school not later than September 21st of each year. For the present the class will be limited to twenty-one candidates. The school term will begin October 1st of each year and end on the following May 31st. The course of instruction will be for eight months, and the class will be ordered to join a class undergoing instruction after the beginning of the school term.

MAY USE ENVELOPES. The Secretary of War recently addressed the use of the official envelope by the adjutant-generals of States and Territories in correspondence with the War Department upon subjects relating to the military and naval service of the United States, except that officers authorized to use such envelopes may enclose them with return address to any person or persons from or through whom official information is desired.

A fourth rural free delivery route has been established from Shelby, Cleveland county, North Carolina, with one carrier. The length of the route is twenty-one miles, the area it covers is 112 square miles, the population served 412, and the number of houses in the route 112. The postoffice at Duffer will be discontinued, and the star route leading thereto. Mail for this point should be addressed to Shelby.

A marriage license was issued here today to John W. Beaver and Elizabeth How, both of Page county, to be married by Rev. Donald G. McLeod here.

MANY WERE KILLED Village Destroyed By Eruption of An Old Volcano.

NEW YORK, April 8.—The steamer Allegheny, which arrived today from West Indian and Central American ports, brought tidings of an eruption of the old volcano, Delmia Firma, in Colombia, near Gaitz Gamba, on March 22. The village of 100 persons was destroyed, and from sixty to 100 persons were killed and wounded.

During the night of March 24th flames from the volcano were seen by passing vessels at a distance of sixty miles.

VIRGINIA BONDS GET HOME AGAIN

After Long Visit to Washington They Bring Back $5.50.

Check is Good.

The Virginia bonds, long held by the United States and on which the national government did not get any interest, but let the interest on the money which it owed Virginia cancel it, came back yesterday through the mails, after their long stay in Washington. But the most interesting arrival was the warrant on the Treasury of the United States for the princely sum of $5.50 to be paid the State of Virginia to balance the account. The warrant is in this form:

"United States of America, "Treasury Department, "Washington, April 4, 1903, "Pay to the State of Virginia the sum of $5.50.

"A. B. ARMSTRONG, "Assistant Secretary, "R. J. TRACWELL, "Comptroller, "C. M. FORD, "Chief Clerk, "J. F. MDLINE, "Assistant Treasurer."

It is not expected that the check will come back marked "N. G." This is the settlement of a claim that has been hanging fire for many years. Senator Daniel made the first move some years ago and recently Senator Martin took it up during the session of the State of Virginia. Recently Governor Montague and Judge Dew, second auditor, have been working very diligently to get the claims adjusted. When they had got the accounts straight, they went to Washington to see personally about the settlement. Their trip was in every particular successful.

Augustus Thomas celebrated four-act drama, "Alabama," will be rendered by the Richmond College Dramatic Club this evening in the college auditorium. Special music and scenery have been arranged for this occasion, and the performance promises to be the most successful one in the history of the club. About half of the house is already sold, and additional seating capacity has been provided to accommodate the large audience expected. The curtain goes up at 8:20 o'clock.

President Boatwright is in New York city on important business for the college.

Mr. W. V. Thomas, one of the most popular students on the campus, has been sick and confined to his room for several days.

Richmond College base-ball team will cross bats with Lehigh University next Saturday and Monday afternoon at Broad-Street Park. While the college "Spiders" do not expect to win, they will make Lehigh earn the victories, for few teams can win an easy victory over the plucky young "Spiders."

These two teams always attract a large crowd to the park and these two games will, not be exceptions to the rule.

WHAT MR. WILCOX SAYS. The New York correspondent of the Times-Dispatch secured from Mr. J. T. Wilcox, assistant secretary of the American Tobacco Company, a positive denial that his concern contemplated the purchase of the Virginia plant. Whatever the conviction organically, the American Tobacco Company and the Continental Tobacco Company has been the subject of the denial. Mr. Wilcox is taken to mean just what it states—that the American Tobacco Company does not contemplate a purchase of the sort. He can say nothing of the Continental or the British-American. The denial by the assistant secretary is as follows:

"I am completely at a loss to account for the rumor that the American Tobacco Company contemplated the purchase of the property of the T. C. Williams Company. There are no negotiations pending, and this is positively the first I have heard of the matter. If Mr. T. C. Williams has been in the city, he has certainly not called at the offices of our company. You may deny absolutely and upon my authority that any negotiations for the purchase of the Virginia company are pending, or that such purchase has even been considered by us. We have not operated such a purchase to the T. C. Williams Company, nor have they conveyed to us any desire to sell. There is positively nothing in the report."

Photograph Miss Leyland. Miss Louise Leyland, a member of the chorus of the Academy Musical Comedy Company, is to pose for a new poster to be issued shortly by the Winesford Arsenal Litho Water Company, of this city.

The photograph is to be taken today by former actor and artist of Broad Street, and the posters are to be made as soon as possible by the American Lithograph Company.

Street-Cars Escorted by Police and Without Passengers, as People Feared to Ride—Pilgrims Scattered By Charge of Cavalry.

ROMA, April 8.—The aspect of Rome was completely changed early today. The gay crowded city of yesterday seemed dead. No cars passed through the streets, and even the street cars, which ran at long intervals, were escorted by police and were almost empty, as the people feared to ride in them, on account of the threats of the strikers. The shops were open, but the shutters were up, as the proprietors intended to be ready for any eventualities. The whole city was occupied by troops. Detachments of cavalry were posted on the squares and special details of soldiers and police were stationed around the Vatican so as to prevent any attempt against the Papal palace.

Unimportant encounters between the strikers and troops took place during the day. The strikers endeavored to hold meetings, which were forbidden, or reach the center of the city, but the strikers were easily dispersed by cavalry charges.

A hundred French pilgrims arrived here today and had some startling experience. The party arrived at the Garibaldi bridge just as a detachment of cavalry charged a mob, and a scene of indescribable confusion ensued. The pilgrims, which were forbidden, or reach the center of the city, but the strikers were easily dispersed by cavalry charges.

ROOSEVELT MAY VIEW JAMESTOWN Secretary Shepperd Says President Will Be Invited.

Mr. Gwynn T. Shepperd, secretary of the Jamestown Exposition Company, is in Richmond for a conference with General Lee, the president of the company. In an interview with a Times-Dispatch reporter at Murphy's Hotel last night, Mr. Shepperd expressed himself as well satisfied with the outlook in the Senate. He thought the Senate fully realized the importance of the measure, and would be prompt to pass the appropriation bill.

"There is a movement on foot now to invite President Roosevelt to visit Hampton Roads when he goes to the University of Virginia in June. If the President accepts, it is proposed to take him on a trip to Jamestown Island, so that he may see for himself the advantages this section presents for holding this great celebration."

TENEMENT HOUSE FIRE Three Persons Burned to Death and Others Badly Injured.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 8.—Three persons met death in a Monroe Street tenement house fire today, and two others were severely but not fatally burned. The dead: YETTA BROWNSTEIN, thirty years of age; ROSE BROWNSTEIN, aged four years; CELLA BROWNSTEIN, aged four years.

Injured: Annie Brownstein, aged forty years; Lazarus Brownstein, aged sixty-six years.

The fire was caused by the overturning of a stove in one of the rooms on the second floor, occupied by the family of Morris Goldberg. The Brownsteins' rooms were on the third floor. Escape by way of the stairs was cut off by the flames, which spread so rapidly that the young woman and the two children, who were in a rear room, were burned to death, despite the heroic efforts of the firemen to rescue them.

Mystery surrounds the disappearance of $25 from Swartz's saloon, Broad and Seventh streets, last Wednesday night, and the detectives are now engaged in trying to ascertain who is guilty of having taken it. There seems little doubt but that the store was entered by a man, the money taken and the thief departing unobserved.
